

MONDAY MORNING, Dec. 2, 1844.

FOREIGN PAPERS.—FACTS. The New York American Ensign gives some interesting almshouse statistics, from which we make the following extracts:

During the week ending the 26th of October, there were admitted into the Almshouse 90 persons—63 of whom were foreigners, 27 natives.

During the week ending November 2d, 98, 68 foreigners, 30 natives.

During the week ending November 9th, 95, 69 foreigners, 26 natives.

During the week ending November 16th, 118, 77 foreigners, 41 natives.

During the week ending November 23d, 108, 70 foreigners, 38 natives.

The same paper also says—"It has repeatedly occurred that passengers have been sent up from the ship that brought them to the Almshouse. There were at one time no less than 16 patients in the Hospital at Bellevue, all of whom came in one ship."

Here is positive evidence that the poor-houses of Europe are being emptied upon our shores. But we need not travel farther than our own city for the proof of this fact, or the truth of the assertion, that the convicts of Europe are transported to this country, to become citizens and to exercise the elective franchise. To this corrupting influence the American people have not only tamely submitted; but to serve party purposes, have taken these criminals and pampers by the hand and paid for their naturalization. This is a liberal policy with a vengeance—a policy which will destroy our institutions, or place them under the control of the offcasts of the old countries. Against further persistence in this degrading and ruinous policy every citizen of the United States, native or adopted, who possesses self-respect or regard for the welfare of his children, should solemnly protest. We must have laws to guard us against the imposition, or we shall deserve our fate.—Let a memorial to the legislature be drafted and circulated for signatures, asking for the prompt passage of all laws necessary to protect us for the future, and we predict that it will be signed by nine-tenths of the citizens of the State.

ATTRACTIVE LECTURES AND EXHIBITION. Mr. Keevil, of the Royal Polytechnic Institution, London, will deliver, this evening, in the saloon of the Law Buildings, the first of a course of four lectures on the Polarization of Light and on Astronomy, in which he will introduce his extraordinary Planetarium, by which he will exhibit the movements of the several planets of the solar system in their orbits, together with their accompanying satellites. He will also illustrate with diagrams, &c. He cannot speak, excepting by hearsay, of the talents of the lecturer, but learn that he has given general satisfaction in other cities. He should be visited by all who are fond of scientific investigations, or who have a taste for the sublime study of astronomy.

We confess that we do not perfectly comprehend what is meant by the "Polarization of Light," nor do we adopt the undulatory theory of light, which appears to be maintained by Mr. Keevil; but we have "ears to hear," and minds to be convinced, if we be in error; and shall therefore listen to Mr. Keevil's lectures with the desire to be improved. They will afford an agreeable mode of passing an evening, and we anticipate that Mr. K. will have full audiences. After hearing him we shall be better able to speak of the merits of the lectures and exhibition. We refer readers to the advertisement in another column.

EXCELLENT ADVICE. The Dublin Freeman's Journal of late date, contains the following paragraph in relation to immigrants from Ireland to this country, which gives advice that should be followed, not only by natives of Ireland, but by persons from all other countries who design to make the United States their home. The Journal says:—"It is better for Irishmen in America to spread through the country than to congregate in cities; and, until they have resided long enough in America to be thoroughly acquainted with the merits of American politics, and learn to act and feel as Americans solely, it were better to waive any political privileges they may acquire than listen to the solicitations of men who will urge on them to vote as Irishmen. Even towards the abolition party, Irishmen when naturalized in America should feel, not as Irishmen, but as Americans. The question is American—their privilege is conferred on the voters as naturalized Americans, not as Irishmen, and as Americans they should use it."

THE NEXT HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.—The elections so far indicate a whig gain of three members and a Democratic loss of nine. Eighty-eight members are yet to be elected.—So far as elected they stand 81 democrats, 48 whigs and 6 American Republicans. The States and districts yet to elect, are represented in the present Congress by 30 Whigs and 58 Democrats. The State which next elects, unless to fill vacancies, is New Hampshire, in March, 1845.

CONGRESS. Should there be a quorum in both Houses of Congress to-day, we may expect the message of the president to-morrow. We have made the necessary arrangements to have copies of it for distribution at our counter immediately on the arrival of the cars from Washington.

THE SABBATH MANUAL. A small, but excellent volume, bearing the above title, has been issued by the American Tract Society, New York. It is the production of the Rev. J. Edwards, D. D. The author has enforced the necessity of keeping holy the Sabbath day by a variety of convincing arguments and facts; and no one can rise from the perusal of his book without being satisfied that the due observance of the Sabbath in accordance with the Divine command, is not only of spiritual, but also of temporal benefit. Most sincerely do we wish that the Divine injunction were more generally obeyed in this city; we should not then be compelled to record the numerous riots and rows for the perpetration of which that day appears to have been heretofore selected. We would advise every person who may feel disposed to desecrate the Sabbath, to purchase and carefully read this small volume by Dr. Edwards. It is for sale at the Tract Depository, No. 15 South Calvert street.

MEMORANDA OF FOREIGN TRAVEL; containing notices of a Pilgrimage through some of the principal States of Western Europe—by Robert J. Beckenridge, D. D.—two volumes—published by D. Owen & Son, 52 Baltimore street. The preface states, that "the contents of these volumes were originally written for, and published in, the Baltimore Literary and Religious Magazine," of which the author was one of the founders and the senior editor.—Those who have read this work as originally published, will be glad to have it in a more compact and durable form; and we have no doubt the distinguished talents of its author will insure for it an extensive circulation.

WANDERING JEW, No. 6, received from Messrs. Armstrong & Berry. We have read the work, and consider the time spent in its perusal as lost. We wish that the circulation of M. Sue's works could be confined to the other side of the water.

On account of the unfavorable state of the weather for travelling, the Oursing Outing will be exhibited in this city for a very few days more. It is worth about the cheapest exhibition of the day—only 12 1-2 cents each.

CITY INTELLIGENCE. Another Parolee by the Governor. As good sentiments upon the watchtowers of observation it becomes our duty to record another parolee by the Governor of our State. Conrad Smith, who was convicted a few days ago in the city court of stealing a frame of Daguerretype miniature from Mr. Robinson, was paroled on Saturday last. Would it not save time and trouble to the Governor by opening at once the doors of the Penitentiary, and by granting a general Nolle Prosequere to all prisoners now indicted and not yet tried, and be the means of saving considerable expense to the tax-paying citizens.

A disengaged jury discharged. The jury in the case of George Freyberger, tried before the City Court, for the murder of watchman Metfash, who retired under charge of a bailiff on Thursday, about 3 o'clock, came into court on Saturday, about the same hour, declared their utter hopelessness of ever coming to a decision, and were discharged. Freyberger will consequently undergo a new trial.

Rev. Chas. T. Torrey. It will be seen by reference to the proceedings of the City Court, which are given in another portion of this paper, that the trial of this individual has not yet closed. Geo. K. Richardson, Esq. will make the concluding address before the jury this morning.

A Warning to Boys. Yesterday six boys were arrested and brought to the police office by officer Jordan, charged with being noisy and riotous at the corner of Fawn and President streets. After some excellent advice administered to them by Justice Schaeffer, they were severally placed under security to keep the peace for six months. The above officer also brought in in the course of the afternoon, three smaller boys, charged with the same offence at the corner of Plowman and Front sts.; they also gave security and were discharged.

Another Robbery at a Hotel. A valuable cloak, belonging to Mr. Dutton, was stolen from a room in the U. S. Hotel, (Bradshaw's), on Saturday evening. This is the fourth robbery that has happened at the above hotel in the course of the last week, and as yet no information has been obtained, whereby they can arrest the perpetrator. Since the robbery, the proprietor has had, in addition to the customary locks, bolts upon the door of every room, as a better security to the guests of the house.

Distinguished Arrival. The Hon. George M. Dallas, Vice President elect of the United States, was at Bradshaw's U. S. Hotel, on Saturday last; he left in the evening train for Washington.

The Alarm of Fire, yesterday, about noon, was occasioned by the burning of a chimney in the north-western part of the city.

Dividends. The Bank of Baltimore has declared a half yearly dividend of three per cent; and the Marine Bank a semi-annual dividend of three per cent.

Recovery of Stolen Goods. Officers Phillips and Jordan returned from Washington on Saturday morning with all the goods stolen from the store of Mr. Cohen, in Lombard st. The goods were found in the tavern of a Mr. Sand, where they were left by a lady who had arrived on Friday morning from Baltimore. The officers deserve great credit for their exertions, in the recovery of the goods, but regret that they could not get the thief, for when they arrived in the Metropolis the "lady-bird" had flown.

Juvenile Gamblers. Officers Armons, McKewon and Wason, made a descent upon the tavern of Mr. Cruse, in Gay-st. near Aisquith, on Friday evening last, and arrested three youths, between the ages of 15 and 18, who were engaged in playing dominos and cards. They were taken to the middle district watch-house, where they were kept for the night.—Mr. Cruse will undergo an examination this afternoon before Justice Schaeffer, for permitting gambling on his premises.

Parole. The Independent Blues, Captain Watson, attended by their band, will parade at their armory at 2 P. M., to-day.

Final Commitment. The Spaniards Vincent Low Rouse, and his accomplice Ford, underwent an examination at the jail on Saturday afternoon, and were fully committed to take their trial at the February term of the Criminal Court, for the murder of the German, Henry Henshell. They are charged with murder in the first degree.

Accident. We regret to learn that Mr. John Quinn, Jr., Esq., the gentlemanly conductor of the Frederick train, met with an accident on Saturday, which will compel him to "lay up in ordinary" for a short time. His knee was crushed in a very bad manner. We are pleased to learn that the physicians pronounce him a speedy return to his duties.

Handsome Improvement. Among the many handsome buildings recently erected in the south-western section of our city, we notice three fine brick edifices—two story high, with attic, pantry and back building—on the south-west corner of Cove and Hollins streets; two of them are 20 feet front and 34 feet deep.—Col. Jacob Deems is the owner of the one on the corner, and George Law, Esq., the other two. They were designed and built by Messrs. Bricklayer, Mr. William Hutton. The materials of which they are built, are of the very best, and the workmanship executed in a neat and elegant style.

(Reported for the American Republican.) BALTIMORE TYPOGRAPHICAL SOCIETY. The 14th anniversary meeting of this Society was held on Saturday evening, at Military Hall, when the following officers were elected to serve during the ensuing year: President—JOSEPH SMITH. Vice President—FREDERICK YOUNG. Treasurer—JOHN F. COOK. Recording Secretary—JOHN W. PEREGRINE. Corresponding Secy.—EDWARD W. DAVIES.

After the transaction of all the business pertaining to the annual meeting, the members proceeded to the Saloon of the Law Buildings, kept by Mr. McCormick, where a supper had been prepared for the occasion under the superintendance of the committee of arrangements. After the removal of the cloth, the following regular toasts were announced in the order in which they follow:

1. The Day we Celebrate.—The anniversary of union, good feeling and harmony of the craft. May it be perpetuated until the end of time. Air—Away with Melancholy.

2. The President of the United States and Heads of Department. Air—The President's March.

3. The Army and Navy of the United States.—Our country's pride—though often toasted, yet never overdone. Air—The Star Spangled Banner.

4. Washington.—The embodiment of all that is noble, virtuous and great. The posthumous works of his character will be handed down from generation to generation, and posterity will bless his name. Air—Washington's March.

5. Benjamin Franklin.—The man born to adorn the age in which he lived. The imposition of philosophy and honesty, whose rare genius equally illustrated the most common truisms of every day life, and the most occult mysteries of science. Air—The Light of Other Days.

6. Hezekiah Niles.—The practical printer—the faithful chronicler—the benefactor of his craft. His memory is embalmed in the hearts of the members whose profession he adorned. "None knew him but to love him, None named him but to praise." Air—Know Ye the Lord.

7. Professor Morse.—He writes with a pen of lightning—defies space, and takes no note of time; his truly surprising discoveries have at once adorned the science to which he is devoted, and conferred an honor and a blessing on his country. Air—Swift as the Flash.

8. Faust.—His name is registered in the annals of printing. His genius gave to the world the "art preservative of all arts," the art of printing. His good work is for an age, but for all time. German Waltz.

9. The Press.—The liberty of the press—May it be held as sacred as the liberty of the people. Quick Step.

10. Our Country.—"The land of the free and the home of the brave." Though politically divided, her sons will be found firmly united, when assailed by a foreign foe. Air—Hail Columbia.

11. The Surviving Defenders of Baltimore.—Their noble deeds are recorded in the archives of our memory. May they live to see that Monument at North Point record their heroic conduct. Air—All Hail to the Brave and Free.

12. The Signers of the Declaration of Independence.—The great confederacy of '76, which gave to our country independence, "liberty and the pursuit of happiness." Their history is chronicled in monuments of stone. Air—Yankee Doodle.

13. Woman.—The exemplar of excellence—the type of loveliness—the star of hope—the flower of youth and beauty—"The fairest sight so delightful as woman, The delicate source of all our joys; Who a lovely and kind, and ever-aid of a mind, She is, by heaven, no trifling toy." Air—The Maid to be Dear Woman.

These were all drunk with applause, followed by delightful and exhilarating music from the fine band of the Independent Greys, Capt. Minnick, whose presence on the festive occasion tended in no small degree to increase the unbounded hilarity and genuine good feeling which prevailed during the evening.

A great number of volunteer toasts, highly appropriate to the occasion were drunk, but the crowded state of our columns precludes their publication. An excellent song—"Hurrah for the Printers"—Air, All on Hobbies—written by Charles Soran, Esq., was sung in fine style. It is in the following words:

You ask for a song that is not out of place, 'Tis I'll sing of our craft that work at the case, Like a song of dear woman or Fourth of July, It is a glorious theme and will never be dry, Hurra for the Printers, Hurra for the Printers, Hurra for the Printers, Hurra and Hurra.

Old Faust was their father you very well know, Who learnt from the devil the art of the press, And all his success as you see by their prints, Have raised the Old Boy with the world ever since, Hurra for the Printers, &c.

From Kingdom they've knocked down most all of his props, Old craftmen they've changed to the craft of the shops, For labor now rules and mankind will be freed, By the handmaid of Freedom, the Press, it's decreed, Hurra for the Printers, &c.

Religion and Science, and Art are it's brothers, For in it is that preserves all its others; 'Tis the historian and Poet, of fame it's the fame, Were it not for the Press their great deeds to proclaim, Hurra for the Printers, &c.

The weapon of Truth and the champion of worth, 'Tis a light to mankind as the sun is to earth, It reflects, it produces, it nourishes and blesses, Then shout for the heroes that work at the Presses, Hurra for the Printers, &c.

But though darkness they've banished, they're still in the night, Of the secret that gives them their glory and might, Which is, though I own it, 'Tis the art of the Press, 'Tis they are the devils for handling the stick, Hurra for the Printers, &c.

It was that same stick that such wonderful things, The setting up subjects and knocking down Kings, By blessing and raising mankind every way, So God bless the Printers, hurra and hurra, Hurra for the Printers, &c.

Now I've told you plain truths that you all know better, But wit quit, though the theme would afford many more, With a wish for a summary way, that no Printer, May ever conceal the fond hopes of the Printer, Hurra for the Printers, &c.

Thus the evening passed off delightfully, as flashes of wit, excellence of sentiment, melody of song, and beauty of eloquence, followed each other in quick and rapid succession. All seemed delighted and pleased, joyous and contented; and when the hour of separation arrived, the only regret expressed was that "old father Time" had moved on with such resistless speed as to make it necessary to leave the festive board for home. May all live to see many such anniversaries.
