

Senator Barrow appeared in his seat to-day. Messages in writing were received from the President, merely of an executive character; one, however, was read, and conveyed intelligence of the settlement by the Republic of Venezuela of the indemnity in the case of the brig Morris.

Memorials were presented by the following gentlemen, viz: Mr. Crittenden, for the reduction of postage.

Mr. Johnson, for the remission of duties on certain railroad iron.

Mr. Huntington, from the American Statistical Association, asking congressional correction of certain errors of the 6th census.

Mr. Benton, concerning the bones of the mastodon, dug up in Missouri.

Leave was granted for the withdrawal from the files of the Senate of papers belonging to individuals, to Messrs. Bagby, Woodbridge, Barrow, Phelps, Rives and Huntington.

Mr. Huntington, on leave, introduced a bill relating to the appointment of assistants to the Postmaster General.

Mr. Bayard, from the naval committee, introduced a bill for the relief of James Duffy.

Also, for the settlement of the title to the Pea Patch Island.

Mr. Pearce, from the same committee, reported a bill for the relief of the heirs of Robert Fulton.

Texas. Mr. McDuffie, leave being granted, introduced his joint resolution for the annexation of Texas.

This instrument provides that the compact of annexation and union signed by J. C. Calhoun, on the part of the United States, and J. Van Zandt, on the part of Texas, on the 12th of April last, be the law of the United States so soon as the supreme authorities of Texas have agreed to the same; and that it shall be the duty of the President of the United States, when this takes place, to announce it by proclamation, &c.

On motion of Mr. Archer this was referred to the committee on Foreign Affairs.

Mr. Benton then rose, amidst the smiles of those around, and gave notice, that to-morrow he would ask leave to bring in a bill to provide for the annexation of Texas.

On motion of Mr. Berrien the Senate took a short executive session, and then adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. The proceedings of the House was to-day commenced by the introduction by Mr. Broadhead of a resolution directing an inquiry into the amount of dividends in the U. S. Bank whose charter expired in 1811, and other matters therewith connected. The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Adams, by leave, introduced a bill in favor of the owners of the schr. Industry.

On motion, 5000 copies of the Report of the Navy Department, in relation to the use of coal in the Navy, were ordered to be printed.

A bill was introduced for bringing into the market the mineral lands in Wisconsin and Iowa. It was read twice, and referred to the committee on public lands.

At this point in the proceedings, Mr. Giddings insisted upon the regular order of business, whereupon the Chair proceeded to call upon the States for petitions. A great variety were offered, and among them one by Mr. Adams, from the American Statistical Association, in relation to the errors of the last census.

On motion of Mr. Adams, a committee of nine were raised to take into consideration this memorial, and Mr. A. moved its printing, but the motion to print was laid on the table by yeas 101 to nays 79.

Here Mr. John Tyler, Jr. delivered a message in writing from the President.

Mr. Adams then presented a petition of certain citizens of N. Y., in favor of the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia.

Mr. Black, of Ga., raised the question of reception.

Mr. Brown, of Ia., moved to lay this question on the table.

Mr. Holmes, of S. C., demanded the yeas and nays on this motion.

The question of reception was not laid on the table—yeas 90, nays 99. On the question, Shall the petition be received?—the vote was yeas 107, nays 81; so it was determined to receive it.

Mr. C. J. Ingersoll after some question of order, declined to vote, as also did Mr. Black, of Ga.

A motion to lay the petition on the table was lost, yeas 88, nays 99.

On motion of Mr. Adams, who was at length victorious over all technical troubles, the District was referred to the committee on the District of Columbia.

Mr. Stewart, of Conn., presented sundry resolutions adopted by the Legislature of that State in favor of the present tariff, Distribution, and other cardinal points of whig policy.

A number of petitions in reference to reduction of Postage, Naturalization, &c., were presented.

At 2 o'clock the House adjourned.

The Standing Committees of the Senate, announced yesterday, are substantially the same as last year, with these exceptions:

On Foreign Relations—Mr. Morehead, in place of Mr. Tallmadge.

On Commerce—Messrs. Haywood, and Foster, of New York, in place of Messrs. King and Wright.

On Manufactures—Mr. Upham, in place of Mr. Morehead.

On the Militia—Mr. Ashley, in place of Mr. Fulton.

On Naval Affairs—Messrs. Pearce, Johnson and Dickinson, in place of Messrs. Choate, Haywood and Henderson.

On Public Lands—Mr. Phelps, in place of Mr. Tallmadge.

On Private Land Claims—Messrs. Breese and Pearce, in place of Messrs. Haywood and Sprague.

On Indian Affairs—Mr. Johnson in place of Mr. Morehead.

On Claims—Mr. Dayton in place of Mr. Wright.

On the Post Office—Mr. Niles in place of Mr. Fulton.

On Roads and Canals—Mr. Lewis in place of Mr. King.

On the District of Columbia—Mr. Woodbury in place of Mr. King.

On the Library—Mr. Pearce in place of Mr. Berrien.

vented the naturalization laws as an abuse needing correction. The jail of Lewis county, N. Y. was recently fired by one of the prisoners, but the flames were soon extinguished. Mr. Brower, whose disappearance from the Howard House, N. Y., we noticed a few days since, has returned, urgent business having called him out of the city. Mr. Steiger of Thompsonville, Ct., having been caught in the machinery of his factory, was saved from death by his father, who was in an adjoining room, and finding the machinery out of order, immediately stopped the engine, without waiting to investigate the cause of the derangement.

There was a collision on the Fitchburg railroad on Saturday, between two trains, by which the fireman was slightly injured.

Gildersleeve, Greenhalgh, Navils, Taylor and McCabe will contend for the $1000 purse on the 16th inst. A four mile foot race is come off on the same day.

FIGHT ABOUT POLITICS. At Thetford, Vt., a few days since, the two political parties got involved in a collision about Liberty Poles, each party cutting down the poles erected by the other, which resulted in blows, and one man is said to have been dangerously injured by a fracture of the skull.

COMMERCIAL. [Reported for the American Republican.] BALTIMORE MARKET, Dec. 10, 1844.

Cattle. The sales of cattle yesterday at the drove yard show another slight improvement. 600 head were offered, and 480 taken by butchers and packers, at prices ranging from $1.75 to $2.75 per 100 lbs. on the hoof, equal to $3.50 to $5.25 net. Live Hogs continue scarce, and are selling at $4 1/4 per 100 lbs. on the hoof, equal to $8.50 to $9.00 net.

Flour. A fair to good improvement to notice in the flour market. Sales to a limited extent, from store, of Howard street, good mixed brands, are making at the prevailing rate of $4.25. Dealers continue to hold out for an improvement to notice in the sales of City Mills flour, which is held at $4.00.

Grain. There is a large supply of wheat in market, and prices have slightly receded. We now quote sales of good prime Md. reds at $2.50 cts. and of inferior at $2.25 cts. 3000 Northern reds were sold yesterday at $2.50 cts. The supply of corn is also large, with very heavy sales at 37 1/2 cts. for white, and 35 1/2 cts. for yellow. Sales of Md. rye at 67 cts. and of Pennsylvania at 65 cts. 36 1/2 cts.

Whiskey. This article is in demand at 35 cts for bbls, and 23 for hbls.

[Correspondence of the United States Gazette.] New York, Monday, P. M.

The foreign advices have not had a favorable effect upon our cotton market; the sales to-day are 600 bales, at prices in favor of the buyer. Western Flour is in fair demand; sales of Genesee are made at $4.62; Ohio and Michigan $4.62; Southern kinds are quite inactive. 2500 bushels Long Island wheatsold at $1 1/4; 3000 Northern reds at $1 1/4; 2000 bushels Eastern reds at $1 1/4; 2000 bushels Southern reds at $1 1/4; 1500 bushels New Northern reds at $1 1/4; 6000 lbs. South Sea wholenote brought 42c; 100 barrels whiskey at 37 1/2 cts for western barrels and 34 for State's prison. The news is considered more favorable for the provision market, and holders are very firm; 300 barrels Mess Pork sold at $9.25. The situation of affairs with Mexico has affected our stock market, and prices are depressed. Exchanges are steady and in moderate demand.
