NEW YEAR'S FESTIVAL OF THE LIGHT-ST.

Messrs. Editors:—I enjoyed the pleasure of attending the New Year's Festival of the Light Street Institute, on the evening of the 1st inst., in compliance with the invitation of its gentlemanly Principal, the Rev. Mr. Deshields; and deem it due the community to express, briefly, the very favorable impression made upon my own mind, and doubtless upon the minds of all present, concerning the exercises and entertainment of the occasion.

The Festival was held in the Sabbath School Room, attached to the Light-st. Church. When I entered the apartment, a few minutes past seven o'clock, I found it already crowded with a select audience of ladies and gentlemen, the immediate patrons and friends of the School. Festoons of evergreens and flowers enchantingly decorated the walls and encircled the pictures. This, as I understood, was the handy work of a few fair ladies, whose magic touch, you know, can at any time, make even the lowly rose look lovelier still. Surrounded by a rich profusion of floral wreaths, hung immediately over the stage, a magnificent portrait of Washington, to which the youthful speakers more than once alludingly referred in "thoughts that breathe and words that burn."

How commendable the admiration of our youth, so universally felt, for the character of our glorious Washington! This spirit, duly cultivated, will prove the salvation of our happy country. Euphatically, Washington, "though dead, yet speaketh."
I arrived in time to hear but the conclusion of the Introductory Address, by Chas. Greenwood. This was an original composition, fraught with good sense, and, in point of style, judging from the part I had the good fortune to hear, elegant. The quiet and collected manner of this Speaker, strongly reminded me of Prof. Emory, of Carlisle.

The next piece on the schedule was "Christmas Times," recited by Master Wm. J. Hiss, who performed his task with a sprightliness, which seemed to say, that he had more than a theoretic acquaintance with the beneficial visitings of St. Nicholas to his juvenile friends.—Then came the "Dialogue of Catharine and Aurelius," spoken by Masters E. H. Pullen and C. B. Young, with such pathos and fervor as showed that the spirit of the respective parts had been thoroughly studied. "A Touch of the Sublime" convulsed the audience with laughter during its entire recitation, and yet the speaker, J. P. Shipley, in the true Demosthenic spirit, held on the even tenor of his way, unmoved by all the surrounding tumult.

"The Guardian and Ward," a dialogue, was admirably recited by Masters J. C. Balderson and F. Hanson. It was also "The Dignity of Human Nature," by N. D. S. Wilson. At this interim, the courteous Principal and his worthy assistant were most agreeably surprised by the presentation from the young gentlemen of the School by the hand of Master Pullen, to the former, of a superbly bound and gilt quarto Bible, and to the latter a smaller one, equally rich and beautiful. These presents were received with impressive and appropriate addresses on the part of the Teachers.

Then commenced the discussion of the very interesting and important question, "Ought immigration to this country to be encouraged?" Opened in the affirmative by C. Greenwood, whose remarks were pertinent and forcible.—Henry G. Smith rose on the negative. He announced that he then appeared before a public audience the second time in his life. Nevertheless, soon forgetting his embarrassment, he threw his whole soul into the discussion, and made a stirring argument against throwing open our doors, and inviting the miserable paupers and incendiaries of the old world to a participation in all the privileges and immunities of our happy land. His speech, which was extempore, elicited immense applause. But being thought of a party cast, though this the young gentleman disavowed, the principal very properly interdicted the further discussion of the subject.

Among the other selections were Lafayette, spoken by Master Rider, and that excellent old dialogue, the Country School Master. This was finely performed. The characters of Landlord, School-master and Parson, by J. M. Larkin, C. Greenwood and J. P. Shipley, were sustained to the life. In passing, I may be allowed to say that this Master Greenwood bids fair to become an ornament of his country.
The concluding Address, original, by E. H. Pullen was a treat in itself. Indeed the composition was rich, chaste and elegant—his theme "The Past." His youthful eloquence reached the heart and warmed it. He concluded by inviting the audience to the sumptuous entertainment of confectionaries and fruits spread on the tables, under the superintendence of Mr. Butcher, whose pre-eminence in his profession is doubtless already sufficiently known to your readers. The repast was rich and abundant, sufficient for the entire audience of more than two hundred.

After this delicious repast the audience retired, all pleased, delighted with the entertainment of the evening, feeling, as I doubt not every one did, that such a School under such Teachers well merits the confidence and support of an enlightened and Christian community.

EXECUTION AT WORCESTER, MASSACHUSETTS. The extreme sentence of the law was executed on Friday upon Thomas Barrett, convicted of the murder of Mrs. Ruth Houghton, an elderly woman, who lived in Limeburg. The execution took place in the jail at Worcester, Mass., and was strictly private, only about twenty persons being present, who were invited by the sheriff to witness the awful spectacle.

REPORT ON COAL. The National Intelligence of Saturday has a notice of the Report of Professor Johnson, which has been submitted to Congress, on the qualities of various descriptions of Coals, and their adaptation to naval and other purposes. We have room only for the following extracts:

"In reference to the several ranks of coals above mentioned, we find the following remarks directly applicable to the naval service:—
"For the purposes of steam navigation, the rank most important to be considered is the fifth, in which the coals stand in the order of their evaporative power under given bulks. "This is obviously true, since, if other things be equal, the length of a voyage must depend on the amount of evaporative power afforded by the fuel which can be stowed in the bunkers of a steamer, always of limited capacity.—
"At the head of the fifth rank stands Atkinson & Templeman's Cumberland coal, on the right of which is 566-2, the number of pounds of steam produced by one cubic foot of that coal. This number used as a divisor for the whole series, gives the relative values as follows:

Relative values.	1,000
*1. Atkinson & Templeman's	1,000
2. Beaver Meadow Slope, No. 5.	982
3. Peach Mountain	955

42. Coke of Midlothian	499
43. Dry pine wood	175
The Nos. marked by * are specimens of Cumberland coal.

It will thus be seen, that the Coal of Allegheny county stands No. 1 for Naval purposes; and it only remains for the State to adopt such measures as will give this immense body of coal ready and cheap access to a market.

THE POPULAR VOTE. We annex a full and complete statement of the official popular vote in the several States at the late Presidential Election:

CLAY.	POLK.	BIRNEY.
Maine,	34,346	45,719	4,837
New Hampshire,	17,966	37,169	4,161

Louisiana,	13,083	15,782	—
Florida,	31,251	41,269	—
Arkansas,	5,504	9,546	—
Total,	1,297,912	1,336,196	62,137

Mr. Polk's majority over Mr. Clay, exclusive of South Carolina, is 38,284. If to this be added 20,000 as the majority for Mr. Polk in South Carolina, whose vote is not included in the above, the Legislature of that State joining over Mr. Clay is 58,284.
The Abolition vote, as stated above, is 62,127, and exceeds Mr. Polk's majority over Mr. Clay by 3,843. Mr. Polk, it will thus be seen, has been elected President of the United States by a minority of the popular vote.—Amr.

FIRE AT ST. JOHNS, CANADA. Mr. Sterling, a passenger, informs the Albany Atlas that a fire broke out in St. Johns, on Tuesday morning, about 3 o'clock, which threatened to be very serious. It commenced in the large leather store of Mr. Wheeler, and extended to the Brewery of Mr. Thompson, destroying in its progress the office of Mr. Percy, custom house agent. The wind was high at the time, and although the military with their engines were on the ground, little could be done to check the flames. This is the fourth time Mr. Wheeler has been burnt out.

ATTEMPTED FORGERY. An individual attempted on Thursday last to commit a forgery on the Harrisburg Bank for $600, in the name of Messrs. Pratt & Son. The cashier suspected a forgery, and stepped out of the Bank to have the name more closely examined. During his absence, the criminal became alarmed and suddenly made off. He was subsequently arrested, however, and committed to prison.

SUICIDE. Mr. John Fuller, a resident of Earlville, N. J., committed suicide in Morrisville, on Thursday morning last, by hanging himself with a bridle, in the barn of Henry Dewey.

BISHOP UNDERDONK'S CASE. The following is a copy of the official record of the sentence:

Official Sentence in the Case of Bishop Underdonk.—The Court of Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, convened under the authority of Canon III of 1844 of the General Convention of said Church, for the trial of the presentment of the Right Reverend Benjamin Tredwell Underdonk, Bishop of the Diocese of New York, by the Right Reverend William Meade, Bishop of the Diocese of Virginia, the Right Reverend James Hervey Otey, Bishop of the Diocese of Tennessee, and the Right Reverend Stephen Elliott, junior, Bishop of the Diocese of Georgia, upon certain charges and specifications in said presentment set forth; having fully heard the allegations and testimonies of the parties, and deliberately considered the same, and the presentment contained therein, and declared that in their opinion the accused is guilty of certain of the charges and specifications contained in the presentment; which declaration of a majority of the court has been reduced to writing, and signed by those who assented thereto, and has been pronounced in the presence of the parties; and the court having proceeded, after hearing the accused, to pass sentence upon the accused in conformity with the provisions of said canon, and having determined that the penalty to be affixed and pronounced in said case shall be that of suspension.

It is hereby ordered and declared that the sentence of this court upon the respondent, is suspension from the office of a Bishop in the Church of God, and from all the functions of the sacred ministry; and this court do hereby solemnly pronounce and declare that the Right Reverend Benjamin Tredwell Underdonk is suspended from all exercise of his Episcopal and ministerial functions; and do order that the notice of this sentence, required by said canon, be communicated by the presiding Bishop, under his hand and seal, to the ecclesiastical authority of every diocese of this Church.

Given under my hand and seal this 3rd day of January, A. D. 1845.

PHILANDER CHASE, Senior Bishop and President of the Court.

A correspondent of the New York Express says:—The presentment contained eight specifications. One was not tried, the witness, a lady, refusing to testify. On the third the respondent was not guilty, two of the Bishops, however, being in favor of a verdict of degree of guilt below the terms of the specification. On the six remaining specifications the vote was as follows on the question of "guilty."

Ayes—Bishop Eastburn, Hopkins, Henshaw, Brownell, Lee, Mellvane, Chase, Johns, Smith, Freeman, Polk—11
Nays—Bishop Delancy, Doane, Whittingham, Ives, Gadsden, Kemper—6.

The three presenting Bishops were, Meade, Otey and Elliott, who were debarred from voting.

Bishop Underdonk then sent in a paper, in which he declared that, in the matters charged upon him, he was entirely innocent of all impurity of motives and intention, and submitting himself to the decision of the Bench.

The question was then taken as to what sentence should be pronounced. There are three penalties prescribed by the canon—abandonment, suspension and deposition.

FIRST BALLOT.
For Deposition.—Chase, Hopkins Mellvane, Polk, Lee, Johns, Eastburn, Henshaw—3.
Suspension.—Brownell, Smith, Freeman—3.
Abandonment.—Ives, Doane, Kemper, Delancy, Gadsden, Whittingham—6.

SECOND BALLOT.
Deposition.—Chase, Hopkins, Smith, Mellvane, Polk, Johns, Henshaw—7.
Suspension.—Brownell, Gadsden, Whittingham, Lee, Eastburn, Freeman—6.
Abandonment.—Ives, Doane, Kemper, Delancy—4.

THIRD BALLOT.
Deposition.—Chase, Hopkins, Smith, Mellvane, Polk, Lee, Johns, Eastburn—8.
Suspension.—Brownell, Ives, Doane, Kemper, Delancy, Gadsden, Whittingham, Henshaw, Freeman—9.

So it was determined to suspend the Bishop from the exercise of the functions of the office, and the House of Bishops declared the sentence, as given above.

From the New York American.
Suspension divests, not the offender of his spiritual character—nor of his rights, privileges, or perquisites as a Bishop. It only interdicts, while it lasts, the exercise of those rights and functions, leaving him his salary and title; when removed, the Bishop is, in all things, reinstated.

Imposed perpetual, indeed, suspension would virtually amount to deposition, so far as the exercise of any Episcopal function is concerned; but then what becomes of the Diocese?

There can be no Bishop elected, because there is no vacancy—and there can be no Assistant Bishop, because the canon only allows of the election of an Assistant, in the two specific cases, "of old age, or other permanent causes of infirmity"—neither of which, in the sense of the canon, exists here.

FRANKLIN INSTITUTE OF FELL'S POINT. It must not be generally known that the Franklin Institute of Fell's Point hold their regular weekly meetings at the Wesleyan school room, Bond street, one door from Bank. This institution is, we believe, the only one of the kind on Fell's Point. It has belonging to it one of the finest Philosophical Apparatus that is in this city; also a large collection of beautiful stuffed birds, specimens of minerals, with a collection of choice books.

The debate that is to take place on this (Tuesday) evening, at 7 o'clock, promises to be one of a very high order; the question is—"Are the souls of all men immortal?" In the affirmative, the Rev. Dr. Mercer has been appointed; on the negative, Dr. H. D. McCullough, of the Point. The people of the Point and of the town may receive, a rare treat by attending the meetings of this association, they being entirely free to the public. This query is one that perhaps the majority of this community have never heard discussed; in fact, perhaps never had a doubt in reference to the immortality of the souls of all men, yet by attending and listening to this debate, they may and will hear views advanced which they will have to admit to be ingenious at least, if they cannot assent to their validity as theoretical conclusions.

DEATH OF A VETERAN. The Boston papers announce the death of the venerable Major Benjamin Russell, in the 83d year of his age.

(Reported for the American Republican.)
MARYLAND LEGISLATURE.

ANNAPOLIS, Jan. 4, 1845.
A call was made on the Register of Wills and Clerk of Baltimore County Court, and the Clerk of Baltimore City Court, for a report on oath, of the number of years that they have been in office, amount of their receipts, and amount paid for Clerk hire, &c.

The committee appointed to inspect the Governor's house, reported a resolution appropriating $3000 for repairing and furnishing that building, which was read, and after a little discussion passed.

A petition was presented from Jas. Broughton, of Cecil, praying to have a certain deed made valid.

A petition was also presented from citizens of Charles county, relative to the School Fund of said county.

Mr. Johnson, of Frederick, presented to the House the proceedings of a meeting in Frederick county, relative to several objects of policy having in view a relief from the burdens of taxation—such as the issue of government stock, the reduction of the number of delegates, &c. &c. Mr. Johnson submitted a resolution distributing the several subjects to the proper committees, where such committees have been appointed; and also submitted a resolution, requesting our Representatives and Senators in Congress to use their efforts in effecting at the earliest practicable moment, the passage of a law for the issue of $200,000,000 in Government Stock, to be apportioned among the States. This last resolution was made the special order of Tuesday next. The subject of reduction of the number of delegates was referred to a committee of one from each county and the city of Baltimore.

The speaker presented the report of John Warring, Esq., Inspector of tobacco warehouse No. 1, relative to monies paid into the treasury.

Leave was granted to report a bill for raising revenue, by imposing a tax on collateral inheritances, distributive shares, &c. &c.

Leave was also granted to report a bill to create a State board of equalization for equalizing the value of property in this State.

And to report a bill for defining the rights of plaintiffs and defendants in courts of appellate jurisdiction in this State.

And also to report a bill, relative to conjugal rights as regards property.

A committee was appointed to act with one from the Senate, and request the attendance of Thomas G. Pratt, Governor elect, on Monday next, at the Senate chamber, for the purpose of qualifying.

MURDER AND ARSON. A man named Kimnick, who kept a store near Valle's Mines, in Jefferson county, Missouri, was murdered about a fortnight ago, and after the murder had been committed, the house was set on fire. The perpetrators of the outrage had not been apprehended at the last accounts. Money was supposed to have been the object of the murder.

MARRIED WOMEN IN ALABAMA. A bill is now before the Senate of Alabama for the relief of married women, which empowers the Chancery Court, in certain cases, to declare married women free claimants. It appeared to be received with general favor by the members of the Senate.

COMMERCE OF NEW YORK. The arrivals from foreign ports at New York in 1844 is as follows:—471 ships; 351 barques, 929 brigs; 443 schooners; 3 sloops; 8 galleots; and 2 steamers. Total 2,208. The numbers of passengers arrived at New York during the same period is 61,002; increase over 1843, 15,700.

THE ANTI-RENTERS. The outrageous proceedings of the Anti-Renters in Columbia co., N. Y., it seems, have at length been checked. The strong arm of the civil power, aided by the military, have scattered the lawless bands of sham Indians, and there was at the last accounts from the Helderberg, every indication of a speedy termination of their unlawful doings. A number of ringleaders have been arrested, and it is hoped that they will be made to suffer for their offences against the laws.

THE HUTCHINSONS. Mr. Benjamin Hutchinson, whose death was recently announced, was not one of the band of singers whom we have so often listened to with delight, but an elder brother of these popular vocalists.

FIRE AND LOSS OF LIFE. The dwelling house of Mr. Simon Underhill, of Piermont, N. H., was burnt on Wednesday night last, at about 11 o'clock, and one of his children, a boy about ten years old, was so badly burnt that he died within a few hours.

THE MUTINY ON BOARD THE SHIP FARWELL. Six of the crew of this vessel, John Thompson, John Williams, Charles Young, James Muir, Daniel Riggan and Robert Bonnett, were committed for trial at Boston, on Wednesday, on the charge of endeavoring to make a revolt on board that ship in the Delaware.

Price for curing Toothache 25 cents; do. for filling, from 50 cents to $1. Teeth extracted for 25 cents, by new and improved instruments, which afford the least possible pain. n29-y

WHEN CATALINE attempted to overturn the liberties of Rome, he commenced by corrupting the morals of the youth; and although he did not succeed in his nefarious attempts, his name was branded with infamy. Various plans of treatment have been proposed for mental alienation with limited success, but for diseases of the physical frame a remedy has been discovered, which, in a large majority of cases, will relieve the patient of his sufferings, and if timely administered, cures the disease.

SANJO'S SARSAPILLA will perfectly cure diseases of the Mucous Membranes, Scrofula or King's Evil, Fever Sores, Postules and Pimples on the face; Rheumatism; obstinate Cutaneous Eruptions, and other diseases caused by an impure state of the blood.
