

For the Legislature.
To the Voters of Allegany County.
FELLOW-CITIZENS—I wish to be a member of the next House of Delegates, and if you honor me with an election, you may rest assured that in executing the trust I shall give you no cause to regret your confidence in me. I understand the interests of the people of Allegany county—at least, I will say, I think I understand the hearts of my democratic fellow citizens of the county; and I therefore feel justified in asking of them, no less than myself, that although these are much to humiliate our national pride in the present unhappy condition of our country, yet we still cling with hope and affection to the Government of the United States, trusting that the desolating march of civil war which is now afflicting us with its destructive and heart-rending consequences, will soon be arrested, and that we shall be again united by the restoration of the Union, and the consequent enjoyment of all the rights and privileges which are guaranteed to us and to our sister States by our existing Federal Constitution.

Should I be elected a member of the House of Delegates, before I can enter upon the duties of such office, our State Constitution requires me to take and subscribe an oath of office, the words following are a part, to wit: "I, Samuel M. Semmes, do hereby understand and accept the Constitution of the United States, and that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to the State of Maryland, and support the Constitution and Laws thereof; and that I will, to the best of my skill and judgment, diligently and faithfully perform the duties of the office of member of the House of Delegates according to the Constitution and Laws of this State."

An election conducted with this oath, our State Constitution declares that "any person swearing falsely in the premises, shall, on conviction thereof in a court of law, incur the penalties for wilful and corrupt perjury, whether or not the question whether or not the National Constitution shall be upheld or destroyed, you see from the oath which a member of our House of Delegates is required to take before he can enter upon the duties of his office, that he is not at liberty to approve or concur in any legislation having for its object a separation of the States as united under our Federal Constitution, but that it is made his duty in regard to the National Constitution to take the part of the General Government, and to support the Constitution of the United States."

Men, I know, of the old nullification school of politics used to contend that the duties of a member of the Constitution of the United States only bound a man to support the Constitution as he understood it, and therefore, if he understood the Constitution of the United States as concerning the right of secession, he was not bound to be executed by them separately at pleasure, then it was no violation of his oath to take the part of his State, should he renounce all obedience to the authority of the Union, and claim to act as a sovereign State. But deriving my knowledge of the Constitution from the teachings of Madison, Marshall, Webster, Taney and other great and good men whose expostions of the Constitution are respected as authoritative, and whose appreciation of the path to support the Constitution would oblige me not only to reject all nullification doctrines, but in the language of Washington to discountenance whatever may suggest the National Union can in any event be abandoned.

In conclusion, I will take the liberty of advising my democratic fellow citizens to attend to their party organization, and to avoid all new party names. Democracy, to me, is a time honored name, whose triumphs as detailed in history have ever thrilled my mind with delight, notwithstanding its occasional tribulations and reverses. It is truly the most eloquent of all political non-substantives, meaning as it does that form of government where the people are recognized as the rightful source of all power, and where public officers, instead of being the servants of the people, are recognized as the servants of the people, to whom they are accountable and by whom they are punishable for all abuses of their respective powers. The name of democracy has nothing to do with any kind of party organization, and unconditional unionism or peace partyism. We are all friends of the Union—all anxious for the speedy restoration of peace to our distracted country. It was only a few days ago, at the call of the Congress of the United States, our Christian Churches of all denominations were opened, and the people of all parties united in prayer to God for the return of Union and peace to our Nation; and God may speedily grant our petitions, and I am sure, at the present time, the nearest wish of every patriot's heart.

Light & Bradburys' Grand and Square Piano-Fortes.
The Insulated Iron frame Patent Insulated Full Iron Frame New Scale serves the original tone of his instrument for all time against that most disagreeable tummy quality of tone invariably found in all other iron frame Piano-Fortes. It greatly strengthens the case and thus keeps the Piano-Forte much longer in tune. It gives the instrument a much fuller, richer and sweeter tone. It adapts the Piano to all climates and to all changes of atmosphere, and in all respects it is pronounced by the best artists to be the greatest improvement of the age in Piano-Forte construction; producing an instrument acknowledged to be superior to all others made in this country or Europe.
A few testimonials in regard to the superiority of our New Scale Patent Insulated Piano-Fortes.
"I have examined the Piano-Fortes of Light & Bradbury with entire satisfaction. I know not that there are any others better, either on our own country or elsewhere."—DR. LOWELL MASON.
"In firmness, richness, and volume of tone, delicacy, elasticity of touch, and fine repeating action, I have never played upon their equal."
—H. A. VOLLENBACH.
"In volume, richness, evenness, and purity of tone, and delicacy of touch they certainly excel, and in that beautiful singing quality so desirable yet so seldom found."—WM. MASON.
"I have never played upon so rich and heavy a tone as Square Piano-Fortes."—ARTHUR CAROLSON.
"I am astonished and delighted with the New Scale Iron Frame Piano-Fortes made by you.—There may be a splendid future for Light & Bradbury Piano-Fortes."—Geo. F. Root.
"I have never played upon so fine an instrument."—Geo. F. Baisrow.
"I consider them as to beauty, richness, fullness and equality of tone, as well as their agreeable, elastic touch, equal if not superior to any Piano made in this country or Europe."
—K. W. BASSITT.
"In power, quantity, and quality of tone, they certainly excel; while for that peculiar rich and singing tone so invaluable as an accompaniment to the voice, I have never met their equal."—G. BASSITT.
"They have all the requirements for a superior interpretation of both classical and modern compositions."—M. BRONKSON.

The important fact that the awful consequences of self-abuse may be effectually removed without internal medicines or the dangerous applications of caustics, instruments, medicated bougies, and other capital errors, is here clearly demonstrated, and the entirely new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the celebrated author fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure himself perfectly, and at the same time, and thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day. This lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.
