

Civilian and Telegraph.

VOLUME XXXV.

CUMBERLAND, MD., THURSDAY, OCT. 2, 1862.

NUMBER 40

MEDICAL HOUSE,

11 South Frederick St.,
Baltimore, Maryland.

Established in order to afford Sound and Scientific Medical Aid, and for the suppression of Quackery.

DOCTOR SMITH

For many years devoted his whole attention to the treatment of private complaints, in all their varied and complicated forms. His great success in these long standing and difficult cases, such as were formerly considered incurable, is sufficient to recommend him to the public as worthy of the extensive patronage which he has received. Within the last eight years, Dr. S. has treated more than 25,000 cases of Private Complaints in their different forms and stages; a practice which no doubt exceeds that of all the physicians now advertising in Baltimore, and not a single case is known, where directions were strictly followed, and medicine taken at reasonable times; therefore, persons afflicted with diseases of the above nature, no matter how difficult or long standing the case may be, would do well to call on Dr. SMITH, at his office, No. 11, South Frederick Street.

The afflicted should bear in mind that Dr. S. is the only regular physician advertising, who for many years devoted his whole attention to the treatment of this class of Diseases.

His medicines are free from Mercury and all mineral poisons; are put in neat and compact form, and may be taken in public or private rooms, or while travelling, without exposure or hindrance from business, and except in case of violent inflammation, no change of diet is necessary.

Let the unfortunate bear in mind when affliction overtakes them, that no time should be lost in making application to a competent physician, as they would not only obtain relief from pain, avoid mortification through exposure and other great constitutional injury, but enable their medical assistant to moderate in his charges than he could justly be, where symptoms have become confirmed or the disease more widely diffused. The rapid advance of this truly terrifying disease, is sufficient to alarm the boldest heart. When ulceration and discolored blotches with rankling pains, betray to the unhappy victim the deadly poison creeping upon his vitals, then, "and not till then," do many awake to a full sense of their danger.

We are called upon every few days to cure Chronic Diseases, which were supposed to have been cured years ago, but instead of which, were only checked, driven into the system by mercury or opium and therefore seem to be well but break out in its worst and most difficult forms, producing ulcers in the throat, nose or roof of the mouth, eruptions of the skin, pains or swelling of the joints. On account of the number of such cases which are daily coming under my care, as the immense suffering which a little neglect or improper treatment in the first stages of the disease may cause, Dr. Smith thinks it his duty to advise the afflicted, particularly travellers, to be careful that they are not deceived by false advertisements of boasting quacks who make promises which could not be fulfilled.

By even the most experienced consulting a skillful physician in the first stages of the disease, is often released to a state which makes the case extremely difficult to cure. Therefore he should be aware of the importance of consulting a skillful physician in the first stages of the disease.

CONSTITUTIONAL DEBILITY.

Young men! beware of the pernicious indulgence and loss of vitality you inflict upon your constitutions, by evil examples and the morbid influence of the passions.

Now many young persons, who are daily beheld, whose countenances and debilitated constitutions depict disease arising from that horrible and devastating vice.

It would be shown how attenuation of the frame, pallidness, languor, indigestion and a train of symptoms, indicative of consumption, are often ascribed to wrong causes, when in reality they are the consequences of a debilitating and pernicious practice alike destructive to the mind and body.

You who have brought this affliction upon yourselves, why embrace the secret of your health and vitality, and why not, instead of making immediate application to a skillful physician, who in a short time, would restore you to perfect health and save you from exposure which the fatal consequences render inevitable.

Dr. Smith gives his special attention to the treatment of this destructive malady. Patients can be cured at home by the use of his Pills, which, describing symptoms, and receive medicine securely packed from observation, forwarded by express or otherwise to any part of the country.

N. B.—Persons afflicted with any of the above complaints will do well to avoid losing a moment's time, whether foreign or native, as the numerous S. cities advertised as a certain cure for every disease. These preparations are put up in seal and not in any other manner, so that you may be sure of the genuineness of the medicine.

"A word to the wise is sufficient."
Address, DR. J. B. SMITH,
No. 11, S. Frederick Street, Baltimore, Md.
Dr. S.'s letters will be answered unless they contain a remittance or Postage Stamp to pay postage on the answer.
Jan. 1st, 1861.—ly.

Attention Builders!

Sash, Doors, Shutters,
Window and Door
Frames, Mouldings and
Venetian Blinds,
MANUFACTURED and for sale at R. D. Johnson's Steam Fitting Machine, on Center Street.

Orders received either at the Shop, or at Dr. John J. Bruce's Lumber Yard.
June 30, 1859.—ly. H. DAMM.

Estate of Keziah Wilson.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court of Allegany County, Letters Testamentary on the estate of Keziah Wilson, late of said county, dec'd. All persons having claims against said dec'd are hereby warned to exhibit the same properly authenticated, to the subscribers, on or before the 24th day of January, 1863, otherwise they may by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted are requested to make immediate payment. Given under my hand this 24th day of July, 1862.
MOSES G. ROBINETT,
Executor.

Lehigh Gas Burning

Cooking Stoves!

The undersigned has just received an assortment of a new kind of cooking stove, which he offers to the public at moderate prices. There is a great saving of fuel by the use of these stoves.
Sept. 13, 1859 JOHN JOHNSON

Civilian and Telegraph JOB PRINTING

ESTABLISHMENT,
Brooks' Block, Balt. St., near the Bridge,
CUMBERLAND, MD.
William Evans
Proprietor.

ALL KINDS OF PLAIN AND ORNAMENTAL
PRINTING
Neatly and expeditiously executed;
SUCH AS

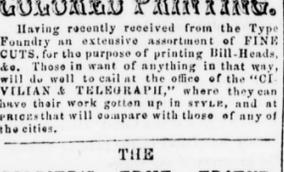

BOOKS, PAMPHLETS,
CHECKS, BILL-HEADS,
PAY-ROLLS, CHECK
ROLLS, BUSINESS CARDS,
BLANK FORMS,
PROGRAMMES,
Manifests, Ball Tickets, &c.

We are prepared to execute in style unsurpassed in the State, every description of LETTER PRESS and
COLORED PRINTING.

Having recently received from the Type Foundry an extensive assortment of FINE CUTS, for the purpose of printing Bill-Heads, &c. Those in want of anything in that way, will do well to call at the office of the "CIVILIAN AND TELEGRAPH," where they can have their work gotten up in style, and at prices that will compare with those of any of the cities.

THE SOLDIER'S TRUE FRIEND.

ALWAYS READY.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

LONG MARCHES, sore and stiff joints, blistered and inflamed feet, all these the Soldier must endure. Mothers, remember the danger; think what relief a single pot of this healing and saving Salve will give to the one you love when he has any of these ailments. It soothes and relieves the inflamed and stiff joints, leaving them supple, strong and vigorous, while for

SAB CUTS AND GUNSHOT WOUNDS
It is unequalled, removing and preventing every vestige of inflammation, and gently wiping the edges together, it quickly and completely heals the most frightful wounds.

Wives and Sisters of our Volunteers.
You cannot put into the Knapsacks of your Soldiers and Brothers, a more valuable or more necessary gift than a supply of this Extraordinary Military Salve.

The lonely soldier walking his rounds at night, exposed to drizzling rains and chill night air, is often seized with most violent pains, cough and suffocating hoarseness, first symptoms of quick consumption, but if supplied with HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT, all danger is averted, a few Pills taken night and morning, and the Ointment briskly rubbed twice a day over the throat and chest will remove the secret poison, and stop the most distressing or dangerous cough. Therefore we say to the whole Army.

SOLDIERS' ATTENTION!

See to your own health, do not trust to the Army supplies although most valuable. These PILLS and OINTMENT have been thoroughly tested; they are the only remedies used in the European Campaigns and Barracks. For forty years Doctor Holloway has supplied all the Armies in Europe, and during the Crimean Campaign he established a depot at Balaclava, for the exclusive sale of his secret pills. Many a time his special Agent there has sold over a ton in weight of the Ointment in a single day. These terrible and fatal enemies of the soldier in camp,

Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Scurvy, Sores, and Scrofulous
all disappear like a chaff when these PILLS are used. Now and then while the cry rings throughout the land,

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

Do not let these brave men perish by disease; place in their hands these precious remedies, that will enable them to resist the dangerous exposures, the Fevers, the Chills, and the wounds which they cannot avoid, and what more cannot frequently get succor in the moment of need, whereas if our brave men have only to put their hands into their Knapsacks and find there a sure remedy for all the casualties of the battle field, how many thousands of lives would thus be saved who would otherwise perish before relief could be obtained.

CAUTION!—None are genuine unless the words HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT are discernible on a Water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions, around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

Sold at the Manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines throughout the civilized world, in pots, at 25 cents, 50 cents and $1 each.

There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.
N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients, in every disorder, are annexed to each box.
Jan. 16, 1862.—ly.

NOTICE.

MY wife TACY, having left my bed and board and without just cause, I hereby forewarned not to harbor or trust her on my account, as I am determined not to pay any debt of her contraction.
July 10—59 MOSES L. ROBINETT.

AMERICAN WATCHES for sale at Factory
A Price at [Nov. 8.] S. T. LITTLE'S

Civilian and Telegraph

IS PUBLISHED
Every Thursday Morning.

W. EVANS, Editor and Proprietor.
Office in Second Story of Brooks' Block,
Balt. St., near the Bridge.

TERMS:
TWO DOLLARS per annum, strictly in advance, $2.50 if not so paid, and $3.00 if not paid within the year.

Bear in mind that no paper will be discontinued until all arrearages are paid.

Rates of Advertising.

One square of 12 lines, $1 for three insertions—subsequent insertions 25 cents each. All advertisements under 12 lines charged as a square.

Business Cards in the Directory, per annum, one square, 1 25 2 25 3 50 6 00 10 00
Two squares 2 25 4 00 5 00 9 00 14 10
Three " 3 50 5 00 7 50 12 00 18 00
Four " 4 50 6 00 8 00 14 00 20 00
Quarter col. 6 00 9 00 12 00 18 00 30 00
Larger space for short periods, as per agreement.

Advertisements before Marriages and Deaths 10 cts. per line for first insertion—subsequent insertions, 5 cents per line. Nine words are counted as a line in advertising.

Merchants and others advertising by the year, will be charged $12 00.
Proceedings of meetings not of a general character, charged at 4 cents per line for each insertion.

Early advertisers must confine their advertisements to their own business.
ALL TRANSIENT ADVERTISING, cash in advance.

Persons ordering the insertion of legal advertisements will be held responsible for payment for the same when the time for which they were ordered to be inserted shall have expired.

INSOLVENT NOTICES, cash in advance.
PATENT MEMORIALS, one half in advance and the balance in six months.
ALL JOB WORK, CASH.

The losses we have sustained compel us to adopt this course. It will be strictly adhered to in all cases, and no advertisement will be inserted unless accompanied by the cash.

COUNTY DIRECTORY.

Judge of Circuit Court—HON. D. WEISLE.
Clerk of Circuit Court—HON. ROBERT RUSLEY.
Register of Wills—JOHN W. WYENER.
Solicitor—THOS. G. McCULLOH.
State's Attorney—C. B. THURSTON.
Surgeon—WILLIAM BRACE.
Deputy County Commissioners—JACOB BROWN.Judges of the Orphans' Court—
JOSEPH RAWLINS,
ALEXANDER KING,
FRANCIS MATTINGLY.

Business Directory,

CUMBERLAND, MD.

DENTISTRY.

DR. HUMMELSHIME, DENTIST, Corner of Baltimore and Liberty Streets, over Read's Grocery Store, and opposite Campbell's Drug Store, Cumberland, Md.

ANDREWS & SWARTZWELDER,
Wholesale & Retail Dealers in
Books and Stationery, Periodicals,
Useful and Fancy Articles, Baltimore Street, in the room under the Museum. Also, Book Binders and Blank Work Manufacturers at city prices.

M. RIZER & BRO.
Manufacturers and Dealers in
Cabinet Furniture of all kinds,
South Liberty St., near Bond's Foundry.

WILLIAM R. BEALL & CO.,
Wholesale & Retail Dealers in
GROCERIES, TEAS, LIQUORS &c. near the Depot, Balt. Street.

H. D. CARLETON,
MERCHANT TAILOR,
deKings' New Block, Baltimore Street. Keeps on hand and makes to order all kinds of Gent's and Boys' wearing apparel.

JOHN JOHNSON,
Tin and Sheet-Iron Worker,
Respectfully asks a share of public patronage. Fine and Sheet-Iron were always on hand and for sale low. McClellan's Row, Baltimore St.

WATCHES AND JEWELRY,
CHEAP FOR CASH.
Repairing of every description done with neatness and dispatch.
CALL AT
J. H. KELENBECK'S,
Next to Post Office, Baltimore Street
July 19, 1860.

CUMBERLAND FOUNDRY, TAYLOR & CO., Iron and Brass Founders, George's street, CUMBERLAND, MD., Manufacturers of Steam Engines, Boilers, Railroad and Mine Cars, Mining Machinery, Furnaces, Stoves, Grates, Mill-Irons, Pumps, Agricultural Implements, &c. March 17, 1859—y.

CLOTWORTHY & FLINT,
WHOLESALE
DRUGGISTS, and dealers in
Paints, Glass & Oil.
No. 839 Balt. St.,
Baltimore.

BEST COAL OIL and BURNING FLUID
on hand. Orders filled with great care, and at the lowest rates. April 11, '61—y.

Coal! Coal! Coal!

10,000
Bushels of FINE COAL

For sale in my yard at the low rate of 3 cents per Bushel, delivered in any part of the city by the Cart load, FOR CASH.
H. FLURY,
ev. 28—3m.

Dr. GEO. B. FUNDENBERG
HAS resumed the practice of Medicine, OFFICE and residence on Center Street, Shriver's Row, in the house lately occupied by James Shrey, Esq.
May 1, '62.

A GENERAL assortment of Queensware of every description, just received at
J. W. R. BEALL & CO'S.
Jan. 3

Poetical.

The Oath.

BY T. D. READ.

HAMLET—Swear on my sword.
GHOST—(below) Swear! (Shakespeare.)
Ye freemen, how long will ye strife
The vengeance that justice inspires?
With treason how long will ye trifle
And shame the proud name of your sires?
Out, out with the sword and the rifle
In defence of your homes and your fires.
The flag of the old Revolution
Swear firmly to serve and uphold.

And hark, the deep voices replying
From graves where your fathers are lying,
Swear, oh, swear!

I this moment who hesitates, barbers
The rights which his forefathers won,
He forfeits all claim to the charters
Transmitted from sire to son.
Kneel, kneel at the graves of our martyrs
And swear on your sword and your gun:
Lay up your great oath on the altar
As huge and as strong as Stone Henge,
And then with sword, fire and halberd,
Sweep down to the field of revenge.

Swear!
And hark, the deep voices replying
From graves where your fathers are lying,
Swear, oh, swear!

By the tombs of your sires and brothers,
The host which the traitors have slain,
By the tears of your sisters and mothers,
In secret concealing your pain,
The grief which the heroes smother,
Consuming the heart and the brain,—
By the sigh of the penitents widow,
By the sob of her orphan's despair
Where they sit in their sorrowful shadow,
Kneel, kneel every freeman and swear.

Swear!
And hark, the deep voices replying
From graves where your fathers are lying,
Swear, oh, swear!

Where a Nation has bowed to the sod,
Where the noblest of martyrs are sleeping
Let the winds bear your vengeance abroad:
And your firm oaths be held in the keeping
Of your patriot hearts and your God.
Over Ellsworth, for whom the first tear rose,
While to Baker and Lyon you look—
By Winthrop, a star among heroes,
By the blood of the murdered McCook.

Swear!
And hark, the deep voices replying
From graves where your fathers are lying,
Swear, oh, swear!

On mounds which are wet with the weeping
Where a Nation has bowed to the sod,
Where the noblest of martyrs are sleeping
Let the winds bear your vengeance abroad:
And your firm oaths be held in the keeping
Of your patriot hearts and your God.
Over Ellsworth, for whom the first tear rose,
While to Baker and Lyon you look—
By Winthrop, a star among heroes,
By the blood of the murdered McCook.

Swear!
And hark, the deep voices replying
From graves where your fathers are lying,
Swear, oh, swear!

Where a Nation has bowed to the sod,
Where the noblest of martyrs are sleeping
Let the winds bear your vengeance abroad:
And your firm oaths be held in the keeping
Of your patriot hearts and your God.
Over Ellsworth, for whom the first tear rose,
While to Baker and Lyon you look—
By Winthrop, a star among heroes,
By the blood of the murdered McCook.

Swear!
And hark, the deep voices replying
From graves where your fathers are lying,
Swear, oh, swear!

Where a Nation has bowed to the sod,
Where the noblest of martyrs are sleeping
Let the winds bear your vengeance abroad:
And your firm oaths be held in the keeping
Of your patriot hearts and your God.
Over Ellsworth, for whom the first tear rose,
While to Baker and Lyon you look—
By Winthrop, a star among heroes,
By the blood of the murdered McCook.

Swear!
And hark, the deep voices replying
From graves where your fathers are lying,
Swear, oh, swear!

Where a Nation has bowed to the sod,
Where the noblest of martyrs are sleeping
Let the winds bear your vengeance abroad:
And your firm oaths be held in the keeping
Of your patriot hearts and your God.
Over Ellsworth, for whom the first tear rose,
While to Baker and Lyon you look—
By Winthrop, a star among heroes,
By the blood of the murdered McCook.

Swear!
And hark, the deep voices replying
From graves where your fathers are lying,
Swear, oh, swear!

Where a Nation has bowed to the sod,
Where the noblest of martyrs are sleeping
Let the winds bear your vengeance abroad:
And your firm oaths be held in the keeping
Of your patriot hearts and your God.
Over Ellsworth, for whom the first tear rose,
While to Baker and Lyon you look—
By Winthrop, a star among heroes,
By the blood of the murdered McCook.

Swear!
And hark, the deep voices replying
From graves where your fathers are lying,
Swear, oh, swear!

Where a Nation has bowed to the sod,
Where the noblest of martyrs are sleeping
Let the winds bear your vengeance abroad:
And your firm oaths be held in the keeping
Of your patriot hearts and your God.
Over Ellsworth, for whom the first tear rose,
While to Baker and Lyon you look—
By Winthrop, a star among heroes,
By the blood of the murdered McCook.

Swear!
And hark, the deep voices replying
From graves where your fathers are lying,
Swear, oh, swear!

Where a Nation has bowed to the sod,
Where the noblest of martyrs are sleeping
Let the winds bear your vengeance abroad:
And your firm oaths be held in the keeping
Of your patriot hearts and your God.
Over Ellsworth, for whom the first tear rose,
While to Baker and Lyon you look—
By Winthrop, a star among heroes,
By the blood of the murdered McCook.

Swear!
And hark, the deep voices replying
From graves where your fathers are lying,
Swear, oh, swear!

Where a Nation has bowed to the sod,
Where the noblest of martyrs are sleeping
Let the winds bear your vengeance abroad:
And your firm oaths be held in the keeping
Of your patriot hearts and your God.
Over Ellsworth, for whom the first tear rose,
While to Baker and Lyon you look—
By Winthrop, a star among heroes,
By the blood of the murdered McCook.

Swear!
And hark, the deep voices replying
From graves where your fathers are lying,
Swear, oh, swear!

Where a Nation has bowed to the sod,
Where the noblest of martyrs are sleeping
Let the winds bear your vengeance abroad:
And your firm oaths be held in the keeping
Of your patriot hearts and your God.
Over Ellsworth, for whom the first tear rose,
While to Baker and Lyon you look—
By Winthrop, a star among heroes,
By the blood of the murdered McCook.

Swear!
And hark, the deep voices replying
From graves where your fathers are lying,
Swear, oh, swear!

Where a Nation has bowed to the sod,
Where the noblest of martyrs are sleeping
Let the winds bear your vengeance abroad:
And your firm oaths be held in the keeping
Of your patriot hearts and your God.
Over Ellsworth, for whom the first tear rose,
While to Baker and Lyon you look—
By Winthrop, a star among heroes,
By the blood of the murdered McCook.

Swear!
And hark, the deep voices replying
From graves where your fathers are lying,
Swear, oh, swear!

Where a Nation has bowed to the sod,
Where the noblest of martyrs are sleeping
Let the winds bear your vengeance abroad:
And your firm oaths be held in the keeping
Of your patriot hearts and your God.
Over Ellsworth, for whom the first tear rose,
While to Baker and Lyon you look—
By Winthrop, a star among heroes,
By the blood of the murdered McCook.

Swear!
And hark, the deep voices replying
From graves where your fathers are lying,
Swear, oh, swear!

Where a Nation has bowed to the sod,
Where the noblest of martyrs are sleeping
Let the winds bear your vengeance abroad:
And your firm oaths be held in the keeping
Of your patriot hearts and your God.
Over Ellsworth, for whom the first tear rose,
While to Baker and Lyon you look—
By Winthrop, a star among heroes,
By the blood of the murdered McCook.

Swear!
And hark, the deep voices replying
From graves where your fathers are lying,
Swear, oh, swear!

were it not that General McClellan belongs to the nation more than to her, and that at the present critical juncture, every consideration ought to yield to the paramount importance of having civilians, as well as those in the army, put implicit confidence in the man who holds the destiny of the nation in his hands, and who, as I trust and believe, will carry us triumphantly out of the difficulties and dangers by which we are surrounded.—Hartford Courant, Sept. 17.

A Story about Gen. Butler.

A story is told concerning General Butler which is not calculated to prove his confidence in the safety of the secession element by which he is daily surrounded.

Some time ago Gen. Butler, finding that it was almost impossible to devote to his wife the care to which she is entitled, resolved to part with her and to send her homeward. The day of departure arrived, and he went with his wife and his children to the boat on which they were to embark. Unfortunately the water was high and the boat of difficult access. The plank thrown across the water between the deck and the shore formed an acute angle, and Blondin himself would have found it difficult to preserve his equilibrium upon it. But Gen. Butler, confident that his centre of gravity was sufficiently ponderous to secure him against all accidents, ventured bravely upon the steepy road.—Hardly had he walked two steps, however, than his feet glided along and down he went, measuring the plank with all his length, and producing at the same time a noise somewhat resembling that of an old kettle. His servants ran to his assistance and he was soon up again.

When it had been ascertained that the General was unhurt, inquiries were made concerning the sound of metal heard at the time of his fall. It was not long before the mystery was solved. The clothes of the General having been torn in his perilous descent, people saw, protruding under his coat, one large breastplate, reaching from his neck down to his thighs. This was the object which had produced the noise. It was ascertained afterward that the General wears this kind of armor since his arrival in New Orleans and that he never goes without it.

Fitting Retort.

A day or two ago, says the Louisville Journal, a Union lady of this place called upon a secession friend of hers, and in the course of the call, was forced to listen to a great deal of treason, rather than to a great deal of good manners. On rising to leave her attention was attracted by a splendid portrait of George Washington; when getting into conversation on the subject, she rebelled, to still further taunt her Union visitor, remarked:

"I'll tell you what I'm going to do; I intend to get fine portraits of Davis and Beauregard, and hang up one on each side of that."

"Do," said Union, "we read in the Bible that our saviour was hung between two thieves."

Don't Drink Much Water.

A person in good health, and in moderate pursuit of business, does not feel like drinking water, even in summer-time, if not very thirsty. In fact great habitual thirst in summer is the sign of a depraved appetite, resulting from bad habits; or it is a proof of internal fever; and the indulgence of even so simple a thing as drinking cold water largely in summer-time, especially in the early part of the day, will produce a disordered condition of the system. Most persons have experienced more or less discomfort from drinking largely of cold water. If we drink a great deal, we must perspire a great deal; this perspiration induces a greater evaporation of heat from the surface than some have to spare; the result is a chill then comes the reaction of fever. Many a person arises from the dinner or tea-table, in June, chilly because too much cold fluids have been taken.—Those who drink little or nothing even of cold water in summer, till the afternoon, will be more vigorous, more full of health and much more free from bodily discomfort than those who place no restraint on their potations.—Hall's Jour. of Health.

A Sad Picture.

The papers are filled with the names of the sick, wounded, and dead heroes of the war. It is a melancholy picture to look at; it teaches a terrible lesson. Hundreds of loyal households will mourn the loss of their best beloved—the wife deprived of her noble husband, the parents of their cherished son, the sister of her brave brother, the lovely girl of him who will know her no more for ever.—Grief like this is always sacred—and yet these individual sorrows are so generally shared that those who do not now realize them, sympathize with the sufferers, because to-morrow they may be called upon in their turn, to recognize the fate of war in the death of those who are nearest and dearest to them. There is hardly a loyal family in the loyal States that is not in some way connected with the brave defenders of our flag. They were sent forth with blessings and with prayers; and if they fall, their friends should always recollect that they fell for the best cause that ever sanctified a soldier's sword or strengthened a sailor's arm.

A murderer being asked by his lawyer if this was his first crime, beautifully replied: "There are some spots in my life that are as bright and pure as the golden sun beam that falls from heaven; and there are others that are darker than the darkness of midnight."

An Artists Trials.

Galli Van T., says the Continental, is again active in setting forth the rural trials and troubles of artists which it seems are many. Listen!—

"Twas in the merry summer-tide some seven years since, when I went with a friend catching trout and sketching scenery in the valley of the Connecticut.

We thought we knew the value of a lovely view.
We didn't.
True, we could appreciate it to a dollar, when transferred to canvas. Otherwise, we had much to learn.

C. Pia, Esq., and myself were hard at it one morning—making such beautiful sketches, and doing it all with nothing but just a lead-pencil and some paper—as a young admirer of our works was wont to assure her friends: Suddenly appeared a man of great muscle, with pie-dish, snort-collar, and a canister-shot-eyed bull-terrier, gifted with seven tiger power of biting.

"Stop that are!" was his courteous salutation.
"Stop what?"
"Stop making them are d-d pictures. I don't have no such things round here!"

I looked at C. Pia—he was venomous and unterrified, and I felt encouraged. So I firmly asked the intruder what he meant.

"I mean what I say. There's property there that I'm going to buy. I know what you're arter. You're makin' pictures of the place for that are in fornan Kernal Smith who owns the land, so's he can show 'em round and pint out the buildin lots. And I'll jest lick you like—if you draw another line!"

"See here young man," quoth I, "I've something to say to you. In the first place, you're a scamp who would keep a gentleman from getting a fair price for his own property. Secondly, you're an ignorant fellow and don't know what you're talking about. I never heard of your Colonel Smith—I'm not drawing up real estate lots or plots of any kind.—Thirdly, I solemnly swear by Minos, Alphanus, Rhododendrom, Nebuchadnezzar, and all the infernal gods, that if you touch a hair of our heads I'll see Colonel Smith—I'll map the whole property and advertise it in every newspaper in N. York and Boston till it brings ten