feet, with porch on the full length of both buildings, there is also a small 1 1/2 story log house on said farm, a double log barn with thrashing floor, corn crib, stone spring house and smoke house, also an excellent well. The land is clear deep at the kitchen door. The land is clear of stone, and is desirable for farming or for raising stock.
The farm will be sold to suit purchasers and any one wishing to purchase will do well to examine the property.
A good title will be given to the purchaser.
If not sold the farm will be exchanged for June 25th.
JOHN B. KELLER.

Friends and Relatives
OF THE
BRAVE SOLDIERS & SAILORS
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS
AND OINTMENT.
All who have Friends and Relatives in the Army or Navy, should take especial care, that they be supplied with these Pills and Ointment; and where the brave Soldiers and Sailors are unable to provide themselves with them, no better present can be sent them by their friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's never failing friend in the hour of need.
Coughs and Colds affecting Troops.
Will be speedily relieved and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines, and by paying preparation to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box.
Sick Headaches and Want of Appetite, Incidental to Soldiers, will be speedily cured
by using these admirable medicines, and by
paying preparation to the Directions which
are attached to each Pot or Box.
These medicines, which are sold in every part of the world, are usually trouble or annoyance, obstructed respiration, or eating and drinking whatever is presented, thus depriving the beautiful color of the face, and rendering the patient unpleasant to the eyes of his friends.
The Pills, taken according to the printed instructions, will quickly produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence of these effects, the system will be restored to its natural vigor, and the patient will soon disappear by the use of these valuable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the Soldier be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus remove all the morbid humors from the system.
This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course.
Nothing will stop the action of the Bowels so quickly as these famous medicines.
Volunteers Attention! Indiscretions of Youth.
Sores and Ulcers, Blisters and Swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Pills are taken night and morning, and the Ointment be freely used as stated in the printed directions.
It is treated in any other manner they dry up in one part to break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will remove the humors from the system and leave the Patient a vigorous and healthy man.
It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to ensure a lasting cure.
For Wounds either occasioned by the Bayonet, Sabre or the Bullet, Sores or Bruises.
To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable there is no medicine so safe, sure and effective as Holloway's Pills. Taken in every test it has produced an almost dying sufferer might have his wounds dressed immediately, if he would only provide himself with this wonderful Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and secured all round it, then covered with the Ointment from his Knapsack and compressed with a handkerchief. Tasting night and morning four Pills, to cool the system and prevent inflammation.
General Saline, Knapsack and Sman's Chest should be provided with these valuable Remedies.
CAUTION!—None are genuine unless the words "HOLLOWAY, NEW YORK AND LONDON," are discernible in every bottle, and in every test of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the lens to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicine or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.
Sold at the Manufactory of Professor Holloway, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and at the Wholesale Druggists and Retail Dealers in Medicine, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cts. 50 cts and $1 each.
There is considerable saving by taking the larger size.
N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each Pot and Box.

ECLECTIC MONTHLY.
New Inducement!
Artistic Attraction!
THE two match PARLOR PRIZES will be sent, postage paid, after this date, to each subscriber to the Eclectic Magazine who sends his name and $5 in advance.
1. RETURNED FROM MARKET, is a beautiful engraving by John Sartain. The subject is the return of the Eclectic Magazine from Paris, where it has been bearing a rich freight of purchases to the delighted young people, who are receiving them with eagerness.
The whole family are assembled on or in front of the Plaza, which, with the Mansion, appears almost exactly like the Mount Vernon house of Washington, with the old gentleman seated, and adjusting his glasses to read the paper, who looks like Washington. The whole scene in the large engraving is attractive and beautiful, and worth a place on the parlor walls.
2. The match prize is FILIAL AFFECTION, or SUNDAY MORNING, also engraved by John Sartain, at a cost of twelve hundred dollars for both of them. Sartain's price was $5 for the two match prizes. The scene in this print is at the family home, and the village church in the distance, with its spire pointing heavenward, and a beautiful girl some twenty summers young, Bible in hand, by the gateway, waiting for the carriage of the family.
The mother, still handsome, attends the aged grandfather, with the children, the house dog, and the donkey, make up the family group, just departing for worship in the village church. The scene is beautiful and match prize, easily obtained in this manner.
3. A large and fine portrait of the Hon. Edward Everett will be sent in place of either of the match prizes, if you prefer.
4. The January number of the Eclectic is embellished with double historic plates, with treasures of literature.
5. The February number plate has fine portraits of eminent men.
6. The March number plate is a print of Napoleon I., at the battle of Austerlitz.
7. The superior plates are in the hands of the artist for future numbers.
Now is a good time to subscribe.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS
AND OINTMENT.
All who have Friends and Relatives in the Army or Navy, should take especial care, that they be supplied with these Pills and Ointment; and where the brave Soldiers and Sailors are unable to provide themselves
with them, no better present can be sent them
by their friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's never failing friend in the hour of
need.
Coughs and Colds affecting Troops.
Will be speedily relieved and effectually cured
by using these admirable medicines, and by
paying preparation to the Directions which
are attached to each Pot or Box.
Sick Headaches and Want of Appetite, Incidental to Soldiers, will be speedily cured
by using these admirable medicines, and by
paying preparation to the Directions which
are attached to each Pot or Box.
These medicines, which are sold in every part
of the world, are usually
trouble or annoyance, obstructed
respiration, or eating and drinking whatever
is presented, thus depriving the beautiful
color of the face, and rendering the patient
unpleasant to the eyes of his friends.
The Pills, taken according to the printed instructions, will quickly produce a healthy action
in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence of these effects, the system will be restored to its natural vigor, and the patient
will soon disappear by the use of these
valuable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the Soldier be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be
recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many
persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus
remove all the morbid humors from the system.
This medicine will give tone and vigor to the
whole organic system however deranged, while
health and strength follow as a matter of course.
Nothing will stop the action of the Bowels
so quickly as these famous medicines.
Volunteers Attention! Indiscretions of Youth.
Sores and Ulcers, Blisters and Swellings, can
with certainty be radically cured if the Pills are
taken night and morning, and the Ointment be
freely used as stated in the printed directions.
It is treated in any other manner they dry up in one part to break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will remove the humors from the system
and leave the Patient a vigorous and healthy man.
It will require a little perseverance in bad
cases to ensure a lasting cure.
For Wounds either occasioned by the Bayonet,
Sabre or the Bullet, Sores or Bruises.
To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable
there is no medicine so safe, sure and effective
as Holloway's Pills. Taken in every test
it has produced an almost dying sufferer might
would only provide himself with this wonderful Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound
and secured all round it, then covered with the Ointment from his Knapsack and compressed
with a handkerchief. Tasting night and morning four Pills, to cool the system and prevent inflammation.
General Saline, Knapsack and Sman's Chest
should be provided with these valuable Remedies.
CAUTION!—None are genuine unless the
words "HOLLOWAY, NEW YORK AND LONDON,"
are discernible in every bottle, and in every test
of the book of directions around each pot or
box; the same may be plainly seen by holding
the lens to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information
as may lead to the detection of any party or
parties counterfeiting the medicine or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.
Sold at the Manufactory of Professor Holloway, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and
at the Wholesale Druggists and Retail Dealers
in Medicine, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cts. 50 cts and $1 each.
There is considerable saving by taking
the larger size.
N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each Pot and Box.
Jan 15, 1863.—ly.

ECLECTIC MONTHLY.
New Inducement!
Artistic Attraction!
THE two match PARLOR PRIZES will be
sent, postage paid, after this date, to each subscriber to the Eclectic Magazine who
sends his name and $5 in advance.
1. RETURNED FROM MARKET, is a beautiful engraving by John Sartain. The subject is the return of the Eclectic Magazine from Paris, where it has been bearing a
rich freight of purchases to the delighted young people, who are receiving them with eagerness.
The whole family are assembled on or in front of the Plaza, which, with the Mansion, appears almost exactly like the Mount Vernon
house of Washington, with the old gentleman
seated, and adjusting his glasses to read the paper, who looks like Washington. The whole scene in the large engraving is attractive and beautiful, and worth a place on the parlor walls.
2. The match prize is FILIAL AFFECTION, or SUNDAY MORNING, also engraved by John Sartain, at a cost of twelve hundred dollars for both of them. Sartain's price was $5
for the two match prizes. The scene in this
print is at the family home, and the village
church in the distance, with its spire pointing heavenward, and a beautiful girl some twenty
summers young, Bible in hand, by the gateway, waiting for the carriage of the family.
The mother, still handsome, attends the aged
grandfather, with the children, the house dog,
and the donkey, make up the family group,
just departing for worship in the village
church. The scene is beautiful and match prize, easily obtained in this manner.
3. A large and fine portrait of the Hon. Edward Everett will be sent in place of either of the match prizes, if you prefer.
4. The January number of the Eclectic is embellished with double historic plates, with treasures of literature.
5. The February number plate has fine portraits of eminent men.
6. The March number plate is a print of Napoleon I., at the battle of Austerlitz.
7. The superior plates are in the hands of the artist for future numbers.
Now is a good time to subscribe.
