Vallandigham. The notorious Vallandigham has returned to Ohio, and has been chosen a delegate to the Chicago convention. He is already disseminating his treasonable doctrines. The Washington Evening Republican, which is generally looked upon as speaking the views of the President, says, in an editorial, that 'It is evident that traitors who ally themselves with Vallandigham either believe that their recent organization is strong enough to resist the Government, or else they hope to have a free run in Ohio for some time because of the pre-occupation of the Government in more important affairs than the movements of a single Rebel. It is probable that Vallandigham will be greeted by the proper authorities, in due course of time, and that this last flanking movement of the Rebels will come to naught.'

Retrieving. When the news of the battle at New Market, Va., 10th of May, reached here, it was stated that Capt. Wm. B. Boncher, formerly Provost Marshal of this city, was killed, and so was published. It appears that he was severely wounded, a ball having passed entirely through his body on the left side, within half an inch of the heart. He was in this city a few days since on his way home, and met with a hearty reception from his friends.

Wm. N. Tuttle, Esq., one of the proprietors of the Baltimore Clipper, died in Baltimore, on the 17th inst., in the 55th year of his age. He was one of the founders of the Clipper twenty-nine years ago.
