

THE NEW YORK STORE (ESTABLISHED 1862) CLOAK DEPARTMENT

TO THE LADIES:

We desire to make known to you the fact of our having marked down our entire stock of Cloaks. We have made very low prices in order to close the season and not carry over a garment. Our stock is not large but very well assorted in Newmarkets, Circulars, and the new shawl, Dolmans, and at prices which will suit the wants of all. Our Misses' Cloaks are also marked down. Ladies who are about purchasing an outside wrap will find it to be to their interest to examine our stock at the marked-down prices.

THE SENTINEL AT NEW ORLEANS.

To accommodate the throng from the Northwest who will desire to read their favorite home paper while attending the "World's Exposition," the Sentinel has been placed on sale in New Orleans at George F. Wharton & Bro.'s, No. 5 Carondelet street, between Canal and Common streets.

OLD PAPERS.

Good conditioned old papers for sale at this office at only 40 cents per hundred.

CITY IN BRIEF.

School No. 11, which has been closed on account of a case of scarlatina in the janitor's family, will be opened again to-day.

The adjourned meeting of the delegates of the Building and Savings Associations of the city will be held in the Circuit Court room this evening.

The fifth entertainment of the Indianapolis Lecture Course will take place on Wednesday evening at Plymouth Church. Mrs. Mary A. Livermore will deliver a lecture on the occasion.

Arrangements have been made for union prayer meetings between the Tabernacle and Fourth Presbyterian Churches during the present week. The first service was held last evening in the Tabernacle Chapel.

Cornelius Bowen, residing at 128 Bates street, was knocked down by a runaway horse attached to an empty buggy near the crossing of Pennsylvania and Market streets at a late hour Saturday evening. His head was badly bruised, but his injuries are not considered dangerous.

Fell Down Stairs. Dan Shea, at an early hour yesterday morning, while coming down the stairway of the Bates Block missed his footing and fell to the bottom. When he was picked up it was found that he had cut a severe gash in the back of his head. The patrol wagon was telephoned for and he was taken to the Central Station for surgical attention, where he was also treated for drunkenness.

THE ACTON CAMP-MEETING.

An Interesting Meeting at Greensburg—Preparing a Lecture Course.

The trustees and officers of the Acton Camp-ground Association held a meeting at Greensburg, Friday evening, which by some oversight has escaped attention. Yesterday morning a Sentinel reporter learned something of the meeting from one of the officers, which will be of interest to the friends of the association. It was decided that a new hotel is a necessity, and plans were adopted providing for a building eighty by eighty feet, east of the railroad headquarters, fronting the railroad. When completed there will be accommodations for about 100 persons. The Trustees will receive bids for the construction of this hotel, the contracting parties to give bonds for the performance, and to have the work completed by the 15th of May, which will be the time of the next annual meeting. A meeting of the board will be held on the 23d of next month for the purpose of examining the bids. The cost of the building will be about $5,000.

The Lecture Committee reported progress in the preparation of the lecture course, and will have a programme prepared before the time of the next meeting. The arrangement will include a number of days which will be set apart for certain interests. One of these will be the customary Temperance day, on which occasion Mrs. Frances E. Williams is to appear, assisted by a number of other celebrated characters, one of whom will possibly be Mrs. Helen Foster, of Iowa. "Old Soldiers' Day" will be one of the special features, at which time a number of the companies of State militia will be in attendance. The committee has received a letter from General Sherman, stating that unless he is compelled to go to the Rocky Mountains he will be present. It is expected that General Vilas, of Wisconsin, will also be present, together with a number of other prominent officers. The health problems of the country will also be considered for a day under the direction of Dr. E. S. Elder, of this city, assisted by Major Stomberg, of the regular army, with his stereopticon. Professor Earheart will have charge of one day's proceedings, on which matters literary, musical and oratorical will be considered. Either the Tennesseans, the Spanish students, or some other celebrated company will be engaged, not only for this occasion, but for the entire meeting. There is also being considered some other special features, such as Governor's day, college day, etc. Among the list of lecturers already engaged for the meeting are Dr. Siemens, Chancellor of Syracuse University; Rev. Sidney Dean, of Rhode Island; Dr. Willitts, Professor J. O. Ripph, of De Pauw University; Dr. J. H. Bayless, formerly of this city; Professor David Swing, of Chicago; Professor John, Dr. S. S. Laws, of Missouri; Dr. Alabaster, and one or more of the Bishops of the Methodist Church, besides other prominent men and women of the Nation. It is possible also that an arrangement will be consummated for the attendance of the uniform ranks, I. O. O. F., K. of P., K. T., and other secret organizations for a day. It is certain that two of the above orders can be secured, if desirable, and this will include Esper, De Molay and St. Bernard Commanderies of the Knights Templars, which three organizations carried off the three prizes at the Triennial Conclave of San Francisco two years ago. The meeting of these three bodies alone would attract hundreds of people from the various States who have never been able to witness a prize drill. In short, the Acton camp next summer will be one of the greatest resorts of the country, second to none, unless it may possibly be Chautauqua.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Zoo will present a new programme to-night.

The Museum gives a new line of attractions to-day.

"A Hoop of Gold" is the attraction at the Grand Opera House to-night. Popular prices.

To-night the Wilbur Opera Company will occupy English's Opera House, presenting "Girolo-Giroffa."

The sale of seats for the Madison Square "May Blossom" engagement at the Grand the last part of this week opens to-morrow morning at the box office.

Election of Officers.

Branch No. 1 of the Emerald Beneficial Association elected the following officers at their meeting yesterday afternoon: President—Richard Butler. Vice President—James M. Haley. Recording Secretary—John C. Dalton. Financial Secretary—M. Stack. Treasurer—John E. Leonard. Marshal—D. J. Sullivan. Assistant Marshal—James Markey. Sewards—M. E. Howard and William Sheridan. Trustees—J. H. Deery, J. M. Sullivan and Edward Foster.

Richard Butler, John C. Dalton, J. M. Sullivan, James H. Deery and Edward Foster were elected delegates to the State Convention to be held at Tipton, Ind., Tuesday, January 13.

The German-American Typographical Union No. 14 elected the following officers Sunday, January 11:

President—August Tamm, Jr. Vice President—Charles Reber. Recording Secretary—John Bietner. Corresponding Secretary—Constantine Schaefer. Treasurer—Alb Henning. Sergeant at Arms—August Reinhardt. Trustees—William Weiss, Charles Ihndris, William Heidenreich. Delegates to Trades Assembly—August Tamm, Jr., and Charles Reber.

Yesterday's Fires.

At an early hour yesterday evening fire was discovered in the deck factory of George Hedderich, corner of Alabama and New York streets, having originated in the varnish room on the second floor. Considerable fire work is done in the factory, and at the time of the fire there was a good deal of stock in the building. The flames were soon under control, but the machinery and stock were badly damaged by fire and water. The loss on the building is about $500, and on the stock, $1,000, fully insured in the Underwriters, of Louisville; the German, of Buffalo, and the Globe, of Toronto. The origin of the fire is a mystery, as there was no fire in the room during the day.

An alarm from box 48 called the department out yesterday afternoon, but it proved to be the burning of some rubbish at Kingan's pork house. No loss.

LEGISLATIVE NOTES.

Some of the Measures that Will Attract Attention this Session.

The Inaugural Ceremonies this Afternoon—Reception by the New Governor To-Night.

Preparing to Assist the Grant Resolution Along—Several Distinguished Visitors in the City.

Governor Gray will hold his first reception at the State House this evening from 9 to 12 o'clock.

Parties holding stage tickets to the inauguration to-day are requested to enter by the rear door, opening upon the alley.

A. D. Marsh, Speaker of the Ohio Legislature; C. M. Vallandigham, Clerk of the Senate, and son of the deceased statesman, and H. H. Martin, of Lima, are in the city and will attend the inaugural ceremonies.

It is thought that the House committees will be announced to-day, and much interest is felt in the make-up. So far it has been impossible to learn anything concerning them, and the Speaker appears to be able to keep the secret carefully.

There has been some comment on the fact that the Governor omitted all reference in his message to the workings of the Metropolitan Police bill. He might have conscientiously recommended the application of its provisions to all cities of 10,000 or more inhabitants, but for some reason he neglected it.

It is understood that the Democrats will offer the following amendment to the resolution favoring the placing of Grant on the retired list, when the matter is again called up: "And be it resolved further that it is the sense of this body that Fitz John Porter should also be placed upon the retired list." And what will the Republicans do then, poor things?

There is a rumor to the effect that the Legislature will be asked to appropriate $50,000 for the purpose of erecting a soldiers' monument. The subscriptions for this purpose have been very slow to come in and less than $3,000 has been raised. Now that the matter is brought before the Legislature it will be made to get at their money by a legislative appropriation.

A bill of some interest to the medical profession has been introduced in the Senate. It provides that the qualifications of a physician shall be (1) a diploma from a reputable medical college; (2) a license from the honors of a lawfully organized medical society; (3) a successful and reputable practice of medicine for ten years within the State; (4) the registry of every physician of his name with the Clerk of the county in which he resides.

The order of the procession to English's Opera House this afternoon will be: The doorkeepers of the House and Senate acting as Marshals, Beissenherz's Band, Governors Gray and Porter, Lieutenant Governors Manson and Hanna and Speaker Jewett, members of the General Assembly. The line of march will be from the Washington street entrance to the Court-house west; on Washington street to Meridian, north on Meridian to the Opera House.

There is said to be a strong demand for a fee and salary bill, and it is understood that two or three are in course of preparation by as many members of the House. One Representative made his canvass with the understanding that he would introduce such a measure, and it will be forthcoming in a short time. In conversation with his constituents he expressed the opinion that the people would be much better satisfied if they knew definitely what they were to pay their officials. He said that the demand for such a measure is not confined to any section, but is general all over the State.

Representative Moody, of DeKalb, has prepared and will introduce a bill providing for annual reports from all Railroad Companies operating within the State, with regard to the gross earnings of their roads and for the taxation of such corporations on this basis instead of a property basis, as heretofore. A companion bill provides for the appointment of a State Railroad Commissioner whose duty it shall be to superintend the collection of the taxes and enforce the same. Under the provisions of the bill, the Governor will appoint the Commissioner, and his salary is fixed at $3,000 per annum.

One of the Ohio visitors, speaking to a Sentinel representative last night, said: "We regard Indiana as having done a noble part in the campaign, and we want to see her Democrats well provided for. We will say 'amen' to anything an Indiana Democrat wants. We felt the greatest confidence in her pluck and ability to win in the last campaign, and we are glad to know that the State is now and forever reliably Democratic. We have come over to see the new Governor inaugurated and will enjoy the event as much as any Hoosier who witnesses the ceremonies."

Sensors Ernst, May, McClure, Brown, and others, spent the day yesterday as guests of Superintendent Fletcher at the Indiana Hospital. In conversation with Senator Brown, upon his return to the city, he said that he had not been at the Asylum before for twenty-two years, and he was both surprised and pleased to find that so much improvement had been made in the care and treatment of the insane in that time. He visited all the wards of the institution, and expressed the belief that in its treatment of the insane the State had made the substantial progress that is witnessed in everything else. He was gratified, he said, to find the institution so admirably conducted.

The inauguration of Governor Gray will take place at English's Opera House at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and extensive preparations are making for the event. The Senate and House Committees, appointed to arrange the details of the ceremonies, organized with Senator Weir as chairman, and their work was practically finished Saturday afternoon. About 2,000 invitations, containing tickets of admission, have been sent out to different parts of the State. The house will be decorated with flags, bunting and flowers. The parquette has been reserved for members of the Legislature and their wives, while the stage will be occupied by State and ex-State officers. Governor Gray's family will occupy the lower right hand box, the one above being reserved for General Manson, Governor Porter and family will occupy the lower left hand box and Lieutenant Governor Hanna's family the one immediately above. Every seat has been reserved upon the lower floor, and no one will be admitted without coupon tickets, the galleries only being thrown open to the public. The Senate and House will meet at 1:30 o'clock and escort the Governor and Lieutenant Governor to the Opera house, the Doorkeepers of the two Houses acting as Marshals of the Day. Governor Hanna will preside, Rev. O. H. P. Abbott will lead in prayer and Judge Niblack, of the Supreme Bench, will administer the oath of office. Senator Weir, of Laporte, will shortly introduce a bill to create an Appellate Court, an intermediate court as it were, between the Circuit and Superior Courts on the one hand and the Supreme Court on the other. The court will be composed of five Judges to be elected from the same districts as Supreme Judges, and is to have exclusive jurisdiction of all appeals for correction of error from the Circuit, Superior and Criminal Courts, except appeals by the defendant in cases of felony and appeals from any Superior Court having a general term, and in cases where the amount or value in controversy, exclusive of costs, exceeds $3,000, and whenever the title to real estate is in question, and in cases where the validity or construction of a statute is the principal question. The bill is much the same in its provisions as the one introduced in the House last session, and has for its object the relief of the Supreme Court.
