1885, as amended by the act of March 12, 1877, being known as Section 3.417 of R. v. Stat. of 1881.

Mr. FOLKE said this is a bill wholly of local import, and as the bill introduced a 11th page to the Senate the other day on motion of the Senator from Perry (Mr. May) the section proposed to amend provides that any person violating the provisions of the law may be prosecuted before a Justice of the Peace of the town.

The amendment proposed by this bill is that if there be no such Justice in the town, the prosecution may be had before a Justice of the Peace residing in the county nearest to the town. There is a town in Wayne county that has no Justice of the Peace within its limits. He could not conceive any objection to the bill and moved that the constitutional vote be dispensed with and that the bill may be read three times and finally passed by the Senate now.

Mr. FOLKE: What is the emergency? Mr. FOLKE introduced a similar bill two years ago, but in the pressure of business it was lost. Mr. POWELL: Are you afraid it will be lost again? Mr. FOLKE: Was afraid it would be crowded out.

Mr. WINTER: While there may be no objection to the bill, it may be unnecessary. He thought there is a decision by the Supreme Court in which it is held that any Justice of the Peace of a Township is a Justice of the Peace of every town in the township.

Mr. FOLKE: The attorney of the town referred to says he has examined the law carefully and that he can not see any objection to the bill before any Justice, there being none in his town.

The motion was rejected by yeas 26, nays 14—two-thirds of all the Senators elect not voting in the affirmative.

By Mr. FOWLER (H. R. 101) to repeal the act creating a State Bureau of Statistics and Geology. By Mr. SCHLES (S. R. 104) for the relief of Lewis S. Carter.

By Mr. BELLES (S. R. 105) to repeal Section 9 of the act of March 1, 1875, relating to common schools, of March 6, 1875, and March 8, 1875, being Section 4, 20 of the Revised Statutes.

By Mr. THOMPSON (S. R. 107) to amend Section 7 of Chapter 6, 13 of the Revised Statutes, authorizing the appointment of female moral instructors in the State.

Mr. THOMPSON said a great many men and women think there is but little reformation among prisoners. He thought it would be better to have a better tendency than anything else in bringing out and developing the better feeling in the hearts of prisoners, and thus make of them a better class of citizens after being freed from restraint. I move that this bill be referred to the Committee on Prisons.

It was so ordered. By Mr. CAMPBELL (S. R. 108) to create a new fund out of which to pay for sheep killed by dogs.

And then the Senate adjourned till tomorrow morning.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. WEDNESDAY, January 15, 1885—10 a. m. The House met—Mr. Sp. ake Jevett in the chair. The session was opened with the following prayer by the Representatives from the counties of Madison, Hancock and Henry, Elder Joseph Franklin:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. We come before Thee this morning in the attitude of praise. Thee, the Creator and Upholder of this world, we adore and glorify in Thee with our sense of dependence, and obligation for mercies and blessings in our lives. May we rightly discharge our duties there in. May we maintain integrity and manhood in all that we do. Be gracious to those that are from whom we are separated by coming together here. Bless and save us for Christ's sake. Amen.

By Mr. HOBAN (H. R. 77) concerning notes given for attorneys' fees.

By Mr. BEST (H. R. 78) to fix the times for holding court in the Thirty-third Judicial Circuit.

The Senate concurring, that a committee of three on the part of the House, and a like number on the part of the Senate, be appointed to make a complete examination and inspection of all the books, vouchers, accounts, receipts, bonds, securities, claims and assets of the effects while in, or should be, in the treasury, and to count all moneys in such treasury, and to compare all books, vouchers, accounts and records with those of the Auditor of State, and it is hereby made the duty of such Auditor to place them at the disposal of such committee on demand. The Treasurer of State shall, upon demand, submit to the inspection of such committee all of his books, accounts, receipts, records and other papers, together with all vaults, safes or rooms, or other apartments of his office, and if called upon to produce any account, or any period, for the purpose of examination, that an expert accountant should be employed, and, in such case, such facts should be reported to the General Assembly for its action thereon.

The Bedford and Bloomfield, owned and controlled by the Indianapolis Rolling Mill Company, is one of the best paying little roads in the State notwithstanding the fact that times are hard. It is a fact too that very few roads of its size in Indiana are in equally as good physical condition. The last current report showed that the company had expended thousands of dollars during the year of 1884 in improvements and repairs to its tracks in the West-Shore.

This line passes through a country that abounds in the finest article of stone, a large portion of which is being used in the construction of the State House.

Receiver Evans, of the Evansville Air Line, has gone to work on the affairs of the road in a manner that indicates reformation and reform in earnest. To reform things properly will, of course, require some changes in employes. There is already a good deal of dissatisfaction among the "boys," but faithful and efficient employes, it is safe to say, have nothing to fear; but those who are not so well qualified may well fear and quake. The Air Line well manager is a valuable property, and will come out of its present troubles all right. Mr. Evans, from the way he starts out, is evidently the right man in the right place, and the road could not be in better hands as any railroad man had expired and who have been ineligible to the office.

with the air which gives the extreme discomfort experienced from ordinary accidents of this kind, and anything which excites air and prevents inflammation is the best thing to be at once applied. The egg is also considered one of the very best remedies for dysentery. Beaten up lightly, with or without sugar, and swallowed at a gulp, it tends, by its emollient qualities, to lessen the inflammation of the stomach and intestines, and by forming a transient cooling on these organs to enable nature to assume her healthful sway over the diseased body.

Sofa Pillow.—When making a sofa pillow of the heavy patch-work material to put the brightest and most striking pieces near the center. When the cushion is made up the effect is quite different from what it is when it is spread out flat, and it is of more consequence that the center should be handsome than that the corners should. This, when reduced to writing, looks like a foregone conclusion; but it is not, as an unfortunate pillow-maker can testify.

Waffle.—One and a half pinches of flour, one teaspoonful of cream of tartar, one-half teaspoonful of soda, two eggs, one pint of milk, two tablespoonfuls of butter; mix the flour cream of tartar and soda well together, and then rub them through a sieve; beat up the eggs until very light, then add to them the milk and the butter, first melting the latter in two tablespoonfuls of boiling water. Stir this mixture into the flour and bake in the usual way.—The Caterer.

Woman's Suffering and Relief. Those languid, tiresome sensations, causing you to feel scarcely able to be on your feet; that constant drain that is taking from your system all its former elasticity, driving the bloom from your cheeks; that continual sickness and your vital force, rendering you irritable and fretful, can easily be removed by the use of that marvelous remedy, Hop Bitters. Irregularities and obstructions of your system are relieved at once, while the special cases of periodical pain are permanently removed. None recover so much benefit, and none are so profoundly cured, as those who show such an interest in recommending Hop Bitters as women.

I was affected with kidney and urinary trouble.—"For twelve years!" After trying all the doctors and patent medicines I could hear of, I used two bottles of Hop Bitters; and I am perfectly cured. I keep it "all the time!" respectfully, B. C. Booth, Salsburg, Tenn.—May 4, 1883.

It has cured me of several diseases, such as nervousness, sickness at the stomach, monthly troubles, etc. I have not seen a sick day in a year, since I took Hop Bitters. All my neighbors use them.
