

The Sentinel.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 28.

OFFICE: 71 and 73 West Market Street.

RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Indianapolis Sentinel for 1885... Daily, Sunday and Weekly Editions. DAILY. Delivered by carrier, per week... 25

Weekly, per annum... $1 00. The postage on subscriptions by mail is prepaid by the publisher.

Entered as second-class matter at the Postoffice at Indianapolis, Ind.

Thomas C. Fields, a notorious member of the old Tweed gang, of New York city, died in Canada last Sunday.

If any of the three new Asylums were finished Dr. Fletcher might now find accommodations for some of his unfortunate guests instead of forcing them into crowded quarters.

The policy of holding local elections in the spring time in New York city is again being discussed by those interested.

The "Oklahoma boomers" want to fight the Government. They can easily be accommodated if they insist upon it.

Sara Bernhardt says that she will have to go to London to have her marriage declared null and void.

Dumas' new play, "Denise," is not regarded as a great success in Paris, except financially.

The inauguration preparations are progressing satisfactorily. The arrangements will be elaborate and complete.

Though a purist might regard the term as contradictory, there is yet a very consistent and amiable idea in what are called the "humanities of war."

There is quite a cheerful lot of "Socialists" meet about once a week in Chicago and enjoy themselves by denouncing the present order of things in the social and commercial world.

Very queer entertainments are being held at the White House, according to recent rumors. Under the guise of card receptions in the early part of the evening the proceedings are very dignified and "dry."

There is an ill-concealed anxiety to get rid of the guests early in the night. The President, however, gives the wink to a certain select few, and when the others have departed, then comes on a very "high old time," which continues until 4 o'clock in the morning.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

ations of appalling energy. Even the "rock-ribbed earth" has been made the plaything of these forces, and in mines, tunnels and quarries, on steep cliffs or under the deep sea, they have cleft a remorseless way at the bidding of the engineer.

The colored lady who presided invited strangers who were present to talk if they felt so inclined. Upon this announcement a little old man, whose left eye involuntarily winked as he talked, rose and said dynamite was a very difficult thing to make and was very dangerous.

When Her Majesty's Government was destroying life and property by the special methods and process of the Merrimack, where were the tears of Brother Bayard? Where was his "civilization" when poisoned wells and poisoned baits and torpedoes and other uncivilized methods were in use for a bad cause?

Nothing can be added to the abhorrence in which all right minded people in this country hold these acts and the miscreants who perpetrate them. So far as the men are concerned who from this side are said to aid and abet them, we know them only as the meanest and lowest of scoundrels, and as such they are deserving of the most ignominious and disgraceful punishment.

Such an abominable warfare can not last long. Wretches like these, when they conspire, fall presently apart out of their inherent depravity, and no such league ever yet for any length of time lasted through to effect its downfall.

Very queer entertainments are being held at the White House, according to recent rumors. Under the guise of card receptions in the early part of the evening the proceedings are very dignified and "dry."

There is an ill-concealed anxiety to get rid of the guests early in the night. The President, however, gives the wink to a certain select few, and when the others have departed, then comes on a very "high old time," which continues until 4 o'clock in the morning.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

As Considered by Some Aggrieved. It is the Strength of the Weak Oppressed Against the Cowardly Strong. (Communicated.) Some explosions have been recently set free in a couple of the strong places of Her Majesty's Government.

When Her Majesty's Government was destroying life and property by the special methods and process of the Merrimack, where were the tears of Brother Bayard? Where was his "civilization" when poisoned wells and poisoned baits and torpedoes and other uncivilized methods were in use for a bad cause?

Nothing can be added to the abhorrence in which all right minded people in this country hold these acts and the miscreants who perpetrate them. So far as the men are concerned who from this side are said to aid and abet them, we know them only as the meanest and lowest of scoundrels, and as such they are deserving of the most ignominious and disgraceful punishment.

Such an abominable warfare can not last long. Wretches like these, when they conspire, fall presently apart out of their inherent depravity, and no such league ever yet for any length of time lasted through to effect its downfall.

Very queer entertainments are being held at the White House, according to recent rumors. Under the guise of card receptions in the early part of the evening the proceedings are very dignified and "dry."

There is an ill-concealed anxiety to get rid of the guests early in the night. The President, however, gives the wink to a certain select few, and when the others have departed, then comes on a very "high old time," which continues until 4 o'clock in the morning.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

DYNAMITE. As Considered by Some Aggrieved. It is the Strength of the Weak Oppressed Against the Cowardly Strong. (Communicated.)

Some explosions have been recently set free in a couple of the strong places of Her Majesty's Government. There has been no loss of life as a consequence, and it is evident that the explosions were only warnings of what might be expected if legalized iniquity was longer persisted in by the government.

When Her Majesty's Government was destroying life and property by the special methods and process of the Merrimack, where were the tears of Brother Bayard? Where was his "civilization" when poisoned wells and poisoned baits and torpedoes and other uncivilized methods were in use for a bad cause?

Nothing can be added to the abhorrence in which all right minded people in this country hold these acts and the miscreants who perpetrate them. So far as the men are concerned who from this side are said to aid and abet them, we know them only as the meanest and lowest of scoundrels, and as such they are deserving of the most ignominious and disgraceful punishment.

Such an abominable warfare can not last long. Wretches like these, when they conspire, fall presently apart out of their inherent depravity, and no such league ever yet for any length of time lasted through to effect its downfall.

Very queer entertainments are being held at the White House, according to recent rumors. Under the guise of card receptions in the early part of the evening the proceedings are very dignified and "dry."

There is an ill-concealed anxiety to get rid of the guests early in the night. The President, however, gives the wink to a certain select few, and when the others have departed, then comes on a very "high old time," which continues until 4 o'clock in the morning.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

you say have recourse to prayer, I answer we have tried it. If you say try milder methods, I answer as before. If you say wait, don't the hills answer for the patience of the Irish in long suffering? If you ask, is it all for liberty? let the explosions answer.

In the News of a few days ago an eminent Catholic divine ventilates his views on the temperance question: and, not content with giving the article the simple weight of his name, he affixes thereto the initials of the august position to which he has been elevated, so that it is not only August Bessones, as man and priest, who speaks, but August Bessones, V. G.—Vicar General—representative of the Holy Father himself, who says that he would be better pleased if, in the bill now pending before the Legislature they would fix the license at $1,000 instead of $500.

When Her Majesty's Government was destroying life and property by the special methods and process of the Merrimack, where were the tears of Brother Bayard? Where was his "civilization" when poisoned wells and poisoned baits and torpedoes and other uncivilized methods were in use for a bad cause?

Nothing can be added to the abhorrence in which all right minded people in this country hold these acts and the miscreants who perpetrate them. So far as the men are concerned who from this side are said to aid and abet them, we know them only as the meanest and lowest of scoundrels, and as such they are deserving of the most ignominious and disgraceful punishment.

Such an abominable warfare can not last long. Wretches like these, when they conspire, fall presently apart out of their inherent depravity, and no such league ever yet for any length of time lasted through to effect its downfall.

Very queer entertainments are being held at the White House, according to recent rumors. Under the guise of card receptions in the early part of the evening the proceedings are very dignified and "dry."

There is an ill-concealed anxiety to get rid of the guests early in the night. The President, however, gives the wink to a certain select few, and when the others have departed, then comes on a very "high old time," which continues until 4 o'clock in the morning.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

It is further asserted that one of the condemning reasons against dynamite is that the innocent are made to suffer with the guilty.

Solomon at Reichwein's Hall, the evening of February 3, at 8 o'clock. Hon. George Grubbs, of Martinsville, is at the Grand.

William Swint, editor of the Booneville Enquirer, is in the city, the guest of his brother-in-law, Mr. McGinnis, 242 North Alabama street, and is looking in on the Legislature during his visit.

Judge Banta, Franklin; Judge Best, Waterloo; Judge Kane, Noblesville; Judge Colerick, Fort Wayne; Judge Biemel, New Albany, and Judge Buckles, Muncie, registered at the Grand yesterday.

AMUSEMENTS. "ORPHEUS AND EURYDICE" AT THE GRAND. Despite the snow-storm and general inclemency of the weather, a large and enthusiastic audience greeted the second performance of "Orpheus and Eurydice" at the Grand Opera House last night, by the Bijou Opera Bouffe Company, and it was again received with the most flattering manifestations of pleasure.

"A MIDNIGHT MARRIAGE" AT ENGLISH'S. To-morrow night at English's Opera Mr. William Redmond and Mrs. Thomas Barry will begin an engagement of three nights and Saturday matinee in Mr. Charles Osborn's great play, "A Midnight Marriage."

The Zoo continues to please large audiences with a strong variety bill. Kate Claxton in "A Sea of Ice" will be the attraction at English's the first half of next week, benefit of the Emmett Guards.

The prices for the matinee of "Orpheus and Eurydice" at the Grand this afternoon will be only twenty-five and fifty cents to all parts of the house.

The Eiks' annual benefit at the Grand Opera House on Friday afternoon of next week gives promise of being one of the most brilliant affairs of the season. The programme prepared is a "corker" and will please everybody.

The Dime Museum again delighted large audiences yesterday afternoon and last night, notwithstanding the disagreeable weather. This is one of the most popular resorts in the city, and deservedly so.

Senator Mages Gives a Dinner. State Senator R. Mages entertained at dinner, in parlor No. 2, at the Denison Hotel, last evening, a party consisting of Senator Voorhees, Ex-Senator McDonald, Speaker Jewett, Lieutenant Governor Manson and Colonel Dick Bright.

Warden Howard is at the Grand. Mayor Zollinger, of Fort Wayne, is at the Bates.

Cards are out for the marriage of Adolph Erdman to Miss Clara, daughter of Mrs. I.

A Foreign Parson's Opinion. Albany Argus. Rev. Joseph Parker, D. D. pastor of the City Temple, London, has written a letter, in which he vehemently condemns the conduct of those members of Plymouth Church who oppose Rev. Mr. Beecher's action during the Presidential campaign.

PERSONAL MENTION. Warden Howard is at the Grand. Mayor Zollinger, of Fort Wayne, is at the Bates.

Cards are out for the marriage of Adolph Erdman to Miss Clara, daughter of Mrs. I.

PERSONAL MENTION. Warden Howard is at the Grand. Mayor Zollinger, of Fort Wayne, is at the Bates.