

LEGISLATIVE NOTES.

The Appropriation Bill Reported by the Ways and Means Committee.

The Bill for Relief of the Trustees of Marion County—Passage of the New Insane Hospital Appropriations.

Bill on second reading was the special order in the House yesterday.

The Senate passed the greater part of yesterday discussing the Orphan Asylum bill.

Dr. M. Pettit, of Fountain, is a candidate for Trustee of the Indiana Hospital for the Insane.

J. S. Comins, of Johnson County, is a candidate for Trustee of the Asylum for the Deaf and Dumb.

Representative Monk, of Wayne, who has been absent on account of illness, returned to his seat yesterday.

Harry Francis, editor of the Michigan City Dispatch, was on the floor of the Legislature yesterday. Harry has great expectations.

The bill appropriating $25,000 for the Military Department of the State excited quite a discussion yesterday, resulting in the enacting clause being stricken out.

Senator Magee's bill appropriating $225,000 for this year and $335,000 for next year, to be used for the new asylums for the insane, was passed by the Senate yesterday by a vote of 45 to 3.

Representative Williams, of Knox, Chairman of the Committee on Benevolent Institutions, introduced a bill in the House yesterday morning, which was passed, appropriating $3,000 for immediate use at the Insane Asylum.

Senator Davis, of Elkhart, has introduced a bill to make the State Board of Education Trustees of the State Library, and placing in their hands the choice of librarian. It fixes the term of office of the librarian at four years and the salary at $1,200.

Senator McClure has held the position of Father of the Senate for a long time. This year Senator Shively superseded him. Both are doctors and very independent Democrats.

Senator McClure has been in the Legislature of 1843, '44, '45, '46, '47, '48, '49, '50, '51, '52 and '53. He is a great favorite in the Senate and out of it, and at the opening of the session some Democratic ladies decorated his desk with flowers. Senator Shively first entered the Senate in 1858, but he has been absent during longer lapses than Senator McClure.

The bill introduced for the relief of the Trustees of Marion County lost by the failure of banks to give the deposits of the various townships in the same banks as follows: Jesse A. Avery, Pike, $1,925.43; in Harrison's Bank; W. B. Flick, Lawrence, $1,180.78; with Indiana Banking Company; C. B. Wadsworth, Lawrence, $1,120.48; in Fletcher & Sharpe's Bank; W. H. Speer, Wayne, $507.75; in Indiana Banking Company; J. L. Hunter, Warren, $1,868.78; in Harrison's; T. W. January, Decatur, $2,486.90; in Harrison's; Chris Grube, Perry, $2,170.90; in Fletcher & Sharpe's; H. E. Matthews, Franklin, $722.84; in Fletcher & Sharpe's. The total loan amounts to about $12,000, the banks paying the following: Harrison's, 5 per cent; Fletcher & Sharpe's, 50 per cent; Indiana Banking Company, 60 per cent.

The Committee on Ways and Means reported the appropriation bill made necessary by the failure of the appropriations of the last Legislature. The bill is the same as the former bill with the following exceptions: The salary of the Adjutant General made $1,200; the Governor's civil contingent fund is $2,000; military contingent fund, $2,500; the Clerk of the Auditor of State is given $800; Land Department Clerk, $800; no provision is made for the Insane Department Clerk, Auditor's stenographer or bank Clerk; the office expenses of the Auditor are made $800; for the Deputy Attorney General, $800; for Attorney General's five exp. made $300 for first Clerk of State; tendent of Public Instruction, $1,200; for second Clerk, $600; for office expenses of Superintendent, $400; for expenses Bureau of Statistics, $4,000; and an additional sum of $250 to pay existing claims against the Bureau; for Fish Commissioner, $2,000; for State Prison South, $75,000; for State Prison North, $80,000; for public printing, advertising and stationery, $20,000.

A small part of the Republican remnant in the House of Representatives assembled in the United States Court-room last night for the purpose of selecting the names for the empty honor of a nomination on Friday. The caucus was called to order at 7 o'clock, Representative B. Wilson Smith, of Tippecanoe, in the chair. He informed the audience that the Republican Senators had left the selection of the candidates to the Representatives, which accounted for the entire absence of Senator. The following candidates were thereupon selected, as well as those who should place them in nomination: For Prison Director, North, Leopold Levy, of Huntington, to be nominated by Representative Sawyer; for Prison Director, South, A. W. Scott, of Gibson, to be nominated by Representative Tinselman; for State Librarian, Miss Mattie Clark, of Morgan, to be nominated by Representative Adams; for Commissioner of Statistics, Benjamin Simmons, of Randolph, to be nominated by Representative Engle; for Trustee of the Hospital for the Insane, A. V. Bartholomew, of Porter, to be nominated by Representative E. Wilson Smith; for Trustee of the Asylum for the Blind, Major J. E. Brant, of Monroe, to be nominated by Representative Overman; for Trustee of Asylum for Deaf and Dumb, Dr. J. H. Erick, of Lagrange, to be nominated by Representative Wildman; for Trustee of the Home for Soldiers' Orphans and Feeble Minded Children, James Harris, of Hamilton, to be nominated by Representative Boyd; for Trustee of Boys' Reform School, Elder L. L. Carpenter, of Wabash, to be nominated by Representative Hopkins.

A Narrow Escape. A Mr. Long, foreman at the Saryen Wheel Works, while working around the machinery yesterday morning was in some unaccountable manner caught in an endless belt. By a quick motion he caught hold of a lever in time to prevent his being dashed to the far end of the room. The great effort which he made doubtless saved his life, but it tore his clothes entirely off of him. He was not injured.

A Serious Charge. George Winslow, colored, was arrested yesterday by Patrolman Page on a charge of grand larceny. Winslow is janitor of the Talbot Block, and it appears, has been carrying the keys to the room occupied by Connor's book bindery for some time past.

AMUSEMENTS.

"A MIDNIGHT MARRIAGE" AT ENGLISH'S.

To-night at English's Opera House the noted artists, Mr. William Redmond and Mrs. Thomas Barry, from the Globe and Boston Theaters, will begin an engagement of three nights and Saturday matinee, presenting Mr. Charles Osborne's new historical drama, "A Midnight Marriage."

The scene of the story of the play, with its many incidents, ranges over the years from 1523 to 1526, which are prior to and succeed the battle of Pavia and the imprisonment of Francis I. The play opens in Gascon, at the Chateau of "Comte Casimir de Langlet," a brave but impoverished noble, who is about to leave Gascony, when "Hortense de Guise" arrives suddenly. She has fled from Paris to escape from a hated marriage.

"The Langlet" and "Hortense" are deeply in love with each other, and she being presented to consent to a secret and midnight marriage. After a lapse of two years "Hortense" is introduced, through the deception of her uncle, to revisit the Chateau de Guise, where she is led to suppose she will find "de Langlet" from whom she has been separated. On arriving at the Chateau she discovers the deception and is claimed by "de Brion" as his wife. "De Langlet" however, arrives in time to proclaim the truth, but is ignorantly strangled. Mr. William Redmond, who is an English actor, gives as "Casimir de Langlet" a heroic performance of the only melodramatic type. He is an intelligent, earnest and picturesque actor. Mrs. Thomas Barry as "Hortense de Guise" is interesting and forcible. She has been recognized as a clever actress, and was for years leading lady of the Boston Theater. The supporting company is competent. Popular prices will rule throughout the engagement.

FOUR ENGLISH OPERA COMPANY AT THE GRAND.

Dickson's Grand Opera House will remain closed on account of the Maude Granger contract, until Monday evening next, when the Charles E. Ford Grand English Opera Company, with Zelta Seguin as the prima donna, will open a limited engagement at popular prices. The following bills are proposed to be given: Monday evening, "The Bohemian Girl," by Balfe; Tuesday evening, "Nell Gwynne," by Planquette; Wednesday matinee (25 cents to all parts of the house), "Fra Diavolo," by Auber; Wednesday evening, "Girolo," by Bucalossi. The company has been greatly strengthened since its last appearance here, and numbers some of the best singers on the lyric stage, among whom are James Peake, Thomas Christy, Webster Norcross, William Barnes, George W. Denham, Horace James, Miss Lulu Evans, Miss Fannie Hunt, D'Alma, Miss Lucy Mitchell, Miss Mel Mitchell, Miss Lewella Dewey, Miss Del Peake, Miss Nettie Shepard, and a large and brilliant chorus. The following low scale prices have been adopted: Parquet and dress circle, reserved, 50 cents; parquet, 75 cents; sofa chairs, $1. General admission, 15 and 25 cents. The sale of seats will open tomorrow (Friday) morning at 9 o'clock, at the theater box-office.

KATE CLAXTON COMING.

Next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, and Wednesday matinee, Kate Claxton and Charles A. Stevenson will be at English's, presenting "A Sea of Ice," for the benefit of the Emmett Guards. Miss Kate Claxton, who is held in warm affection by the theater-goers, will take the part of Ogarita and Marie de Lasours, and Mr. Charles A. Stevenson will be the Carlos and del Monte of the drama—the pirate turned gentleman. The drama has long been known and it is deservedly liked for its interest of plot, its romantic atmosphere, its many striking incidents and pictures, and its effective assertion of the ever-favored principle of justice. The stage setting will be elaborate and magnificent. Sale of seats opens tomorrow morning at the theater box-office.

NOTES.

Matinee at the Zoo at 2. A strong variety bill will be given.

Miss Frances Bishop, in "Maggie's Landing" will be the attraction at English's Opera House the last three nights of next week.

Manager Wilbur, of the Wilbur Opera Company, and Manager Sailor, of the Hunt-ton Opera House, were in the city yesterday.

Frank Perry Weaden has just completed a farcical comedy, which he thinks of naming "Bet Stuff; or, the Jay and the Jumper." This would certainly be a "hot" title.

The popular comedians, Harrison and Gouley, in their intensely funny farcical comedy, "Skipped by the Light of the Moon," will be at the Grand Opera House the last half of next week.

Manager Watkins, of the "Orphans and Eurydice" Company, has contracted with Miss Daisy Murdock, the charming little "Cupid" of the company, to star her in a novelty play next season.

The Bijou Opera Bonifis Company, after their appearance in Dayton, O., to-night, will depart and return to New York. By the way, it will not be out of place to remark that the gentleman who played "Orphans" here was not Harry Pepper, as the bills had it.

Large crowds were in attendance at the Dime Museum, both yesterday afternoon and last night, and everybody was delighted. Inspired by the success of Chang's "Gandy Matinee," given to the children last Saturday afternoon, Manager Sackett has determined to give them a "Bon-bon Matinee" next Saturday, when every child in attendance will be presented with a package of sugar-plums.

Senator Voorhees Dined. The Executive Committee of the Democratic State Central Committee gave an evening dinner to Senator Voorhees yesterday at the Bates House. The dinner was informal but very enjoyable. Social conversation was indulged in during the evening, and altogether it was one of the pleasantest events of the kind this season. The following gentlemen were present: Messrs. Bannister, Fairbanks, Henderson, Rice, Fremzel, Hawkins, Dalton, Debs, Kern, Harper, Foster, Jewett, Bright, and Cooper.

Indianapolis Capital Abroad. The St. Louis Globe-Democrat of recent date had three columns of solid nonpareil with illustrated cuts descriptive of the new cable road which Indianapolis capital had

The Quaker in the Senate.

[New Haven Palladium.]

Hon. Jonathan Chase, elected to succeed Senator Anthony from Rhode Island, dresses in the traditional Quaker costume of half a century ago, and in private conversation uses the "threes" and "thous" of the Quaker language, although in his public addresses he adheres to the more modern style of speech. Like the strict constructionists of his sect, he holds to the peace theory, and can never be persuaded to vote on appropriation bills for the maintenance of the army or navy, or to nominate cadets for West Point or Annapolis.

Subscriptions for the earthquake sufferers in Spain are pouring in from at least three-quarters of the globe with gratifying rapidity.

An Interesting Account of the Rise and Progress of a Powerful Enemy.

At no period of life is the system exempt from rheumatic attack. It is a painful, wearing and debilitating disease. It incapacitates for labor, consumes the sufferer's time, robs him of his money.

It is mainly a disease of northern climates with their excesses of cold, heat and moisture, and rapid changes of temperature. It sometimes attacks the muscles only. At others the joints. And a still more dangerous form involves the stomach, liver, heart, kidneys and internal organs.

Direct causes of rheumatism are: First, exposure to cold and damp; rest, after violent exercise, in moist cool places—a shade, a damp room; drizzling wettings, insufficient clothing, sitting in drafts, working in sunless places, living in malarial regions.

Second, weakened health from over-exertion; poor blood from insufficient food.

Third, too free use of improper food and stimulants.

Fourth, hereditary tendencies, and some kinds of previous or existing diseases.

Excessive or improper food begets acid dyspepsia, a stomach disease. The acid is absorbed into the blood and finally deposited in the line of muscles and about joints. Uterine troubles and tardy menstruation, in females, tend to acid, and consequently, rheumatic conditions. Stimulants, hot, rich foods, malarial poisons, congest the liver, alter the blood, and end in rheumatism.

Muscular rheumatism may attack any muscle or group of muscles. In the back, it is lumbago. In the chest, it is intercostal neuralgia. In general, the part of the body attacked gives it a name. It may come suddenly. It may also grow gradually and become fixed. Its symptoms are intense pain and disinclination to use the muscles affected.

Acute inflammation of the joints is another form of rheumatism. Its symptoms are headache, chilliness, high pulse, feverishness, for hours in advance. Then a toe, knee, or other joint, suddenly becomes red, swollen and terribly painful. Another joint is attacked, and still another, till few escape.

Chronic rheumatism is the result of postponed or improper treatment of an acute attack. The general health may be good. The joints are enlarged, stiff, and painful. It is a stubborn form. Without proper treatment, the bones become involved, the stiffness increases, and permanent disability ensues, hard nodules forming in the joints after a time.

Rheumatic gout is an insidious form of rheumatism. At first a joint, say of toe or finger, enlarges and stiffens; a muscle aches; a sore spot comes in the flesh. Neuralgic twinges are felt in head, back or legs. The sufferer feels odd, requires a shaking up after rest, feels well one day but not the next, puffs and wheezes when walking, fills about the throat, perhaps coughs a little, lacks appetite and does not digest well, has frequent bilious spells, pain in stomach, palpitation, rushes of blood to head, faints, apoplexy. The joints enlarge, chalk stones form. They may come a sudden gouty attack on one point, with quick movement to others; sometimes to the heart, when it becomes dangerous. Its leading cause is the thickening of tissues and the failure to eliminate waste, which come with advancing years and disinclination to exercise.

It is wonderful how easy rheumatism begins, how tenacious its grip, how insidiously it grows in the system, till one is startled by its appearance in acute or chronic form!

Can it be cured? Yes. Every condition leading to it can be changed. Permanent distortion of body cannot be removed, but its pain and inconvenience can be. This disease never gets into chronic or gouty shape. Athlophors is the supreme remedy. It is destructive of rheumatic conditions in the system. Nature works the rest.

Athlophors has been universally successful in curing rheumatism and neuralgia. Testimonials of its wonderful efficacy come from all parts of the country.
