The Sentinel. WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 25. SENTINEL TELEPHONE CALLS. THE SENTINEL AT NEW ORLEANS. To accommodate the throng from the Northwest who will desire to read their favorite home paper while attending the "World's Exposition," the Sentinel has been placed on sale in New Orleans at George F. Wharton & Bro's, No. 5 Carondelet street, between Canal and Common streets.

OLD PAPERS. Good condition of old papers for sale at this office at only 40 cents per hundred. CITY IN SHIP. Oyster supper at California Street Church to-night. A large number of cases of measles have been reported during the last three days. The Liedertanz masquerade will take place at Mozart Hall Monday evening next. There is talk of J. D. Campbell and Sterling Hunt purchasing Stewart Place, adding another story, and putting in an elevator for hotel purposes. Rev. Dr. Willems will lecture in the Indianapolis Church on Wednesday evening. His subject is "Sunshine, or the Secret of a Happy Home." The rumor which was circulated yesterday as to the embarrassed condition of the Indianapolis Chair Company is without foundation. The story grew out of the reported suit against the branch house at San Francisco. Insane Inquests. Albert Chilton was yesterday decided to be insane. His health has but lately failed. He is homicidal in his intentions. Edward Bond, formerly car inspector of the Bee Line Road, living at 114 Cliff, d avenue, has been declared insane. He was overcome by the heat last summer, and to this is attributed his mental trouble. He viciously assaults his wife and child, thinks it is summer, says the clock has a bad habit of walking around the room, and claims that the railroad company is under obligations to purchase him some mules. He is both homicidal and suicidal.

COURT-HOUSE LOCALS. March Term Jurors for Rooms 1 and 2—Record of the Courts. The suit of Elwood Mitchell vs. Kate Mitchell, for divorce, is on trial before Judge Howe. The argument before the jury in the Barnhart damage suit against the L. B. and W. Road and others still continues in Room 3. Judge Ayres yesterday heard part of the evidence in the divorce suit of Jeannetta Stone vs. Daniel Stone, and continued the case to Monday. The foreclosure suit of the Travelers' Insurance Company vs. James T. McKim and others was dismissed yesterday in Room 1 on a compromise. In the case of Isaac J. Horton vs. the National Benefit Association the death of the plaintiff was suggested to Judge Taylor, and the case was dismissed. This is a suit on policy. Judge Taylor has granted a divorce to Alice B. Fogarty from John Fogarty, on proof of cruel treatment and drunkenness. She was also given the custody of the children and $250 alimony. William L. and Ursula M. Marsh yesterday filed suit for breach of covenants of title against Henry D. and Louis Stringer, of St. Louis. The complaint alleges that on the 5th of this month plaintiffs purchased certain property in Salem, Ill., for $12,500. Plaintiffs afterward learned one Thomas S. Hamilton held and owned said premises, and still holds the same. Demand, $15,000. Julia A. Stewart has sued William H. Stewart for divorce. They were married in February, 1875. The petition alleges that on Monday night last William cursed and kicked this plaintiff and drove her into the cold night air. He also knocked down their little boy, aged five years. He is obliged with habitual drunkenness and failure to provide. Prayer is made for the custody of the child, for $1,000 alimony, for an allowance to enable her to prosecute this suit, and for an injunction to prevent defendant from disposing of his property until the suit is tried. Plaintiff lives in Washington Township. The attachment suit of William Bosson vs. Frederick Heiner came up yesterday before Judge Howe. After a hearing, in which it was shown that Mr. Heiner was innocent of any wrong and that no wrong had been perpetrated, the Court dismissed the matter, saying he regretted that Mr. Heiner had been placed in the light he had before the public in some of the papers. "In the case," said Judge Howe, "I find nothing against you and all your actions have been perfectly proper and right. It is to be regretted that you have for a moment been placed in a false light in this matter." Ora A. Coan has filed a petition against George A. Carrington to vacate an order of the Circuit Court permitting the adoption of her child by Carrington. At the time of making the order she had a divorce suit pending in one of the Superior Courts against her husband, Sidney W. Coan. She alleges that Carrington is an uncle of her former husband, and by promises made to her that she should be permitted to see her child as often as she wished, and that she should be taught to know her and call her mother. Since the adoption of the child by Carrington she has applied for permission to see the child and has been refused; hence the filing of the petition. The following jurors have been drawn for the March term: Room 1—Howard Ruark, Warren Township; G. W. Walker, Center Township; Howard Todd, Pike Township; John Elzenberger, Warren Township; Willis Myers, Pike Township; Ben Smith, Warren Township; George Youngerman, Wayne Township; V. M. Miller, Wayne Township; T. H. Hennessy, Center Township; S. W. B. Franklin, Township; John East, Wayne Township; J. L. Beardon, Center Township. Room 2—J. T. Fossett, Wayne Township; S. W. Morgan, Center Township; J. P. Brock, Center Township; John Keppie, Pike Township; Henry Pollard, Pike Township; J. N. Todd, Perry Township; John Vanderman, Franklin Township; Ezekiel Smart, Lawrence Township; G. W. Chestnut, Center Township; Isaac Smock, Perry Township; Luther Johnson, Washington Township; B. F. Osborne, Washington Township.

Legislative Notes. The Senate Bill to Reorganize the Knightstown Home Reported. Mrs. May's Claim Before the Senate—The Congressional Apportionment Bill Passes the House. Senator Weir's Appellate Court bill has been made the special order for Monday next. The Democratic Senators caucused last night for an hour after the afternoon session, discussing various matters, but reaching no specific conclusion.

The committee appointed to investigate the management of the Knightstown Home has completed the taking of testimony, and it is possible that a report will be made to the Legislature to-day. Twenty-five new bills were introduced in the House yesterday, notwithstanding the fact that less than two weeks of the session now remain. Under these circumstances there appears little or no prospect of passing any of the new measures. The vote on the Congressional Apportionment bill by which that bill passed the House yesterday showed that the Democrats were practically unanimous, the yeas being 33 and the nays 10, the latter less than half a dozen in excess of the usual strength of the minority. The bill now goes to the Senate, and the Legislative Reapportionment bill will probably come up for passage to-day. The special committee appointed to report a bill on the reorganization of the Knightstown Home made its report yesterday. The bill provides that the present Trustees shall be out of office on the passage of the bill; that the Governor shall then appoint new Trustees, who shall appoint a Superintendent, with the consent of the Governor. The Governor shall have power to remove Trustees and to appoint their successors. The Superintendent may be removed either by the Governor or Trustees. Mrs. May secured the endorsement of the bill for the payment of her claim of $10,000, the vote in the Senate, where the bill originated, being a tie. Lieutenant Governor Manson, however, in giving the casting vote in her favor, said that he did not believe the State of Indiana could afford to refuse payment of an honest debt. His vote and the announcement of the result were received with applause by the many ladies who were in the Senate during the discussion of the bill. The friends of the measure believe that sufficient votes can be obtained to pass it through the Senate.

The Governor and State officers held a meeting yesterday and fixed upon March 7 at 11 o'clock a. m. as the time for opening the bids received from those who desire to invest in the State's securities, under the provisions of the recently enacted law which contemplates the borrowing of $600,000 at a rate of interest not to exceed 4 per centum per annum, redeemable at the pleasure of the State after five years, and payable in ten years after the date thereof, interest payable semi-annually in the city of New York; also, the funding, at a lower rate of interest, of the present outstanding temporary loan of $885,000 for a period not less than five years nor more than ten years. Bids will be received for refunding said temporary loan, redeemable at the pleasure of the State after five years and payable in ten years, and also for refunding said temporary loan, payable in ten years after the date thereof, interest on the same payable semi-annually in the city of New York. The State Treasurer was directed to give notice to holders of the present outstanding temporary loan bonds that interest will cease on them from and after March 31, for the purpose of refunding them. The right was reserved to reject any and all bids, and 200 copies of the law were ordered printed.

LEGISLATIVE NOTES.

The Senate Bill to Reorganize the Knightstown Home Reported.

Mrs. May's Claim Before the Senate—The Congressional Apportionment Bill Passes the House.

Senator Weir's Appellate Court bill has been made the special order for Monday next. The Democratic Senators caucused last night for an hour after the afternoon session, discussing various matters, but reaching no specific conclusion.

The committee appointed to investigate the management of the Knightstown Home has completed the taking of testimony, and it is possible that a report will be made to the Legislature to-day.

Twenty-five new bills were introduced in the House yesterday, notwithstanding the fact that less than two weeks of the session now remain. Under these circumstances there appears little or no prospect of passing any of the new measures.

The Governor and State officers held a meeting yesterday and fixed upon March 7 at 11 o'clock a. m. as the time for opening the bids received from those who desire to invest in the State's securities, under the provisions of the recently enacted law which contemplates the borrowing of $600,000 at a rate of interest not to exceed 4 per centum per annum, redeemable at the pleasure of the State after five years, and payable in ten years after the date thereof, interest payable semi-annually in the city of New York; also, the funding, at a lower rate of interest, of the present outstanding temporary loan of $885,000 for a period not less than five years nor more than ten years.

thirty-nine years, six months and twenty-one days. From June 30, 1879, to June 30, 1884, a period of five years, there were 5,327 deaths, making a total as above, 6,184 deaths in eleven years. The average age of the 6,184 deceased members was thirty-three years, three months and twenty-six days. The total membership on June 30, 1884, was 128,318. It will be remembered by many that in the latter part of 1878 and beginning of 1879 our loss by yellow fever alone was 155. Our Order paid a total of $11,751 91 benefits to the heirs of the 6,384 deceased members. The cost individually for assessments necessary to pay this sum to the beneficiary was $18 per annum for members paying it. Walter B. Godfrey, Grand Treasurer, in his report recommends that the per capita tax for the coming year remain as it is—eighty cents—which will provide for a balance at the close of each session sufficiently large to meet the ordinary running expenses of the Grand Lodge until the June installment of the tax can become available. The balance of the time was occupied in transaction of routine business. The election of officers will take place to-day. G. A. R. The attention of the members of the G. A. R. who are attending the G. A. R. convention is called to the fine line of G. A. R. hats and caps exhibited by Ryan, The Hatter, 21 and 23 South Illinois street.
