THE RAILROADS. The Air Line is hauling a considerable amount of lumber to this city from points in Michigan. The track on Tennessee street leading to the rolling mill will in all probability be taken up this spring.

This spring enterprising parties of Northern Indiana will put up an elegant hotel at Michigan, and during the summer it is expected that business will be very heavy to this point.

It has been said that the Vandalias people are only "hunting" the other roads when they talk withdrawing from the St. Louis East-bound Pool. An official of that road said yesterday that people who were under the impression that they were to be withdrawn, he said, meant business when he gave the notice of withdrawal, for that gentleman, as has been stated time and time again in the last few months, was utterly disgusted with pools.

Officials of other roads are of the opinion that the withdrawal of the Vandalias will not necessarily break up the pool. An official of the P., D. and E. who was seen yesterday with regard to the report that his road contemplated the purchase of the I., D. and S., said he did not know whether there was any truth in the report or not. It would be a mere acquisition, he said, to the P., D. and E. giving them a good line to Indianapolis, and this was something they were in need of. There are many who believe the P., D. and E. people will buy the I., D. and S. outright if they can get it at their price, but whether they care to take the matter to be seen. It was learned yesterday afternoon from a gentleman interested in the property under discussion, that the members of the second mortgage bondholders were not in favor of selling the road, believing that they can make it pay by operating it themselves. At any rate, nothing will be done until the road passes out of the hands of the I., D. and S. people, on April 1. All I., D. and S. cars in the possession of the latter company have been returned and will be turned over to the owners when H. B. Hammond, President and Receiver, assumes control.

Death of John Landers. Mr. Jackson Landers received a telegram yesterday stating that the remains of his son John, who died in Coffeyville, Kan., were on the way to this city. If nothing happens they will arrive here this afternoon at 10 o'clock. The report which was circulated in the streets yesterday that the young man had been killed in error. The latest dispatch received states that death was caused by intoxication or twisting of the bowels.

The deceased was an exemplary young man, and leaves many warm friends to mourn his loss and sympathize with the grief-stricken family. He was educated in the University, and at the age of seventeen took up his abode in Kansas and became engaged in sheep-raising, in which business he remained for about two years, a prize he finally destroying the entire herd. He then went into partnership with one Mr. Gorman, a cattle raiser, and when the young man died he owned about 1,000 head of cattle. He was twenty-two years of age, and was married about two years ago. The bereaved family have the sympathy of a host of friends, who were well acquainted with the true character of the deceased. Due notice of the funeral will be given.

Resolutions of Respect. At a special meeting of Indianapolis Typographical Union No. 1, held Thursday, March 19, 1885, relative to the death of Frank S. Root, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, An all-wise and beneficent Providence has seen fit to call from our midst our honored and respected brother, Frank S. Root, a member of our organization and was ever devoted to its interests and those of his fellow-craftsmen; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in his death we have lost a member who was dear to all, and whose place in the esteem and confidence of our order was void to none.

Resolved, That we extend to his widow our heartfelt sympathy in this hour of bereavement, and look with her to that Author of all earthly comfort who "doeth all things well," and who "giveth His beloved sleep."

A Four Year Sentence. The trial of Ira Harter was concluded yesterday evening, having occupied nearly a day and a half of the time of the court. The jury returned a verdict giving him four years North. Harter was indicted for highway robbery, he having robbed an old man in the southern part of the city about two months ago of $50. It has been noted character for years past and this trip will relieve the police of some society as they were compelled to keep a constant watch over him in connection with several other characters.

Sudden Death. Mrs. Hannah Apple, an old lady residing at Oakland, thirteen miles out on the Bee Line, came to the city yesterday to pay a visit to her married daughter, residing at Belmont. She entered a street-car, riding to the end of the line, and then walked across the commons to her daughter's house. She had just entered the yard when she reeled and fell to the ground. She was carried into the house, and lived but a few moments. The deceased was sixty years of age, and death is supposed to have resulted from heart disease.
