

GENERAL TELEGRAMS.

A Budget of Madison News. Special to the Sentinel. MADISON, Ind., April 9.—Warrants were issued yesterday for the arrest of Alonzo, Charles and John Renfrow and Charles Nichols, who, it appears, on the night of the 1st of April, went to the residence of Henry Dalhoober, about ten miles in the country, where all these parties reside, and began throwing rocks against the house and through the windows, and awakened her and his family arose from their beds, when a rock came crashing through a window and struck Mrs. Dalhoober on the head. The parties then fled—this being about midnight. William Dalhoober, a brother of Henry—also a farmer—resides about two miles distant. Henry hurriedly dressed and repaired to his brother's residence to apprise him of the doings of the mob, but when he arrived there he found they had also been there, having come direct from Henry's to William's house and went through the same acts, almost tearing the house down and riddling all the windows. At Bob Voris' bannio, on Depot street night before last, in a row a Cincinnati drummer named Medoife, and a Madison tough named Sol, alias Gundy McIntyre, were seriously cut by another crowd. Mrs. Jacob Shuler, of North Walnut street, has brought a slander suit against Mrs. Peter Wendell, claiming $5,000 damages. Mrs. Wendell denies the charge. E. R. Hay will appear for the plaintiff, and M. B. Sulzer for defendant. Some of the farmers in the neighborhood of Wirt, this county, are considerably worked up by the appearance of a strange animal. Some claim it is a real panther, which escaped from circus and has taken up his abode among the quiet farmers of Jefferson County. Circuit Court is still in session grinding out justice to all that ask it. The stockholders of the Opera House Company will meet to night to consider plans for the building. The contract will be given soon and work begun this spring, so by next fall we may expect to have some fine troupes. Shooting Match—Appointed. Special to the Sentinel. LAFAYETTE, Ind., April 9.—The shooting match between Fred Erb, who claims to be the champion rifle shot of the world, and Ed Vorhis, of Crawfordsville, came off on Tuesday last and resulted in a victory for Vorhis. Erb was beaten by only two shots, and has challenged Vorhis another match, to come off at Crawfordsville to-day. While at the Chauncy Skating Rink the other evening Erb fell and dislocated his wrist, which will prevent the shooting contest. Erb has been a resident of Missouri for the last fifteen years, and it is said that at one time he defeated Captain Bozardus. His father lived in this city when Erb was quite young, and was known as the crack shot of the West. Young Erb's picture, together with the history of his life, were published in Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly about a year ago, and produced him as the champion wing and rifle shot of America. The match has been postponed, and the men will meet at Crawfordsville as soon as Erb is cured. M. D. McKillup, of the Treasurer's office, has received the appointment as mail agent declined by Harry Tyler, and will assume his duties at the end of the week. His route will be between Chicago and Cincinnati. Mayor Harrison on Tuesday's Election. CHICAGO, April 9.—In reply to a question concerning Tuesday's election here, Carter Harrison said: "My plurality will be from 576 to 800, as far as my information goes." "Will your election be contested?" "I don't know anything about that. I would be glad of a contest. My reasons for desiring a contest are these: I can not understand the returns from several of the wards. About 20,000 of my papers were distributed through the wards and as I have been assured by reliable parties that they were used effectually, I can not see how it is that I did not get a larger vote in the Republican wards. I would call attention to the fact that in the last fall election the Twelfth Ward gave a Republican majority of 2,869; but now, according to the returns, it gives a majority of 3,100. These singular facts make me desire an opening of the ballots so that I can see their real condition." Mr. Harrison continued: "I have not charged fraud against any party. As to frauds having been committed, I firmly believe that if the ballots were opened they would show that the Democrats have been more sinned against than sinning." Seymour Items. Special to the Sentinel. SEYMOUR, Ind., April 9.—Newton Pfaffenberger, a farmer at Tampico, started to this city on horseback, and had proceeded but a few miles till he accidentally lost his pocket-book containing a considerable sum of money, notes and valuable papers. It is still missing. Many farmers believe that their seed corn has been seriously injured by the severe freezing the past winter. A very large number of our people are attending the New Albany Presbytery, now in session at North Vernon. Arbor Day will be observed by all the public schools in this city to-morrow. It is the opinion of many of the best farmers in this county that at least one-half of last year's potato crop has perished by the severe freezing winter. J. W. Holmes, of Carr Township, "holed" 170 bushels, and has only ten bushels of good ones left. Mr. William Fryminger, editor and proprietor of the Brownstown Banner, is lying very dangerously sick at his home of neuralgia of the stomach and bowels. Loganport News. Special to the Sentinel. LOGANPORT, Ind., April 9.—Judge Winfield, of the Cass Circuit Court, was presented with an elegant arm chair by the Cass County bar yesterday. Otto Kraus, of this city, now drives the fine black horse recently sold from ex-Attorney General Brewster's stables. The Logan Grays give a grand ball in the new rink to-night. It will be attended by the Knights of Pythias, of Kokomo, who will give a prize drill. Anderson Items. Special to the Sentinel. ANDERSON, Ind., April 9.—Yesterday at 1 o'clock Jefferson Reed, of Delaware County, stole a horse and buggy from a rack in this city, and drove to Muncie, where he tried to sell it. The horse and buggy belonged to Daniel Chambers, a farmer. The thief was followed to Muncie, caught and brought to this city. He waived a preliminary examination, and in default of bail is now in jail. Final settlement has been made with the contractors of the new Court-house and the building has been accepted by the County Commissioners. It is a magnificent structure and cost $152,000. Last night 1,000 people attended the opening of the New Casino Rink. All the neighboring towns were represented. This is one of the finest rinks in the State, having been erected at a cost of $4,000. Manager Elmer May will give some elegant entertainments in the near future. Scottsburg News. SCOTTSBURG, Ind., April 7.—William Hobson, arrested on a charge of perjury, was placed in jail yesterday evening. He was released this morning on $500 bonds. Morton Chapel was jailed last night for carrying concealed weapons. He has, up to this writing, failed to give the required bond. Winfield A. Carlie and F. R. E. McCullough and Angus McQueen and Ida McClain were married last Saturday evening. J. C. McCargar, principal of the Logansport schools, is visiting friends at this place. Thaddeus Terrell, an old and respected citizen, is lying dangerously ill. The Township Assessors began their work this week. Another Norfolk Bank Failure. NORFOLK, Va., April 9.—The Farmers' Bank of this city did not open at the usual hour this morning. A notice was posted on the doors, stating that the bank had made an assignment to Walter F. Irvine, for the benefit of its creditors. The liabilities of the Farmers' Bank are almost a quarter of a million. The assets are not stated. The cashier says he expects to pay in full. An assignment of all the property of the bank is made in the interests of its creditors. All of yesterday's deposits will be returned. The last statement of the bank shows its paid up capital to be $50,000 and its surplus $40,000. Caldwell Hardy is President of the bank. The Cathedral of the Incarnation Dedicated. NEW YORK, April 9.—The Cathedral of the Incarnation at Garden City, L. I., erected by Mrs. Cornelia M. Stewart as a memorial of her husband, the late A. T. Stewart, was dedicated this morning. There was a large gathering of the Protestant clergymen and others, who filled the edifice to its full capacity. Mrs. Stewart and Judge Hilton were in attendance. Rev. Dr. Brown read the usual Thursday services, and Bishop Littlejohn, of the Long Island Diocese, preached the sermon, taking for his text the thirteenth verse of the sixtieth chapter of Isaiah. After this the Bishop administered the communion. Women's Board of Foreign Missions. NEW YORK, April 9.—The Women's Board of Foreign Missions, of the Presbyterian Church, continued its session to-day. The officers elected for the ensuing year were: President, Mrs. O. B. Hubbard; Vice Presidents, Mrs. William E. Dodge and seventeen other ladies; Treasurer, Mrs. C. P. Harrit; Home Secretaries, Miss E. W. Hubbard, Mrs. H. M. Humphrey, and F. A. Booth; Foreign Secretaries, Mrs. Jasper E. Corning and Miss M. L. Post, and Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. W. B. Walker. A Cincinnati Forger. CINCINNATI, April 9.—Will H. McMillen, a well known young attorney, who has been acting as confidential secretary for ex-Judge M. H. Tilden, has been discovered in presenting to business houses forged checks, purporting to be drawn by Judge Tilden. This discovery was made simultaneously with another, that Judge Tilden's bank account is $1,000 or $2,000 lighter than he supposed it was, and he is now trying to ascertain how much of his money has been improperly drawn by McMillen. Columbus Items. COLUMBUS, Ind., April 8.—The Indiana Horse Thief Detective Association met here to-day, with a large attendance. Much interest is manifested in the organization by stock owners in the county, and it is a terror to horse thieves. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Southern Indiana is in session here. Delegates from all parts of the district are in attendance. The proceedings are interesting and instructive. Warehouse Burned. UNION CITY, Ind., April 8.—Messrs. A. A. Knapp & Co.'s frame warehouse for pumps, leather and rubber belting and hose, plumbers' goods, terra cotta and statuary, together with the entire stock, was totally destroyed by fire about three o'clock this morning. Loss on stock, $6,000; building, $1,000; stock insured for $3,000; building, $700. Thought to be of incendiary origin. Our volunteer fire department saved the adjacent dwellings. Illinois Legislature. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 9.—In the House this morning, what is known as the truck bill, providing that employees shall be paid in cash for services and not in trade, was called up for a third reading. The vote resulted yeas 94, nays, 74. The result was received with cheers by its advocates. In the joint assembly only one vote was cast. A motion was made by Fuller to adjourn. The joint assembly sine die, but was not entertained by the Chair. Heavy Rain Storms. VICKSBURG, Miss., April 9.—The rain storm of Monday night was the heaviest in years. There have been no trains on the Vicksburg and Meridian Road for three days. Montreal, April 9.—The streets of Montreal are in a fearful condition, locomotion being almost entirely suspended. Fears are entertained that the city will be flooded. The snow in some places is nearly five feet deep, and it has rained for more than twenty-four hours. Moody and Sankey. PITTSBURG, April 9.—The Christian Convention, under the auspices of the evangelists Moody and Sankey, was opened in the Fifth Avenue Music Hall this morning. Fully 6,000 people were present, and thousands of others failed to gain admission. The meetings will continue until Sunday evening. All protestant denominations in the city have united in these meetings. Struck by Lightning Without Damage. WASHINGTON, April 9.—While a heavy storm was passing over the city late yesterday afternoon, the Washington Monument was struck three times by lightning, without causing the least damage. Colonel Casey examined the aluminum tip this morning with a powerful telescope and found it was sharp and bright as when it was placed on the summit some months ago. Central America. LA LIBERTAD, April 9.—The orders of the government of San Salvador prohibit the transmission of any telegraph messages of a political character to or from foreign countries, and no code or cipher messages excepting to and from foreign legations. Bona fide business messages are transmitted without restriction. Acquitted. LOGANSPORT, Ind., April 8.—Elisha McGuire, who shot and killed Jim Bridget about two weeks ago, was acquitted yesterday afternoon at a preliminary hearing, it being pretty clearly proven that the shooting was done in self-defense. Confectioners' Convention. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 8.—A convention of manufacturing confectioners from all parts of the country assembled here to-day in secret session. The most important question to be considered is that of the adulteration of confectionery. Murder and Suicide. POPPULAR BLUFF, Ark., April 9.—Paul Deery shot his wife last night and killed himself. He suspected her of unfaithfulness. Four years ago, while town marshal, he shot and killed James Dooley, but was acquitted. After Diphtheria. Diphtheria is a terrible disease, requiring the greatest medical skill to effect a complete cure. Even when its power is broken, it clings to the patient with great persistence, and often leaves the system poisoned and prostrated. Just here Hood's Sarsaparilla does a vast amount of good, expelling impurities from the blood, giving it richness and vitality, while it renovates and strengthens the system. PERSONALS. CHAUNCEY M. DEWEY pays the bills of one student every year at Yale, selecting the young men in his own way. LINDEY MUSE, the veteran doorkeeper for the Secretary of the Navy, has served in that capacity for fifty-seven years. PROFESSOR DOREMUS, it is said, makes $25,000 a year from chemical analyses of patent medicines and other similar articles. He does all his work with his left hand, his right arm having been amputated in youth. The venerable and benevolent banker, W. W. Corcoran, of Washington, has so far recovered his good health as to be able to receive and make social visits, and he is an occasional caller on the ladies at the White House. SENATOR EVARTS tells his friends in Washington who express the hope that his "daughters, who used to reside over their parents' ten things at the Capital," will be with him next season, that his daughters are "married now and busy with teething in their own households." DR. HAN GREENE has shed a ray of joy throughout the land by his announcement that "Me and Mary have had a most successful season in London," which is especially gratifying in respect of "Me." He softens the general exultation by the declaration that Mary has grown both stout and homesick. JAMES R. RANDALL, author of "My Maryland," read an unpublished poem of his own writing at last week's meeting of the Hayne Literary Society, at Augusta, Ga. The Augusta papers made appeals for it, but Colonel Randall has promised it to friends in Baltimore, who have charge of the approaching fair for the disabled Confederate soldiers. PATRIOTISM runs as high among the Berlin cabbies as with the Parisian jehus who declined to take a fare from Victor Hugo. Lately Marshal von Moltke drove home from the Reichstag in a passing carriage, and on reaching the house the cabman positively refused to be paid his due, declaring that the honor of driving so great a man was sufficient reward. MR. MILLER, the new Commissioner of Internal Revenue, is one of the most business-like looking men who has ever had charge of that office. He is a man slightly above medium height and is quite stout. He does not look to be much over forty years of age. He has a round large head thickly covered with closely trimmed curling black hair. His forehead is broad and high, his eyes a coal-black; his nose is straight and firm in line, while his broad, fresh colored face is smooth-shaven with the exception of a small, crisp mustache and an inch of black side-whiskers in front of each ear. He has the resolute, steady look of a business Cleveland man. He is reorganizing his bureau upon a business basis and looks much more to the business capacity of those under him than he does to their political influence. Tax Washington Post says: "The President is the most indefatigable explorer of the country surrounding Washington, and every afternoon about 5 o'clock the office coupe is called into requisition for one of his trips. Accompanied by Colonel Lamont, a different locality is visited every day when the weather permits such excursions. Arlington, the distributing reservoir above Georgetown, Soldiers' Home, Rock Creek, Silver Spring, the country seat of the late Montgomery Blair, and the Arsenal are some of the places that the President has visited since inauguration day. He takes deep interest in the historical associations of the vicinity of Washington, and already he knows more about the District than any of his predecessors, with the possible exception of Mr. Lincoln, who was very fond of driving about here in the same kind of a vehicle as that used by President Cleveland. Don't Care. (Mobile Register.) The old Confederacy does not rest its claims for honor upon any perfunctory observances at Washington, and hence the people of the South do not care a baubus whether or not the doors of a department are closed, when an old officer of the Government, afterward a Confederate, happens to die. Tobacco a Legal Tender. (Macon Telegraph.) Uncle Calvin, a Clark County Justice of the Peace, now charges a plug of tobacco for marrying couples. He made two plugs Sunday. Why He Objects to the Clawhammers. (Macon Telegraph.) Secretary Garland very properly refuses to wear a clawhammer coat. The sight of a clawhammer coat curving its tails backward above a plug of Grayley tobacco and a tooth-brush worn in the hip-pockets is not calculated to impress the Supreme Court favorably. Little Rhody. The Kansas City Journal takes up an old war story. "What regiment do you belong to?" asked a Union picket of a rebel picket. "The Fourteenth North Carolina." "And yours, Yank?" "The 11th Rhode Island." "You're a liar; there aren't that many people in the State," returned the Johnny. Better Not Drink in Indiana. (Chicago Tribune.) An Indiana boy thirteen years old has just died from drinking poor whiskey. A boy of that age ought to be a better judge of whiskey. There is no excuse for such ignorance in an enlightened land like Indiana. Queen of Puddings.—Three ounces bread crumbs, four ounces sugar, one pint cold milk, one ounce melted butter, grated rind of one lemon, and the yolks of two eggs well beaten. Mix these ingredients, put them into a pie-dish three parts full, and bake one hour. When nearly cold spread a layer of jam on the top, whisk the whites of two eggs to a stiff froth, add two ounces powdered sugar, and lastly the juice of half a lemon. Pour this over the top of the jam, and slightly brown in a cool oven. To be eaten cold. Fig Sauce.—Soak the figs in water, or better still, in a little sour cider, all night. Then boil them gently until tender. Just before taking them from the fire, add sugar to your taste, and the juice of a couple of lemons to prevent the sauce from tasting insipid. Over feeding means poor laying of small eggs, and sterility of the fowls. The Asiatics are lazy and lay on fat easily; to keep them in good health and enjoy the return of the highest class eggs and very good flesh, don't feed the fowls too much. It has been ascertained by carefully repeated experiments that the first drawn milk contains 5, the second 8 and the fifth 17 per cent. of cream. Thus a cow three-quarters milked is not half-milked, if butter is the object. The period of gestation in cows is 285 days, but varies somewhat. Feed very little grain of any kind for two or three weeks before calving. Hay, potatoes and roots are the best. Keep blood cool and system relaxed. Let the roller be smooth over the wheat field now, in order to smooth it down, which not only presses the plants into position, but makes the land more easily worked over when the crop is to be cut. M. Dittmar, a Swede, has perfected a process for converting kerosene oil into a substance resembling tallow in appearance. It can be made into candles. "But John P. Robinson, he sez they didn't know everythin' down in Judee." They certainly knew little if they did not know that the safest, quickest and most pleasant cure for croup, bronchitis, cough, cold in the chest, etc., is Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Rheumatism Quickly Cured. There has never been a medicine for rheumatism introduced in this State that has given such universal satisfaction as Durang's Rheumatic Remedy.
