THE SENTINEL AT NEW ORLEANS.

To accommodate the throng from the Northwest who will desire to read their favorite home paper while attending the "World's Exposition," the Sentinel has been placed on sale in New Orleans at George F. Wharton & Bro.'s, No. 5 Carondelet street, between Canal and Common streets.

OLD PAPERS.
 Good conditioned old papers for sale at this office at only 40 cents per hundred.

CITY IN BRIEF.

The following ladies will be in charge of the Art Exhibit to-day: Mrs. N. A. Hyde, Mrs. May Wright Sewall, Miss Carrie Hendricks and Miss May Elder.

All lovers of fine bicycle riding and roller skating should not fail to witness the finest rink entertainment in existence at the College Avenue Rink this evening, the celebrated Girard & Vokes combination appearing at 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Ladd applied to the City Clerk yesterday for the salary due her husband. She will have to wait however until the regular pay day. Mrs. Ladd says that her husband has left the city, reports to the contrary notwithstanding.

John Chapping, of 143 John street, found his wife lying on the floor Tuesday evening unconscious. She was removed to her bed, and medical aid summoned, but died Wednesday evening. The cause of death is thought to be apoplexy.

William Mohs, Treasurer of the Virginia avenue fountain fund, has called a meeting of the subscribers for to-morrow evening to consider the matter. He has raised $300 and there is yet needed about $200 for the work. Unless the money is raised at once he proposes to abandon the project.

T. H. Jameson, living northwest of the city eight miles, while putting up a barn yesterday morning struck the cap of his right knee with a sharp-edged tool, splitting it and letting out the water of the joint. He came to the city and his cousin, Dr. Henry Jameson, dressed the wound.

By a letter from the Department at Washington it appears that the following are the places to be filled in this city without examination under the civil service rules: Assistant Postmaster and Cashier, Retail Stamp Clerk, Chief of Money Order Division,

Superintendent of Mails, Chief of Registry Department, Superintendent of Carriers.
 George Wyatt, bartender at the Bates House saloon, will be tried to-morrow for a violation of 11 o'clock law.
 The Mayflower Church give an entertainment this (Friday) evening at the church parlors on East St. Clair street. Members of the church and congregation, with their friends, are cordially invited to attend.
 Messrs. Frank Gates and C. H. Soules, delegates recently elected to attend the International Typographical Convention to be held in New York in June, last night entertained a large number of their friends in a pleasant manner.
 Ran Sheets, manager of the People's Rink at Lafayette, was in the city yesterday. Ran has met with unprecedented success during the past three months, and at present controls one of the handsomest rinks in the United States. His many friends here share with him the joy he feels over his past good fortune and bright prospects for the future.

AMUSEMENTS.
"A PARLOR MATCH" AT ENGLISH'S.
 English's was completely packed last night by one of the most enthusiastic and highly delighted audiences seen for a long time. In "A Parlor Match" Evans & Hovey give full sway to their peculiar talents. In some scenes the audience went fairly wild. Mr. Charles Evans as "McCorker," the book agent, both in make up and acting, was beyond criticism. Mr. William Hovey, as "Old Hovey," the tramp, kept the large audience in an uproar of laughter.
 Messrs. Hart and Campbell in the characters of "Captain Kidd" and "Belmont," were well up in their business and gave thorough satisfaction. Miss Jeannie Yeaman as "Innocent Kid" was as gracefully mirth-provoking as of yore. Miss Mattie Ferguson as "Lucille Kid," her sister, did some good singing and dancing, especially in the "Cabinet Scene." She has improved wonderfully since her last appearance here. The support, scenery, music and everything pertaining to the production is first-class. Our advice to those that have not seen "A Parlor Match," is, to go.

NOTES.
 The Dime Museum is attracting large audiences of men, women and children. Open all day and at night until 10 o'clock.

The Grand Opera House will be closed the remainder of the week, but look out next week for something "stunning" in the way of an immense exhibition by the great Coup, of circus and menagerie fame.

At the matinee of "A Parlor Match" on Saturday, Miss Mattie Ferguson, who has recently made such excellent progress in the profession, will play a part which will give her better opportunities than any in which she has previously appeared before an Indianapolis audience. On that occasion she will play the rollicking part, "Innocent Kid," which Miss Yeaman has invested with so much interest, the change being made through the courtesy of the last named lady and the management. Miss Ferguson's friends here will be glad to see her in such a pretentious role.

The Lyra Concert.
 The Lyra concert takes place to night. The following is the programme:

- PART FIRST.
 Overture—"Merry Wives of Windsor".....Nicolai
 "Student's Night Song".....Fischer
 "Capriccio Brillant" op. 32.....Mendelssohn
 "Thy Sentinel Am I".....Watson
 "By-mn to Music".....Hegar
 Mixed chorus and orchestra.
PART SECOND.
 Potpourri.....Hamm
 "Eriking," soprano solo.....Schubert
 "Miss Katie Wengler".....Schubert
 "Cheerfulness," cornet duet.....Knechtel
 Messrs. Perry Ingalls and Louis Ostendorf.
 "Der Schmetterling".....Gungl
 "Waltz Song".....Koschitz
 Mixed chorus and orchestra.

George W. Ohr Commits Suicide.
 George W. Ohr, residing at 110 St. Mary street, committed suicide yesterday morning by hanging himself in the wood shed. He complained of not feeling well on Wednesday night and got up about 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. Shortly after 1 o'clock his wife had occasion to step into the wood shed, and the first object that met her gaze was the dead body of her husband. Before adjusting the noose about his neck he secured his hands by a rope that passed between his legs and then kicked from under him the barrel upon which he was standing. The deceased was aged forty-two and leaves a wife and two children. He attempted self destruction about a year ago by cutting his throat. Ohr a few days ago left the employ of the Adams Packing Company, he taking offense at some remark that was made to him.

Base Ball Matters.
 It is generally believed that Brennan will be one of the Western League umpires. Indianapolis will, of course, be represented, and the appointment of Brennan would be hailed with satisfaction.

The Louisville Club is referred to by the Courier-Journal of that city as an "alleged base ball nine."

On days when there are no games the home team will practice two hours and a half.

Manager Watkins is confident that the home team will win one of the two games with Detroit next week.

The Indianapolis Presbytery.
 At the meeting of the Indianapolis Presbytery yesterday morning, Rev. D. R. Love read a paper on "Temperance," after which Rev. A. H. Carrier made a speech favoring the consolidation of the three magazines of the church, thus making one large and interesting publication. Ministers Shroyck and Williamson and Elders Karll and Clark were elected delegates to the General Assembly. The revised standing rules of the Presbytery were adopted, and it was resolved to hold the next meeting at Greencastle.

Educational Matters.
 The State Teachers' Reading Circle met yesterday and made final arrangements for the examination of teachers, which takes place on the third Saturday in June.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction returned home from New Orleans yesterday. The report of the State Educational Department for the year of 1884 has been issued in book form. It covers the ground thoroughly.

The Supreme Court.
 The following cases were decided by the Supreme Court yesterday:

11,691. Benjamin Judy vs. James S. Cizzen. Warren C. C. Affirmed. Mitchell, J.
 11,883. Anna Cutbush vs. Poolea Cutbush. Howard C. C. Reversed. Elliott, J.

 The Largest and Finest Retail Dry Goods in the State.

LADIES:
 Should you happen to notice a particularly handsome and well fitting Dress, a stylish Bonnet, a novel and beautiful Wrap, worn by some member of the fair sex, the chances are two to one that it was made or sold by us. We have sent out from our Dress-Making and Millinery Departments this Spring some of the finest and most satisfactory work that has ever been seen here. We have the Materials, we have the Facilities, we have the Talent, and can therefore produce the desired effect. We have no disposition to over-charge, and can turn out work unequalled by any establishment in the West at much lower prices than the same class of work and style can be obtained in larger cities. Ladies throughout the State will please bear this in mind, and a trial order will convince them of the truth of these statements. Our Spring Stock is now in and being duplicated as fast as possible, but there are many novelties in Silks and Dress Goods that we can not find again in the market, and ladies who come nearest will find the most complete stock to select from.

We have every desirable Novelty for Ladies' Dresses, Costumes and Wraps, with Rich and Suitable Combinations and Trimmings.
TO GENTLEMEN:
 We desire again to call attention to our Tailoring Department. This Department was started about a year ago and has made rapid strides in the favor of the best Dressed Men in this City and State. We started out with the idea that we could give our customers the best materials that we could procure, and have them cut and made by the best workmen, and produce a suit at a profit which in all instances is confined simply to material. We carry an enormous stock of the best material, and import directly from manufacturers. Try us once and you can not fail to be satisfied with the result. We carry an enormous stock of the best Suits, and guarantee to give you as well made and stylish a suit as can be produced. The prices are less than anywhere else for the same class of work.
