The Ecoster Mineralogist and Archeologist for May not only keeps pace with all former numbers in giving its patrons interesting articles for their consideration, but even surpasses any previous effort.

Mr. Dean's New Venture. The National Hotel Reporter, published at Chicago, has this to say of the proposed enterprise of a former denizen of this city: "The building on the northeast corner of Van Buren street and Pacific avenue, erected several years since and known as the Mendel Block, is to be immediately converted into a hotel. It is directly across the street from the Lake Shore and Rock Island Depot, in close proximity to the new Board of Trade and immediately adjoining the open board. The location is, therefore, excellent. It has been leased for a period of five years to Mr. T. A. Dean, who will open it on or about June 1 as Dean's European Hotel.

A Wife Discovery. On the 5th inst. Mrs. Sophia Winder, a widow, residing at 125 Blake street, was united in marriage to A. J. Kusbs, who appears to have recently come to this country from Germany. Shortly after the marriage she discovered that he had taken out the license under the name of August Guba, and she now makes complaint that he has abandoned her, and that she has made the discovery that he has wife and one child in the fatherland.

K. of P. City Lodges. Our city lodges are all in a flourishing condition and are making great preparations for the Grand Lodge convocation in June. A grander time has never been before in this city is anticipated at that time. So be it, brethren.

W. C. T. U. Officers. At the meeting of the Marion County W. C. T. U. Convention at Brightwood on Friday, the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Georgia Wright, of Indianapolis; Secretary, Mrs. Lawrence, of Brightwood; Treasurer, Mrs. P. M. Gallahue, of Indianapolis. The evening meeting was well attended, and addressed by Mrs. Lytina, Mrs. Sidel, Miss Goodwin and Miss Reed.

Arrested for Burglary. Ed Rinket was arrested last night by Patrolmen Spears and Hurst on a charge of burglary. He and another young man, it is claimed, broke into the office connected with A. R. Meyer's coal yard, corner of Christian avenue and the Peru Railroad, and secured $5 from the money-drawer. It is also thought that they are the parties who entered the office of James Carter, the lumber dealer, where they obtained a sum of money of change. The police gave Rinket's accomplice a lively chase, but were unable to capture him.

What Could the Matter Be? The County Auditor yesterday received a letter from S. A. Keen & Co. of Chicago, offering to pay a premium of $6,000 for the new Marion County loan, which would be $1.00 more than the Stanton bid, which was accepted. The offer came too late to have any attention paid to it, and Keen & Co. had made no bid up to the time of making the award, their agent, although in the city, having failed to put in an appearance at the County Auditor's office.

In Need of Charity. Some two or three days ago a family passed through this city en route for Illinois, and camped out near Woodruff Place over night. Before morning a little child of the party fell sick, and was yesterday supposed to be dying. The family consists of a man, his wife and five children, and they are in very destitute circumstances. A little charity in this direction might save a life, and would certainly relieve the distress of some.

Struck His Step Father. Joseph Kissinger was a defendant in the City Court, yesterday, on a charge of assault and battery upon his step father, the evidence showing that the two do not dwell together in that spirit of unity which should characterize the father and son as well as the "brothers." The Mayor called upon Joseph to donate $10 to the city and pay the expenses incident to his arrest. Joseph paid.

Sad Want of Sympathy. The Mayor yesterday assessed a fine of $10 and costs against Chris Wraed for an alleged attack upon John Lutz, the offense of the latter consisting in having escorted a young lady, to whom Wraed pays attention, to the Opera house. As the Mayor has long since passed the Rubicon of the spouney age, he was not in sympathy with the feelings that prompted Wraed's attack.

Foot Crushed. While engaged in unloading stone from a car at the new State House yesterday morning a large stone fell upon the foot of John Dickens, a young colored man employed in the truck gang, and mashed it so badly that medical aid had to be called. The physician thinks there is a probability of saving the member, and amputation was not resorted to.

THE WIGWAM BURNED.

An Inceudary Fire Results in the Destruction of $6,000 Worth of Property.

John Colter, of Company No. 3, Badly Injured by a Falling Beam--Losses and Insurance.

About 10 o'clock last night an alarm of fire was sent in from Box 56, and a bright light in the direction of the Cleveland Block indicated that a fire of some proportions was already under way. In a few moments a second alarm was sent in, and crowds of people were seen going in the direction of the light. Sentinel reporters hastened to the scene and found the old Wigwam, which has been used for some time as a rink, enveloped in flames and the wind blowing at a rate that promised still further spread of the conflagration. Being built entirely of wood, and surrounded by frame houses, the prospects for a fire of some proportions were certainly excellent, and only the prompt attendance and heroic work of the department prevented the entire square from being consumed.

The stable of James Furnas, immediately in the rear of the Wigwam, was also burned, but his wife succeeded in leading the horse from the building before the flames got under headway. A shop, also belonging to Furnas, was partially burned, but the tools were saved. The frame residence occupied by William Short, immediately east of the Wigwam, was also partially burned, with its contents, the family at the time being at a skating rink in another part of the city. Mattie Douglas's bagnio was also injured from the intense heat of the burning building and the windows demolished by the streams of water thrown against the house to prevent it from burning. Fire was communicated to the tenement house adjoining Short's residence, but the damage was slight.

The total loss will foot up something like $6,000, distributed, as nearly as could be ascertained, as follows: On the livery stable, $1,500; total; Wigwam, $2,000; Short's residence, $1,200; Furnas' stable, 250; Mattie Douglas' house, $500. There was no insurance either upon the Wigwam or upon the livery stable, and possibly none upon Short's residence. The loss of Mattie Douglas on her dwelling house is covered by $4,000 in the Fire and Marine, of Springfield, $2,000 being on the residence and $2,000 on furniture. Short carried an insurance of $600 on furniture in the Royal, of London, located with Cleveland & Brown, and Furnas $100 on stable, located with Hadley.

There is some question as to the ownership of the wigwam property, but the best authority seems to be that it belongs to a man by the name of Bradley, who resides at Columbus, this State.

John Colter of the No. 3s was quite seriously injured while engaged in the discharge of his duties at the Wigwam fire, a large beam falling from the burning structure and striking him upon the head and back. His head and back were seriously bruised, and concussion of the lungs and brain was feared by the attending physician, but the extent of the injury can be better told to-day than so early after its occurrence last night.

Mr. Bushnell's Affliction. Mr. Dan W. Bushnell, an employe of the Sentinel, has been called upon to suffer bereavement in the death of his eldest daughter, Edith, an interesting child of twelve years, who died yesterday morning, after an illness of several weeks duration. Mr. Bushnell and family have the heartfelt sympathy of his fellow-workmen in this their great loss.

One's personal appearance is enhanced or diminished by the outward apparel. How important it is then that artists of taste and judgment are employed to make clothes that become the wearer as to color, texture and fit. E. C. Frost, the fashionable tailor, No. 24 North Pennsylvania street, possesses the artistic taste and taste necessary to mold the form of man into shapely habiliments.

The best the market affords at Schaffner's Restaurant.

AN ELEGANT ESTABLISHMENT. The New Hat and Gentlemen's Furnishing House of 1117 Brox.

Hiff Brothers, the best-known hatters in Indiana, have opened at No. 3 Bates House, on West Washington street, an elegant retail house, one that in every respect equals the best establishments of the kind in the largest cities in the country, and one of which Indianapolis will be properly proud. The intention of Hiff Brothers is to make this house the depot of only the finest and most fashionable styles of hats, and the choicest articles in the way of gentlemen's furnishings. The place is elegantly fitted up, the cherry floor showing a handsome pattern of tile, and the room being light and airy. The Hiff Brothers also show the finest line of umbrellas and canes ever seen here.

This place, suggesting as it does the best establishments of the kind of the great cities, will doubtless receive the large patronage it deserves.

Try Schaffner's Restaurant for meals.

The New Market House. The new Market-house does not make any difference with Clark, the butcher man. He has such a number of customers who can't touch him with a ten-foot pole. Give him a call for good butter or groceries.

I have resigned the agency of the London and Lancashire Insurance Company, but not that of the Fire Association of Philadelphia. Policy holders in the latter company will please bear this in mind.

Carl Moller, 161 East Washington street, has elegant new styles Wall Paper and Window Shades. You can do better here than anywhere else in the city.
