

THE RAILROADS.

Reasons Why the Pennsylvania People Want the C. H. and D.—The Lowest Average Freight Rate Ever Reported.

The Bee Line's new time card will go into effect on Monday next.

Special rates to New Orleans will not be quoted after to-morrow.

William H. Shields has been appointed agent of the J. M. and I. at Rockford.

The freight agents of the various Indianapolis roads anticipate a very heavy corn yield throughout the State this year.

The L., D. and S. people are getting their road in good shape and are pushing out hard for business, both passenger and freight.

The local agent who predicted that ball players would ride in freight cars this year, seems to be a false prophet.

That the lot of a passenger agent is not a happy one has been fairly demonstrated time and time again.

Mr. M. E. Ingalls, President of the C., I., St. L. and C., on being questioned as to the effect on the Big Four of the acquisition of the C., H. and D. by the Pennsylvania Company, said that it would be favorable.

The loss of the Vandavia business would be more than compensated by the friendship of the Indianapolis roads and the coming into the Central Depot of the N. Y., P. and O. and Erie.

A WHITE SLAVE.

The History of a Southern Lady's Married Life—A Cuban Tyrant.

ATLANTA, Ga., May 17.—A release from the marriage tie signed by Judge Hammond yesterday has behind it a romantic history.

Mrs. Zulema Arcelegui is a magnificent woman, with dark hair and eyes, possessed of the rarest accomplishments and trained to most graceful manners.

Four years ago she was the idol of one of the first families of New Orleans, and had previously been a resident of South Carolina.

She had wealth and everything else that could tend to social position all its usual pleasures.

She met a wealthy Cuban, Miguel Arcelegui, and was courted by him. The courtship resulted in an engagement, and on the 27th of April they were married in due form of law.

From New Orleans the couple proceeded to the home of Arcelegui in Cuba. When the husband had transported the Southern flower to his tropical home, he was transformed from a gallant and affectionate husband into a tyrannical man.

He says she endured constant indignities at the hands of her husband, and his cruelties were beyond description.

She says he was barbarous and inhuman, and would frequently strike her and pull her hair without any provocation.

While in Cuba her husband would imprison her in a room and leave her there for days at a time, and he would select for her place of imprisonment a room where she would be subjected to the jeers and insults of soldiers and idle loungers who might come about.

At last the cruel treatment of the husband became so unbearable that she escaped to a boat and came to America, landing in New York. She had then been married only three months.

Her husband followed her to this country and, protesting his devotion, induced his wife to live with him again, promising to reside in New York.

They went to New York to live, but the husband prevailed on her to accompany him to Cuba again. There the cruel scenes were enacted again.

For a few weeks the wife endured his cruelties and then again escaped to America, having in all spent seven months with her husband, landing in New York.

She denounces him as a tyrant by nature, who made her life so miserable and unhappy that it was impossible for her to live with him.

Upon arriving in America she came to Atlanta and made this her home. She stopped a while at the Markham and made many friends, being so charming socially as to be in demand.

She is a most accomplished musician, performing on the piano, organ and other instruments with unusual skill.

A year ago Madam Arcelegui entered a suit for divorce from her natural husband. She appeared and told the story of her married life, which was not in defense, and she was granted a verdict making the fair but unfortunate young wife free again.

She does not seek alimony, having an ample fortune of her own.

Mr. Ingalls' Observations. [New York Tribune.] M. E. Ingalls, of Cincinnati, St. Louis and Chicago Railroad, others as the "Big Four" road, said to me the other day: "Cleveland is doing first rate as far as the country is concerned. I guess you will take him for eight years, and then your party may come in again."

The view of a man who looks at politics from the outside. The masses of the Democratic party would gladly put Cleveland out of office to-day and put Blaine in if they could.

The Ohio man isn't getting very much. He is awfully hungry as usual, and much disgruntled. Cleveland is doing first rate as far as the country is concerned.
