CITY IN BRIEF.

A. M. Smith, of Crawfordsville, was in the city yesterday. Daniel Herron will be tried to-day for assault and battery on his wife. Hon. Charles Jewett, Speaker, and Representatives Barr and Taylor were in the city yesterday. Tom Williams, Tom Blackwell and Howard Kakemiller have been fined for peace disturbance. For assaulting Martin Finn, of Chadwick street, with a stick of wood, John Hughes has been sent to jail for ten days. The Committee on Public Light reported that 900 of Vieira's street grinders would be received, and that the grinders would cost $1.00 each. Captain Bagley yesterday received notice that his services as route agent on the L. D. and S. could be dispensed with, and he stepped down and out. The authorities say that since the conviction of John T. Woodard they now feel that they can accomplish something by moving against the policy shops of this city. The paternity suit and the surety of the peace proceedings of Rosa Klepfer vs. Frank Freyner have been dismissed, the defendant agreeing to get a divorce from his wife and marry Rosa. William Shonasy, the Monon tramp, who attempted suicide on the stone pile day before yesterday, was still alive at a late hour last night, but his recovery is still regarded as very doubtful. The Governor, Auditor and Adjutant General, constituting the State Board of Military Claims, were in session yesterday, looking into the claims of certain parties for services in the Indiana Legion. The Cincinnati papers yesterday reported that Bob Wright, wanted in that city for hotel robberies, was under arrest in this city. It is a mistake growing out of an inquiry made as to whether he was wanted, the officers having seen one of his gang here.

PREPARING TO DECORATE.

Line of March as Reported by the G. A. R. Joint Committee.

The Joint Committee of the G. A. R. Posts having in charge the arrangements for Decoration Day have agreed upon the following, including line of march:

May 20, 1886, is our annual Memorial Day. Let old soldiers and every citizen as well turn out to show their respect for the memory of our fallen heroes. We ask that every business, school, factory and shop in the city be closed on the afternoon of that day, that all may attend memorial services at Crown Hill Cemetery.

Grand Army Posts, Military organizations, Indianapolis Police and Fire Department, Federal State and city officers, City Council and board of Aldermen, and citizens in carriages are requested to assemble promptly at 1:30 p. m., at the different places of rendezvous as hereinafter designated. Let everyone be prompt that the column may move promptly at 1:45 p. m.

First Division, Comrade Fred Kneller commanding, composed of G. A. R. Post and German Veterans, will form on New York street, right resting on Delaware and deploying eastwardly.

Second Division, Comrade Will C. Laird commanding, composed of military companies, will form on Delaware street, right resting on New York and deploying northwardly.

Third Division, Comrade J. H. Webster commanding, composed of the Indianapolis Fire Department, will form on New York street, right resting at the intersection of Massachusetts avenue and deploying westwardly.

Fourth Division, Comrade Ben Crane commanding, composed of Federal, State, county and city officers, City Council and board of Aldermen, and citizens in carriages, will form on Massachusetts avenue, right resting at intersection of Delaware street, southwardly.

The line of march will be south on Delaware street to Washington street, west on Washington street to Illinois street, north on Illinois street to Market street, east on Market street to Circle, to the right round Circle to Meridian street, north on Meridian to North street, west on North to Railroad, where cars will be waiting to take all to North Indianapolis.

On arriving at North Indianapolis the column will resume its formation and march to the cemetery.

On arrival of the column at the cemetery the memorial exercises will be opened with prayer. The annual address will be delivered by Comrade John L. McMaisters, immediately following the address the ceremony of depositing the graves will be attended to by the members of the G. A. R.

By direction of Committee of Arrangement. J. F. SCHOLLS, Chief of Staff. The railroad tickets to Crown Hill and return for Decoration Day will be put on sale this morning at 9 o'clock from the office of J. A. Closser, Chairman Finance Committee. Each Post will be furnished with a pro rata number of all the tickets issued, and the city will be canvassed by the members of the Posts to day for the sale of tickets. As this is the only source of income to pay the expenses, which are necessarily very heavy, it is hoped our citizens will be very liberal in their purchase of the tickets. It is expected the employers will buy large numbers of these tickets to present to their employes, as Decoration Day is a half holiday. Should there be any surplus after paying the expenses of Decoration Day it will go into the charity fund of the different G. A. R. Posts where it will be the means of doing great good.

THE EIGHTH SESSION

Of the United Order of Honor—Election of Officers.

The Grand Lodge of Indiana of the United Order of Honor met yesterday in its eighth annual session, at the hall in Baldwin's Block, Grand President Ellen W. Altshouse, Grand Secretary Ernest Duden and Grand Treasurer John Egger, all being present. Reports of officers and standing committees were received and referred. The report of the President included mention of the death of T. J. Myers, as follows:

The past year has brought to us an irrevocable loss in the death of our worthy Grand President, Brother Thomas J. Myers, one who entered into the work of the order with the energy of his noble nature, making a grand success of his work up to the time of his last sickness. No one could possibly regret the loss this Lodge has sustained, and the circumstances under which I occupy the chair to day more than I do. But while we deplore our loss here, we have the assurance he is occupying a higher and more exalted position in the Kingdom of Heaven.

The Secretary reported as follows:

Number of lodges per last report, twenty-three; instituted during the year, twelve; suspended, six; in good standing, thirty-nine; net increase, sixty; number of members initiated during the year, 788; joined by card, twenty-five; reinstated, eighty-three; suspended, 406; expelled, one; total disability, one; died, one; withdrawn, twenty-eight; net increase, 473; present membership, 1,540.

The Treasurer submitted his report for the term closing April 30, 1885. It shows total receipts, $2,441 88; disbursements, $1,864 98; cash on hand, $151.90; bonds on hand, $18,104.10; $676.92.

After taking appropriate action with reference to the death of Mr. Myers, the lodge adjourned.

In the afternoon considerable interest was manifested in the election of officers, and it was late before the election was completed. The following are the officers for the ensuing year:

- Grand President—A. P. Lee, Indianapolis. Grand Vice President—A. E. Elmore, Arcadia. Grand Secretary—Ernest Duden, Indianapolis. Grand Treasurer—John Egger, Indianapolis. Grand Chaplain—Mrs. S. Thompson, Indianapolis. Grand Conductor—W. H. Faulkner, South Bend. Grand Inside Guard—G. W. Huntley, Elkhart. Grand Outside Guard—W. G. Sayle, Indianapolis. Grand Trustee—Mrs. Michener, Kokomo. Grand Medical Director—Dr. E. W. Sawyer, Kokomo.

The installation of officers followed, and in the evening a banquet was given by the local lodges to the newly-elected officers at Lyra Hall.

AMUSEMENTS.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE—"GALATEA"—"EAST LYNNE."

The Grand Opera House was packed to overflowing again yesterday afternoon and last night to witness the last performance of the "Two Orphans," by the Arne Walker Dramatic Company, and they were again received with every demonstration of popular favor. Every member of the company acquitted themselves with credit, and everything passed off smoothly. The part of the blind girl, "Louise," as interpreted by Miss Arne Walker, is a revelation, and instantaneously captures the sympathies of her audiences. At the matinee this afternoon W. S. Gilbert's beautiful mythological comedy, "Pygmalion and Galatea," will be given. The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette thus speaks of a recent performance: "The Arne Walker Dramatic Company gave a sample of their versatility yesterday afternoon by presenting Gilbert's comedy 'Pygmalion and Galatea.' The piece was excellently mounted. Little Arne was good, as, indeed, she is in everything she undertakes, and made a very pretty Galatea." Mr. Irwin Walker as 'Permalion' showed to excellent advantage, and the remainder of the cast was satisfactory. To night "East Lynne" will be given, instead of "A Celebrated Case" to-morrow matinee. "Pygmalion and Galatea," again, and to-morrow night, "East Lynne." People's popular prices, 10c and 25c.

THE DIME MUSEUM.

The specialty combination at the Museum this week is the strongest and is giving the best show seen at that place this season. The features of James Kelly, the Russellis, the Davenport, French and Clark, Lorraine, Rosina and others on the bill are fine, and the large audiences applaud each act to the echo. The curiosities in the lower hall are also interesting and are attracting much attention. Chief Webster, of the Fire Department, visited the Museum yesterday and pronounced it the safest theater in the city in the event of a fire or a panic. The lower room has four exits and the theater proper an equal number.

THE ZOO. There was the usual Tuesday matinee at the Zoo yesterday and another performance at night. The bill is long and varied, and contains many sprightly features. Another performance will be given to-night and another matinee to-morrow afternoon.

NOTES. Manager Dickson has erected a magnificent 500 candle power street lamp in front of his theater. It is of the Seamon pattern and burns gas.

The popular young actress, Miss Helen Desmond, supported by a strong company, will be the attraction at the Grand all next week, playing at popular prices.

The Walker Dramatic Company will put on "A Celebrated Case," with entirely new costumes, at the Grand on Friday and Saturday evenings next, and they promise to give the best performance of the season.

THE ACTON TRUSTEES.

Features of the Literary Programme for the Summer Meeting.

At the regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Acton Camp Meeting Association, held on the camp grounds, a number of matters of general interest were canvassed. The Treasurer presented his report of business transacted during the past year, showing an indebtedness of $507.47 due at the beginning of the year, which is a reduction of about $800 from the previous year. The debt is now less than for twenty years past. The new hotel is nearly completed, and is perfectly satisfactory throughout. The association is endeavoring to secure a contract with Thomas Taggart, of the Oher restaurants at the depot in this city, to take charge of the hotel. If this can be accomplished, the accommodations for those desiring to board will be superior to those of any previous year.

The Lecture Committee has made engagements for at least fifteen lectures during the first of the meeting. Among those who are engaged are Dr. Willits, of Louisiana; Rev. J. H. Baylis, of Cincinnati; Professor Ridpath and Carport, of De Paul University; President Jordan, of the State University; Rev. Sidney Dean, of Rhode Island; Hon. George R. Wendling, of Illinois; Dr. Simms, of Syracuse University; Hon. William I. Marshall, of Massachusetts, and Rev. Myron W. Reed, of Denver, Col. The lectures by Mr. Marshall will be illustrated with stereoscopic views. Dr. E. S. Eider, of this city, will have charge of the exercises for one day, when the subject of sanitation will be considered. "Chautauque Day" will be under charge of Hon. Frank Russell, of Mansfield, O. The committee is trying to arrange for a lecture by Rev. George W. Pepper, of Worcester, O., and also with the Tennessee Jubilee Singers to conduct the music of the entire meeting.

A number of new cottages have been contracted for, among those who expect to build being Governor Campbell, G. M. Wright and Rev. Sampson Fincher. The May meeting will be held on the 27th, at which time it is expected that contracts for the erection of about twenty additional cottages will be made.

Pleas of Guilty.

The Federal Court jury brought in a verdict of guilty yesterday against Thomas Washington for counterfeiting. The case of John Congrove was tried, and the jury retired with instructions to return a sealed verdict. Yesterday afternoon Thomas Kerns, Edward Syster and Charles Brown, all indicted for counterfeiting, entered pleas of guilty.

Russell Sent to Jail.

Word comes from Greenwood that Mandeville Russell, who shot and dangerously wounded John Fague on Saturday night, had an examining trial yesterday and was sent to jail at Franklin in default of $3,000 bail.
