

PORT DEPOSIT

Misses Mildred Wright and Mattie Carskadon spent the week end in Philadelphia and Haddon Heights, N. J.

Mr. William Winchester motored Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nesbitt to their home in Forest Hill, N. J., on Tuesday. Mr. Nesbitt and family spent the summer in Port Deposit.

Mr. James Knight, of Marcus Hook, Pa., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Knight.

Mrs. John Foran, of Philadelphia, was a recent visitor of Miss Bertha Foran.

Miss Benson, of Cockeysville, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. C. I. Benson.

Mrs. Darrah, Miss Darrah, Mr. Alexander Darrah, of Smyrna, Del., and Mrs. Miller, of Philadelphia, motored from Smyrna, Sunday, and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hohn.

Miss Mary Harward, of Baltimore, spent Sunday at her home.

Miss Margaret Hindman, of Baltimore, spent Sunday at her home.

Miss Della McDonald, of Philadelphia, is visiting Mrs. Sue Phillips and Miss May Williams.

Mr. Albert Price, of Chester, spent Sunday at his home.

Mrs. Cyrenus Creswell has returned from quite a pleasant visit with Wilmington and Chester relatives.

Mr. William Norris, of Baltimore, spent over Sunday at his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Savoy and family have recently moved into Mr. Harvey Gerhauser's property at Rock Run.

Mrs. George Baker, of Aiken, spent several days last week with Mrs. George Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. James Webster and daughter motored from their home in Baltimore last Saturday and spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Luther Barrett.

Mr. Fred Rossman, of York, was the guest of Miss Myrtle I. Dorcus, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Rieter, of Washington, Mrs. Strahles, Mr. and Mrs. John Ingram, of Baltimore, were recent guests of Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Grapp.

Dr. G. H. Richards was a Baltimore visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. J. Howard Pugh and Mrs. Howard B. Pugh spent several days in Baltimore and Washington last week.

Quite a few of our people enjoyed some of the sessions of the Presbytery which was in session in the West Nottingham Church, Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Mr. Ross Hopkins, of Baltimore, spent Sunday at his home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cain and son were Baltimore visitors last week.

Miss Viola Campbell, of Woodlawn, spent over Sunday with Mrs. Howard Shanks.

Mr. Amos Shanks, of Wilmington, spent Sunday with Mrs. William Stebbing.

Rev. and Mrs. F. X. Moore enjoyed Ocean Grove, N. J., this week.

Mr. Howard B. Pugh has returned to Wilmington after spending a very pleasant week at his home.

Mr. Claude Buck of Wilmington, and Miss Ella Pogue, of Rising Sun, were guests, Sunday, of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Buck.

Mrs. G. H. Buck visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buck in Chester, Pa., this week.

Mr. Eugene Gooding, of Baltimore, and Miss Jane Creswell have recently announced their engagement.

The Tomp School for Boys has opened for this year's work with 225 boys, which is the largest enrollment of boarding students this school has ever had.

At this writing Mr. Floyd Hesplesie is quite ill with typhoid fever at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Barrett.

LOCAL NEWS

Harvest Home and Rally Day services will be held at the M. E. Church Sunday, October 8.

Rev. J. E. Eggert attended the Presbytery of New Castle held at West Nottingham this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Bates moved into the property of Mrs. Carrie Boulden on Saturday last.

SOCIAL NOTES

Miss Alice Hopper left on Tuesday

Kodak Films

We have a full line of Eastman Kodak Films of all sizes

Let us do your printing, developing and enlarging

SETH S. SAWTELLE

aug 23, '12-17

CECILTON

Mrs. Margaret Black has been visiting Mrs. J. O. Clarke of near Earleville.

Miss J. P. Dushane, of near Earleville, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Harry Price, recently.

Miss Lillie Ferguson has returned to Women's College, Newark, Del.

Mr. F. E. Hoover was a Baltimore visitor on Monday.

Mrs. Ella Shelton visited relatives near Earleville on Sunday.

Mrs. Helen Hall is visiting Mrs. L. King, of near Warwick.

Mr. B. Bayne, of Wilmington, visited Mr. and Mrs. Bamill Bouchelle.

Miss Bessie Culberston visited her sister, Miss Amy Culberston, on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Windsor, of Philadelphia, visited Mr. James Smith recently.

Mr. and Mrs. William McMullin, of near Port Penn, Del., spent Saturday with Misses Mollie and Arrie McCoy.

Mrs. G. W. Padley, Mrs. S. W. Lusby and Mrs. William Coale, Jr., were entertained at cards at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson near Sassafras last Friday.

Mrs. James Davis and children, of near Earleville, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davis recently.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Manlove and two daughters were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Boulden, of near Earleville, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Howard and Miss M. E. Ferguson, of Randall, visited relatives in town on Sunday.

Miss Mary Davis is attending Women's College in Newark, Del.

The Right Rev. William F. Adams, D.D., Bishop of Easton, preached in St. Stephen's Chapel last Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Palmer, of Philadelphia, visited Mr. and Mrs. Davis Taylor recently.

The First District Auxiliary of Union Hospital will hold a bake Saturday afternoon and evening, Oct. 14, in the Parish building here. A special feature of profit and attraction will be "the Clipping Line". Come "clip" some. Ice cream and cake for sale. Proceeds for the hospital annex. We must help.

for Smith College, Northampton, Mass.

Mrs. Frank Sherman and daughter, Dorothy, of Baltimore, are spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Augusta Tatman.

Miss Alma Bryson, of Middletown, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Milton Titter.

Mr. John Banks, of Wilmington, spent Sunday with his mother.

Mrs. Sadie Verdier, of Norfolk, Va., is visiting Mrs. E. H. Banks.

Mr. Charles Foard spent several days last week in Wilmington.

Mrs. James S. Hopper visited relatives in Philadelphia this week.

Miss K. S. Price spent Tuesday in Philadelphia.

Mr. Frank O'Donnell was entertained at the home of Mrs. Thomas Wright last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Ellison, Jr., Mr. Charles S. Ellison and Frank Ellison motored to Philadelphia Thursday last.

Mrs. John M. Reed, Jr., is spending a few days with her parents at West Grove.

Mr. Hugh W. Caldwell spent Saturday with his mother at Liberty Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Bates were entertained at dinner on Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Wallis.

Mr. Harry Sauerhoff, of Seaford, Del., spent Sunday in town.

Miss Hattie Morgan spent Wednesday last in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Frank Peach, of North East,

A. M. Johnson

Sunshine Stoves and Ranges

TIN & SHEET IRON WORK

Chesapeake City, Md.

visited Mrs. M. E. Foard last week.

Mr. J. R. Kirk and family spent Sunday with friends in Betterton.

Mrs. Harry Murry and children and Mrs. William Murry spent Wednesday with friends at Glasgow.

Mrs. Charles S. Ellison, Mrs. J. W. Clayton and Miss Adelaide Clayton spent Monday in Philadelphia.

Miss Nan H. Wright left on Wednesday for Frederick county, where she has accepted a position.

Mr. John Hager entered Johns Hopkins University Monday last.

The dance given by the High School last Friday evening was largely attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crawford and son, Mrs. Tohmas Cruikshank and daughters, Mr. William Hyland and son visited Mrs. James S. Hopper on Sunday.

1906 1911

John C. Lupfer

UNDERTAKER

Chesapeake City, Maryland

Considerate and Prompt Attention.

Phone 39

AUTO SERVICE IF DESIRED

Joseph Schaefer

Grocer & Ship Chandler

AND DEALER IN

General Merchandise

Smoked Meats A Specialty

BELOW LOCKS

Chesapeake City, Md.

Phone No. 20-B

Your Chance for Fence Wire

I bought a carload of Page Fence Wire before the advance in price and can sell it to you right. I am selling it.

Plows

Every make and repairs. Can fit you up with what you want.

Harness, Rollers, Everything for the Farm.

Automobile Department

Oakland Overland G. M. C. Trucks All kinds of Tires and Accessories

RALPH H. REES, CHESAPEAKE CITY, MD.

GARAGE AND MACHINE SHOP

EXPERIENCED MECHANIC ALWAYS ON HAND TO DO ALL KINDS OF REPAIR WORK

Full Stock of

SUPPLIES AND ACCESSORIES

GASOLINE.

Full Stock TIRES.

Most conveniently located on CAUSEWAY in CHESAPEAKE CITY, MARYLAND.

BENJAMIN CARPENTER, Prop.

Call and see our complete line of FIRESTONE GOOD TIRES. FORD CAR ACCESSORIES. UNITED STATES TIRES for sale.

July 29-1f

SUPERIOR QUALITY LOWEST PRICES

CHARLES C. BANKS

Funeral Director & Undertaker

Chesapeake City, Md.

HEARSE AND 6 CABS.

LADY ASSISTANT

June 21-6 mos

BRIEF NEWS OF INTEREST GATHERED BY THE CECIL WHIG'S COUNTY CORRESPONDENTS

NORTH EAST

Mr. S. J. Reeder spent the first of the week in Washington.

Mrs. Mary Shallcross, of Philadelphia, spent the week past with relatives.

Mrs. G. B. Cullen and son, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday with Mrs. Curtis Williams.

Last Sunday was rally day at the M. E. Sunday school and there was a large attendance and a special program was rendered.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reeder, of Bethlehem, Pa., spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Reeder.

Mr. and Mrs. George Craig, of near North East, entertained the following last Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jones and children, of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Janney and sons, George and Cantwell, Mr. and Mrs. Evan Craig and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Phineas Craig and daughter, Aldridge and Misses Pauline Craig, Nellie and Edith Gatchell, of North East, and Laura Deputy, of Elkton.

The reorganized Epworth League will conduct the services at the M. E. Church Sunday evenings during the fall and winter.

Bishop Adams preached an able sermon at the P. E. Church Sunday evening last.

Mrs. J. A. McLain, of New York City, is visiting relatives here.

Miss Ethel Shallcross spent last week in Philadelphia.

Mauden Remmey, of May's Landing, N. J., spent several days with Mrs. W. H. Priest.

Miss May West is having a bungalow built.

A sneak thief stole a number of chickens from Thomas Abrahams on Sunday night.

Captain McNamee, of the Ericsson steamer Lord Baltimore, is visiting his parents.

Samuel Neal, when stepping from an automobile last week on the state road, was struck by another machine and had an arm broken.

Mr. John Currier, of Baltimore, was here this week and said prohibition had not a ghost of a show in Baltimore and would lose by 25,000. Maybe not.

Marshall, son of G. F. Harvey, jumped from the front of his father's automobile truck last Saturday while slowing down and had his arm broken and badly injured about the head, being unconscious several hours. He is now recovering.

R. T. Abrams and Harry Coslett are having concrete walks laid at their homes.

The new concrete bridge in the hollow has been finished by the contractor, John Norman, and is a great improvement over the old wooden one.

Mrs. Kate Price is visiting Mrs. H. M. Pierson.

Reeder & Alexander have the large passenger boat they are building nearly completed, except the installation of the engines.

Mrs. S. G. Dunlap and Mrs. Harry Eiddle spent the first of the week in Philadelphia.

The Red Men are making preparations for their Halloween parade and with the co-operation of the people expect it to be the best yet. Several prizes will be given and will be concluded with a masquerade ball in the G. A. R. Hall.

The canning season closed here this week and Mr. Richardson is very well pleased with his pack.

THEODORE

Mr. Roland Atkinson, of Wilmington, spent Sunday at his home here.

Mrs. Harry Hartenstine was a Principio Furnace visitor, Saturday.

Miss Tacy Williams, of Wilmington, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Williams.

Mr. Linton Folkrod, of Wilmington, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reynolds.

Miss Ada Williams visited her sister Mrs. Clarence Harris, on Saturday.

Dr. Mahoney and Dr. Rossman, of Baltimore, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Mahoney.

Mrs. Charlotte Fisher, of Perryville, is spending some time with Mr. Ross Irwin and family.

Miss Pearl Williams was a North East visitor, Saturday.

Mr. Clayton Boulden, of Wilmington, spent Sunday with Mrs. Elizabeth Hartenstine.

Miss Rhoda Letts spent Wednesday and Thursday with friends at Charles-town.

Mr. Delbert Mahoney, of Chester, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Mahoney.

RIISING SUN

Mrs. Robert Cameron and daughter Miss Evelyn were visitors in Philadelphia during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Duceykinck, Mrs. Anna Haines, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Duceykinck spent Wednesday with Mr. John Purnell and family in Lancaster county, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Pogue, Miss Ethel Hall and Mr. Joseph Tyson attended York Fair on Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. Scott Wilson, Mrs. William Gifford and Miss Bertha Tyson attended the W. C. T. U. State convention in Baltimore this week.

The West Nottingham Academy held a festival in the church chapel on Wednesday night.

Mrs. Miller and son, Mr. George Miller, of Morton, spent Sunday with Mrs. Frank Miller.

Miss Helen Evans, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Miss Edna Wilson on Cherry street.

Miss Elizabeth R. Stephens and Mrs. Lydia Vanneman, Baltimore, visited their sister, Mrs. Charles Reiser, the past week.

Messrs. William and Paul Cameron, Elmer Mayberry spent last Monday in Philadelphia attending a baseball game.

The New Castle Presbytery was held in West Nottingham Presbyterian Church on Monday and Tuesday. Lunch and supper were served in the chapel on both days. Rev. H. N. Falconer spoke Tuesday night on "All Around Christian Life" and Mr. Alien lead the music. The congregation gladly welcomed them both back.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Pyle are spending the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Fehr, in Allentown.

Rev. A. P. Pretzman conducted prayer meeting at the home of Mrs. Katharine Brickley on Wednesday night.

WOODLAWN

Valley Grange had a watermelon party Saturday evening.

Mrs. Clinton Jackson entertained at

We Can't Sell You Better Rubber Footwear Than This

Take a good look at this boot. Note the heavy sail duck and seven thicknesses of pure rubber ground right into the duck. You'll find satisfactory. Come in today and see our stock. If, by close examination, you don't find it the best in rubber footwear, you don't have to buy. But come and see our display.

LAMBERTVILLE RUBBER FOOTWEAR

JOHN M. REED, JR. GENERAL MERCHANDISE Chesapeake City, Md. Phone 29

Briscoe Motor Cars

The BRISCOE sells for a price within the reach of the average man. But it possesses Beauty, Style, Power, Comfort and Equipment. Far above any car in its class. The man who sees it says: "Some car for the money." The woman: "Isn't it a beauty." By all means investigate before buying. Send for Catalogue, read the Description and Specifications. Impossible, you will think. Then to prove it we will show you the car and give you a ride in it. Then you will agree with us that the above is absolutely correct.

CALVERT MOTOR CAR CO.

Calvert, Cecil County, Md. P. O. NOTTINGHAM, PA., R. F. D. 3. Cecil Farmers' Telephone—Rising Sun Exchange.

Full line of accessories. GAS and OILS and REPAIRS. All makes of cars repaired and work guaranteed. A trial will prove that our prices are right.

Pinch Back Suit

The style for the Young lows, with Patch and Flap

$10 to $25

Sizes 33 to 40 Che

Blue, Brown, Green and Flannels, Blue Serges, Cheviots, Grey Cheviots, new Fancy Cassimeres

Men's Suits, $10 Fall Overcoats, $10

Hundreds of them in all

34 to 50 Che

Regulars, Stouts, Short Long Stouts and Extra

New Stetson Hats New Boyden Shirts New Manhattan Suits

Everything else in Hats, Shoes and Furnish and ready.

MULLIN'S HOME

Wilmington

Stom... ting... Monda... ed on... journey... teacher... Baltimore...