YOUNG MEN'S CONVENTION.

Agreeably to public notice, a large number of the young men of Montgomery County assembled at Rockville, on Saturday the 21st of March.

On motion of Wm. C. Gott, Wm. M. Stewart and Saml. D. Waters were appointed Presidents, and on motion of Richard I. Bowie, Leonidas Wilson and Thomas E. Jacobs were appointed Secretaries.

The purpose of the meeting having been briefly stated by the Chair, on motion of Wm. C. Gott,

Resolved, That a committee of one from each election district in the county be appointed, to propose resolutions for the considerations of the meeting.

When the following gentlemen were named: Wm. C. Gott, Richard J. Bowie, Tho's. Neel, David W. Porter, and Nathan C. Dickerson.

The Committee having retired, the meeting was addressed by Leonidas Wilson, until their return, when they reported the following resolutions:

Whereas, the National Convention which assembled at Harrisburg, in December last, recommended that the Young Whigs of the several States, meet in convention in the City of Baltimore, on the 1st Monday of May next—therefore,

Resolved, That this meeting appoint ten delegates from each election district to represent Montgomery county in said Convention.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the nomination of WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON, of Ohio, for President, and of JOHN TYLER, of Virginia, for Vice President.

Resolved, That in WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON, we behold our country's gallant soldier, who fought but for freedom's sake; the pure and venerable statesman, who pleaded but for his country's good; the spotless patriot, and the honest man.

Resolved, That in the language of Col. R. M. Johnson, "the history of the west is his history. For forty years he has been identified with its interests, its perils and its hopes. Universally beloved in the walks of peace, and distinguished by his ability in the councils of his country. He has been yet more illustriously distinguished in the field."

Resolved, That we look upon any attempt to slander the name of HARRISON, as recoiling upon Col. R. M. Johnson, the much-loved V. President of the Van Buren party.

Resolved, That Washington, Jefferson, and Madison confided strictly in Harrison, who was found equal to every responsibility, and trustworthy in every particular.

Resolved, That we look upon the base, and groundless charges brought against Harrison by his enemies, in the face of history, and of living witnesses, as undoubted evidence of their own conviction of his purity, and as symptoms of their utter alarm.

Resolved, That we look upon the unanimity and enthusiasm, with which the late Harrisburg Convention have been received, by the Great Whig and Conservative party throughout the union, as an assurance doubly sure, that freedom is now nerving her strong arm, to strike a death blow to wide spread corruption.

Resolved, That the enormous growth of executive power and patronage under which the country is now writhing, is extremely dangerous to the purity of our republican institutions, and utterly subversive of the dearest interests of a free people.

Resolved, That the Sub-Treasury scheme is at war with the genius of republican liberty, paralyzing to both public and individual enterprise, and suited only to increase and sustain executive power and patronage.

Resolved, That we look upon the action of the Van Buren party in the case of the N. Jersey election, as a gross outrage upon the sovereignty of the States, and as an expression of defiance to the people.

Resolved, That we join hands with our elder brethren of the country, of the State, and of the whole country, in eternal hostility to a set of rulers, who rashly persist in experimenting against the best lights of experience, and regardless of the dearest interests of the people.

Resolved, That following the example of the illustrious candidates for the Presidency, we merge all personal feelings, all local questions, and all minor considerations whatever, in a common struggle for the common good, in "The union of the Whigs for the sake of the Union."

Which being read, and supported in an eloquent speech by Wm. C. Gott, were unanimously adopted.

On motion of James H. Brooke, Resolved, That a committee of two from each district be appointed to nominate the delegates to Baltimore.

Whereupon the following gentlemen were appointed: James H. Brooke, Washington Bonifant, R. H. Speake, Chas. H. C. Orme, Thomas Neel, George C. Patterson, Julius West, Douglass Clopper, James Dawson, and Benj. C. Gott.

On motion, Resolved, That the nominations be unanimously approved, and in case of the declension or non attendance of any delegate named, that the nominating committee be authorized to nominate others to fill such vacancy.

On motion of Richard I. Bowie, who in an eloquent appeal to the patriotism of the young men, set forth the peculiar claims, which the Republic has in the present crisis, for their most active exertions, it was

WHIG MEETING.
Pursuant to public notice given, a meeting of the Whigs of St. Mary's county, was held at Leonard Town, on Tuesday 9th inst. The number assembled was perhaps the largest ever known in the county.

The meeting was organized by the appointment of the following officers:

GOV. JAMES THOMAS, Pres't.
ELWILEY SMITH, } Vice Pres'ts.
GEO. SLYE, Esqrs. }

Major GEO. CRANE, } Secretaries.
H. G. GARNER, Esqrs. }

The object of the meeting was stated by William J. Blackstone, in an appropriate manner, who concluded by moving the following resolution:

Resolved, That a committee of ten be appointed to nominate delegates to represent St. Mary's county in the Whig State Convention to assemble in the city of Baltimore, on the 2d Thursday in April next.

Henry Fowler, Esq. Chairman of the committee so appointed, reported the following nominations to the meeting, which were unanimously concurred in:

Francis Simms, Geo G. Aschom, Geo Thomas, Wm C Barnes, James Miltmore, Richard C Sothoron, Major Geo Slye, Elkannah Edwards, Hezekiah Burroughs, Sen'r Maj James F Sothoron, H G Hayden, Morris Shanks, Joseph Shemwell, Joseph Dunbar, jr, Henry G Garner, Wm A Maddox, Wm J Blackiston, John F Dent, Edmund Plowden, James J Gough, Bennet Gough, Jno M S Causin, Dr Wm J Edelen, Wm Ford, James T Blackiston, James A Morgan, Wm Floyd, Francis Herbert, Wm S B Keibert, Matthew A Stone, James Wilkinson, Wm Woodward, A D Coad, Col Cornelius Combs, Thomas Lockner, John H Bean, John Shadrirk, Jas R Hopewell, Henry Sewall, Robert Thompson, James McK Hammett, James C Milburn, Dr Caleb M Jones, Dr Robert Clarke, Major Geo Crane, Peter Gough, John W Bennett, Wm L Smith, Ignatius Langley Robert M Bischo, John B Welsh, Jeremiah Taylor.

Dr William J Edelen, from the committee appointed to draft resolutions expressive to the feelings and sentiments of the meeting, reported as follows:

Resolved, That we cordially concur in the nominations for President and Vice President, made by the Harrisburg Convention.

Resolved, That we view the measure of the administration, commonly called the Sub-Treasury Bill, as an instrument by which a monied aristocracy is to be created; as a bill not to separate the government from the banks, but the government from the people; as involving a principle unrecognized by the constitution, the principle which inculcates the novel doctrine, that the general government has no other control over the currency, than to secure to the officers thereof, the earliest payment in the best money;—as a measure by which the army of office holders are to become an organized band of brokers fattening in their profits by the distress of the people;—as one by which the property and labor of the people is to be depreciated, to the end, that capitalists and creditors may reap double gains by their sacrifices;—as a bill, in all its tendencies, only calculated to swell the advantages of the rich, and immeasurably augment the miseries of the poor.

Resolved, That we view the public domain as the common property of the Union, purchased by common contribution, and answerable to its common necessities, and we regard any attempt to divert it of this character, by cessions to particular sections of the Union, as a surrender of the rights of those states by which it was purchased, uncalled for by exigency, unauthorised by constitutional warrant, and unpalpated by the contingent aid it might procure to a new aspirant for the presidency.

Resolved, That we repose full confidence in the ability, integrity and patriotism of WILLIAM H. HARRISON, and that we earnestly recommend him to the support of the People of Maryland,—as a soldier, who in battle for freedom was never conquered,—as a statesman, whose abilities in the cabinet and council were never questioned,—as a man who in every condition of life has been oftentimes lauded, but never censured, as a compeer of Washington—and whose administration will bring the nation back to the control of those principles inculcated in the school in which the Father of his Country was the teacher.

Resolved, That the Whigs of Saint Mary's County, challenge their brethren of the Union to a contest at the polls, in which the prize shall be our country's best interest; and the reward of success, the exulting shout of freemen proclaiming, from the rocks of Main to the shores of the Gulf WILLIAM H. HARRISON—by the Grace of God, and the Will of the People—PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

The meeting was then addressed by Dr Wm J Edelen, J M S Causin, and William Ford, Esquires, in forcible and eloquent appeals to the Whigs of Saint Mary's, on the approach of the important contest between the Government and the People; the evils of the Sub-Treasury were shown, in all their various bearings, and the miserable condition of the Army, brought about by the maladministration of the National Government, to whom it was confided, was also shown, beyond the possibility of successful contradiction.

Wm Ford, Esq. then offered the following resolutions, which were adopted:

Resolved, That this meeting recommend to the Whigs of the 7th Congressional District of Maryland to hold a convention at Charlotte Hall, on Thursday the 14th of May next for the purpose of nominating an electoral candidate in favor of the election of William H. Harrison, of Ohio, for the Presidency, and John Tyler, of Virginia, for the Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That we recommend to the Whigs of Saint Mary's county to hold meetings in the respective election districts, on Saturday the 18th of April next, for the purpose of sending five delegates to represent said districts in Charlotte Hall Convention.

Resolved, That we recommend to the young men in Saint Mary's county, who are friendly to the whig cause, to hold meetings, as early as practicable, for the purpose of sending delegates to represent said county in the Young Men's National Whig Convention to assemble in Baltimore city, in May next.

On motion of J M S Causin, Esq. Resolved, That the Proceedings of this meeting be signed by the President, Vice Presidents and Secretaries, and published in the Leonard Town Herald, the Madisonian, and the Baltimore Patriot.

JAMES THOMAS, President.
ELWILEY SMITH, } Vice Presidents.
GEO. SLYE, }
GEO. CRANE, } Secretaries.
H. G. GARNER, }

Mr. Wise:—We regret that our space will not permit us to publish at large Mr. Wise's late address to his constituents,—for the present we must be content with the following extract:

And now I add, with great pleasure, that as soon as General Harrison's nomination was made, I immediately acquiesced in it; and, comparatively ignorant before of his merits and pretensions for the Presidency, I have since carefully studied his life and I can, with the evidence of history before me, and with the sincerest convictions of the truth of what I say, declare that I believe that there is not a man of our country now living who can point to a life of GREATER USEFULNESS and of more distinguished public services, both civil and military, than Gen. William Henry Harrison.

The limits of this address will not permit me to enter upon the proofs, but I refer to the history of the country, before and during, and since the last war, a great part of which is HIS history, to prove him a patriot, a successful soldier, a republican of the plain, strict-stern school; a statesman of enlarged views, looking to his "whole country," and to all its parts, FO, PRACTICAL wisdom; a benefactor of all its posterity entrusted to his guardianship and care; a scholar, a writer, an honest man and a gentleman, as like beloved in his private, and gloriously renowned in his public life. What more can be said of any man? Why if you will listen to the blind partizand or hiring minions of "power and the spoils," t much more can be said of him. He is, if they ar' to be believed, and a patriotic people will permit a hoary patriot to be belied in their presence— "a vain, weak old man, a petticoat General, who at one time voted to sell free white men at auction, and at another time to abolish the slavery of bond black men; who is poor, lives in a log-cabin, drinks hard cider, and would make a granny President!" Such will doubtless be said of him to you. All of these charges I have not time nor space to notice now; but in relation to the charge of abolition against him, I refer you to his votes upon the Missouri question, to his votes upon the admission of slaves into Arkansas, and to his course in Indiana touching slavery; I refer you to his letter to his constituents in 1822, and to his Vincennes speech. And, if all this will not satisfy you, never let him in his declining days, revisit the tomb of his father, old Benjamin Harrison, a signer of the declaration of Independence and a slave holder, whose bones lie buried under the sod of Virginia, and whose faith his son has deserted; and scout from Old Williamsburg, and out of my district, our friend, and neighbor, and fellow-sinner in slavery, John Tyler, for permitting his name to be put upon the same ticket with that of such an abolitionist; not, however, until after you have helped, with all your might, to turn Martin Van Buren out of the Presidency for his instructions to Rufus King upon that same Missouri question, for his votes in the New York Convention to give to free negroes the elective franchise, and for not, even "with the lights before him," denying the power to Congress to abolish slavery and the slave trade in the District of Columbia.

CITY COURT.—On Saturday the case of the alleged libel against Mr. James L. Maguire was finally brought to a close. The Attorney General stated his intention not to prosecute the matter any farther, and a nolle prosequi was entered by him, both in the case of the Rev. Mr. Breckinridge, and in that of the Rev. Mr. Cross, associate editor of the Literary and Religious Magazine.—American.

The editor of Georgetown Advocate having lately passed along the line of the Potomac Fisheries, thus speaks:

The Potomac Fisheries.—Having just returned from Baltimore, by way of the Potomac, on board of the old steamer Fredericksburg, we had a fine view of the Potomac fisheries which are commencing operations for the season in the hope of a rich harvest. The majority of the fishermen this year will consist of Germans from Baltimore, hardy, healthy men, who will be well able to undergo the fatigues and exposure of fishing. Many of those who have charge of the fisheries have come to the laudable determination to conduct them on temperance plan, giving them meat good provisions, and hot coffee instead of whiskey, which it is believed will conduce to their health, notwithstanding the exposure they are compelled to undergo.

PROSPECTUS.

THE undersigned proposes to publish in the city of Baltimore, a newspaper, to be called

THE PILOT:

Born and educated in the West, he has known General Harrison personally, and been familiar with his public life since the commencement of the war. He has known Mr. Van Buren, and closely observed his career since 1836.

The chief inducement to resume the arduous and responsible charge of an Editor is the hope that he may now contribute something towards the election of General Harrison. The fidelity, ability, firmness and moderation with which that eminent citizen has discharged the most responsible and difficult public trusts—his unexampled popularity as the chief magistrate of the Territories N. W. of the Ohio—the unimpeached integrity of his public life; his amiable, courteous and dignified respect for the laws and public opinion, are guarantees that, if elected, he will bring into the administration faithful competent and honest men; who will devote all the constitutional means of the Government to restore confidence, and thus revive the industry, enterprise, credit and prosperity of the Country; now paralyzed by unfaithful and incompetent public agents.

The PILOT will review the course of the present administration, and discuss freely the fraudulent speculations in the public lands and their connexion with the subsequent warfare on the banking institutions of the country. In doing this the present and the past administration will be identified, and their measures examined and contrasted,—the present unexampled condition of the country, the causes in which it originated, and the inevitable consequence of continuing power in the same hands will be boldly and faithfully treated.

The undersigned believes that the Federal Government is a compact between the States intended, by a more perfect union to harmonize, as far as possible, what would otherwise have been in conflict between local interests;—and that this is no less a duty than the protection of our foreign commerce. The benefits to flow from a well directed system of Internal Improvements, whether it be considered as a means of defence in case of invasion, or insurrection; or of conveying the products of the interior to market, or of TRANSPORTING THE MAIL, are so palpable that the only objections have been made by those who denied the power of the Federal Government; or by others who, admitting the power denied the expediency, under the existing state of the Treasury. The undersigned believes that the Federal Government may, by permanent contracts with rail road companies, for the transportation of the mail and troops and munitions of war, on the leading routes of travel, accomplish a general system of Internal Improvements; and will enforce the propriety of doing so, and endeavor to show how this may be done by an enlightened use of the public credit;—and also to develop the incidental advantages to flow from such a measure, by sustaining the credit of the States, and thus restoring public and private confidence.

Baltimore is central, and in some respects, the best point at which to concentrate political intelligence.—Should the expectations of the Editor be realized, the Pilot will become the medium of diffusing the intelligence thus concentrated; and whatever an earnest zeal, some experience, and unceasing industry can do, will be done to render it acceptable, as a Commercial, Scientific, Literary and Miscellaneous, as well as a political newspaper.—It will treat political opponents with candor and fairness, but will be firm and decided in support of the men, the measures and the principles whose support may be identified with the welfare of the country; and if in doing this, it shall be necessary to retaliate, or to carry the "war into Africa," it will be done.—The Editor will not falter in the discharge of his duty, to please a subscriber or to gain an advertisement.—The press will be free and he will fearlessly discharge his duty.

It is proposed to issue a daily paper at six dollars per annum, a semi-weekly at five dollars per annum and an extra in pamphlet, double Royal size, and devoted exclusively to the Presidential Election for ONE DOLLAR, the first number to be issued on the first of May.

The first number of the daily will be issued as soon as a sufficient subscription to justify the undertaking shall have been obtained.

The Editor is admonished by the past, and will not again subject himself to heavy losses. It is in the power of those who desire the election of Gen. Harrison, to remunerate his services; and this proposition is submitted under the expectation that an effort will be made, and especially, by the young men of the party, to aid him in weathering the storm.

DUFF GREEN.

TERMS.—PAYABLE IN ADVANCE. Daily Pilot per annum, Six Dollars. Single Daily Paper, Two Cents. Semi-weekly, per annum, Five Dollars. Extra from May 1st to 15th Nov. in pamphlet royal size, One Dollar. Advertisements at the usual rates.

Editors friendly to the election of General Harrison are requested to insert this prospectus.

March 21st, 1840.
