EUTAW HOUSE.

Corner of Eutaw and Baltimore streets, Baltimore. THE SUBSCRIBERS respectfully inform the patrons of this establishment, that they have associated themselves together for the purpose of conducting the same. The EUTAW HOUSE was completed and first opened in 1826, at which time it was furnished throughout in the very best manner, and without regard to cost. The comfort and convenience of its interior arrangements, its high and airy location, combine to render it peculiarly pleasant and healthy. It is particularly well adapted for the accommodation of FAMILIES and LADIES, having a great number of Private Parlours, Ladies' Ordinary and a splendid Drawing Room, with private entrance on Baltimore street. In every respect, the Eutaw House is second to none in the United States, and it is the intention and firm determination of the proprietors, to spare no exertions to promote the comfort and gratification of their patrons, and at rates at which no exception can be taken. The stock of WINE and LIQUORS on hand, has been mostly imported expressly for the use of this establishment, or selected from the private stocks of some of the most celebrated connoisseurs of the city. The BATHS attached to the house are in complete order, and open at all times for the use of the guests.

ASAHIEL HUSSEY, F. W. ELDER, (Late of the firm of B. S. Elder & Co.) Baltimore, April 2, 1840.

A MOUTH WITHOUT TEETH IS A MOUTH WITHOUT CHARMS. H. KNAPP, DENTAL SURGEON, N. W. Corner of Charles and Fayette sts. would call the attention of the public, to the preservation of the TEETH. Millions of teeth are now perishing, which might be preserved by timely and judicious treatment; those, therefore, who value the preservation of their Teeth will please give him a call, as well as those who may require artificial ones inserted, and warrants to perform his operations to the entire satisfaction of those who may honor him with their patronage. ap 9 2aw

PROSPECTUS.—For publishing by subscription, the drama of WEST POINT; or, A TALE OF THE TIMES, by Joseph Brock, Esq. In consequence of the numerous solicitations of his friends, the author of the drama entitled "West Point; or, a Tale of Treason," has consented to its publication. This play is a dramatic picture of the bold and daring treason of Benedict Arnold, and of the arrest and execution of Major Andre, the British spy, during the Revolutionary War. It was adapted to scenic representation by Joseph Brock, Esq. The original tale is from the pen of Professor Ingraham, as published in the Democratic Review. The dramatist has been kindly furnished with a poetical PROLOGUE, by John H. Hewitt, Esq. and also a PROLOGUE, by R. Horace Pratt, Esq. which productions will accompany the publication, thereby enhancing its value. Subscribers will be furnished with the work at 25 cts. per copy, on delivery. Copy-right secured. Monsieur LE SAGE once wrote in a preface to his translation of "LIFE OF GUSMAN D'ALFARACHE" I copy. I dare say there are many good things in this (translation) drama, because they are none of my own; and some bad ones which I am not bound to vindicate; and whoever lays them to my charge will do me wrong; for without vanity be it spoken, there would have been many more of the latter, if I had not abridged or omitted them. I have also introduced several new turns of thought and expression, that the whole might assume a modern appearance. It is not easy to make a Spanish play, especially an old one, fit a Frenchman, for the antipathy between the two nations appears in every thing. Through this book be not exactly calculated for perusal in Lent, or on Church days, it will admirably well suit Cardinal time. It is fitted to all shapes and sizes; a saddle for every horse. It needs only to be tried, and many, who believe it was made for others, will find that the coat suits as well upon them, as if the tailor had cut it out by their own measure. The misfortune is, that every one believes himself tall and well shaped; and yet there are hardly any but crooked and humped backs in the world. Copies of the Prospectus can be found at the principal Bookstores, where subscriptions are respectfully solicited. ap 2
