

already invested, must remain idle and useless, to the serious diminution of the public revenue, and to the detriment of those sections of the commonwealth especially, through which they pass:

And whereas, by an act passed the third day of April, 1840, entitled "resolution for the resumption of specie payments by the banks and for other purposes," the sum of three millions of dollars is provided for the purposes herein mentioned, in case the legislature enacts the appropriate laws applying it to the same, and whereas, one of the principal reasons for giving to the banks so great an extension of their present suspension of specie payments as until the 15th January, 1841, was to obtain this fund of three millions of dollars for the relief of the commonwealth from the financial embarrassments by which she is at this time beset—and whereas, a failure to provide for applying the same to the purposes for which it was designated, is an ENTIRE SURRENDER of this important advantage secured to the public by that law, and is a total release of the banks from an essential part of the consideration on which the indulgence they are enjoying was granted, which appears to me to be a course of policy, neither wise nor just. And whereas, the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, with her vast resources, and her magnificent system of public improvements, owes it to her own character for STEADFASTNESS, STRICT OBSERVANCE of engagements, and a high sense of STATE PRIDE, and PUBLIC FAITH, to pay with punctuality the interest becoming due on the public debt, the respective debts due to those who have labored to construct and to keep her public improvements in repair, and to exert ALL HER ENERGIES to continue those improvements in a fit condition to transport upon them whatever products her own citizens, and those of neighboring states may have created or purchased on the faith, and with the expectation and assurance, that these improvements were to be and remain their highway to and from market. And whereas, should there be no remedial legislation in the present emergency, the CONFIDENCE OF THE WORLD in the ENGAGEMENTS and LEGISLATIVE CONSTANCY of this great commonwealth must be deeply SHAKEN, if not ultimately LOST.

Therefore, I have felt it to be my solemn and imperative duty to convene the general assembly again on this extraordinary occasion, to hold a session again on the seventeenth day of the present month.

I have chosen this early period before the members had dispersed and returned to their homes, to relieve them from the trouble of returning at a more inconvenient season—to save the commonwealth from the large amount of expenses which she would necessarily incur, in the recalling of the members from their several remote places of abode, and to secure the most speedy action of the legislature on the subjects above referred to, that is practicable—because they are of a nature too pressing and important to admit of much delay. It is a matter of unfeigned regret to me, to be obliged to arrest the return of the members to their families and homes, but the injunctions of duty are too stern and unyielding to be disregarded; I obey them with readiness, and shall trust to the enlightened wisdom of the general assembly, and of our common constituents—the people—to sanction the act, and to render it instrumental in promoting the public good, and in saving from IMPENDING REPROACH, the faith and honor of Pennsylvania.

In the fund for the payment of interest on the public debt, the deficiency within the next nine months will be not less than $300,000

For the repairs made by the present officers on the several lines of canal and rail road, there is yet due and unpaid, at least	300,000
For repairs to be made during the present year, it will require, (exclusive of the Franklin line) at least	400,000
There is due also for ropes, locomotives, &c.,	75,000
Also, for lock on Eastern Division,	7,402
Also, (over and above appropriations) to Contractors on Erie Extension,	204,000
North Branch,	165,000
Wiconisco,	2,000
Sinnemahoning,	34,124
Gettysburg R. R.,	145,307
Allegheny Feeder,	1,100
Inclined Plane, Columbia,	60,000

For new work on finished lines, pay of engineers, canal commissions, &c., 50,000

For damages, 30,000

This large amount is now due, or will become due before the meeting of the next legislature, or immediately thereafter, and it is manifestly impossible to postpone the providing of funds to meet it, with any PROPER REGARD to the contracts and faith of the State; and under this view of the subject, it seems to me, there cannot be two opinions upon the course that ought to be adopted among honest men. This whole subject, I have taken occasion to bring before you, in my former messages: ample time for reflection and investigation has been given, and, under the dictates of a true spirit of conciliation and forbearance, it appears to me, you cannot consume upon its consideration, much more than a single day of your time.

DAVID R. PORTER.

Executive Chamber, April 16, 1840.

A WARRIOR'S ESTIMATE OF WAR. Prince Eugene, who was one of the very ablest among the renowned Generals of his day, and who had gained honor in many a well fought battle, makes the following remarks in relation to war:

"The thirst of renown sometimes insinuates itself into our councils under the hypocritical garb of national honor. It dwells on imaginary insults, it suggests harsh and abusive language, and people go on from one thing to another till they put an end to the lives of half a million of men. The call for war proceeds generally from those who have no active share in its toils, as ministers, women, and the lounging population of a large town. I said one day in Venice, in a company which was very clam-orous for a war, I wish that each of the great men and great women present was ordered by the emperor to contribute at the rate of four thousand ducats a head to the charges of the war, and that the other fine gentlemen among us were made to take the field forthwith in person. A military man becomes so sick of bloody scenes in war, that at peace he is averse to recommence them. I wish that the first minister who is called on to decide on peace or war had only seen actual service. What pains would he not take to seek in meditation and compromise the means of avoiding the effusion of so much blood! It is ignorance and levity, which are always cruel, and make cabinets lean to the side of war."

We learn from the Norfolk Herald that the steamer Lewis Ludlam was burned to the water's edge on Tuesday night, at Bermuda Hundred, and that a black man perished in the flames.

High Constables.—We learn that the Judges of the Court of General Sessions have appointed Messrs. King, Slater, and Helverson, high Constables for said Court, in conjunction with Mr. Blaney, previously appointed.

THE TIPPECANOE TEXT BOOK.

DUFF GREEN
Proposes to publish by subscription,
A POLITICAL PAMPHLET,
TO BE ENTITLED
THE TIPPECANOE TEXT BOOK
AND LOG CABIN CABINET,
COMPRISING a biographical memoir, a mass of facts, official documents, accounts of battles and anecdotes and events, illustrative of the character and services of Gen. Wm. H. Harrison, the peoples' candidate for the presidency of the United States, compiled from "NILES' REGISTER" and other historical works.
BY WM. OGDEN NILES,
LATE EDITOR OF "NILES' REGISTER,"
And respectfully dedicated to the
YOUNG MEN OF THE UNITED STATES.

The character and services of no man that ever lived have been so slightly appreciated, or so little understood, by a large portion of the American people, as those of Gen. Wm. HENRY HARRISON; for they have regarded him merely as a victorious general, whose highest merit is success in contests in the field, and whose chief glory is the splendor which illumines the warrior's brow. But as great and enduring as is the fame which he has won in fighting the battles of his country, we believe that his fellow-citizens owe him a deep debt of gratitude for his zeal and ability in defending our civil institutions—for the heart-felt patriotism he has manifested in promoting the national honor and interests, and the humanity he has displayed in advancing the welfare and happiness of all who have served under him in the tented field, or been thrown in his path by poverty or misfortune in social life. Indeed, as deeply as we have been impressed with the extent and value of his services in the battle field and in the councils of the nation, we have been surprised, on referring to the official records of impartial history, that an individual so pre-eminently distinguished by all those qualifications which should adorn the chief executive officer of this great republic, has been so long permitted to remain in the obscurity of a "LOG CABIN," and finally doomed to drink "HARD CIDER," as the only reward for his services, by the parasites of power, who, feasting on costly viands and clothed in purple and fine linen, dare to insult honest poverty which scorned wealth if purchased at the expense of the country.

To exhibit the character and services of GEN. HARRISON as they are recorded in "NILES' REGISTER" (admitted by all parties to be a fair and impartial record), by extracts from his official correspondence—incidents illustrative of his coolness, bravery and decision in the field and intelligence and wisdom in council—his utter disregard of all selfish considerations when he had an opportunity of promoting the interests or contributing to the happiness of his fellow-citizens—his generosity and humanity—will be the chief objects of the "TIPPECANOE TEXT BOOK," which will be so arranged as to enable every friend of the peoples' candidate for the presidency, on the hustings, or in private debate, to refute slander or establish truth by reference to official facts and documents which no man will dare to deny. In short, to place within the reach of every lover of truth, a complete history of Gen. Harrison's acts and sentiments for a period of nearly thirty years. "NILES' REGISTER" is daily referred to by politicians and is the principal source from which the materials to be used in the present contest must be drawn; and, independent of the vast benefit which must result from the "Text Book" in enlightening the public mind, it will save much labor and research.

"THE TIPPECANOE TEXT BOOK AND LOG CABIN CABINET" will be published on the first of May next, and comprise ninety six pages, closely printed, and illustrated with handsome engravings, at $10 00 per hundred—single copies 1-2 cts. payable in ad vcc.

Address DUFF GREEN or Wm. OGDEN NILES, (who will superintend the publication,) postage paid.
Baltimore, May 17, 1840.

RESOLUTION OF THE STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.
At a meeting of the State Central Committee, held at North Bend, April 17, 1840, it was unanimously RESOLVED, That the pamphlet to be published by DUFF GREEN, and compiled by Wm. Ogdren Niles, late Editor of "NILES' REGISTER," from the materials contained in that work, and in other authentic records, to be entitled "THE TIPPECANOE TEXT BOOK, AND LOG CABIN CABINET," be earnestly recommended to the State Committees and Tippecanoe Associations of the Union, as a most valuable auxiliary in aiding the election of the Peoples' candidate to the Presidency, by exhibiting by OFFICIAL DOCUMENTS his great services in behalf of his country, in the cabinet and in the field, and his peculiar fitness for that high office; and that they be earnestly invited to extend its circulation in every quarter of the Union.
N. F. WILLIAMS, Chairman.
