The building is spacious and airy, situated in a central part of the city, and contiguous to the principal Hotels, affording every requisite for the enjoyment of the luxuries as also of the medicinal benefits of HOT, TEPID and COLD BATHS. The regulations of the establishment in every department are such as to insure the approval of the most fastidious visitor. The Ladies' Department is contiguous to the Gentlemen's—the entrance to which is on a different street. The most scrupulous care has been taken to insure the privacy of these Baths, which are also refitted and opened for the season. The warm and tepid Bath has furnished a theme for many excellent articles, from the pens of able and accomplished writers. Without wishing to enlarge on this subject, the Proprietor will merely refer to the recommendations of Dr. Douglas, in his valuable work on Hygiene—Dr. D. Law's popular work on Health, and to the impressive remarks on this subject by our illustrious fellow-countrymen Dr. FRANKLIN: "Let all remember that cleanliness is health." The READING ROOM is furnished with the principal newspapers of the different States of the Union, and the standard Periodicals of the day. The SALOON is enriched with the productions of many eminent artists, where the amateur of fine paintings may gratify his taste, and while away a pleasant hour. The proprietor cannot permit the present occasion to pass without an expression of his unfeigned acknowledgments for past patronage, and an assurance of his determination to leave nothing untried to merit and secure its continuance. ap 29 d1w L. COOPER'S Compound Aromatic Confection. COOPER'S COMPOUND AROMATIC CONFECTON.—A pleasant, certain, safe, and effectual remedy for Gonorrhoea and Gleet. This elegant preparation, combining all the medicinal virtues of Balsam Copiva and Cubeb, separated by chemical analysis from their offensive and objectionable properties, combined with the compound extract of Sassafras, with several vegetable extracts of great efficacy, forms the most perfect and desirable remedy ever discovered—and as it combines the medicinal properties of Sassafras, it purifies the blood, and removes in a few days every vestige of the disease. It is particularly recommended in obstinate cases where all other remedies have failed. The Confection is put up in neat tin boxes, with full directions—each box containing sufficient to effect a perfect cure in any ordinary case—and when property known must become the only remedy used. Sold by Dr. S. S. HANCE, corner Pratt & Charles sts., J. H. WARNER, corner Eutaw and Market sts.; and J. O. McCORMICK, 46 North Gay Street, Old Town. Price $1 per box. ap 18 d1y

Sprague Street, near the Calvert Street Spring. The patrons of the Establishment, Citizens and Strangers, are respectfully apprised that the Baths having been repaired at considerable expense, are now re-opened for the Summer Season. The building is spacious and airy, situated in a central part of the city, and contiguous to the principal Hotels, affording every requisite for the enjoyment of the luxuries as also of the medicinal benefits of HOT, TEPID and COLD BATHS. The regulations of the establishment in every department are such as to insure the approval of the most fastidious visitor. The Ladies' Department is contiguous to the Gentlemen's—the entrance to which is on a different street. The most scrupulous care has been taken to insure the privacy of these Baths, which are also refitted and opened for the season. The warm and tepid Bath has furnished a theme for many excellent articles, from the pens of able and accomplished writers. Without wishing to enlarge on this subject, the Proprietor will merely refer to the recommendations of Dr. Douglas, in his valuable work on Hygiene—Dr. D. Law's popular work on Health, and to the impressive remarks on this subject by our illustrious fellow-countrymen Dr. FRANKLIN: "Let all remember that cleanliness is health." The READING ROOM is furnished with the principal newspapers of the different States of the Union, and the standard Periodicals of the day. The SALOON is enriched with the productions of many eminent artists, where the amateur of fine paintings may gratify his taste, and while away a pleasant hour. The proprietor cannot permit the present occasion to pass without an expression of his unfeigned acknowledgments for past patronage, and an assurance of his determination to leave nothing untried to merit and secure its continuance. ap 29 d1w L.
