

VIRGINIA. JAMES RIVER AND KANAWHA CANAL COMPANY.—The Lynchburg Virginian says:—The President and Directors of the James River and Kanawha Company arrived here on Tuesday evening last, having come as far as Joshua's falls, a few miles below town, in one of Messrs. Boyd & Edmund's elegant and comfortable packet boats. We have seen one of the Directors, who was delighted with his trip. The Canal appears to be firm throughout the whole line, from Joshua's falls to Richmond; and the obstruction at the latter place, which, it is expected, be removed by the 1st of December, or before, when the entire line, from Richmond to Lynchburg, will be ready for navigation—unless, in the mean time, old Father Winter, who is in one of his roughest moods while we write, should previously congeal the waters by his icy touch. An intelligent gentleman, familiar with the Northern canals, who came up in the boat, we understand, says that he has never seen a canal which appeared to be better constructed, or which promised to be more firm, than this. And we most devoutly hope that this great work, the object of such steady and long continued exertion and solicitude, may go into operation under the happiest auspices, and realize the most sanguine expectations of its friends, and particularly of those untiring and zealous champions of the scheme, to whom its accomplishment is mainly attributable.

OHIO. NEW BANK.—The Legislature of Ohio, some years since, granted a charter to the Lebanon Miami Banking Company, with a capital of $200,000. The charter has been dormant for a number of years, and we see by the Lebanon Star that it has been revived recently, and re-organized, as the Star says, "under very favorable circumstances." The officers of the institution are John S. Inglehart, President; J. H. Earl, Cashier, and J. J. Bingham, Teller.

PORK PACKING.—Several thousands of hogs have been driven into the city within a few days, says the Cincinnati Chronicle of Nov. 19th. The weather has been cold enough to pack, though to what extent has been done, we know not. Prices, as yet, have been about the same as last season.

TENNESSEE. TENNESSEE SILK SOCIETY.—This Society held its annual meeting last month, when a large and splendid exhibition of raw and manufactured silk was had, being the fruits of American industry. A quantity of silk, reeled and twisted on the common reel, and five yards of silk-cloth, wove on the common loom, attracted much attention, and were pronounced to be superior articles. A number of premiums were awarded, most of which were taken by ladies.

MISSOURI. ST. LOUIS.—This busy, go-ahead little city, with its 16,469 inhabitants, is some points running far ahead of some of its neighbors whose population more than doubles its own. It has been for some time making the preliminary arrangements for lighting its streets in a really splendid manner, and a Committee of its Town Council have just made a conditional contract for the purchase of an eligible tract of ground, to be laid out and thrown open as a public square. The tract is six acres in extent, and is situated between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets, one side bounded by Market street. The St. Louis Gazette says, the price agreed upon for it is $25,000, payable in twenty years, at five per cent. interest.

SOUTH AMERICA. REVOLUTION IN NEW GRENADA.—It is but a few years since the old Republic of Colombia broke into three pieces, which are now the Republics of Venezuela, New Grenada, and Ecuador. It will be seen by the annexed letters, that New Grenada, has been subdivided,—but into how many fractions is not yet known. The process, as in the former case, was Revolution. This, in the South American Republics, is the remedy for all diseases.

MARACAYBO, 20th October, 1840. I am sorry to say we received very bad news this day from Caracas—the different provinces of Pamplona, Trujillo, Sucre, &c. had simultaneously declared themselves independent States. In the neighborhood of the latter the government troops fought twice with the rebels, and on both occasions were defeated. Many were killed on both sides, but the number we know not. What opinion will be formed in foreign countries of such conduct, is easily to be conceived; and if the people will acquiesce in South American stock, they will almost deserve to lose their money.

Venezuela I am happy to state we are perfectly quiet, and of every prospect of remaining so; but with the example of what has occurred in New Grenada, what confidence can be entertained in the stability of the present Government? The government of this State has not strength, either moral or physical, to defend itself should any blackguard rise in opposition, and that nothing may occur to disturb her in her present flourishing and increasing prosperity, which is greater than I ever anticipated.

MARACAYBO, Oct. 19th, 1840. Business at present is very dull with us, and all kind of produce scarce and high. The Province of Pamplona and several others in New Grenada have revolutionized and disowned the present Government. This news has created considerable excitement here, and has cut off nearly all our supplies of produce from that quarter. Nearly the whole of that unfortunate country is at present in a state of civil war, and the Government without the necessary means to quell the disturbance.—Journal of Commerce.

The story put afloat a few days since, that four steamships were about to be built in this city to run to England, is believed to be altogether without foundation. The number, already running from here and Boston is quite sufficient to accommodate the public, and it is believed quite as many as is found profitable. The experiment has not had the effect to induce American capitalists to embark in the project, nor is it believed that the prospects held out at the quarterly meeting, will induce any one to undertake of the kind. The rumor however has had one effect and that is to induce Mechanics engaged in ship-building to require as high or higher wages than they have been in the habit of getting.—N. Y. Express.

REVOLUTION ARMY.—The number of regulars furnished to the old Revolutionary Army were by New England 147,447; by the Middle States, 56,571; by the South, 25,997. It appears by the above, that New England, consisting of New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut, furnished 33,873 more troops for the defence of the country than the other nine States. The number of troops furnished by South Carolina was 6,448; Massachusetts, 67,907; Georgia, 2,697; Connecticut, 31,939.

ACT to incorporate the Baltimore Manual Labor School, for Indigent Boys. Whereas, Charles Gilman, John R. W. Dunbar, Samuel G. Wyman, John L. Carey, George W. Norris, George S. Norris, William P. Stewart, Jesse T. Handy, Hezekiah C. Magruder, Thomas E. Bond, Jr. William H. Beatty, Frederick A. Levering, John Kettwell, and others, are desirous to associate themselves for the benevolent purpose of relieving, instructing, and employing indigent boys, belonging to the city of Baltimore, and its vicinity, and to enable them to carry the object of their association fully into effect, have petitioned for an act of incorporation: Therefore,

Sec. 1.—Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said Charles Gilman, John R. W. Dunbar, Samuel G. Wyman, John L. Carey, George W. Norris, George S. Norris, William P. Stewart, Jesse T. Handy, Hezekiah C. Magruder, Thomas E. Bond Jr. William H. Beatty, Frederick A. Levering, John Kettwell, and their associates, together with such others as may become donors and subscribers to the same are hereby incorporated by the name of the Baltimore Manual Labor School for Indigent Boys; and they are hereby declared to be one community, corporation, and body politic, to have continuance for thirty years, by which name they shall be able to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, in all courts of law and equity, and in all actions whatsoever, and also to have a common seal, and the same to change, break, alter, and renew, at pleasure; and they shall have power to establish by-laws and orders for the regulation of their Institution, and for the preservation and application of the funds thereof, provided the same be not repugnant to the constitution of this State; and they shall have power to take, hold, and possess any estate, real, personal, or mixed, by subscription, gift, grant, purchase, devise, or otherwise, and the same to improve, lease, exchange, or sell and convey at pleasure, provided: That the value of real estate held at any time by the said Corporation, shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars.

Sec. 2.—And be it enacted, That any person who shall make a donation, at any time, of a sum not less than fifty dollars, to the funds of the said Corporation, shall be a member of said Corporation for life, and any person who shall subscribe and pay to said funds a sum not less than five dollars annually, by such subscription and payment shall become a member so long as he continues to pay the same.

Sec. 3.—And be it enacted, That there shall be a meeting of the members of the said Corporation, in the city of Baltimore, on the first Monday of March annually, after the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and forty one, for the purpose of electing, by ballot, from their number, a President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and nine Directors, who, collectively, shall be called the Board of Directors, which officers shall hold their respective offices for one year, and until others shall be elected to succeed them, except in case of vacancy by death, or resignation: in which case it shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to fill the vacancy by an election from the members aforesaid, so far as conveniently may be. Special meetings of the Corporation may be called whenever a majority of the Board of Directors shall deem expedient, or upon the application of fifty members to the Secretary, in writing, stating the object of such meeting, and it shall be the duty of the Secretary to give notice that such meeting will be held in the city of Baltimore, at a time by him to be appointed, which time shall not be more than ten days from the time of the application aforesaid; and all notices of the meetings of the said Corporation shall be given by the Secretary by advertisement in at least two of the daily newspapers, printed in the city of Baltimore, at least six days before the time of such meeting; and at all meetings of the said Corporation, and of the Board of Directors, the President shall preside, or in his absence the Vice President, and in case of the absence of both the said officers, such person shall preside as the said Corporation, or Board of Directors, may elect.

Sec. 4.—And be it enacted, That the Treasurer shall give bond for the faithful performance of the duties of his office; and to render accounts of his transactions therein, as often as he may be requested by the Board of Directors; in such sum, and with such securities as may be acceptable to the said Board.

Sec. 5.—And be it enacted, That the Board of Directors, of whom five shall form a quorum, for the transaction of business, for the time being, shall have the entire control and the direction of the concerns of the Corporation; shall have the appointment of all the subordinate officers of the Institution, and shall have the management of all the donations, subscription funds, and the state thereof, to be managed and appropriated for relieving, instructing, and supporting indigent boys; (and the said Corporation shall have power, to admit in their Institution, any indigent boy of the city of Baltimore, or its vicinity, above the age of five years, at the request or permission of his parents or guardian, and to accept from his father, or his care taker, a surrender of him, from his mother or guardian, a surrender of him, or of any such boy, to the care and direction of the said Corporation; and they may take into their Institution, or Letters in the New York Roman Catholic Controversy; Lectures on the points in Controversy between a Roman Catholic Priest and a Protestant Minister of the Gospel, 2 vols; Miller on the Christian Ministry; Kingsbury on the Sabbath; The Flower Garden, &c.

Sec. 6.—And be it enacted, That the said Corporation shall have power and authority to retain and employ such boys on their farm, after they are of suitable age to be bound, and until the age of twenty-one years, or they may bind out such boys, when of suitable age, as virtuous families, or as apprentices to any regular trade or reputable occupation, until the age of twenty-one years, any thing in any law of this State to the contrary notwithstanding.—Provided, that any such boy, who shall not have been surrendered to said Corporation in the manner herein provided, may be withdrawn from the Institution or the person to whom he is bound, by his parent or guardian, upon payment to said Corporation of expenses incurred by them, in the relief, support, and instruction of such boys, and, provided, further, that nothing in this act contained, shall prevent the said Board of Directors from dismissing any boy or boys, who have not been surrendered to the Corporation, whenever they think that the welfare of the Institution will be promoted thereby.

Sec. 7.—And be it enacted, That the first meeting of the Corporation, hereby created, may be called by any three of the persons named in the preamble of this act at such time and in such place, by giving public notice thereof in two or more of the newspapers published in said city at least six days before the time of said meeting; at which meeting there shall be elected a Board of Directors, as is provided in the third section of this act, who shall hold their respective offices until the first Monday in March, in the year eighteen hundred and forty-two, and until others shall be elected to succeed them: except in case of death or resignation, in which case it shall be the duty of said Board of Directors to fill the vacancy, as is provided in the third section; and the Courts having cognizance in like cases, as between master and apprentice, shall hear and determine in all charges of ill-treatment, made by the parent guardians, or next of kin to such apprentices of said school.

Sec. 8.—And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to authorize or empower said Corporation to issue any note, certificate, token or evidence of debt, to be used as currency, and the right is hereby expressly reserved to the General Assembly of Maryland, in its pleasure to alter, amend or annul this act of incorporation.

We certify, that the foregoing is a true copy of the Bill as read in the newspapers published in this city on the 29th inst., and as passed by the Baltimore Manual Labor School for Indigent Boys, which passed the General Assembly of Maryland at its session of eighteen and twenty.

GIVEN under our hands, this twenty-first day of March in the year eighteen hundred and forty one.

J. H. G. NICHOLSON, Clerk of the Assembly. JOHN NIX WATKINS, Secy. H. D. Ed.
