

The South-Western.

BY L. DILLARD & CO.
Office, corner of Texas and Edwards streets,
OPPOSITE HITCHCOCK'S LIVERY STABLE.

SHREVEPORT:
WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1865.

AGENTS FOR THE SOUTH-WESTERN:
COL. T. W. BLEDSON, Millport, Bossier parish.
MRS. J. M. & J. C. FILLMORE, Jefferson, Texas.
MR. W. A. BESSIE, Bossier, Bossier parish, Texas.
MR. JAMES B. LEECH, Henderson, Rank Co., Texas.
MR. CLARENCE ADAMS, Plaquemine, and Iberville Parish.
W. H. McDONALD, 102 N. 8th street, New Orleans.
THOS. McNEELY, 25 Camp street, New Orleans.

Those of our paper subscribers who do not receive their papers regularly, will please send word to the office.
The river continues to rise slowly, and it is reported that there is sufficient water above to admit of small boats reaching Jefferson. Since our last the Mary L. Daugherty, Julia and Alida have arrived from New Orleans, and the Ariel, Union, Fanny Fern, and Runaway from Alexandria. The boats ask $3 per bale freight on cotton to New Orleans.

IMPROVEMENTS.—We are gratified to learn that the opening of navigation has infused into our citizens a spirit of enterprise, and that preparations are making to erect several fine buildings. Colonel Hodge intends to put up two large brick fire-proof stores on Texas street, on the site formerly occupied by the Palmetto house and the late J. W. Morris' drug store. Mr. G. M. Nichols is erecting three one story brick tenements on Texas street. Mr. Reuben White is making arrangements to build a commodious brick store and cotton warehouse on Commerce street, on the premises formerly occupied by the late Robt. Donnell. Dr. Logan and Mr. Nutt contemplate building fine stores on the corner of Commerce and Milam streets. Messrs. Bryan and Nichols will also build on their lots. These buildings will replace the block fronting the river, destroyed by fire three years ago, and restore to the levee its former businesslike and animated aspect. Mr. Gilmer intends to erect commodious and convenient cotton warehouses on the batture, between Texas and Travis streets. Our mechanics and builders will therefore be kept busy.

OUR RAILROAD.—We learn by the Vicksburg Whig, that a gang of Georgia negroes, eighty in number, landed at that place a few days ago, under charge of Messrs. Heard and Eaton, of Lagrange, Georgia, and departed for their respective stations. The slaves under Mr. Rains landed at Milliken's bend, and reached their work on Saturday last. The Whig adds that nothing is now wanting but for the stockholders to perform their part, by meeting promptly the calls of the board of directors.

LICENSE.—The police jury, at its late session, fixed the price of license to retail spirituous liquors at $600 per annum. The board of directors of Shreveport adopted the same rate. The State tax is $100 per annum. Therefore license for a coffee-house or grog-shop, in Shreveport, will cost $1100.

ANOTHER PACKET.—Captain C. A. Crook, of the Union, has purchased the new and very light draught steamer Mary L. Daugherty, and the two boats will form a line of regular packets during the low water between this port and the falls, where they will connect with the boats for New Orleans. The Daugherty draws only 15 inches water when light, and having been built expressly for a passenger boat, her cabins are fitted up with state-rooms, and she has fine accommodations.

Thanks to captain Crook, of the Runaway, and Mr. McWilliams, clerk of the Union, for city papers.

We are indebted to captain Dowd, of the Ross, for his kindness in forwarding to us from Alexandria files of New Orleans papers.

We are indebted to the kindness of colonel M. Watson, and Mr. W. H. Douglass, for late New Orleans papers.

Thanks to Mr. Frank Moreau, of the City hotel, for late New Orleans papers.

Thanks to captain Kouss, of the Ariel, and Mr. Cassidy, clerk of the M. L. Daugherty, for files of city papers.

According to the reported returns, Wickliffe, the anti-American candidate for governor, has a majority in the State of 3004.

The hon. O. N. Orden was elected judge in the 14th judicial district. He received a majority of 232 in Rapides, and 60 in Avoyelles.

A large steam mill to grind flour, is now being erected at Camden, (Ark.) on the banks of the Ouachita river. The citizens of that place are also making arrangements to erect a cotton factory. Here is an example for the citizens of Shreveport.

The Washington Union publishes a note from Mr. Buchanan, U. S. minister to Great Britain, contradicting the assertion of the London Times that he assured the British government of the American sympathy in the war with Russia.—This note the Times refused to publish.

The veteran Alfred Hennen, of N. Orleans, has been appointed to the professorship in the law department of the Louisiana University, vacated by the resignation of professor Johnson. The law department of the university is now under the care of professors Rosefield, R. Hunt, McCaleb and Hennen.

The Houston Telegraph says that two more cargoes of iron for the Galveston and Red River railroad are now on the way and daily expected at Galveston. A locomotive, designed to transport materials for the construction of the road, has arrived at Galveston.

The ship John Cottle, of N. Orleans, cleared at this port on the 30th ult., for Liverpool, with 4328 bales cotton, 2684 sacks wheat, 349 bbls. flour, 2400 staves and 16 bbls. merchandise. On the 1st inst., the American ships Geo. Washington and Shakespeare cleared for Liverpool, the former with 6245 and the latter with 6507 bales of cotton. The Shakespeare has on board the largest cargo that ever floated on the ocean.

Quite an excitement has sprung up at the north among the wire-workers of the democracy, in consequence of the publication in the N. York Tribune and the North American, Philadelphia, of a communication declaring the hon. George M. Dallas, one of the most prominent democratic aspirants to the presidency, to be constitutionally disqualified for the office, and that he could not take the seat if elected. According to these communications, Mr. Dallas is not a native-born citizen of the United States, and not having come into the country previous to the adoption of the federal constitution, is excluded by the first section of the second article of that document. According to the writer, Alexander J. Dallas, father of the aspirant for presidential honors, was a native of Ireland, went to Scotland, where he married, and then removed to the British West Indies, where George M. was born. A contemporary thinks that if this account is true, it may prove a mountain over which the aspirant and his partisans will be unable to climb. On the contrary, we should suppose, from the tone assumed by the Washington Union, Richmond Enquirer, Louisiana Courier, and other official democratic organs, to say nothing of the positions taken, promulgated and advocated by the candidates of that party during the recent State canvass, that being a foreigner by birth would confer upon Mr. Dallas additional claims to the support of the democracy—for assuredly they are not ashamed to profess to abhor any thing "native and to the manner born." As to the constitution, it is no impediment whatever, for it is daily set at defiance by the Pierce office-holders, and there is no telling but that, in their anti-American enthusiasm, they may abrogate the old fabric erected by our fathers and manufacture a new one for the express accommodation of Mr. Dallas.

The Delta, the new Dallas organ at the south, in not mentioning the Tribune's biographical sketch of that gentleman, says the subject has been seriously mooted even in New Orleans conversationally; and holds that the prima facie evidence of Mr. Dallas being a native of the U. States, in the fact of his once holding the office of vice president, would be sufficient at once to put such a question at rest, in the absence of any conclusive proof to the contrary. The constitution requires that the president shall be a native-born citizen, and no man is eligible for the vice presidency who is ineligible for the presidency. We have no evidence that any one ever at the time disputed the right of Mr. Dallas to occupy the vice president's chair; and hope that the Delta is right in supposing that it is preposterous to suppose that he was elected to the vice presidency and accepted the office, with that positive disqualification resting upon him. According to the Delta, which has been posted on the subject, Robert Charles Dallas, the grandfather of Geo. Millin Dallas, emigrated from Scotland to the island of Jamaica, and after practicing medicine for some years, returned to Scotland for the purpose of regaining his health and educating his children. Alexander J., the third son of Robert C., and father of the democratic aspirant, was born in the island of Jamaica, on the 21st of June, 1759. In 1780 he married the daughter of general George Smith, of the British army, and in 1783 took up his residence in the United States, qualified himself for the practice of law, and was admitted to the bar of the supreme court of Pennsylvania, on the 13th July, 1785. He was soon prominent in his profession as well as in politics, and in the discussion of fundamental principles at the basis of our institutions, then in a state of formation. In 1791, he was made secretary of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and upon the election of Jefferson to the presidency, appointed U. S. attorney for the eastern district of Pennsylvania, which office he held until 1814, when he was appointed secretary of the U. S. treasury. About this time his son, George M., commenced his political career. According to the Delta, he was born in Philadelphia, on the 10th July, 1792, near ten years after the naturalization of his father. We have gone into these particulars, for the purpose of enlightening our readers as to the particular claims of the hon. George M. Dallas upon his party and to the votes of the democracy for next president.

The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Herald, in his letter of the 20th ult., says that the trouble with Great Britain has not been adjusted. It is thought that the president and his cabinet are in doubt about their own position. It is given out at the white house that the Pacific brought assurances that the increase of the British fleet in the gulf of Mexico, had nothing to do with the Central American question. This was done merely to satisfy the public. The real cause of the increase of the English fleet on the American coast is to be found in the peculiar instructions of attorney-general Cushing to the U. S. district attorney, at Philadelphia. If any one will take the trouble to look at dates and facts, they will ascertain that within 24 hours after the receipt of the news in London of the trial of Heriz in Philadelphia, the addition to the West India fleet was under sailing orders. I have information that when Cushing's two curious letters of instructions reached England, a demand for redress was made by the British government, and that demand is now before the cabinet at Washington. This is a fact, and an important fact too. Will England or the United States recede? This is the question—such, indeed, to be the engrossing question. We give the Herald's statement for what it is worth. The writer sometimes reveals curious and important state secrets.

MORE COLONELS.—A bill has been introduced into the Georgia legislature to suspend militia masters in time of peace, and to make sheriffs ex-officio colonels, all deputy sheriffs majors, and all constables captains. Even if no new counties are created, the Georgian says, this law would give the State, in addition to its present superabundant supply, one hundred and twelve new colonels, at least twice as many majors, and an indefinite number of captains every two years. How many chances would there then be for a modest man to escape a military title, if he should live for forty years? Plain "Mister" would, after awhile, become a title of rare distinction.

It was reported in New York and Washington, on the 30th ult., that the hon. Stephen A. Douglas, of Illinois, was dead. The rumor was not credited.

During the week, ending on the 30th ult., 57,692 bales of cotton were received at New Orleans; while the sales during the same period amounted to 49,500 bales.

According to history, the society of "United Irishmen" was formed in 1791. It was a secret organization, its objects were for the good of the country, and it was proposed to attain them by constitutional means. The objects were to secure fair and equal representation of the Irish people in parliament, and to prevent foreigners (Englishmen) from ruling Ireland. The United Irishmen were determined to banish all foreign influence and foreign law-makers from their country. The society had a complete organization, a test oath, a constitution, and modes by which the members were enabled to know each other. It was composed of persons of different religious denominations: episcopals, presbyterians, and catholics.—Lord Fitzgerald, the Emmet, Wolfe Tone, Simon Butler, James Napper Tandy, and other well known leaders of the United Irishmen were active members, and a large number of the most able leaders were catholic priests, who took the test oath. The anti-American journals are ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association; but, they at the same time apply every known low and vile epithet to the know nothings, for promulgating the doctrine that "Americans should rule America." Yet the ever prompt to bestow the titles of "patriot" and "martyr" upon the members of the United Irishmen's association;