BULGARIA IS GIVEN 24 HOURS TO QUIT TEUTONIC ALLIES

RUSSIA DEMANDS BALKAN NATION BREAK WITH CENTRAL POWERS AND DISMISS AUSTRO-GERMAN OFFICERS.

King Ferdinand is Believed to Have Made Up His Mind to Strike Serbia and Assist Austro-Germans in Opening the Road to Constantinople.

London, Oct. 4.—The Russian minister at Sofia has been ordered by his government to leave the Bulgarian capital if within 24 hours Bulgaria does not openly break with the central powers and dismiss the Austro-German officers who recently arrived in that country to direct the operations of King Ferdinand's army.

The other powers of the quadruple entente are backing up Russia in this demand and so Bulgaria must within a few hours decide on continued neutrality, or be considered definitely committed to the central powers.

From the news received during the past few days from the Balkans it is considered certain that King Ferdinand and Premier Radoloff have made their choice and are only awaiting the completion of mobilization to strike at Serbia and assist the Austro-Germans which has been anxiously waiting for many weeks for promised aid from the central powers.

Roumania's Attitude Puzzling. Greece, it is believed, will live up to her treaty with Serbia and come to her assistance if she is attacked by her neighbor, but the attitude of Roumania, which remains an only partly mobilized spectator, is a matter of uncertainty.

While fully confident of their ability to handle the new situation, the Allies do not belittle it which accounts in some respects for their activity.

Rain and the consequent mud have prevented the Anglo-French armies from continuing their full offensive in Artois. Fighting of a stubborn nature, however, is still going on in that region, both sides endeavoring to secure vantage points. Success here, as in Champagne, is apparently varying, although the Allies are holding virtually all the ground they gained in last week's thrust.

New Attacks Brewing. That other similar thrusts will take place before long is the settled conviction of military writers, who see in the repeated bombardments of the German positions on the Belgian coast by British ships and big French guns, and air raids over the German lines, evidence of another storm brewing. Naturally it will take some days to prepare as the guns which now play such a large part in the campaign have to be brought up and this is no easy matter after the heavy rains, particularly in the low countries of Flanders and Artois.

The air raid in Champagne by 65 French aeroplanes is the biggest enterprise of the kind ever undertaken. The French, according to the German report, have lost the airship Alsace, which was mentioned a few days ago in the official communication as doing valuable work.
