GRAND MARAIS

O! Grand Marais, of golden light,
Thy sunshines are a treasure,
They bring us health they bring us wealth,
And life in fullest measure.

I love thy fields of waving grain,
I love the flowers on thy plain.
O! Grand Marais, land of golden light—
Thy sunbeams are a treasure.

Thy skies are clear Italian blue,
Thy clouds drop sweetest waters,
Thy sons are noble, strong and true,
The fairest are thy daughters.

I love thy winding, limpid streams,
I love thy sunshine golden gleams,
O! Grand Marais, land of golden light—
Thy sunbeams are a treasure.

Thy prairies feed vast herds and flocks,
Gold cometh from thy mountains,
And from beneath thy craggy rocks
Bust forth the sparkling fountains.

I love thy creeks and rippling rills,
Thy mountain peaks and jeweled hills,
O! Grand Marais of golden light—
Thy sunbeams are a treasure.

These little thoughts on Grand Marais were written by a lady who came here from Pine City to seek relief from illness. She has been here several weeks and has almost regained her health.

FIRST STATUE TO PILGRIM MOTHERS AT PLYMOUTH

The model of "The Maid of 1620," a statue in memory of the Pilgrim mothers which will be erected in Plymouth, Mass., in November. In connection with the opening of the Tricentenary of the landing of the Pilgrims in Plymouth. The statue is the first in honor of the women of the Mayflower. The figure will be of bronze and will stand six feet eight inches high. It is the work of Henry H. Katson, a well known sculptor of Boston.

DR. LESHER AT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Rev. Everett Leshner, state superintendent of the Congregational church, will preach next Sunday morning at the local church. Mr. Leshner will have a stirring message which all should hear. You are invited.

In the afternoon, at 3:30, Mr. Leshner will preach the dedication sermon of the new church at Mineral Center. Work on this church is being rushed and it will be ready for a service Sunday.

The Congregational Sunday School meets at 10 A. M. next Sunday. The Y. P. S. meets at 7 P. M. You are invited.

HANS HAROLDSON TO BE ON THE TICKET THIS FALL

The supreme court has decided that Hans Haroldson, and not John B. Richards, was nominated for district judge at the June primaries. The state canvassing board declared Mr. Richardson nominated for sixth place over Mr. Haroldson by a narrow margin, although unofficial returns indicated that Mr. Haroldson was the winner. Investigation showed there was a mistake in the returns from Carlton county, which gave Mr. Haroldson 400 votes instead of 339, as shown by the official returns.

"A WOMAN'S A WOMAN FOR A' THAT"

Miss Laura Bromwell, after breaking an air record by looping the loop 87 times, took out her powder puff and nonchalantly powdered her nose. The establishing of this record marked the dedication of the Curtis Aendrome, formerly known as Hazelhurst Field, and used by the United States Army fliers during the war. Miss Bromwell went up more than 10,000 feet before she started on her record-breaking descent. She was aloft an hour and fifteen minutes, and was in the machine alone. She received her pilots license a year ago. She is twenty-three years of age.

NEW CHURCH BUILDING AT MINERAL CENTER

On August 29th a meeting was held at the hall at Mineral Center for the purpose of organizing a church, the need of which has been a long felt want by all the community. Meeting on above date was well attended in spite of rather bad weather, and the business of organizing was carried out.

The following day work of staking out the building site and hauling some of the timber was begun. On Tuesday, August 31, the people of Mineral Center were called together on the site of the new church building, (which is to be known as the United Congregational), for the purpose of breaking ground and laying the corner stone. Grandma Sullivan, of Black River Falls, Wis., was called upon to turn over the first earth, following a prayer from the Sunday School superintendent, song service by the congregation and responses, indicating unity of purpose by nearly everyone present.

Meeting was closed by prayer by two of our leaders and an outdoor dinner was spread where the lawn will some time be, after which the real work of building was begun, and has been in progress thru the week with decided success, considering the difficulty that some times come up. The aim of the church flock is to get this new place of worship near enough to completion to be dedicated on Sunday, September 12th. Although this is a very busy time of year, everyone endeavored to get the call sent out for materials and workers; a good sized crew every day of the week gives proof of the unity of purpose, felt and shown not nearly as much by word as by deed.

We need now to use every hour each day of the following week to accomplish the most necessary work, to reach the goal set for our selves, to be as nearly ready as possible for the dedication of this new building, as a place of worship, as a house of God.

Cordial invitation extended to all who care to attend.
—Foreman, Building Committee.

Don't Argue Too Long

The danger of overdoing an argument, political or otherwise, is illustrated by Mark Twain's experience at a meeting to raise funds for foreign missions. "When the speaker had talked 10 minutes," said Mark, "I was so impressed I decided to give every cent I had with me. After another 10 minutes, I concluded that I would throw into the treasury all the silver I had about me; 10 minutes later I decided I wouldn't give anything; and at the end of the talk, still 10 minutes later, as the contribution plate came around, I was so utterly exhausted by the arguments that I extracted $2 for my own use.

A Very Stingy Man

"Stingy, isn't he?"
"I'll say so. Even when the crowd is giving someone a vote of thanks he won't share in it."—Detroit Free Press.

SCHOOL OPENED TUESDAY

The local school opened Tuesday, with an enrollment of 137 pupils. The teachers are as follows: Superintendent, H. E. Qualheim; Principal, Mrs. Spooner; High School teachers, Mrs. Spooner, Mrs. Andert and Mr. Qualheim; seventh and eighth grades, Grace Schaefer; fifth and sixth grades, Sophie Sjoberg; third and fourth grades, Signild Soderberg; first and second grades, Bessie Sjoberg.

Miss Schaefer and Mrs. Andert are substituting, pending the selection of teachers for those grades. There is a vacancy in the domestic science department. Mr. Qualheim has been in touch with people to fill these vacancies and expect to have them filled in a few days.

SHORT STATE NEWS

Bemidji—A fall from a load of slabs here killed Erick Erickson, 75 years of age. He was an employee of the Crookston Lumber company.

Pipestone—While crossing the street in the downtown district of the city, P. P. Cadz, judge of municipal court, was run down and injured by a motor truck.

Litchfield—John L. Werdin of Eden Valley committed suicide by shooting his head off. He lay in bed, placed the muzzle of a shotgun at his chin and discharged it.

Hill City—Mr. and Mrs. James F. Murphy of St. Paul, while touring on a motorcycle, skidded on a turn and were hurled from the machine. Both suffered bruises and cuts about the face.

Grove City—Mrs. Thomas Reed who lives six miles northeast of here, reports raising a chicken that has four legs. Two of the legs are shorter than the ones it uses to walk on, but it is perfectly developed otherwise.

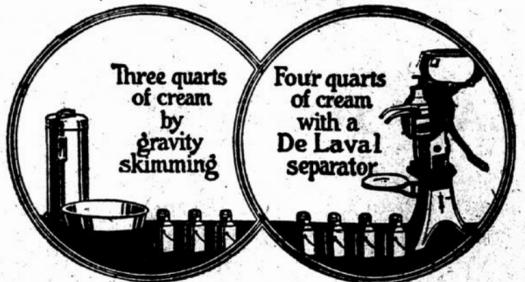

Red Wing—Steps were taken by the Red Wing Chamber of Commerce to get a recount of the city's population, in view of the "apparent inaccuracy" of the official count of 8,637 announced by the United States census bureau at Washington. The chamber wired the directors of the census, making the formal request for an official recount.

Redwood Falls—Sheriff Kise has found the owner of an automobile which he found abandoned on a country road near here. H. V. Heele of Sioux Falls, S. D., has identified the car as the one stolen from him, July 15.

St. Paul—Increasing more than $22,000,000 in a year, Minnesota's "four-legged gold mine" is far in advance of all states in the nation in the volume of its output of dairy products, Chris Heen, Minnesota state dairy and food commissioner, reports.

Moorhead—Ninety gallons of an American brand of bourbon whisky buried in containers in the ground along the Red river on the Minnesota side, were found by Chris N. Bell, Federal prohibition agent, operating out of Moorhead. No arrest were made.

Straight talk on Cream Separators by
ED TOFTEY & CO.
Grand Marais, Minn.

A DE LAVAL Cream Separator returns at least 25 per cent more cream than any "gravity method." At the present high butter-fat prices (and they are going up continuously) a De Laval pays for itself in a few months.

No one owning two or more cows can afford to skim by gravity or use an inferior, half-worn-out separator.

We stand ready to prove this if you will give us five minutes next time you are in town

A KING WHO GOES A-RIDING ON HIS TWO WHEELED STEED

Nowadays, as in the days of old, when Kings go a-riding, they call either for their aeroplane, their motor car or their carriage of state. Very few Kings ever think of generating their own locomotive power, but in this picture we have an exception to the rule. The King of Sweden, the tallest ruler in the world, when he goes on short trips, gets out the old bicycle and generating his own power goes a-riding around the country side.
