21 ARE KILLED IN IRISH OUTBREAKS

Thirteen Members of Republican Army Slain in Week-end Engagement.

FARM HOUSES FIRED

Police Believe Sinn Fein Responsible for Fires in English Rural Districts—Twenty Armed Men Hold Up Train.

Dublin—Twenty-one violent deaths, including those of 13 members of the Irish Republican army killed in an engagement in the district between Lisgool and Middleton, County Cork, were recorded as the result of Irish disorders over the week-end. A number of persons were wounded, there were two train holdups, and several minor outbreaks of guerilla war which took no toll of life.

A reflection of troubles in Ireland was experienced in England, where much damage was done in isolated districts near Manchester by 14 farm fires. Machinery, buildings and stacks were damaged to the amount of $200,000. The places visited by the incendiaries included Alteringham, Dunham, Rumston, Charlton, Baguley, Whitefield and the country around Southport.

Police express the belief that the fires were set by Sinn Feiners.

13 Irish Republicans Killed. The engagement in which 13 civilians were killed occurred in the afternoon. Besides the dead, eight were captured, of whom three were injured. This is believed to be the largest number of casualties among the members of the Irish Republican army in any single encounter.

Two Trains Held Up. Twenty armed men held up a train at Ciara, Kings County, and took away the kits of the officers on board.

A freight train was held up in Cavan and the contents of the cars scattered over the tracks.

A detachment of the Hampshire regiment surprised a party of civilians in a house on the outskirts of Middleton. The civilian forces split up, some of them remaining in the house while the others took up positions in the garden. In brisk fighting one soldier was wounded and the civilians were dispersed and pursued. A search of the house revealed quantities of buried arms and ammunition.

Nine members of the Cork corporation and other leading men of South Ireland were among 80 persons sent to the Spike Island internment camp as political prisoners.

According to a report issued by Dublin Castle search in rooms in South Frederick street disclosed evidence that the rooms had been used as headquarters for the Irish Republican army. Important documents were seized.

TO WATCH PROPAGANDISTS

Legion Officer Says German Reviving Efforts in This Country.

Indianapolis—American Legion posts throughout the United States were asked by the Legion's national headquarters here to watch for a revival of German propaganda in this country.

A bulletin sent out by the national headquarters, said the object of the propaganda seemed intended to turn American sentiment against the Allies and to create "a powerful national political machine by the amalgamation of the disloyal elements in our population."

Mass meetings in New York, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Chicago, Milwaukee, Louisville, Omaha and Cleveland have been planned, the bulletin said, as "one of the first national manifestations" of the propaganda campaign.

NEW YORK HIT BY BLIZZARD

City Blanketed by Foot of Snow—7,000 Work to Clear Streets.

New York—Driven by a northwesterly gale, a blizzard gripped New York and blanketed the city with 11 inches of snow. City authorities remembering the congestion of traffic and suffering occasioned by the heavy storms of last year summoned 4,000 "white wings" who were later supplemented by more than 3,000 civilian volunteers to clear the main arteries of traffic.

Fourteen tractors dragging snow plows converted Broadway above Forty-second street into a miniature snow canyon through which travelled an endless procession of automobiles filled with sightseers.

Britain Pleased With Hughes.

London—That the selection of Charles Evans Hughes as secretary of state in the Harding cabinet is pleasing to England is indicated by newspaper comment.

SCHOOL NOTES

Editor, Helen Jackson.

The Physiology class are now studying animal foods.

There wasn't any school Tuesday as it was George Washington's birthday.

The Commercial Arithmetic class is studying fractions and short cut methods of fractions.

Pearl Samskar sprained her ankle Saturday while skating.

The Latin I class have only a few more lessons in their text which means they will soon be ready to review.

Some of the young boys of the town were at the club meeting at the home of Miss Johnson last Friday evening.

The English III class are studying Victorian prose. The most important writers of this age are Carlisle, Ruskin, Newman, Arnold and Huxley.

Several of the grades had debates last Friday afternoon. It is rumored that they were very exciting.

The English III class handed in their third long essay for this year last Friday. A few that were read were thought very good.

Alma, Esther and Hilmer Isaacson hiked home to spend the week-end. It was a good hike except for the cold weather, which was too much for Alma, who is now unable to come back to school.

A number of the high school girls and boys together with other young folks of the town are planning to organize an athletic club for the summer. They will hold their first meeting in the near future.

Genevieve Bayle entertained the Freshman and Sophomore classes at a party last Friday evening. Five hundred was played and an elaborate lunch was served and everyone reported a good time.

Did you ever make a noise like a little tickling quiver in your funny bone? If you haven't and if you are anxious to have some experience in this line don't lose the opportunity that is so near at hand, namely "Why Smith Left Home." Smith had his reasons for leaving all right—take it from us! As to who they were—well, we're not telling just yet.
