Lots of Us Are Brave Like This

NEWS-ETTES OF GRAND MARAIS AND VICINITY

Lots of snow between "43" and Fradenburg's.
 Emil Johnson is a visitor in Duluth and Saginaw, Mich., this week.
 Sam Crawford of Grand Portage was in town Tuesday on business.
 Mrs. Victor Johnson is visiting her parents in Two Harbors this week.
 "Temperamental wife" at the Princess tonight by Constance Talmadge.
 Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thorson of Hovland were callers in the village Monday.
 Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Johnson, and daughter Audre motored to Duluth Sunday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Morris H. Olson returned Friday from a short stay in Duluth.
 Ex-Gov. John Lind of Minneapolis last week sent a beautiful neck scarf to Aug. J. Johnson for a Christmas present.

John Koss of Hovland arrived from Duluth Friday, leaving the next day for home.
 Mr. and Mrs. Chris West drove in from Tofte Saturday, returning the same day.
 Hans Toftey made a trip to Grand Portage Sunday, returning late that evening.
 Peter Gagnon of Grand Portage has been in town several days this week on business.
 Olof Fredrickson returned last week from an extended cruising trip on Isle Royale.
 John V. Nelson is in receipt of a new violin, a very fine instrument so we are informed.
 Mrs. Oscar Olson is in Duluth, and Miss Ludy Helmer is the chef during her absence.
 A dance at Center Colvill school house Saturday night was well attended by Grand Marais people, John N. Nelson, Emil Eliason and Armon Spiek furnishing the music.

The loggers are rejoicing as much over the snow as the mail drivers are regretting it.
 Elmer Gilbertson made a trip to Grand Portage on Saturday, returning the same day.
 Emil Anderson, of Colvill, was in town this week buying his household furniture for his new home.
 Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Wannebo, of Good Harbor Hill, were in town Saturday doing their Christmas shopping.
 Alfred Olson of Grand Portage returned from Duluth Tuesday night and continued his journey home last evening.

 Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith, accompanied by Mrs. C. J. Johnson, left Sunday for a trip to Duluth.
 Miss Wanja Ellquist returned from Duluth last week and is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ellquist, on Maple Hill.
 Edwin Fenstad of Little Marais arrived in town Tuesday and spent a couple of days looking after some business.
 On the way to Duluth Tuesday the mail bus was stalled at Cramer where an axle was broken.
 Andrew Westerlund and A. E. Ellquist of Hovland, were here Saturday adjusting the fire loss of Nels Hulteen, for the Cook County Mutual Fire Insurance company.
 Mrs. Hans Toftey, Miss Sylvia Carlson, Miss Amy Lindskog, Arvid Nelson and Elmer Gilbertson visited Maple Hill Sunday. Miss Lillian Nelson accompanied them back to town.
 G. F. Lundquist returned Monday night from a trip to Duluth. He drove back through the snow and part of the time was unable to make over two miles an hour. Jim Woods accompanied him on the trip.
 The Misses Selma Eide, Inez Sam-skar, Helen Jackson and Mr. Chas. Nyland drove to Hovland Sunday, and broke down. Arthur Eliason brought them back to town. Mr. Nyland got some repairs and returned to Hovland, arriving in Grand Marais with his car Monday.
 Two busses which brought the mail Tuesday had a little trouble at Nigadoo hill, which made the mail a little later than usual. They had forty passengers. The first class mail arrived late in the evening and the second class mail arrived some time during the night.
