

at Baton Rouge under the superintendence of the commissioners hereafter designated and appointed to receive subscriptions.—All subsequent elections shall be held at Baton Rouge under the superintendence of three commissioners appointed from amongst the stockholders by the Board of Directors for the time being. Notice of the first election of Directors, shall be given fifteen days in advance, in at least one newspaper published in Baton Rouge, and one published at Clinton. The first Board of Directors shall hold office until the third Monday of January, 1854. The election shall be annual, and each subsequent Board shall be elected on the third Monday of December. A failure to elect Directors, shall not dissolve the corporation, but the Board in office shall continue the exercise of its functions until a new board can be elected. All notice of elections and of meetings of stockholders after the first election above provided for, shall be given by publication thirty days in advance, in the official paper of the company, and in one paper published at Clinton.

7th. The following persons are hereby appointed commissioners for the purpose of receiving subscriptions to the stock of said corporation. Viz: Commissioners at Baton Rouge, T. G. Morgan, S. M. Hart, H. T. Waddill, A. S. Herron, Eugene Lanoue and W. S. Pike. At Clinton, J. H. Muse, H. H. Haynes, Henry Marston, G. W. Munday, J. B. Smith, Wm. Patterson and M. G. Mills. The said commissioners shall have power to appoint deputies or agents in other places to receive subscriptions.—Three shall form a quorum to do business. The subscriptions shall be closed as soon as the amount of Thirty Thousand Dollars shall have been subscribed, and the commissioners shall immediately thereafter cause this charter, with the names of the subscribers to be registered in the office of the Recorder of Mortgages as required by law, and shall cause notice to be given and an election for Directors held as provided for in the 6th Article of the charter.

8th. Immediately after the election of the first Board of Directors the subscription list shall be opened for a term of three months at such places as may be deemed advisable by the Board of Directors and public notice shall be given thereof in a newspaper published at the place where said subscription books are opened; and the board shall have power to appoint agents for receiving subscriptions. At the end of said three months, if the amount of subscriptions shall exceed the amount of capital required, a meeting of stockholders and subscribers shall be held to determine whether the capital shall be increased to the whole amount of subscription; and if the capital be not so increased, then the number of shares subscribed shall be reduced from the largest subscription so as not to diminish the number of shares of any subscriber, while another remains with a larger number of shares. If there be any deficiency in the amount of capital subscribed, the said subscription books may be reopened and closed from time to time, until the whole capital shall have been subscribed.

9th. In case of failure on the part of any subscriber to pay the installments on his stock, as required, the Board of Directors, shall have the option, after thirty days written notice to the defaulter, of forfeiting the stock, and selling it for the benefit of said stockholder, or of compelling by suit the payment of such installment; and no stockholder shall be permitted to vote while in default.

10th. All meetings of Stockholders called for the purpose of increasing or diminishing the capital stock of the company or for any of the purposes enumerated in the fifth section of the act of the Legislature of Louisiana entitled "An act for the organization of corporations for works of public improvement and utility," shall be composed of persons holding in their own right, or as agents for others at least three-fourths of the stock of the company, in order to take valid and binding action in the premises, at all other meetings of stockholders, and at all elections, a majority of stock shall be represented, and in this latter case, if such majority be not present nor represented the meeting shall be adjourned for one week, and the vote of the majority of the stock present and represented at such adjourned meeting shall bind the company in the same manner, as if a majority of all the stock were present and represented.

11th. Any vacancy in the Board of Directors, occurring during the year may be filled by a vote of the Board of Directors.

12th. The President and Directors of said corporation shall have power to make and use a common seal—to elect a newspaper, which shall be known to the Stockholders as the official paper of the Company, and in which all advertisements shall appear, and to do every thing necessary for the construction, repair, and maintenance of the plank road herein before described, with as many tracks as they may deem necessary; to determine the line of the road, and the depots that may be necessary; to make and construct all works whatever for the proper and complete working of the road; to construct all bridges over navigable and other streams, and whether the crossing shall be by bridge or ferry; to contract specially for work, labor or materials to be furnished to the company, and to agree whether the whole or any part thereof shall be payable in the capital stock of the Company; to appoint a Secretary, Treasurer, Superintendents, Engineers, and other officers or servants necessary or proper, for the faithful performance, of any duty necessary to the construction or proper maintenance of the said plank road; to make all contracts for the furnishing of material or equipments for the road on such credits as they may deem proper; to borrow money for and on account of said road in any sum not to exceed ten thousand dollars, unless authorized by a vote of two thirds of the stockholders, not to exceed that sum, and to mortgage the said road and its appurtenances to secure the payment of the same; to make all contracts for the purpose of speedily and properly constructing said road, and when said road or any part thereof is finished, to fix the rate of tolls for same to make all rules and regulations or by-laws necessary for the proper, safe and regular transaction of the business of the company; but such rules and regulations shall be subject to repeal, change, amendment, or modification, by the stockholders at their meetings or by the President and Directors in intervals; they may accept donations in land or money, or such materials or labor as may be useful to the company; they shall declare semi-annually the dividends arising from the road after the payment of all expenses. Said dividends shall be declared and made payable to the stockholders during the first fifteen days of December and June of each year; they shall make at least once in each year a report in full detail to the stockholders, exhibiting the expenses and profits or revenue of the road as well as the cost during the process of constructing the same as well as the repairs that may be made thereof; they shall keep or cause to be kept, a regular set of books, on which shall be entered in regular order all business or other transactions of the company, which said book shall be opened to the inspection of the stockholders at the office of the company. A stock book shall be kept and certificates of stock shall be issued to the stockholders, and no transfer of stock shall be binding on the company until made on its stockbook.

13. If any subscriber for stock shall be taxed by virtue of any law or ordinance for the payment of subscription to the company he shall have the right of reducing the number of his shares by an amount equal to that of the tax so imposed, but this right must be exercised within thirty days from the date of the law or ordinance after which term it shall not be allowed.

14th. An annual meeting of the stockholders shall be held on the first Monday in December to receive an annual report of the past year's operation and business of the company at which a full statement of the financial affairs and other business of the company shall be submitted by the President and Directors for examination by the stockholders and their agents.

15th. At the expiration of the charter, or whenever the dissolution of the corporation shall render necessary its liquidation, three commissioners shall be elected by the stockholders whose duty it shall be to take possession of the property of the company and conduct its business to a final liquidation on such terms and in such manner as shall be determined by a meeting of the stockholders regularly convened for that purpose, and if at the expiration of the present charter a majority of the stockholders in number or amount shall desire to renew the same for a further term, the stockholder desiring said renewal shall be bound to transfer their stock to those during the renewal at its fair value, to be fixed by appraisers mutually chosen for that purpose.

New Advertisements.

Notice.
THERE are a few of the stockholders of the Grosse Tête and Baton Rouge Plank Road Company who have not yet come forward and signed their stock notes and taken their certificates.
They will please call at the office of S. M. Hart and Company, where they will find their notes already filled up; nothing to do but sign their names.
Please bring along an endorser as the Charter requires all notes to be endorsed.

POLICE JURY PROCEEDINGS OF THE PARISH OF WEST BATON ROUGE.

At a regular session of the Police Jury of the Parish of West Baton Rouge, held at the Court House thereof, on Monday, Sept. the 6th, 1852, at 10 o'clock, A. M. the following members were present, viz: Messrs. John T. Nolan, Feilding Cooney, Bernard Peyronnin, Magloire C. LeBlanc, Charles Smith, Ernest Hebert, Joseph T. Landry and William Reynaud.

Absent—Messrs. John L. Lobdell, Wm. Jones Lyle and Charles L. Petit.
Messrs. Landry and Smith were excused for not attending the last meeting of the Police Jury.

The Jury then proceeded to the nomination of commissioners of elections in general.

For the lower precinct or "Cut Off" precinct at the Ball Room of Messrs. White and Hebert:

Joseph Braud, Adrien Hebert and Amédée Bujol.

Bruly Landing precinct: Bélisaire Landry, Tréville Babin and Wm. R. Stewart.
Court House precinct: Rosemond Hebert, Valentin Dubroca and John Pope.

Grosse Tête Landing precinct: Wm. S. Lobdell, James Devall, jr., and John Buhler.

Poydras precinct: H. S. Flynn, George M. Hamilton and Wm. E. Eackles.

Then followed the election by ballot of a Parish Treasurer for the ensuing year.

Mr. John T. Nolan nominated Micajah Barrow the actual treasurer, and Mr. Ernest Hebert nominated Mr. John B. Labauve.

Messrs. LeBlanc and Smith were appointed tellers, and after counting the votes it appeared that Mr. Barrow was duly elected Treasurer, having received a majority of votes.

The Jury then proceeded to the nomination of a Collector of Parish taxes for the ensuing year.

Mr. J. V. Duralde the present Sheriff was unanimously chosen and elected.

Resolved, That five per cent per annum interest be granted on the several claims, payable in one, two and three years, which were granted at the last Jury session of the Police Jury.

The Report of the Parish Attorney, on the resolution passed at the last session of the Police Jury, directing him to petition the Judge of the Sixth District Court, in the matter of an election held on the 24th July 1852, taking the sense of the people as to the propriety of issuing Parish Scrips for building a Plank Road from Bayou Grosse Tête to the Mississippi River, was submitted to the Jury, and after lecture thereof, it was, on motion

Resolved, That said report be referred to a committee composed of—members who shall report thereupon, at an adjourned meeting of said Jury to be held on the 20th day of the present month and who shall at the same time submit to the Jury a statement of the number and amount of shares proposed to be subscribed, the amount of the tax on the landed estate in the Parish sufficient to pay the amount of said subscription, and a specification of the rate of taxation and the period when it shall be payable. Said committee shall also make out a correct list of the voters of the Parish owning landed estate.

It was further Resolved, That three members be appointed on said Committee that Messrs. Charles Smith, John L. Lobdell and Wm. Jones Lyle, be appointed on said committee and that a copy of the above resolution be served on each member of said committee.

Resolved, That the petition of R. L. Knox be laid on the table to be taken up at the next meeting of this Jury.

Mr. Charles Smith offered a resolution demanding that the judgement in favor of N. K. Knox, amounting to Four thousand one hundred and fourteen dollars and sixty-four cents (4,114 64) against the Parish, which was stricken out of the report of the finance committee at the last session of the Police Jury be paid in installments of one, two and three years, as recommended by the said committee for the other claims reported by them.

On motion of Joseph T. Landry, to lay the said resolution on the table until the next meeting, the yeas and nays having been ordered, it appeared that Messrs. Landry, Cooney, Nolan and Peyronnin voted in the affirmative and Messrs. Smith, Hebert and LeBlanc in the negative.—Thereupon the resolution of Mr. Smith was laid on the table to be acted upon at the next meeting of the Jury.

On motion, it was Resolved, That a Committee composed of three members be appointed to examine the books, accounts and vouchers of the Parish Treasurer, and report thereon at the next session of the Police Jury. Said committee to be composed of Messrs. J. T. Landry, Dr. Nolan and B. Peyronnin.

An account of the Democratic Advocate against the Parish for publishing the call and proceedings of a certain public meeting of the citizens of this Parish, said to have been held on the 25th May 1850, in relation to overflow, was unanimously rejected.

An account of Adrien Hebert, Coroner, amounting to the sum of $25 for holding an inquest, was allowed.

On motion the Jury adjourned until the 20th of the present.
