POLICE JURY PROCEEDINGS

OF THE PARISH OF WEST BATON ROUGE.

At a regular session of the Police Jury of the Parish of West Baton Rouge, held at the Court House thereof, on Monday, Sept. the 6th, 1852, at 10 o'clock, A. M. the following members were present, viz: Messrs. John T. Nolan, Feilding Cooney, Bernard Peyronnin, Magloire C. LeBlanc, Charles Smith, Ernest Hebert, Joseph T. Landry and William Reynaud.

Absent—Messrs. John L. Lobdell, Wm. Jones Lyle and Charles Petit.
Messrs. Landry and Smith were excused for not attending the last meeting of the Police Jury.

The Jury then proceeded to the nomination of commissioners of elections in general. For the lower precinct or "Cut Off" precinct at the Ball Room of Messrs. White and Hebert: Joseph Braud, Adrien Hebert and Amédée Bojol.

Bruly Landing precinct: Bélisaire Landry, Tréville Babin and Wm. R. Stewart. Court House precinct: Rosemond Hebert, Valentin Dubroca and John Pope.

Grosse Tête Landing precinct: Wm. S. Lobdell, Jas. Devall, jr., and John Buhler. Poydras precinct: H. S. Flynn, George M. Hamilton and Wm. E. Eackles.

Then followed the election by ballot of a Parish Treasurer for the ensuing year.

Mr. John T. Nolan nominated Micajah Barrow the actual treasurer, and Mr. Ernest Hebert nominated Mr. John B. Labauve. Messrs. LeBlanc and Smith were appointed tellers, and after counting the votes it appeared that Mr. Barrow was duly elected Treasurer, having received a majority of votes.

The Jury then proceeded to the nomination of a Collector of Parish taxes for the ensuing year.

Mr. J. V. Durand the present Sheriff was unanimously chosen and elected.

Resolved, That five per cent per annum interest be granted on the several claims, payable in one, two and three years, which were granted at the last Jury session of the Police Jury.

The Report of the Parish Attorney, on the resolution passed at the last session of the Police Jury, directing him to petition the Judge of the Sixth District Court, in the matter of an election held on the 24th July 1852, taking the sense of the people as to the propriety of issuing Parish Script for building a Plank Road from Bayou Grosse Tête to the Mississippi River, was submitted to the Jury, and after lecture thereof, it was, on motion

Resolved, That said report be referred to a committee composed of members who shall report thereupon, at an adjourned meeting of said Jury to be held on the 20th day of the present month, and who shall at the same time submit to the Jury a statement of the number and amount of shares proposed to be subscribed, the amount of the tax on the landed estate in the Parish sufficient to pay the amount of said subscription, and a specification of the rate of taxation and the period when it shall be payable. Said committee shall also make out a correct list of the voters of the Parish owning landed estate.

It was further Resolved, That three members be appointed on said Committee that Messrs. Charles Smith, John L. Lobdell and Wm. Jones Lyle, be appointed on said committee and that a copy of the above resolution be served on each member of said committee.

Resolved, That the petition of R. L. Knox be laid on the table to be taken up at the next meeting of this Jury.

Mr. Charles Smith offered a resolution demanding that the judgement in favor of N. K. Knox, amounting to Four thousand one hundred and fourteen dollars and sixty-four cents (4,114 64) against the Parish, which was stricken out of the report of the finance committee at the last session of the Police Jury, be paid in installments of one, two and three years, as recommended by the said committee for the other claims reported by them.

On motion of Joseph T. Landry, to lay the said resolution on the table until the next meeting, the yeas and nays having been ordered, it appeared that Messrs. Landry, Cooney, Nolan and Peyronnin voted in the affirmative and Messrs. Smith, Hebert and LeBlanc in the negative. Thereupon the resolution of Mr. Smith was laid on the table to be acted upon at the next meeting of the Jury.

On motion, it was Resolved, That a Committee composed of three members be appointed to examine the books, accounts and vouchers of the Parish Treasurer, and report thereon at the next session of the Police Jury. Said committee to be composed of Messrs. J. T. Landry, Dr. Nolan and B. Peyronnin.

An account of the Democratic Advocate against the Parish for publishing the call and proceedings of a certain public meeting of the citizens of this Parish, said to have been held on the 25th May 1850, in relation to overflow, was unanimously rejected.

An account of Adrien Hebert, Coroner, amounting to the sum of $25 for holding an inquest, was allowed.

On motion the Jury adjourned until the 20th of the present.

WM. REYNAUD, Pres't
O. BERNARD, Clerk
