New Silk & Fancy Goods.
W. D. PHILLIPS,
Corner of Lafayette and Church Streets (opposite Harney House.)

HAS now in store and will be receiving daily from New York and Philadelphia a full stock of Silk and Fancy Goods, which have all been selected by myself in the northern markets. In consequence of the increasing demands of his trade, his stock will, this season embrace a larger amount and greater variety than ever before; he would beg leave to call particular attention to his stock of ladies dress goods, which for novelty and elegance of design cannot be surpassed by any other house in this city. Consisting in part of:

Rich brocade and glacé silks of the newest colors and designs; Rich figured and plain black silks and satine de chînes; Printed and embroidered cashmeres, and de laines in robes; Rich printed cashmere d'ecosse and satin reps; White and colored embroidered crêpes for party dresses; Rase silks, French and Scotch plaids; French and English prints; white goods of all descriptions, together with a general assortment of goods adapted to a fine trade, all of which will be offered at the most favorable rates. With an earnest desire to conduct my business upon the principal of doing, as I would be done by, I hope to continue to merit the confidence which has been so liberally bestowed upon me.

CITY EMPORIUM
Of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods.
W. D. PHILLIPS,
CORNER OF LAFAYETTE AND CHURCH STS.

THERE IS NO AUCTION GOODS at my establishment. Nor do I propose to "sell for cost" and "less than cost." My goods are well selected and contain all the latest and most fashionable patterns selected by an experienced purchaser in the New York and Philadelphia markets. I have no article that has been forced into market under the hammer on account of change in fashion, or damage. The public may feel satisfied that what they purchase of me is new and fashionable. I do not profess to be in competition with the vendors of "Cheap Goods." I do however pretend to sell as cheap as any retail house of standing in the Union. If you do not think so call and see.

A. M. D. G.
SAINTS PETER AND PAUL COLLEGE.
Baton Rouge, La.

THIS COLLEGE under the direction of the Rev. Fathers of the Society of Jesus, derives from its situation in the Capital of Louisiana a most flattering guarantee of success.

The Directors follow the same plan of education at this institution as in all those entrusted to their care.

The day-scholars enjoy the same advantages and frequent the same classes as the boarders, but have no other communication with them.

The public exercises of religion are those of the Catholic Church; but pupils of all denominations are admitted, provided for the sake of order, they conform to the exterior.

Terms for Boarders.

For the scholastic year of 10 1/2 months $150 00

Physician's fee and minor infirmity expenses 6 00

Entrance fee (for the first year only) 10 00

Stationary (if furnished by the Institution) 5 00

Washing and mending (if done by the Institution) 20 00

For Day Scholars.

For the two inferior classes per mo. $4 00

For the others 5 00

Books, Drawing, Music, etc., form extra charges.

The payments are to be made semi-annually in advance.

The College advances no money; it will be well therefore, that the parents deposit a certain sum with the treasurer for accidental expenses and pocket-money.

The next Session will commence, 1st October, 1852; on which day the new brick building will be ready. [aug 21-3w-1w.]
