JOHN C. LANOUE, P. M.

Mr. F. VAY,
Italian Professor of Music, HAVING permanently settled himself with his family, in the City of Baton Rouge, where he has resided since eighteen months, offers his respectful thanks to those persons who have already honored him with their confidence, and tenders anew his professional services to all those wishing to be taught on the Piano, Violin, Guitar or in Vocal Music.
Convinced by a long experience, that in the study of music speciality and industry is dismissing, and that a general routine of instruction will only produce indifferent performers, he will use all his endeavors to place himself on a level with the intelligence of his pupils,—encouraging, rather than disheartening their efforts, while adhering strictly to the precepts laid down by the best masters; he will continue as heretofore to tune Pianos. His prices will be—$10 for twelve lessons of one hour each, and $6 for twelve lessons of half hour each.

tween Main and St. Charles Sts., or at Mr Seirey's variety store, on Laurel st. oct 7-y
