Adolph Sallucki, professor of Modern Languages and Literature at the University of Oxford, Miss. begs leave respectfully to inform the public of Baton Rouge and vicinity, that he will open on the second Monday of January 1853, a select French School, where all the branches of a classic education will be taught in French.

Rev. M. Woodbridge, T. B. R. Hatch, P. A. Walker, Mrs. Read, OXFORD MISS. A. B. Longstreet, L. L. D. President of the University of Mississippi. Prof. A. Blodoo, A. M. J. Conkar M. D. Prof. J. Waddell, A. M. J. Milington, M. D. TULIP ARRANGERS. Colonel J. Alexander, A. M. President of the Arkansas Military Institution. Major A. Benton, Professor of Military Tactics and Mathematics. MR. F. VAY,

Italian Professor of Music, HAVING permanently settled himself with his family, in the City of Baton Rouge, where he has resided since eighteen months, offers his respectful thanks to those persons who have already honored him with their confidence, and tenders anew his professional services to all those wishing to be taught on the Piano, Violin, Guitar or in Vocal Music.

Convinced by a long experience, that in the study of music specially pedantry is disgusting, and that a general routine of instruction will only produce indifferent performers, he will use all his endeavours to place himself on a level with the intelligence of his pupils, encouraging, rather than disheartening their efforts, while adhering strictly to the precepts laid down by the best masters; he will continue as heretofore to tune Pianos. His prices will be $10 for twelve lessons of one hour each, and $6 for twelve lessons of half hour each. Apply at his residence on Convention between Main and St. Charles St., or at Mr. Neirey's variety store, on Laurel st. 027-y
