

The Daily Comet.

BATON ROUGE, JAN. 17, 1856

Our fellow citizen, S. F. BLANCHARD, has our thanks for a full file of the latest city papers.

House Furnishing Goods.—It may not be generally known but it is nevertheless a fact, that J. Piper, & Co., on Church Street, in this City, have a stock of House, furnishing goods, now on hand, equal in extent and variety, to any establishment on Charters Street, in New Orleans. Every article in this line may be found there, from a clothes pin up to an elegant mirror or centre table. They have many beautiful articles in glass, porcelain and terra cotta—ornaments for the parlour and dressing room. For presents, they offer a very large assortment of elegant articles of ornament and usefulness. The citizens of West Baton Rouge, Iberville, East and West Feliciana, are invited to call and examine their stock, which surpasses in extent and variety, any other ever offered in this market.

Messrs. LARGUIER & LANOU.—This old and well known establishment, corner of Lafayette and Florida streets, puts forth to-day, a bill of fare, embracing every article of Domestic and Foreign Hardware and Cutlery. It is generally understood that this firm keeps every article, asked for in this line, by either the house-keeper or the planter—from a pocket knife to a force pump, and from that, on up in the whole range of intermediate things, to the steam engine. Messrs. Languier & Lanou are daily receiving all the new patent arrangements for economising time and saving labor. Mechanics and artisans, are specially directed to call and examine their stock of tools.

At a meeting of the "Benevolent Association of Baton Rouge," held at the Mayor's office on Monday night, with other business transacted, the name of the Association was changed. Hereafter it will be known as the "Howard Association of Baton Rouge." The Association will not meet again until the regular meeting in June; the first Monday in that month.

Strangers coming to town are respectfully invited to call at Goldmann's under the Harney House, and examine his rich stock of Jewelry. Out of New Orleans there is not a larger or better selected stock in the State. His prices are moderate and what he represents an article to be, it will be found that and nothing else.
