

New Orleans Republican.

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE CITY OF NEW ORLEANS. NEW ORLEANS, JANUARY 15, 1868.

Book and job printing of every description neatly executed at the office of the REPUBLICAN, No. 37 St. Charles street.

COOKED WATS.—Invisible Green wants to know why the St. Charles theatre hangs the banner of "Black Crook" in its outer walls. Has not the "Crook" been laid aside for ever?

The parish of Orleans sells day at 10 o'clock A. M. at No. 457 Dryades street, in this city, the contents and fixtures of a confectionery shop, and the furniture therein contained.

Bill of exchange, promissory notes, bills of lading, dry receipts, bank checks, and all kinds of commercial printing neatly executed at the Republican office, No. 37 St. Charles street.

We are indebted to Hon. William D. Kelley for a copy of the report upon the canal and hydraulics of the Mississippi river, by Captain A. H. Humphreys and Lieutenant W. L. Abbott, of the corps of engineers, United States army.

Mr. Howell, city treasurer, has made arrangements which, if not made, will appear, will admit of his paying public school teachers Saturday, and probably at 10 o'clock. The salaries are not to be paid.

Room—Did it ever occur to the fruit dealers on Chartres, near St. Peter street, that the banquets are for the use of the public? It would seem by the manner these dealers assume that they alone possess the privileges of that thoroughfare.

Notarial blanks, lawyers' briefs, and all kinds of legal forms accurately printed at the office of the REPUBLICAN, No. 37 St. Charles street.

INCORPORATION.—In the St. Ann street school, second district, a case, or series of cases of insubordination has just been reported to the school board. The matter has been whitewashed over for the present, so that the directors profess themselves satisfied, whether the parents of the children are or not.

MEMO, PUBLICATIONS, ETC.—We received some days ago the first number of Lippincott's Magazine, published in Philadelphia. It is printed in the superior style characteristic of J. B. Lippincott's publications.

"Beautiful Isle of the South." This is the name of a new piece of music just published by D. P. Fassett, Louisville, Ky. The lithography is very good, and the music may have some merit, but the words are quite tame and flat.

"Caritas Scholastica." A poem by the same publisher, with lithographic likeness of Miss Fannie Darnport, very well executed.

After Texas, we presume Arkansas is the most barbarous state in the Union. If civil law will have the goodness to turn its attention to some of the outrages which have been perpetrated in Chicot county, and bring the perpetrators to punishment, it will show itself worthy of a moiety of the outcries that General Hancock has just pronounced upon it.

And it is just so in Arkansas. The judge and jury, the sheriff and the attorneys have each and all had their little attentions, and were they to set the example of hanging murderers there is no saying where the thing would end. Besides, they have been taught from their infancy that it was no sin to kill a Yankee, an abolitionist, a minister of the Gospel, a negro, (unless he were a slave, in which case he must be paid for) or even a poor white Southerner. How can such a judge and jury be expected to convict and punish criminals?

PROSECUTIONS AND TRIALS OF OUR NEGRO SERVANTS.—The Old Republic has a list of prosecutions, with their penalties, judgments, convictions, and punishments. The following convictions were reported to the number and date: LARRY, 10; MANNING, 14; FURNESS, 10; MORGAN, 10; GIBSON, 10; BROWN, 10; SMITH, 10; JONES, 10; WILSON, 10; TAYLOR, 10; HARRIS, 10; CLARK, 10;
