Reported Murder in Catahoula.

CAPTAIN CHAPMAN SEIZED BY A BAND OF REBELS.

MURDER IN DE SOTO.

REBELS HUNTING REPUBLICANS IN ARMED BANDS.

INTENSE EXCITEMENT AT SHREVEPORT.

Great Need for Troops.

In yesterday's REPUBLICAN we mentioned that the rebels of Catahoula parish, the home of the 72nd rebel candidate for governor, had declared that Republican meetings to promote the election of Judge Warmoth should not be held there.

A week or two ago we reported the outrages perpetrated by the rebels of Mansfield, De Soto parish, forbidding meetings of Republican clubs, assaulting a Union man, warning Republicans to leave the town, and establishing a reign of intolerance and terror.

It has culminated, if the reports which reached us yesterday are correct, in the assassination of two gentlemen for the great crime of addressing their fellow citizens on Republican politics.

GERMAN MASS MEETING.

The German mass meeting in National hall, Thursday evening, was well attended, not only by Germans, but also by our American and colored friends.

The meeting was called to order by a member of the committee of arrangements, who nominated Mr. Scyth, the chairman of the German Radical club, as president, who then nominated E. Linderman and R. Mogel as secretaries.

A committee of five was appointed to bring in resolutions.

Meanwhile, Colonel Boyd addressed the meeting, followed by Colonel Jones, whose speeches were received with the greatest applause.

The committee on resolutions then returned, and the following resolutions were read by the German and English languages, received, and adopted unanimously.

Resolved, that the citizens of New Orleans have as far as possible to participate in the political events of the people, so much as their influence in the political affairs is not according to their numbers and knowledge, or if they did participate were guided and led by the Southern Democratic slave party and their leaders, who in their hatred of the colored race, have sought to deprive the colored people of their rights.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The Republicans have carried South Carolina by a large majority, securing the ratification of the constitution, electing the Republican State ticket and Republican Representatives in Congress. This is another added to the list of reconstructed states.

The Arkansas Congressional Representatives have arrived here, but the official returns of their election are not yet received.

Andrew Johnson supports the proposed nomination of Hancock for the Presidency by the Democrats.

It has transpired that the execution of Hancock's order for the publication of the registration lists in the rebel papers was prohibited by General Grant on the command of Hon. Edward McPherson, clerk of the House of Representatives, who, in accordance with law, seizes the papers, in which government advertisements shall be published.

Mr. McPherson again represents that quartermasters and General Buchanan's secretary of civil affairs undertake to publish official advertisements in Texas papers not properly designated to do so.

The friends of President Johnson admit that his conviction by the first of May is certain.

The general opinion is that after Johnson goes to the White House, either Senator Sumner or Mr. Motley will be placed at the head of the State department.

Johnson says he will not appoint a successor to Steedman as internal revenue collector at New Orleans.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Impeachment continued. William M. Anthony, of Cleveland, testified that most of the president's speech there was in response to interruptions.

More documentary evidence regarding the case was presented and admitted.

Secretary Welles has many department cables. He was appointed in 1864 by Mr. Lincoln. His son reported having been at a party where orders from Mr. Emory were received for the arrest of General Sherman.

Secretary Welles directed his son to inform the president. The next day he informed the president himself. Questioned by the committee, he testified that he had no objection. Mr. Chase decided to hear the answer. The president did not know what Mr. Emory meant. Would and for him at the cabinet meeting the president mentioned Mr. Stanton's removal and Thoma's appointment. That Mr. Stanton yielded, only requiring time to move his papers.

A long argument ensued on the admissibility of this evidence. Chief Justice Chase decided the evidence admissibly admitted. Appended. Chief Justice Chase was sustained—29 to 25. Next day, the twenty-second, the case was continued.

Mr. Chase was in the hands of the president. Defense asked questions regarding cabinet members on the tenure of office, and stated that they intend proving that the cabinet unanimously objected to the removal of Mr. Stanton, and that the president had no right to remove him without their consent.
