NEW ORLEANS, NOVEMBER 2, 1868.

AMUSEMENTS-THE EVENING. VARIETIES THEATRE-GRAND STREET. THE GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

FOR PRESIDENT. ULYSSES S. GRANT.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT. SCHUYLER COLFAK.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

FOR CONGRESS.

THE ELECTIONS TO-MORROW.

This General Grant will be elected to-morrow no sane man doubts. That he will be chosen by the largest vote ever given to any one we verily believe. His majorities will be overwhelming. We fervently pray. Then may we hope for peace. Then may we hope for a recognition of the rights of all men, without distinction of race or origin. Then may we hope for a day not far hence when an American citizen can have and express and vote for his opinions all over this land and be protected by the strong arm of that government to which he owes paramount allegiance.

We publish below the electoral vote of the several States. The total number is 204. Virginia, Mississippi and Texas will not vote. It will require 149 electoral votes to choose—there being but two candidates.

Table with 2 columns: State and Electoral Votes. Includes Alabama, Arkansas, California, etc.

In speaking of the position assumed by Mayor Conway and defended by the Crescent, that Mr. Adams, who was removed under the reconstruction laws, had never been displaced by competent authority, we remarked that the measures of Congress were thus scouted. We then said:

We now see how silly the claims of these people that they favored the reconstruction acts prove to be.

The Crescent takes us to task for thus implying that those who were disfranchised by article ninety-nine were not entitled to register while still cherishing a disposition to overthrow the reconstruction acts of Congress.

The position taken by the Crescent in common with those who have trampled the Constitution beneath their feet is that article ninety-nine intended to enfranchise every disqualified person who favored the execution of the measures of reconstruction and that they all so favored the execution of the laws.

Will the Crescent reply to the following questions?

First—Is it not a rule for the interpretation of law that you are not permitted to construe a statutory or constitutional provision as to make it meaningless and of no effect?

Secondly—Does not the interpretation which they place upon the proviso clause of article ninety-nine practically nullify the whole article, and make it meaningless?

Thirdly—Is it not a rule for the interpretation of law that you must seek the intention of the framers of the statute, or of the constitutional provision?

Fourthly—Was it not the intention of the late Constitutional Convention to disfranchise those named in the first clause of article ninety-nine, except those who not only favored the execution of the reconstruction laws in their spirit, and for their intent and purposes, but who had also actively aided and assisted those who were endeavoring to give practical and permanent effect to those measures?

NONE BUT THE BLUE-BLOODED SHOULD VOTE.

We are handed a copy of the following printed circular, which we are informed has been properly distributed:

A WHITE MAN'S GOVERNMENT. OR NO GOVERNMENT!

The head of the oppressor bears heavily upon us! Let the Caucasian arise in his strength! Too long have we lain supine! Assert at once and in unmistakable accents your supremacy! This is a Government of white men—for white men, and by white men. Let white men rally to the solidly for their rights, and allow nothing to prevent the triumph of their principles! We have the means, and let us use them effectively!

It is full time that our strength was felt! None but the blue-blooded should vote! See it to you whose very existence is at stake, that none others do. In order to carry out the designs of the party the Council orders that the independent club station a company at and about each polling place for the accomplishment of our purpose.

Officers in charge will hold themselves in readiness at all times during the day, and evening to act promptly upon all orders from the council.

By order of the COUNCIL OF SEVEN.

The Democracy need feel no fears that they have not pushed intimidation sufficiently far. This circular was needless. It is entirely probable that the blue-blooded will have the polls quiet to themselves.

NATURALIZATION FRAUDS. We have information that the Democratic workers are perpetrating the same frauds in New Orleans that led to the arrest of the Democratic member of Congress elected from the Ninth District of Ohio. These certificates of naturalization were sent to the several counties in the District, signed in blank by Judge Dickinson, who was the candidate elected, and at the same time Probate Judge in Sandusky.

We learn that a large number of fraudulently issued or forged papers have been sent to the houses of foreigners in the Third District—to men who have never made application and who know nothing of those who are so desirous of making citizens of them.

Let it be remembered that if any one attempts to vote upon one of these forged certificates he becomes liable to prosecution in the United States Courts.

We call the attention of the United States Marshal to these facts.

The New York Mail gives a sketch of the person of the New York Tribune, from which we quote:

Last of all at the table we find Mr. Whitwell, head of Cincinnati, the latest addition to the force. He looks like Theodore Tilton, with his angular points rubbed off. He talks very easy, and writes ditto. His articles are pithy and argumentative, and have attracted considerable attention.

Mr. Reid was formerly one of the proprietors of the Cincinnati Gazette. On the close of the war he came South and engaged in cotton planting, but the "worm" in and the "reconstruction" were too much for Whitwell, and he returned to "God's country." In his new field we wish him every success.

TO THE COLORED PEOPLE OF NEW ORLEANS.

To-morrow is the day of election. You have a right to vote. It is for you to determine whether you can safely attempt to exercise that right.

If you do attempt it, let us advise you that only in so attempting should you appear upon the streets. If you conclude not to attempt it, do not leave your homes.

Let your absence from the streets take away any occasion for a quarrel which might ripen into a terrible "negro riot."

The New York Commercial Advertiser, the paper of Thurlow Weed, and the most conservative of Republican journals, discourses thus on affairs in this State.

THE DEPARTMENT OF THE GULF. It can not have escaped notice that ever since Major General Rousseau assumed command, a condition of lawlessness and almost a complete anarchy has prevailed in the Gulf. Civil law has been set at defiance. Civil officers have been shot down or compelled to resign. Unionists have been in constant fear of their lives, and white and black they have been exposed to the denunciations of an ignorant, bloodthirsty mob. Union newspaper establishments have been sacked and gutted, and rebel mobs have roamed about at will.

When at Opelousas, Louisiana, the Unionists assembled to rescue one of their number, they were set upon by an infuriated mob, and murdered by the roadside. The Republican newspaper office in the place was demolished, and the type thrown into the river. On the night of the seventeenth instant, Judge Chase and Sheriff Pope, while en route to New Orleans, were shot at Franklin, in St. Mary parish, Louisiana, were shot to death. A gentleman from New Orleans, who knew him intimately, informs us that Sheriff Pope was one of the most estimable of men and citizens. After serving through the war as Colonel of the Twentieth Illinois Volunteers, he went home for his family, and settled in St. Mary parish with the expectation of remaining there permanently. His only offense consisted in accepting office under the new Government. The same was true of Judge Chase.

Two days later the rebels of St. Mary parish attacked the Franklin Register office, a Republican paper; and after destroying everything connected with it, compelled the editors and employees to seek the streets until they were driven into the jail. A body of troops were sent from New Orleans to the theatre of disturbances. Such is the rebel report of the affair. It may be that the blacks became so exasperated that they committed the atrocities referred to. We shall doubt, however, until receiving further intelligence. They have thus far been the sufferers and victims in all the disturbances which have occurred at the South since the assembling of the Tammany Convention. Furthermore, the rebel report of this affair reveals a manifest purpose to conceal the truth.

The collision occasioned much excitement in New Orleans last night, and we are told that while no negro was to be seen, the "white clubs" marched through the streets until they were dispersed. They were addressed by General Standman, the rebel General Hayes, and others, and urged to retire to their homes.

We have thus briefly alluded to a few of the outrages and evidences of misrule which have marked General Rousseau's administration. To the unfortunate negro he hailed his coming with delight, named their organizations after him, and from time to time have tendered him the compliment of a serenade. They clearly regard him as one of themselves, and are evincing the opinion that they can now number loyalists, black and white, with impunity. General Rousseau served with distinction in the Union armies, and if he would avoid the odium which is now rapidly gathering about his name, he must put a stop to this anarchy and bloodshed.

There is every indication now that the election to-morrow will pass off in the most quiet and orderly manner. The recent disturbances have demonstrated the fact to the satisfaction of the negroes that in any conflict in which they may engage with the white man, their race will invariably prove the weaker.

We coincide with the Bulletin as to its idea that the election to-morrow will be a quiet one.

The "recent disturbances" have demonstrated to the satisfaction of the negroes that they would stand but a poor showing at the polls and few will attempt to run the hazard.

The Supreme Court. The Supreme Court opened its session this morning, at eleven o'clock; present, Justices Talliferro, Howell and Howe. No business was transacted beyond the calling of cases and a number of motions of no public interest.

The Court adjourned to Monday next, at eleven o'clock A. M.

There was a large attendance of prominent members of the bar, as usual upon the first day of term.

Colored voters look out for fraudulent tickets! The Democrats have printed, and circulated among the colored voters, the Democratic ticket with General Sypher's name on, expecting by that trick to get you to vote for Seymour and Blair. Look out for them! Vote none but the straight Republican ticket.

REPUBLICAN TICKETS can be procured at the several club rooms throughout the city. Presidents of clubs can receive the tickets for their clubs by applying at the Headquarters of Campaign Committee, No. 23 Dryades street.

WARRANT—A warrant for the Democratic candidate for the office of Sheriff, for the parish of St. Charles, was issued for the arrest of A. Belmont, Europe.
