THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The meeting of this highly respectable, self-constituted body of gentlemen at this particular time is calculated to excite some inquiry on the part of those unacquainted with Louisiana politics as to the objects sought to be attained.

If it could be made to appear that this State was blessed with too much prosperity; that the State treasury was overflowing; that our people were really at a loss how to dispose of their surplus wealth;

The true reason for the high honor conferred upon New Orleans of having this convention lies in the fact that the party to which the delegates belong are "outs" of many years' standing, and they have met to devise some way by which to return to their normal condition of "ins."

It might have a salutary effect upon their deliberations to cause their Secretary to read, on the opening of each session, the result of the late election for President, and then consider well the meaning of the almost solid vote of the North for Grant.

"ALMOST THOU PERSUADEST ME TO BE A CHRISTIAN."

The Piousness of this morning comes very nearly up to the high excellence of being a Republican. It exceeds the fact that there are other than the owners of real estate in New Orleans who have deep-seated rights and vital interests at stake in matters of public policy.

While fully satisfied that the business men, the laborers and producers of this city have some rights and are entitled to be heard, it exhorts them to join with the "upper strata" in overturning the present State government.

GOOD OUT OF EVIL. The Western papers declare that "not a single Democrat is elected within a radius of one hundred miles of La Crosse."

departures from the right in terms of friendly and dignified counsel, and not to condemn their every act without reason, and demand the restoration to power of those who have already brought such intolerable miseries upon the people.

OUR MINISTER TO ENGLAND. There was an unusual, if not unnecessary amount of rejoicing throughout the land, recently, accompanying the announcement that Senator Reverdy Johnson had been called from the Senate to take the place of Mr. Adams at the Court of St. James.

Almost the first step he took in England was a mistake. Happening to meet Laird, the builder of the Alabama, at a dinner party, he modestly asked, as a great favor, for an introduction, (thereby confessing to a social inferiority), which, after a little hesitation on the part of Laird, was granted.

Twelve towns in Maine have been named Grant and Colfax respectively. Without counting Alaska, the United States has 1,500,000,000 acres of public lands.

Grant wanted peace and has two-thirds of the whole, which is a pretty big piece. At a ball, in lieu of "Not transferable" on the tickets, a notice was posted over the door: "No gentleman admitted unless he comes himself."

Four years ago Hull, Mass., gave twenty-seven votes for Lincoln and twenty for McClellan, and last week the vote was twenty-seven for Grant and twenty for Seymour.

A Mrs. Atkinson, of Northampton, Mass., died from starvation on the roadside lately, lying in her house $382 in gold coin, and $110 in silver and bills.

ELECTION RETURNS.

The following returns of the votes for President at the recent election in this State are official: Grant, 1,491; Seymour, 1,125; Assumption, 1,387; Avoyelles, 1,329; Baton Rouge, East, 1,247; Baton Rouge, West, 1,285; Bienville, 1,131; Caldwell, 483; Carroll, 777; Catahoula, 149; Claiborne, 1,294; Concordia, 1,532; Franklin, 1,213; Jackson, 1,309; Madison, 33; Morehouse, 1,213; Natchitoches, 1,916; Ouachita, 822; Tensas, 831; Union, 1,415.

VERY LONG AGO. Listening in the twilight, very long ago To a sweet voice singing very soft and low. Was the song a ballad of lady bright, Saved from a gallant by a gallant knight?

STATE OF LOUISIANA. Thanksgiving Proclamation. Whereas, His Excellency, the President of the United States, has set apart Thursday, November 20, 1868, as a day of thanksgiving and praise to the Supreme Ruler of the universe for his manifold blessings to the creature of earth:

And I do especially recommend to the good people of the State, that in view of our freedom from pestilence during the past season, the prospective abundant harvest, the peaceful issue of our national political contest, and the comparative state of peace and quiet which now reigns within our borders, they abstain from their ordinary avocations upon that day, and repair to their usual places of worship, and ascribe to Him, the giver of all good gifts, all the praise.

FACT AND FANCY. Two towns in Maine have been named Grant and Colfax respectively. Without counting Alaska, the United States has 1,500,000,000 acres of public lands.

Grant wanted peace and has two-thirds of the whole, which is a pretty big piece. At a ball, in lieu of "Not transferable" on the tickets, a notice was posted over the door: "No gentleman admitted unless he comes himself."

Four years ago Hull, Mass., gave twenty-seven votes for Lincoln and twenty for McClellan, and last week the vote was twenty-seven for Grant and twenty for Seymour.

A Mrs. Atkinson, of Northampton, Mass., died from starvation on the roadside lately, lying in her house $382 in gold coin, and $110 in silver and bills.

French private while on leave are to be paid at the rate of one cent in gold a day. Corporals get two cents, sergeants four cents, and sergeant-majors six cents a day.

The majority for Grant and Colfax in Allegheny, Pennsylvania, is 10,800—a gain of 1937. Here is the place where Seymour's speech produced a tremendous impression upon the mercantile and commercial classes.

The cultivation of tobacco in Virginia, says the Richmond Enquirer, is so rapidly declining, that it will in all probability be discontinued because of its unprofitableness.

Miss Anthony proposes to go into the paper hanging business. She calls upon her female coadjutors to help her "paper Washington" all over with petitions for impartial suffrage.

The establishment of a whip manufactory in Westfield, Massachusetts, has created a rushing demand for tannery horses, one owner having twenty applicants for his house the first day he advertised it to rent.

General Grant's report this year, as head of the army, will be very brief, as he will be his subordinate in the various departments of the army, and the military history of the year will be summed up in a report from the War Department.

The influence of the La Crosse Democrat will be inferred from the fact that, on the third instant, there was not a Democrat elected to office within one hundred miles of the place of its publication.

The other day Mr. Mathews, of St. Johnsbury, Vermont, while passing through Marshall Woods, was ordered to "stand and deliver" by an ugly customer. Mr. Mathews complied, and delivered himself up to the law.

There were many instances in Boston at the late election at which persons who had voted the Democratic ticket for very many years cast their first Republican ballot.

The most notable case was that of an old gentleman nearly ninety years of age, who came up to the polls with the whole Republican ticket, saying that he had all his life voted with the Democratic party.
