

ians and Arkansas Red River Raft Navigation Company."
Mr. Ray, from the Internal Improvement Committee, reported without action on the following bills:
Senate bill No. 234, "For the improvement of the navigation of Cane river," etc.
Also, on Senate bill No. 115, "To provide for dredging out a channel through the bars in Lake Calcasieu," etc.
Mr. Campbell, from the Committee on Corporations and Parochial Affairs, reported on the following bills:
Senate bill No. 264, "To annex a certain portion of Orleans, right bank, to the parish of Plaquemines."
Also, on Senate bill No. 232, "Granting ferry privileges to Henry Henchert, Conrad Henchert and others," etc.
Mr. Lewis, from the Committee on Charitable Institutions, reported back without action on House bill No. 18, "In reference to insane asylums, cities of New Orleans and Jefferson."
Mr. Jenks, from the Committee on Federal Relations, reported without action on Senate joint resolution No. 32, "Relative to certain outrages committed on American citizens in the island of Cuba."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE.
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
OFFICE OF THE CLERK,
NEW ORLEANS, MARCH 19, 1870.
To the President and Members of the Senate:
I am directed to inform the Senate that the House has concurred in the following bills, viz:
Senate bill No. 104, "Relative to the registry of births and deaths," etc.
Senate bill No. 62, "Relative to bonds taken in cases of arrest, attachment," etc.
Senate bill No. 39, "An act, with amendments, for the relief of the taxpayers of this State," etc.
Senate bill No. 16, "An act to provide for using the records of the courts of this State in evidence."
Senate bill No. 32, "An act to renew the corporation of the town of Farmerville," etc.
Senate bill No. 53, "An act to incorporate the Church Education Society."
Senate bill No. 5, "An act relative to militia."
That the House has indefinitely postponed the following bills, viz:
Senate bill No. 173, "An act to exempt from taxation the New Orleans Methodist Depository."
Senate bill No. 106, "An act relative to auctioneers."
To ask the concurrence of the Senate in the following bills, viz:
House bill No. 169, "An act relative to the town of Portcharbona," etc.
House bill No. 276, "An act granting ferry privileges to William H. Finegan," etc.
House bill No. 236, "An act for digging a canal from the Mississippi river to Lake Pontchartrain," etc.
To ask the signature of the President of the Senate to the following enrolled bill, viz:
"An act to incorporate the Louisiana Dredging Company," WILLIAM VIGIERS.
To ask concurrence of the Senate in the following bills, viz:
House bill No. 66 (revenue bill).
House bill No. 235, "An act relative to the Police Jury of the parish of Tensas."
House bill No. 287, "Joint resolution authorizing the printing of 500 copies of the trial of impeachment of G. M. Wickliffe," WILLIAM VIGIERS.
Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

House bill No. 66, "An act to provide a revenue, to levy and collect taxes; to grant and collect licenses; to provide for the creation and removal of revenue officers," etc., was taken up and read first time.
The constitutional rule was then suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill put on its second reading, and referred to the Finance Committee.

PRECEDENCE SPECIAL ORDER.
House bill No. 237, "An act making appropriations for the general expenses of the State for the public and charitable institutions, for the year ending the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy," was taken up and read first time.
Items one, two, three, four, five, six, seven and eight were read and adopted.
Item nine was read.
Mr. Lynch moved to strike out "one hundred thousand dollars," and insert "one hundred and five thousand dollars."
Adopted, and the item as amended adopted.
Item ten was read.
Mr. Lynch moved to strike out "one hundred and twelve thousand dollars" and insert "one hundred and fifteen thousand dollars."
Adopted, and the item as amended adopted.
Items eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen, fifteen, sixteen, seventeen, eighteen, nineteen, twenty, twenty-one and twenty-two were read and adopted.
Item twenty-three was read.
Mr. Lynch moved to strike out the item and insert the following in lieu thereof: "For the salary of the third assistant clerk in the Treasurer's office, two thousand dollars ($2000)."
Adopted.
Items twenty-four, twenty-five, twenty-six, twenty-seven, twenty-eight, twenty-nine, thirty, thirty-one, thirty-two, thirty-three, thirty-four and thirty-five were read.
Mr. Lynch moved to strike out the foregoing, and insert the following in lieu thereof: "For the salary of the chief clerk in the Auditor's office, twenty-five hundred dollars ($2500)."
"For the salaries of eleven clerks in the Auditor's office, at eighteen hundred dollars ($1800) each, nineteen thousand eight hundred dollars ($19,800)."
"For the salaries of two extra clerks in the Auditor's office for two months, February and March, 1870, at one hundred and fifty dollars ($150) per month each, six hundred dollars ($600)."
"For the salary of the messenger in the Auditor's office, four hundred and eighty dollars ($480)."
"Provided, That all acts or parts of acts authorizing the Auditor to employ hereafter more than one chief clerk, eleven assistant clerks and one messenger, be and the same are hereby repealed."
Adopted.
Items thirty-six, thirty-seven, thirty-eight, thirty-nine and forty were read and adopted.
Item forty-one was read.
Mr. Lynch moved to strike out the words "twenty-one" in line three, and insert the word "seventeen," and in line four strike out words "one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight" and insert the words "one thousand eight hundred and seventy."
Adopted, and the item as amended adopted.
Items forty-two, forty-three, forty-four and forty-five were read and adopted.
Mr. Lynch offered the following additional item:
"For the interest on the bonds issued to the Mississippi and Mexican Gulf Ship Island Canal Company, under article No. 116, of 1869, twenty-one thousand six hundred and forty-four dollars and forty-five cents ($21,644.45)."
Adopted.
Mr. Bacon offered the following additional item, which was ordered to lay on the table:
For costs of Clerk of the Fourth District Court of New Orleans in tax cases in 1869, brought by E. C. Mahan, State Tax Collector for the First District of New Orleans, thirteen hundred and fifty-five dollars.
Item seventy-eight was then read.
Mr. Jenks offered the following amendment: In lieu of the words "forty thousand dollars," insert the words "thirty thousand dollars," and add at the end of the item the words "and for building, repairing and furnishing thirty thousand dollars."
Adopted, and the item as amended adopted.
Items seventy-nine, eighty, eighty-one and eighty-two were read and adopted.
Item eighty-three was then read and struck out.
Mr. Lynch offered the following additional item:
"Appropriation to pay expenses incurring and to be incurred in procuring and disposing of agricultural scrip issued by the United States to the State, payable on the warrant of the Governor, twenty-five hundred dollars ($2500).

Adopted.
Items eighty-four and eighty-five were read and adopted.
Item eighty-six was read and struck out.
Items eighty-seven, eighty-eight and eighty-nine were read and adopted.
Item ninety was read.
Mr. Lynch moved to insert the words "and required" after word "authorized," in line two.
Adopted, and the item as amended adopted.
Item ninety-one was then read.
Mr. Campbell moved to strike out the words "two hundred and twenty thousand dollars," and the balance of the item, and to insert in lieu thereof the words, "six hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be collected from the two-mill tax levied for the support of public schools."
Adopted, and the item as amended adopted.
Item ninety-two was read.
Mr. Lynch moved to strike out the words "one hundred thousand dollars," and insert the words "one hundred and forty thousand dollars."
Adopted, and the item as amended adopted.
Mr. Campbell offered the following proviso, to come in before the appropriation for private charitable institutions, and immediately after item ninety-two of the House bill, which was laid on the table:
"The following appropriations for charitable organizations shall not be valid or of effect until after each organization or association shall have been examined and its application for its share of the appropriation shall have been approved by a joint committee of the General Assembly, to be appointed at the present session, which approval shall be filed with the Auditor of Public Accounts before any warrant shall issue for any of the appropriations."
On motion of Mr. Pinchback, the Senate then took a recess until seven o'clock this evening.

Evening Session.
SENATE CHAMBER,
Tuesday Evening, March 15, 1870.
The Senate met, pursuant to the recess taken, at seven o'clock P. M.
Present: Hon. O. J. Dunn, Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate; and Messrs. Anderson, Antoine, Bacon, Beares, Blackman, Braughn, Campbell, Coupland, Darrall, Day, Egan, Foute, Jenks, Kelo, Lynch, Monette, Offutt, O'Hara, Packard, Poinceter, Pollard, Ray, Smith, Thompson, Todd, Whitney, Wilcox, Williams, Wittgenstein.

Mr. Bacon moved to strike out "fifteen hundred dollars" and insert the words "five thousand dollars," and to strike out "Camp" and insert "Jackson."
Adopted, and the item as amended adopted.
Items one hundred and fifteen, one hundred and sixteen, one hundred and seventeen and one hundred and eighteen were read and adopted.
Item one hundred and nineteen was read.
Mr. Coupland moved to strike out the words "one thousand" and insert the words "fifteen thousand."
Adopted, and the item as amended adopted.
Mr. Coupland moved to strike out the words "one thousand" and insert the words "fifteen thousand."
Adopted, and the item as amended adopted.
Mr. Day moved to strike out the word "one thousand" and insert the words "three thousand," and to strike out the words "Sisters of Charity."
Adopted, and the item as amended adopted.
Items one hundred and twenty-one and one hundred and twenty-two were read and adopted.
Item one hundred and twenty-three was read.
Mr. Whitney moved to strike out the words "two hundred" and insert the words "five hundred."
Adopted, and the item as amended adopted.
Item one hundred and twenty-four was then read.
Mr. Coupland moved to strike out the words "five hundred" and insert the words "three thousand."
Adopted, and the item as amended adopted.
Mr. Lynch, from the Finance Committee, offered the following additional item:
"Appropriation to pay certificates of indebtedness of the State issued to J. O. Nixon, late State Printer, by H. Peralt, late Auditor, dated August 2 and November 26, 1867, and January 4, 1868, for printing and advertising during the year 1867, three thousand and fifty-one dollars ($3051)."
Adopted.
Mr. Lynch, from the Finance Committee, offered the following additional items:
"Appropriation to pay C. Escande for expenses incurred in stopping a break on his levee in the parish of Plaquemines, caused by the storm of April, 1868, approved by the new Board of Levee Commissioners by resolution adopted May 11, 1868, eight hundred and seventy-five dollars and twelve cents ($875.12)."
Adopted.
"Appropriation to pay for the printing of the bonds of the State issued to the North Louisiana Railroad Company, fifteen hundred dollars ($1500)."
Adopted.
For the salary of the keeper of the State House grounds at Baton Rouge, nine hundred and fifty-three dollars ($953).
Adopted.
Mr. Lynch offered the following, as a substitute to item —, already adopted:
For the salary of the clerk of the State Land Office, twenty-five hundred dollars ($2500).
Adopted.
Mr. Ray offered the following as additional item:
"Appropriation to pay for abstracts of land parish to fill the vacancy in the House of Representatives, occasioned by the death of the Hon. William Smith, acting under appointment by the Governor as Supervisor of Elections, three hundred dollars ($300).

Adopted.
Items one hundred and twenty-eight and one hundred and twenty-nine were read and adopted.
Mr. O'Hara offered the following additional item:
For E. L. Lynch, attorney at law, for professional services rendered by him as special attorney for the State in her litigation with the Louisiana State Bank, in the years 1866 and 1867, five thousand dollars ($5000).
Which was laid on the table by the following vote:
Yeas: Anderson, Braughn, Campbell, Coupland, Darrall, Day, Egan, Foute, Jenks, Jewell, Lynch, Monette, Offutt, O'Gden, Poinceter, Thompson, Todd—18.
Nays: Antoine, Beares, Blackman, O'Hara, Packard, Ray, Smith, Wilcox, Williams, Wittgenstein—10.
Items one hundred and thirty and one hundred and thirty-one were read and adopted.
Item one hundred and thirty-two was then read.
Mr. Day offered the following amendment. After the word "appropriation," insert:
"For the separate instruction and maintenance of the blind pupils of the Louisiana Institute for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind at Baton Rouge, Louisiana, in accordance with act No. 29 of the Legislature, approved February 23, 1870."
Adopted.
Item one hundred and thirty-three was then read and adopted.
Item one hundred and thirty-four was then read.
Mr. Lynch moved to strike out "three thousand" and insert "one thousand five hundred."
Adopted, and the item as amended adopted.
Mr. Lynch offered the following additional item:
For contingent fund of the Senate, four thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the expenses of the impeachment trial of George M. Wickliffe, late Auditor of Public Accounts.
Mr. O'Hara moved to amend by adding the following:
"To be paid on the warrant of the Chairman of the Contingent Expenses of the Senate, countersigned by the President and Secretary of Senate."
Adopted, and the item as amended adopted.
Mr. Poinceter offered the following as an additional item:
"Appropriation for the Grand Samaritan's Charitable Association of Assumption parish, four hundred dollars."
Adopted.
Mr. Braughn offered the following additional item:
Turgis Asylum for Destitute Widows, one thousand dollars ($1000).
Adopted.
Mr. Todd offered the following additional item:
To the Zion's Travelers' Benevolent Association of Jefferson, one thousand dollars.
Adopted.
Mr. Campbell offered an additional section, which was ordered to lie over for the present.
Items one hundred and thirty-five and one hundred and thirty-six were read and adopted.
Mr. Smith offered the following additional item:
Macedonian Benevolent Association, Jefferson, $300.
Adopted.
Item one hundred and thirty-seven was read and adopted.
Mr. Anderson offered the following as an additional item:
"Appropriation for the support of the St. Landry Free Public School Association, $2000."
Adopted.
Items one hundred and thirty-eight and one hundred and thirty-nine were then read and adopted.
Mr. Lynch, from the Finance Committee, offered the following additional item:
"Appropriation to pay time checks Nos. 3 5, 9, 17, 21, 27, 28, 47, 54, 55, 63, 70, 74, and 79, issued by the old Board of Levee Commissioners during the months of January, February, March and April, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, and accruing interest thereon at the rate of eight per cent per annum, under act No. 135 of 1866, forty-two thousand five hundred dollars ($42,500) or so much thereof as may be necessary."
Adopted by the following vote:
Yeas: Anderson, Antoine, Bacon, Beares, Blackman, Braughn, Campbell, Coupland, Darrall, Day, Egan, Foute, Jenks, Jewell, Lynch, Monette, Offutt, O'Gden, O'Hara, Packard, Poinceter, Pollard, Ray, Smith, Thompson, Todd, Whitney—22.
Nays: Anderson, Antoine, Bacon, Blackman, Braughn, Campbell, Darrall, Day, Egan, Foute, Jenks, Jewell, Lynch, Monette, Offutt, O'Gden, Packard, Poinceter, Pollard, Ray, Smith, Thompson, Todd, Whitney, Wilcox, Williams, Wittgenstein—18.
The main question being called for and ordered, the vote was reconsidered by the following vote:
Yeas: Anderson, Antoine, Bacon, Blackman, Braughn, Campbell, Darrall, Day, Egan, Foute, Jenks, Jewell, Lynch, Monette, Offutt, O'Gden, Packard, Poinceter, Pollard, Ray, Smith, Thompson, Todd, Whitney, Wilcox, Williams, Wittgenstein—26.
Nays: Campbell, Monette, O'Hara, Smith—4.
Mr. Braughn moved to lay the proviso on the table.
The proviso was then laid on the table by the following vote:
Yeas: Anderson, Blackman, Braughn, Coupland, Darrall, Day, Egan, Foute, Jenks, Jewell, Offutt, O'Gden, Packard, Poinceter, Pollard, Ray, Smith, Thompson, Todd, Whitney, Williams—17.
Nays: Anderson, Antoine, Bacon, Braughn, Campbell, Coupland, Lynch, Monette, O'Hara, Packard, Poinceter, Ray, Smith, Wilcox—11.
And was consequently stricken out.
Section one was then adopted as amended.
Section two was read and adopted.
Section three was then read and adopted.
The bill as amended, was then adopted as a whole, and the amendments considered engrossed.
The constitutional rule was then suspended, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
Mr. Witgenstein, under a suspension of the rules, introduced the following resolution:
Resolved, That the Secretary, the Assistant Secretary and the Minute Clerk of the Senate shall receive the sum of $300 per year for their labor during the extra session, to be paid by the Warrant Clerk of the Senate, in the same manner as the per diem of members.
Mr. Lynch offered the following to be added to the resolution:
"That the compensation appropriated to the reporters of the press of the city of New Orleans who have reported the proceedings of this Legislature, be paid out of the fund appropriated for the pay of members, and that the Warrant Clerk is authorized to pay the same."
The amendment was adopted, and the resolution, as amended, adopted.
Mr. Coupland, under a suspension of the rules, introduced the following resolution:
Resolved, That the Chief Enrolling Clerk of the Senate shall receive the sum of $300 for his labor during the extra session, to be paid by the Warrant Clerk of the Senate, in the same manner as the per diem of members.

Adopted.
Mr. Smith, under a suspension of the rules, introduced the following resolution:
Resolved, That the following extra compensation be allowed and appropriated out of the contingent fund of the Senate, to be paid on the warrant of the Chairman of the Committee of Contingent Expenses of the Senate, in favor of the Senators here named, to wit: To the Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms, $150; to the Messenger, $150; to each Page, $50; to each Porter, $150; to the Doorkeeper, $100; to the Postmaster, $100; and that the sum of two hundred and ten dollars ($210) be appropriated for extra services performed by the clerk of the Committee on Corporations and Parochial Affairs during the last regular session, and that the same be paid by the Warrant Clerk of the General Assembly, out of the appropriation for the pay of members and employees of the General Assembly.
Adopted.
Under a suspension of the rules Mr. Braughn called up House bill No. 176, "For the relief of the Mechanics and Agricultural Fair Association of Louisiana" (from first reading file).
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.

PRECEDENCE SPECIAL ORDER.
Senate bill No. 204, "To reorganize the State Land office," etc., returned from the House concurred in with amendments.
Amendments as follows:
First—In section twenty-one, after the words "Surveyor General of the United States," insert "For the State of Louisiana."
Concurred in.
Second amendment: In section twenty-two, after the last word, insert "and this appropriation shall be payable to the Register, upon his own warrant, to be issued in accordance with such estimate as shall be made by the United States Surveyor General for the State of Louisiana, for work to be done, as provided in section twenty-one of this act."
Concurred in.
PRECEDENCE SPECIAL ORDER.
House bill No. 234, "To provide for the payment of the floating debt of the State by the issue and sale or exchange of State bonds."
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill put on its second reading, and referred to the Finance Committee.
Under a suspension of the rules introduced "An act to provide for the transfer of certain records from the parish of Jefferson and the parish of Orleans."
Which was read first time.
The constitutional rule was then suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its second time, and ordered engrossed for a third reading.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
Mr. Lynch offered the following concurrent resolution:
Be it resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring therein, That the Finance Committee of the Senate, and the Committee of Ways and Means of the House of Representatives, be and they are hereby authorized to issue and sell the certificates of indebtedness known as State notes, issued under act No. 5, of 1866, the number of coupons in said notes as well as any other evidence of indebtedness that have been assigned and paid by the State, and which are in said offices. The whole of which shall be destroyed by said committees. A process of recall of their distributions shall be made and signed by the Chairman of said committees, a duplicate thereof to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, and the other to remain in the office of the State Treasurer, said committees to have all the powers heretofore conferred upon them, and that they and their respective clerks be entitled to their per diem during the time they are so employed, to be paid upon the warrant of their respective chairmen.
Adopted.
Under a suspension of the rules, Mr. Egan called up House bill No. 270, "For the relief of Hodge Rabun, late Sheriff and State Tax Collector for the parish of Bienville" from first reading file.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
Mr. Ray, under a suspension of the rules, called up from third reading file Senate bill No. 21, "To incorporate the Louisiana Joint Stock Bank," etc.
Which was read third time and finally adopted with its title.
Under a suspension of the rules, the following bills were called up:
By Mr. Braughn—"Providing for the recording and proper indexing of the records of births and deaths in the parish of Orleans," etc., from first reading file.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-

ended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, and the bill read a second time.
The constitutional rule was further suspended by a four-fifths affirmative vote, the bill read its third and last time, and finally adopted with its title.
By Mr. Ray—Substitute for Senate bill No. 216, "Relative to the Supreme Court," etc., from second reading file.
Mr. Ray offered a substitute for the same, under the same title.
Which was read its first time.
The constitutional rule was then sus-