IN BANKRUPTCY

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT DISTRICT OF LOUISIANA

IN THE MATTER OF JOHN THORNTON, Debtor, and the Bank of Louisiana, Creditors.

WARRANT IN BANKRUPTCY HAS BEEN ISSUED against the estate of the BANK OF LOUISIANA...

UNITED STATES MARSHAL DISTRICT OF LOUISIANA

DRUGS AND MEDICINES

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE

LARGE IRON SAFE FOR THE HIBERNIA BANK.—Passing the Shakespeare foundry, Grand street, yesterday, the most noticeable thing near the main entrance was a structure not unlike a small house.

It is a cast-iron safe for the Hibernia Bank, and, as a piece of local mechanism, is worthy of mention. Every portion, except the back, was manufactured here.

There are twelve panels, so bolted together as to defy the ingenuity of burglars. The bolt heads on the outside are sunk, and the nut inside is so arranged that in case a burglar wishes to use a cold chisel the piece will turn.

There are two sets of double doors of great strength and capacity. The safe as it stands is ten feet high, seven feet wide and ten feet deep.

Taken altogether, it is an excellent piece of workmanship, showing that New Orleans foundries are capable of turning out any order. The combination lock, of singular construction, cost three hundred and fifty dollars. The safe will hold the bank a trifle over three thousand dollars.

BRIEF MENTIONS.—An owl in a tree in Lafayette square attracted some attention last evening. Where he came from or where he is going is not precisely known.

Thomas Case is incensed in the first precinct station, for furiously driving through Canal street, endangering the lives of citizens. Capture a few more of the same sort.

Mrs. Butler, a professional beggar, said to be found in life and limb, is begging to be released from prison. Her absence from Carondelet street is a relief.

Peyton Woodson's conduct toward his helpmate was such as to warrant his arrest. In a rash moment he threatened to let out her life blood.

Aleck Elliott, an elderly man, was found dead in his room near the corner of Claiborne and Julia streets, last evening.

There was little appearance of a frost last evening, as mercury in thermometers boiled quite freely.

Billy Barot rejected in the possession of a beautiful fifty dollar note, which he was saving as carefully as if it was a treasured diamond. Aleck Fuller, like a thief in the night, slipped in and stole it away. Fuller will be ordered to empty out on the fourth of June, otherwise Recorder Houghton will make a note of it.

Martha Daniels and Lizette Owens, two filthy dromedaries and Dryades street, are charged by William Welsh with having stolen $160 from him. William is a sailor, whose knowledge of gutter snipes is limited. On the seventh of June the two uglies will be up before Recorder Houghton to answer.

CRIMINAL COURT.—James Howard was found guilty of stealing silverware from the steamboat Natchez.

Alexander Johnson, convicted of a small larceny, was sentenced to serve one month in the Parish Prison.

Louis Hubbard and Joseph Dray, citizen guilty of having falsified a passport last April, were sentenced to pay a fine of twenty-five dollars each, or go to prison ten days.

James Wilson admitted that he stole a coat, for which offense he gets ten days Parish Prison.

Billy Mack paid twenty-five dollars for the luxury of pounding John Burns.

RECORDED WIFE'S COURT.—Bushwood Denny, a boy who had been arrested by Officer Landry for cutting another boy, was called up, but, nobody appearing against him, he was remanded to have the officer sent to make any affidavit which would justify the Recorder in holding the accused, who was consequently dismissed; but an affidavit being subsequently made by Officer Landry, Denny was rearrested.

Elizabeth Maine, charged with being found in a house under suspicious circumstances, was bailed to answer the charge.

Mrs. Seigle, charged by Mrs. Muckle with assault, abuse and threats of personal violence, was placed under peace bonds of $250 for six months. The complainant in this case, appearing to be as much at fault as the accused, was also required to furnish bonds in a like sum for the same period.

While there is life there is hope" seemed strongly illustrated by the circumstances in the present case. Bazar had indeed been deprived hope; but a chance for hope revived; but at last his reason told him that hope was vain, and that but a few hours intervened between him and the grave.

He prepared to meet his fate like a Christian, but he might have been a more fervent believer in the resurrection of the dead, for he had seen the bodies of many who had been pronounced dead, but who were afterwards found to be alive.

His questions about men who were pronounced to be dead, and who were afterwards found to be alive, were answered by the fact that he had seen the bodies of many who had been pronounced dead, but who were afterwards found to be alive.
