LIONS ATTACKING AN ACTRESS.

A Terrific Scene at the Bowery Theatre. A Tragedy now on the Bill. From the New York World. A frightful scene, more exciting in its details than the very strongest blood and thunder tragedy that a Bowery audience ever witnessed, occurred at the Bowery Theatre on Saturday night. The performance was drawing to a close, expectation was on tiptoe to witness the brave and daring acts of Miss Minnie Wells with the Puma Hons. That young lady entered upon the stage, made a courtesy to the audience, and immediately went into the cage containing the lions—the crowded audience meantime watching the exhibition with breathless interest. Suddenly, while the young actress was going through her performance with the animals, piercing screams broke the awe-struck silence of the theatre, and the audience started in horror at the sight of a huge lion leaping the young lady by the throat and lacerating her in such a frightful manner that the blood poured in streams upon the stage, and the audience rushed upon the stage, and finally succeeded in carrying him to relinquish his hold upon Miss Wells, who was staggered from the cage in a fainting condition. She was carried home by her parents, and received prompt medical attendance. The scene among the audience, however, was so wild, that several women fainted, and men shouted with agony at witnessing a danger which they were powerless to prevent.

THE COURTS.

Suit Against the Slaughterhouse Company. A large number of damage suits were yesterday filed in the Fourth and Seventh District Courts, of which the following is a synopsis: The Honorable the Judge of the Fourth District Court for the Parish of Orleans: The petition of Louis Rich, a resident of the city of New Orleans, respectfully requests that the Crescent City Live Stock Landing and Slaughterhouse Company, the city of New Orleans, legally incorporated bodies located within the jurisdiction of the court, be and they are hereby decreed to pay to the petitioner the sum of two hundred dollars damages, for this: That your petitioner is engaged in the business of killing and preparing for sale in the markets of the city of New Orleans; that on the evening of the fourth of June, 1870, your petitioner killed, as the establishment of the Crescent City Slaughterhouse and Butchers' Association, in the city of New Orleans, just below the United States Barracks, three oxen, two yearlings and two hogs, the fifth of June, and that he placed the meat in his cart, and in bringing it up to the market place in the morning, at Eleven o'clock, he was stopped by the said Association, which possession of his cart, horse and meat, and carried the same to the Third District station, where the meat was detained, piled up in the carts, and exposed to the view of the public until it was spoiled and became utterly worthless. That said meat was fully worth the sum of two hundred dollars, in this market.

WESTON'S GREAT FEAT.

He Walks Fifty Miles in less than Ten Hours. The New York Sun of Friday says: At noon yesterday, Mr. Edward Payson Weston began his walk of fifty miles in the West on Friday. He finished shortly before 10 P. M., making the fifty miles in nine hours, eight minutes and fifty-five seconds, averaging over five miles an hour. During the whole day he walked on the outside of the circle, so that he really made considerable over fifty miles in the time mentioned. The rink was crowded with ladies and gentlemen, who greeted Weston with frequent applause. At the close of his walk Mr. Weston walked a half mile backward, and after the time had been announced by Mr. J. Lambert, the managing editor of the Democrat, Mr. Weston entertained a select party of friends, and said that this was probably the last time that he should walk in public in America. He announced his intention of going to Europe immediately, and of going into training and making better time than he had yet made. At eleven o'clock Mr. Weston entertained a select party of friends at the Gladstone House, where he was made by the Bink Band.

HOW THE SPANIARDS MAKE WAR ON WOMEN IN CUBA.

The Havana correspondence of the Cuban paper in New Orleans contains the following: Among the passengers by the steamer Centauros who arrived here on Tuesday last, were many prisoners, male and female. As an extra insult, each of them was linked to a negro, as if this were not an honor enough, the women were handcuffed to the Misses Hidalgo, young ladies of from sixteen to twenty-two years of age, who are both beautiful and elegant. They were taken to the station and handcuffed, in spite of their long kid gloves. To-day the Misses Hidalgo are in the river, just opposite the station. Other young ladies now in the same boat are from Santiago de Cuba. Some who arrived from Trinidad had the smallest of their kind, and were sent to the boat of the Misses Hidalgo, and I give it to you. These young ladies sent a servant to buy some blue ribbon. It appears that she had to buy a yard of ribbon, and the women pressed together the ribbons to make up an insurgent flag, which was to be taken out to the Cuban camp by their father. This flag is not at the station, and is now in the hands of the Misses Hidalgo, and I give it to you. The following named officers were confirmed by the Senate today: Smith, Assessor of the Eighth Virginia District; Greene, Postmaster at Petersburg, Virginia; Slater at Wytheville, Virginia; Rose at Abingdon, Virginia; J. J. McHenry, Macon, Mississippi. Dispatches to Republicans here concede the election of Grover for Governor, but claim the Legislature of Oregon by a majority of 101. The Senate today received the report of the Committee on Education, and the report of the Committee on Commerce. The bill allowing Deputy Census Marshals about fifty per cent increased pay, goes to the President. The currency bill elicited a long debate. The House is in session to-night discussing the subject. The consideration of the Indian appropriation bill was resumed and considered until executive session, after which the bill was adjourned.
