

New Orleans Republican

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE UNITED STATES

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE CITY OF NEW ORLEANS

AUCTION SALES THIS DAY

BY C. E. GIRARDEY & CO., at 11 o'clock, at Merchants and Auctioneers' Exchange, bills receivable and open accounts of sixty bankrupt estates; assistance's sale in bankruptcy.

BY J. DEJAN, JR., at half past 10 o'clock, at Phil Levee, stable, horses, mules, etc., also baggage; at 12 o'clock, at St. Charles Auction Exchange, series of Merchants' Mutual, New Orleans Mutual and Louisiana Mutual Insurance Companies—succession of Edouard Cordeville.

BY R. M. & B. J. MONTGOMERY, at 11 o'clock, at Old Adams Mart, No. 27 Camp street, household furniture, etc.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

THE REPRIVED BAZAR.—The criminal whom we visited a few days ago as mild in demeanor as a Trappist monk, and as tractable as a child. He asserts that the morning of his intended execution has been the happiest of his life; yet withal his optics dilate pleasingly when he hears an opinion hazarded as to the improbability of his ever being executed. Life is sweet!

THE CHARGES AGAINST CAPTAIN JACOBY.—The accusations made by Mr. Blakeley, asserting that accused had made improper advances toward her seven year old daughter, was examined by Recorder Houghton yesterday, and the evidence failed to substantiate the allegations. The child is too young to testify intelligently, but was very positive in stating the manner in which he had toyed with her. This will teach him to be more careful in his conduct hereafter.

SENT DROWN.—R. Curran and Thomas Burns, the fellows who were captured by Captain Gibney when they were in the act of robbing R. Martinez's cigar store, corner Girod and Camp streets, were yesterday sent to the Criminal Court by Recorder Houghton on a charge of burglary. The evidence of Officer McGinn was to the effect that he had found accused in the store, shoes off, preparing to carry away a lot of goods when he obtained assistance and arrested the accused.

ANOTHER BARNEY WILLIAMS.—Mr. Dejan, the square auctioneer, No. 183 Gravier street, sold a lot of furniture to Barney, and received in part payment a draft on O'Brien & Hall, which was a fraud. The case will have an airing before Recorder Houghton on the twentieth.

OFFICIAL MORTUARY REPORT.—Dr. S. C. Russell, Secretary of the Board of Health, reports the following list of interments in the different cemeteries of this city during the week ending Sunday morning last: Total interments, 175. Of these 11 were stillborn, 20 died of consumption, 21 of small-pox, 17 of pneumonia, 7 of dysentery, 5 of cholera infantum, 5 of inflammation of the bowels, 5 of debility, 5 of infantile marasmus, 5 of heart disease, 5 of tris-nascentium, 5 of convulsions, 5 of meningitis, 4 of measles, 4 of congestive, 4 of remittent and 3 of intermittent fevers, 3 of cancer, 3 of dropsy, 3 of gastro enteritis, 3 of inflammation of stomach, 3 of premature birth, 2 of apoplexy, 2 of bronchitis, 2 diarrheas, 2 were drowned, and 42 died of other diseases.

One hundred were males, and 75 females; 26 were white, 54 black, and 25 mulattoes. Forty-seven were under 1 year of age, 26 from 1 to 5, 4 from 5 to 10, 5 from 10 to 20, 21 from 20 to 30, 9 from 30 to 40, 23 from 40 to 50, 11 from 50 to 60, 11 from 60 to 70, 6 from 70 to 80, and 2 unknown.

One hundred and thirty-two were born in the United States, 12 in Ireland, 9 in Germany, 13 in other countries, and 9 not stated.

Of the above, 25 were from the public institutions; 19 were interred on Coroner's certificates. Of the 20 deaths from small-pox, 2 were white and 18 colored persons.

THE KIDNAPING MYSTERY.—The most untrusting exertions on the part of the affected parents of the little girl who was recently abducted from Howard street has failed to give a clue to the mystery. Mr. Digby was offered a reward of $500 for her recovery. It is not a little singular that the police have, so far, been unable to afford the least assistance in this case.

NOT GUILTY.—About two months ago J. A. Quintore came back to this city and surrendered himself, as he had been charged with the killing of Major Frank Manny, at Vicksburg, Mississippi, in June, 1869. Yesterday his trial took place in the Criminal Court, and the evidence elicited was not as full as has already been published by us. The jury was not out long when they returned with a verdict of not guilty.

DEATH OF AN EX-ALDERMAN.—Sunday morning we stated that Robert Wynne had met with a misfortune, in accidentally having one of his feet crushed by a wheel of the Pontchartrain cars. The injury was so serious that it was necessary to amputate his foot, but the operation was too much for his condition, and he died last Sunday, fifty-one years old.

AN ESCAPED CONVICT CAPTURED.—Recently Captain Badger received information from two parties, in Illinois, concerning a person who had escaped from the State Penitentiary, furnishing a detailed description. It was stated that accused, variously called Billy Forrester, Frank Campbell, Billy Johnson and Frank Harding, had been convicted and sentenced to a term of thirteen years for the crime of manslaughter, but had escaped after serving a portion of his time. It was supposed that he had come to New Orleans, and the supposition was correct.

About two weeks ago he arrived here, but kept quiet until a few days ago, when he grew tired of retirement. A ride down the shell road was a luxury that threw him. While in the act of stepping into a buggy to go out he was "tapped" by Captain Badger's officers, Malone and Pearson, and when informed of their wants he tried the use of offended dignity, then bravado and then to escape, but the officers took him. When before Recorder Houghton he pleaded not guilty, and gave bonds $5000 to answer on the twentieth. He then gave one of his acquaintances an order for his property, over seven thousand dollars in cash and a fine gold watch.

While this was going on, another telegram was received requesting that accused be held by all means, as the Governor of Illinois would forward a requisition with an officer. The man with a number of names had then left the courtroom, but Captain Badger soon afterward saw him in Carondeal street, and called to him, but accused broke and ran like a race horse, the Captain after him. He was finally captured, and locked up in the first precinct street. The young man, Foley, was taken to the lars at this time, and then called on the Recorder to withdraw the bail, he saying that he had been deceived into the signing. The wife of accused, of an excellent Boston family, called, to see him, and for the first time became aware of what kind of a husband she had. We think he married her since his escape from the penitentiary. He is represented as a very desperate man, but had he made a second attempt to escape, it is said his body might have been used for a slave afterwards. His attorney will to-day apply for a writ of habeas corpus. He had about one thousand dollars on his person when arrested.

BOARD OF POLICE COMMISSIONERS.—At a meeting of the Board of Metropolitan Police, held last Friday, Hon. O. J. Dunn presiding, present, all the members, charges against certain members of the force were tried and disposed of, as follows:

Special patrolman J. B. Fox, fourth precinct. Charge, under the influence of liquor while on duty; pleaded guilty, and dismissed the service.

Patrolman J. Hahn, sixth precinct. Charge, absent without leave; pleaded guilty, and fined two days' pay.

Special Patrolman John Fogarty, fifth precinct. Charge, neglecting to walk his beat; guilty, and fined one day's pay.

Special Patrolman Bernard Dempsy, fifth precinct. Charge, intoxication; guilty, dismissed the service.

Patrolman E. Faysant, third precinct. Charge, absent from duty without leave; pleaded guilty, and fined one day's pay.

Patrolman E. Farrar, third precinct. Charge, absent without leave; guilty, and fined one day's pay.

Patrolman L. Mirabin, third precinct. Charge, absent from his beat without leave; guilty, fined two days' pay.

Patrolman T. Jerome, second precinct. Charge, asleep on his beat; pleaded guilty, and was fined five days' pay.

Patrolman M. J. Kirk, second precinct. Charge, absent without leave since May 29; guilty; dismissed the service.

At a meeting of the Board of Metropolitan Police, held yesterday, Hon. O. J. Dunn, President, in the chair. Present: Commissioners George, Baynal, Burbank, Robinson and Administrator Price. The following charges against members of the force were tried and disposed of:

James Bradley, third precinct, new trial. Charge, intoxication. The former decision, James Bradley, fifth precinct, was reconsidered, and he was fined five days' pay.

T. Flynn, clerk and operator, sixth precinct. Charge, disobedience of orders; fined one day's pay.

E. Ward and E. Simonds, third precinct. Charge, refusing to make an arrest; guilty; E. Ward fined one day's pay, E. Simonds fined five days' pay.

W. N. Egan, fourth precinct. Charge, asleep on his beat; guilty and fined five days' pay.

G. W. Flagg, river precinct. Charge, immoral conduct; guilty, and dismissed the service.

F. Flaiger, sixth precinct. Charge, failing to answer the Corporal's call; guilty, and fined one day's pay.

copy books to the audience, and the specimens of handwriting are very commendable indeed. Interspersed with the exercises were a number of declamations by the pupils, who, without exception, acquitted themselves creditably. The most interesting piece was the dying speech of Robert Emmet, spoken by Master C. Reilly, while Master H. Smith was the most effective in gesture and distinctness of enunciation. The entertainment was enlivened with occasional musical performances by St. Mary's College Band. The second piece played was very fine, consisting of a melange of airs from "Les Huguenots" and "La Fille du Regiment."

The whole program was very successful, and undoubtedly reflects the highest credit on the various teachers. St. John's male school, as is generally known is located on Dryades street, connected with the Rev. Jeremiah Moyihan's church. It was founded by that gentleman some twenty years ago, and has at the present time about three hundred pupils.

A BEAR.—Mrs. Fanny Coomes, residing on the corner of Poydras and Dorgenois streets, has a live bear tied up in her house, to the great terror of the neighborhood. The people in the vicinity report the animal a nuisance, and say that he is starved and will be very dangerous, in consequence, when he gets loose. The bear will be investigated.

FALL IN THE STATION HOUSE.—James McGifford, a clerk, was arrested at eleven o'clock last night, on Canal street, on the charge of drunkenness. He was put into a cell, and attempting to climb to the top bunk, fell on his head and was seriously injured. Police-surgeon Mackay was sent for.

A SILENTHOUSE ITEM.—At the Crescent Slaughterhouse Company's works, Jean Berline, a Gascon butcher, who does a large business in supplying small meat dealers, killed forty-five head of beefs, besides a number of calves, sheep and hogs. The value of this one day's killing is near two thousand dollars. Mr. Berlin employs ten journeymen in his slaughtering operations. He killed about the same number and kind of animals yesterday. In addition to this a large amount of work in slaughtering was done yesterday.

RECORDER WEBER'S COURT.—Mary Walker, charged by Officer W. W. Jackson with violating a city ordinance, was fined five dollars.

Daniel Egan was again up, but this time the case had to be continued, as his wit needs were not present. This playing fast and loose will fail, as the Recorder is determined to see what there is in the case, and "Daniel" may as well come at once to "Judgment."

Della Pearson, for having a stolen ring in her possession, was discharged, she not knowing it was stolen.

James Gleason, for violating a city ordinance, was requested to deposit a V to the credit of the exchequer of the city, but failing to appreciate such a joke, has taken up his abode in the Parish Prison for ten days.

Office Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 129 Carondeal street, New Orleans, June 13, 1870.—Members of the Association, who were absent from the meeting held on the 11th inst., are requested to attend the next meeting, to be held on the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., at the office of the Association, No. 129 Carondeal street.

Office Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 129 Carondeal street, New Orleans, June 13, 1870.—Members of the Association, who were absent from the meeting held on the 11th inst., are requested to attend the next meeting, to be held on the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., at the office of the Association, No. 129 Carondeal street.

Office Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 129 Carondeal street, New Orleans, June 13, 1870.—Members of the Association, who were absent from the meeting held on the 11th inst., are requested to attend the next meeting, to be held on the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., at the office of the Association, No. 129 Carondeal street.

Office Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 129 Carondeal street, New Orleans, June 13, 1870.—Members of the Association, who were absent from the meeting held on the 11th inst., are requested to attend the next meeting, to be held on the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., at the office of the Association, No. 129 Carondeal street.

Office Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 129 Carondeal street, New Orleans, June 13, 1870.—Members of the Association, who were absent from the meeting held on the 11th inst., are requested to attend the next meeting, to be held on the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., at the office of the Association, No. 129 Carondeal street.

Office Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 129 Carondeal street, New Orleans, June 13, 1870.—Members of the Association, who were absent from the meeting held on the 11th inst., are requested to attend the next meeting, to be held on the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., at the office of the Association, No. 129 Carondeal street.

Office Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 129 Carondeal street, New Orleans, June 13, 1870.—Members of the Association, who were absent from the meeting held on the 11th inst., are requested to attend the next meeting, to be held on the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., at the office of the Association, No. 129 Carondeal street.

Office Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 129 Carondeal street, New Orleans, June 13, 1870.—Members of the Association, who were absent from the meeting held on the 11th inst., are requested to attend the next meeting, to be held on the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., at the office of the Association, No. 129 Carondeal street.

Office Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 129 Carondeal street, New Orleans, June 13, 1870.—Members of the Association, who were absent from the meeting held on the 11th inst., are requested to attend the next meeting, to be held on the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., at the office of the Association, No. 129 Carondeal street.

wonder, then, that our Metropolitan should exact a certificate from the live stock inspector, which is only ten cents more added to the people's tax for each and every steer. We can put up with everything. No use to growl and fret about it. We will not let you in.

Let us bow down our heads, remembering the past and ask ourselves, "Liberty, sweet liberty, where hast thou fled." A. JEHLEN, Butcher, Magazine Market.

Office Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 129 Carondeal street, New Orleans, June 13, 1870.—Members of the Association, who were absent from the meeting held on the 11th inst., are requested to attend the next meeting, to be held on the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., at the office of the Association, No. 129 Carondeal street.

Office Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 129 Carondeal street, New Orleans, June 13, 1870.—Members of the Association, who were absent from the meeting held on the 11th inst., are requested to attend the next meeting, to be held on the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., at the office of the Association, No. 129 Carondeal street.

Office Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 129 Carondeal street, New Orleans, June 13, 1870.—Members of the Association, who were absent from the meeting held on the 11th inst., are requested to attend the next meeting, to be held on the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., at the office of the Association, No. 129 Carondeal street.

Office Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 129 Carondeal street, New Orleans, June 13, 1870.—Members of the Association, who were absent from the meeting held on the 11th inst., are requested to attend the next meeting, to be held on the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., at the office of the Association, No. 129 Carondeal street.

Office Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 129 Carondeal street, New Orleans, June 13, 1870.—Members of the Association, who were absent from the meeting held on the 11th inst., are requested to attend the next meeting, to be held on the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., at the office of the Association, No. 129 Carondeal street.

Office Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 129 Carondeal street, New Orleans, June 13, 1870.—Members of the Association, who were absent from the meeting held on the 11th inst., are requested to attend the next meeting, to be held on the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., at the office of the Association, No. 129 Carondeal street.

Office Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 129 Carondeal street, New Orleans, June 13, 1870.—Members of the Association, who were absent from the meeting held on the 11th inst., are requested to attend the next meeting, to be held on the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., at the office of the Association, No. 129 Carondeal street.

Office Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 129 Carondeal street, New Orleans, June 13, 1870.—Members of the Association, who were absent from the meeting held on the 11th inst., are requested to attend the next meeting, to be held on the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., at the office of the Association, No. 129 Carondeal street.

Office Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 129 Carondeal street, New Orleans, June 13, 1870.—Members of the Association, who were absent from the meeting held on the 11th inst., are requested to attend the next meeting, to be held on the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., at the office of the Association, No. 129 Carondeal street.

Office Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 129 Carondeal street, New Orleans, June 13, 1870.—Members of the Association, who were absent from the meeting held on the 11th inst., are requested to attend the next meeting, to be held on the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., at the office of the Association, No. 129 Carondeal street.

Office Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 129 Carondeal street, New Orleans, June 13, 1870.—Members of the Association, who were absent from the meeting held on the 11th inst., are requested to attend the next meeting, to be held on the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., at the office of the Association, No. 129 Carondeal street.

Office Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 129 Carondeal street, New Orleans, June 13, 1870.—Members of the Association, who were absent from the meeting held on the 11th inst., are requested to attend the next meeting, to be held on the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., at the office of the Association, No. 129 Carondeal street.

Office Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 129 Carondeal street, New Orleans, June 13, 1870.—Members of the Association, who were absent from the meeting held on the 11th inst., are requested to attend the next meeting, to be held on the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., at the office of the Association, No. 129 Carondeal street.

Office Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 129 Carondeal street, New Orleans, June 13, 1870.—Members of the Association, who were absent from the meeting held on the 11th inst., are requested to attend the next meeting, to be held on the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., at the office of the Association, No. 129 Carondeal street.

Office Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 129 Carondeal street, New Orleans, June 13, 1870.—Members of the Association, who were absent from the meeting held on the 11th inst., are requested to attend the next meeting, to be held on the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., at the office of the Association, No. 129 Carondeal street.

Office Mutual Aid and Benevolent Life Insurance Association of Louisiana, No. 129 Carondeal street, New Orleans, June 13, 1870.—Members of the Association, who were absent from the meeting held on the 11th inst., are requested to attend the next meeting, to be held on the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., at the office of the Association, No. 129 Carondeal street.

POLITICAL NOTICES.

Charles O. Bessard, Metropolitan Police Precinct, New Orleans, June 10, 1870.—To the Honorable Board of Police Commissioners, Gentlemen: A series of charges preferred against me under the guise of a protest, bearing date June 6, and spread upon the minutes of your body, signed by Police Commissioner George, having come to my knowledge, and the charges themselves having a tendency to injure my character as a gentleman, and worthless as an officer, if permitted to pass silently, I am constrained to reply to them. To the Board of Police Commissioners, I have never asked for promotion at their hands, trusting they would recognize my merits in their own good time, and I have not expected their favor from any other motive than my efficiency as an officer. I have relied upon a faithful discharge of my duty as the sole basis of my political party, and have no kindly exhibition in my behalf.

I have never intruded politics into my position as a member of the police. Sedulously avoiding partisan favor, I have tried to act impartially toward all comers, and in doing so, I have not only enjoyed the respect of my own honest political convictions, but I have ever led a squad of policemen to having even Union citizens, white and black, as Mechanics' Institute, on the thirtieth of July, 1869, the charge is utterly untrue, without a shadow of foundation, and I do not intend to be troubled with it. I have never interfered to prevent bloodshed, but I assert that the lives of Hon. Michael Healy and Mr. W. H. Jackson, were saved by me that day. I did not lead a squad of men, nor did I fire a shot at a Union man, white or colored, or at any other person on that day, or permit any body else to do so, when I had the power to prevent it; but did all I could to preserve the peace and prevent the shedding of blood. I went there as an officer, with no knowledge of what was to occur, and certainly with no intention or design to participate in a riot or destroy life or limb.

I have never intruded politics into my position as a member of the police. Sedulously avoiding partisan favor, I have tried to act impartially toward all comers, and in doing so, I have not only enjoyed the respect of my own honest political convictions, but I have ever led a squad of policemen to having even Union citizens, white and black, as Mechanics' Institute, on the thirtieth of July, 1869, the charge is utterly untrue, without a shadow of foundation, and I do not intend to be troubled with it. I have never interfered to prevent bloodshed, but I assert that the lives of Hon. Michael Healy and Mr. W. H. Jackson, were saved by me that day. I did not lead a squad of men, nor did I fire a shot at a Union man, white or colored, or at any other person on that day, or permit any body else to do so, when I had the power to prevent it; but did all I could to preserve the peace and prevent the shedding of blood. I went there as an officer, with no knowledge of what was to occur, and certainly with no intention or design to participate in a riot or destroy life or limb.

I have never intruded politics into my position as a member of the police. Sedulously avoiding partisan favor, I have tried to act impartially toward all comers, and in doing so, I have not only enjoyed the respect of my own honest political convictions, but I have ever led a squad of policemen to having even Union citizens, white and black, as Mechanics' Institute, on the thirtieth of July, 1869, the charge is utterly untrue, without a shadow of foundation, and I do not intend to be troubled with it. I have never interfered to prevent bloodshed, but I assert that the lives of Hon. Michael Healy and Mr. W. H. Jackson, were saved by me that day. I did not lead a squad of men, nor did I fire a shot at a Union man, white or colored, or at any other person on that day, or permit any body else to do so, when I had the power to prevent it; but did all I could to preserve the peace and prevent the shedding of blood. I went there as an officer, with no knowledge of what was to occur, and certainly with no intention or design to participate in a riot or destroy life or limb.

I have never intruded politics into my position as a member of the police. Sedulously avoiding partisan favor, I have tried to act impartially toward all comers, and in doing so, I have not only enjoyed the respect of my own honest political convictions, but I have ever led a squad of policemen to having even Union citizens, white and black, as Mechanics' Institute, on the thirtieth of July, 1869, the charge is utterly untrue, without a shadow of foundation, and I do not intend to be troubled with it. I have never interfered to prevent bloodshed, but I assert that the lives of Hon. Michael Healy and Mr. W. H. Jackson, were saved by me that day. I did not lead a squad of men, nor did I fire a shot at a Union man, white or colored, or at any other person on that day, or permit any body else to do so, when I had the power to prevent it; but did all I could to preserve the peace and prevent the shedding of blood. I went there as an officer, with no knowledge of what was to occur, and certainly with no intention or design to participate in a riot or destroy life or limb.

I have never intruded politics into my position as a member of the police. Sedulously avoiding partisan favor, I have tried to act impartially toward all comers, and in doing so, I have not only enjoyed the respect of my own honest political convictions, but I have ever led a squad of policemen to having even Union citizens, white and black, as Mechanics' Institute, on the thirtieth of July, 1869, the charge is utterly untrue, without a shadow of foundation, and I do not intend to be troubled with it. I have never interfered to prevent bloodshed, but I assert that the lives of Hon. Michael Healy and Mr. W. H. Jackson, were saved by me that day. I did not lead a squad of men, nor did I fire a shot at a Union man, white or colored, or at any other person on that day, or permit any body else to do so, when I had the power to prevent it; but did all I could to preserve the peace and prevent the shedding of blood. I went there as an officer, with no knowledge of what was to occur, and certainly with no intention or design to participate in a riot or destroy life or limb.

I have never intruded politics into my position as a member of the police. Sedulously avoiding partisan favor, I have tried to act impartially toward all comers, and in doing so, I have not only enjoyed the respect of my own honest political convictions, but I have ever led a squad of policemen to having even Union citizens, white and black, as Mechanics' Institute, on the thirtieth of July, 1869, the charge is utterly untrue, without a shadow of foundation, and I do not intend to be troubled with it. I have never interfered to prevent bloodshed, but I assert that the lives of Hon. Michael Healy and Mr. W. H. Jackson, were saved by me that day. I did not lead a squad of men, nor did I fire a shot at a Union man, white or colored, or at any other person on that day, or permit any body else to do so, when I had the power to prevent it; but did all I could to preserve the peace and prevent the shedding of blood. I went there as an officer, with no knowledge of what was to occur, and certainly with no intention or design to participate in a riot or destroy life or limb.

I have never intruded politics into my position as a member of the police. Sedulously avoiding partisan favor, I have tried to act impartially toward all comers, and in doing so, I have not only enjoyed the respect of my own honest political convictions, but I have ever led a squad of policemen to having even Union citizens, white and black, as Mechanics' Institute, on the thirtieth of July, 1869, the charge is utterly untrue, without a shadow of foundation, and I do not intend to be troubled with it. I have never interfered to prevent bloodshed, but I assert that the lives of Hon. Michael Healy and Mr. W. H. Jackson, were saved by me that day. I did not lead a squad of men, nor did I fire a shot at a Union man, white or colored, or at any other person on that day, or permit any body else to do so, when I had the power to prevent it; but did all I could to preserve the peace and prevent the shedding of blood. I went there as an officer, with no knowledge of what was to occur, and certainly with no intention or design to participate in a riot or destroy life or limb.

I have never intruded politics into my position as a member of the police. Sedulously avoiding partisan favor, I have tried to act impartially toward all comers, and in doing so, I have not only enjoyed the respect of my own honest political convictions, but I have ever led a squad of policemen to having even Union citizens, white and black, as Mechanics' Institute, on the thirtieth of July, 1869, the charge is utterly untrue, without a shadow of foundation, and I do not intend to be troubled with it. I have never interfered to prevent bloodshed, but I assert that the lives of Hon. Michael Healy and Mr. W. H. Jackson, were saved by me that day. I did not lead a squad of men, nor did I fire a shot at a Union man, white or colored, or at any other person on that day, or permit any body else to do so, when I had the power to prevent it; but did all I could to preserve the peace and prevent the shedding of blood. I went there as an officer, with no knowledge of what was to occur, and certainly with no intention or design to participate in a riot or destroy life or limb.

I have never intruded politics into my position as a member of the police. Sedulously avoiding partisan favor, I have tried to act impartially toward all comers, and in doing so, I have not only enjoyed the respect of my own honest political convictions, but I have ever led a squad of policemen to having even Union citizens, white and black, as Mechanics' Institute, on the thirtieth of July, 1869, the charge is utterly untrue, without a shadow of foundation, and I do not intend to be troubled with it. I have never interfered to prevent bloodshed, but I assert that the lives of Hon. Michael Healy and Mr. W. H. Jackson, were saved by me that day. I did not lead a squad of men, nor did I fire a shot at a Union man, white or colored, or at any other person on that day, or permit any body else to do so, when I had the power to prevent it; but did all I could to preserve the peace and prevent the shedding of blood. I went there as an officer, with no knowledge of what was to occur, and certainly with no intention or design to participate in a riot or destroy life or limb.

I have never intruded politics into my position as a member of the police. Sedulously avoiding partisan favor, I have tried to act impartially toward all comers, and in doing so, I have not only enjoyed the respect of my own honest political convictions, but I have ever led a squad of policemen to having even Union citizens, white and black, as Mechanics' Institute, on the thirtieth of July, 1869, the charge is utterly untrue, without a shadow of foundation, and I do not intend to be troubled with it. I have never interfered to prevent bloodshed, but I assert that the lives of Hon. Michael Healy and Mr. W. H. Jackson, were saved by me that day. I did not lead a squad of men, nor did I fire a shot at a Union man, white or colored, or at any other person on that day, or permit any body else to do so, when I had the power to prevent it; but did all I could to preserve the peace and prevent the shedding of blood. I went there as an officer, with no knowledge of what was to occur, and certainly with no intention or design to participate in a riot or destroy life or limb.

I have never intruded politics into my position as a member of the police. Sedulously avoiding partisan favor, I have tried to act impartially toward all comers, and in doing so, I have not only enjoyed the respect of my own honest political convictions, but I have ever led a squad of policemen to having even Union citizens, white and black, as Mechanics' Institute, on the thirtieth of July, 1869, the charge is utterly untrue, without a shadow of foundation, and I do not intend to be troubled with it. I have never interfered to prevent bloodshed, but I assert that the lives of Hon. Michael Healy and Mr. W. H. Jackson, were saved by me that day. I did not lead a squad of men, nor did I fire a shot at a Union man, white or colored, or at any other person on that day, or permit any body else to do so, when I had the power to prevent it; but did all I could to preserve the peace and prevent the shedding of blood. I went there as an officer, with no knowledge of what was to occur, and certainly with no intention or design to participate in a riot or destroy life or limb.

I have never intruded politics into my position as a member of the police. Sedulously avoiding partisan favor, I have tried to act impartially toward all comers, and in doing so, I have not only enjoyed the respect of my own honest political convictions, but I have ever led a squad of policemen to having even Union citizens, white and black, as Mechanics' Institute, on the thirtieth of July, 1869, the charge is utterly untrue, without a shadow of foundation, and I do not intend to be troubled with it. I have never interfered to prevent bloodshed, but I assert that the lives of Hon. Michael Healy and Mr. W. H. Jackson, were saved by me that day. I did not lead a squad of men, nor did I fire a shot at a Union man, white or colored, or at any other person on that day, or permit any body else to do so, when I had the power to prevent it; but did all I could to preserve the peace and prevent the shedding of blood. I went there as an officer, with no knowledge of what was to occur, and certainly with no intention or design to participate in a riot or destroy life or limb.

I have never intruded politics into my position as a member of the police. Sedulously avoiding partisan favor, I have tried to act impartially toward all comers, and in doing so, I have not only enjoyed the respect of my own honest political convictions, but I have ever led a squad of policemen to having even Union citizens, white and black, as Mechanics' Institute, on the thirtieth of July, 1869, the charge is utterly untrue, without a shadow of foundation, and I do not intend to be troubled with it. I have never interfered to prevent bloodshed, but I assert that the lives of Hon. Michael Healy and Mr. W. H. Jackson, were saved by me that day. I did not lead a squad of men, nor did I fire a shot at a Union man, white or colored, or at any other person on that day, or permit any body else to do so, when I had the power to prevent it; but did all I could to preserve the peace and prevent the shedding of blood. I went there as an officer, with no knowledge of what was to occur, and certainly with no intention or design to participate in a riot or destroy life or limb.

I have never intruded politics into my position as a member of the police. Sedulously avoiding partisan favor, I have tried to act impartially toward all comers, and in doing so, I have not only enjoyed the respect of my own honest political convictions, but I have ever led a squad of policemen to having even Union citizens, white and black, as Mechanics' Institute, on the thirtieth of July, 1869, the charge is utterly untrue, without a shadow of foundation, and I do not intend to be troubled with it. I have never interfered to prevent bloodshed, but I assert that the lives of Hon. Michael Healy and Mr. W. H. Jackson, were saved by me that day. I did not lead a squad of men, nor did I fire a shot at