OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE UNITED STATES OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF NEW ORLEANS

AUCTION SALES THIS DAY. BY E. M. & J. MONTGOMERY, at 11 o'clock, at Old Auction Mart, No. 77 Camp street, household furniture, etc. at 12 o'clock, at St. Charles Auction Exchange, three lots of ground and two-story residences, Nos. 126 and 128 Prytania street—succession of John Holland.

Local Intelligence.

OFFICIAL MORTUARY REPORT.—According to the report of Dr. S. C. Russell, Secretary of the Board of Health, the whole number of interments in this city last week was 151. Males 78, females 59. Seventeen died of consumption, 1 of bilious fever, 5 of congestive fever, 3 of pernicious fever, 3 of intermittent fever, 1 of brain fever, 1 of purpura, 2 of remittent fever, 2 of scarlet fever, 3 of malarial fever, 1 of typhoid fever, 5 of lockjaw, 3 of pneumonia and 4 of small-pox. Eighteen were interred on coroner's certificates and 21 from public institutions.

THE FIRE ON SUNDAY.—About a quarter twelve o'clock on Sunday, a fire originated in the first story of the cotton seed oil manufactory of A. A. Maginnis, Nos. 115 and 117 Magazine street, which terminated in the total destruction of the building, with all its contents. The stock was insured for $40,000 in the Atlantic, Crescent, and Merchants' Insurance Companies. The building, owned by Mr. Alexander Norton, was insured, but the amount not ascertained. The adjoining building, occupied by Mr. B. J. West as a hardware store, was damaged by water. The cause of the fire is not known. A large amount of oil has been paid out of the gutters and disposed of to soap manufacturers.

BRIEF MENTION.—At three o'clock yesterday morning Mr. Charles Lathigue's house was entered by burglars and robbed. The robbery was a small one, and the house is situated on the corner of Live Oak and Milan streets.

Mr. J. A. Moffitt's house was entered at 2 A. M. yesterday. He lives in a quiet place on Marengo street, near Camp. The thieves carried off guitars, clothing and other articles, valued at fifty dollars.

Thomas Reed is in a peck of trouble. First, he tried to shoot his wife, and afterward he attempted to kill his child. He is in the calaboose, and will have a chance to explain his difficulties to Recorder Houghton.

Fat Shaughnessy tried to whip a woman and is arrested for assault and battery. Rose Alexander, convicted in Gretan for roveny, made her case worse by attempting to hold the policeman at bay with a revolver.

All the fashion of Basin street came up before the Recorder yesterday, and were released on ten dollars each.

CELEBRATION.—Yesterday afternoon Louisiana Fire Co. No. 10 celebrated their thirty-sixth anniversary. The celebration came off at Mignel's, Lake End. A splendid band of music and a large number of friends made the affair a success in every respect.

BYWARD LODGE No. 4, KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.—Last night about eleven o'clock this office was surprised by a large bowl of punch, with which our editorial and typographic corps regaled themselves to their heart's content. The punch was accompanied by a committee on refreshments, consisting of Messrs. F. A. Johnson, John E. Garleple, M. H. Nicoll, T. J. Farrell and Paul N. Abadie.

The occasion was the installation of the officers of Byward Lodge for the ensuing six months term, which ceremony had been just performed by William E. Fitzgerald, Esq., Deputy Grand Chancellor for Louisiana. The following is the list of officers elected and installed: W. C., Fred A. Johnson; V. C., Peter De Laney; F. S., Moses Heintzfelder; R. S. and F. S., John E. Garleple; Banker, G. F. Plak; W. G., M. H. Nicoll; S. G., Frank Flaigan.

FIRST DISTRICT COURT.—Dan Eagan, charged, together with the well known thief, Billy Little, alias Billy Sullivan (who jumped his bail), with robbing Mr. Joseph Sambas on the evening of the sixth of April, near Magazine Market, of a pocketbook containing $175, by garrotting him, was acquitted. Little has not been arrested.

The Grand Jury returned not a true bill in the case of Hermann Seitzer, who was charged with manslaughter in cutting on the nineteenth of June, Frank Brown, the late keeper of the City Park Exchange, who died of lockjaw from the wounds.

CASINE EVENING.—A crowd was assembled, last evening, at the corner of Chartres and Conti streets, to be sorry over a large and splendid Newfoundland dog, that had been hurt by contact with a passing buggy. Real misfortune invariably begets real sympathy, and the folks around—particularly the little fellows—were as sorry for poor canis as if he had been one of their own breed. The large, warm Irish heart of the patrolman was stirred within him in behalf of the poor animal. He made earnest inquiries, saying he would keep the dog from further harm until his home was found, his injuries not being fatal. Long life to the officer, and more power to his name. The case was evidently in good hands, and our reporter left the officer and crowd engaged in their kindly work. Fortunately the owner of the dog reads the REPUBLICAN. It so, he will get a hint of the whereabouts of his missing animal.

FORTUNATE MISFORTUNES.—Mr. E. P. Sted, Deputy United States Marshal, residing in Algiers, is a young gentleman who seems to have peculiar good luck in his mishaps. On Sunday afternoon, a fortnight ago, while handling a revolver, it went off at the wrong time and in the wrong direction, sending a ball through his arm between the wrist and elbow, narrowly missing the main artery. Last Sunday afternoon, the arm being sufficiently well to enable him to do duty as freeman, (he is a member of Washington Fire Company, of Algiers), he went to the fire at Mr. Maginnis' oil factory, at the corner of Magazine and Girod streets. While busily engaged in the upper part of the building he fell to the ground from a sufficiently dangerous height, not far from the top of the house. He alighted on terra firma, striking the ground with hands and feet a la Jella. He was for some time insensible, and had to be carried home. Strange to say, he escaped with a trifling contusion on one leg and slight sprains of both wrists. Yesterday evening he was walking around the streets of Algiers looking as if he could stand several more serious accidents.

RECORDER WEBER'S COURT.—Ellen Ward has gone to the Parish Prison for ten days in default of fine for violating city ordinance 641.

Jerry Taylor, charged with violating city ordinance 641, was condemned to pay five dollars, or go ten days to the Parish Prison. Joseph August was up for a like offense and dealt with in the same manner.

John Menk, charged with violating city ordinance 638, was fined five dollars, or ten days Parish Prison.

Alek Piper, charged with refusing to assist a police officer to make an arrest, when called on, was discharged with a lecture.

Joseph A. Rogers paid five dollars for being drunk and disturbing the peace.

John Kuiser furnished bail to answer a charge by Bidget Kelly of insult, abuse and threats.

SHOOTING.—Yesterday morning, about eleven o'clock, a difficulty occurred between a man named Gns. Richards, keeper of an icehouse on Dryades, between Melpomene and Thalia streets, and a man named Charles Latty, which resulted in Latty receiving two shots in the head, wounding him dangerously, if not fatally. The shooting was done at Richards' icehouse. The wounded man was conveyed to his residence on Bernadotte street, between Constance and Laurel streets. Richards was arrested and taken to the First Precinct Station.

BOARD OF POLICE COMMISSIONERS.—At a meeting of the Board of Metropolitan Police, held yesterday, Hon. O. J. Dunn presiding, present Commissioners George, Rymal, Isabelle and Burbank, the following charges against members of the force were tried:

J. McCartney, first precinct. Charge, sitting down while on duty; guilty, and fined two days.

H. W. Edwards, second precinct. Charge, asleep on his beat; guilty, and fined five days.

Ludville Gunnell, second precinct. Two charges, asleep while on duty; guilty, and fined two days.

John Bennett, second precinct. Charge, asleep on his beat; guilty, and fined eight days.

W. W. Edwards, second precinct. Charge, absent from duty; guilty, and fined five days.

M. J. Kirk, second precinct. Charge, conduct unbecoming an officer; guilty, dismissed the service.

H. W. Edwards and H. C. Yergler, fifth precinct. Charge, asleep on their beats; guilty, and fined five days each.

O. Spear, fifth precinct. Charge, absent from duty; guilty, and fined five days.

George D. Wright, river precinct. Charge, neglect of duty; guilty, and fined one day's pay.

Thomas Hart, river precinct. Charge, intoxication; guilty, and fined five days' pay.

PHIL SHERIDAN IRISH REPUBLICAN CLUB. Owing to the pressure on our columns last week, we were unable to give a notice of the meeting of this influential political organization, which was held at Mechanics' Institute, on last Thursday evening. The proceedings were very parliamentary, and the debates interesting. Among the most noticeable features was the report of the committee, which indorsed the action of Colonel William Roy's instructions to one of his deputies. We were very much impressed with the eloquent and pointed speeches of Major Walsh, Judge H. C. Dibble and Colonel Charles W. Lowell, who made remarks calculated to bring thousands to the ranks of the party of progress during the coming campaign. If this patriotic club keeps increasing the way it has done during the last three months, it will have to occupy the hall of the House of Representatives, as the Senate Chamber is crowded to excess every meeting night. Success to our Irish Republicans.

CHRISTIAN REPUBLICAN ASSOCIATION.—A convention of this association began yesterday at the old Baptist Church. It was called to order by Rev. Esau Carter. Rev. Charles Satchell was elected temporary president, and Captain W. L. Evans temporary secretary. After the singing of a hymn by the members, the Rev. Charles Satchell read a chapter from the Bible. Prayer by the Rev. George W. Steptoe. The secretary read the address to the Christian Republicans of Louisiana. Rev. J. F. Winston moved that a committee of five be appointed on credentials, which was carried. The president appointed the following gentlemen as such committee: Rev. Madison J. Vance, chairman; Rev. J. F. Winston, Rev. William Moody, Rev. Evans Green, and Rev. Dennis Burrell.

UPON motion the name of Mr. J. W. Menard, was offered to be stricken from the list of the committee.

Rev. Madison J. Vance, was called upon to explain the reasons of his having published a card that he did not authorize his name to be used on the address. The gentleman did so to the satisfaction of the convention and it was ordered that his name be retained, and that it be considered that he is in harmony with the association. This matter was debated by Messrs. Burrell, Banks, Winston, Carter and Cox. Mr. Vance moved that when this convention adjourn, it be to meet again this morning, at eleven o'clock. Members of the convention were invited to meet at seven o'clock last evening, to hear addresses of several speakers on the cause of the Christian Republican Association. Adjourned.

VETERAN BATTERY.—We learn from Mr. O'Brien, the popular secretary of the Irish Republican Club, that there is a movement on foot to organize an independent battery, to be composed of honorably discharged veterans of the late war, the command of which will be given to Colonel William Roy.

RAID ON A PRIVATE HOUSE.—One of the most notorious of the many facilities to secret vice came to grief on Sunday evening, at the Albany, where which Worthington, the "Hole in the Wall" on Basin street, between Customhouse and Bienville streets, was rather more than astonished at about nine o'clock by Officer Slabowski, who entered without knocking and arrested eight individuals who were doing the things they ought not to have done.

It was a most disgraceful scene, for two of those arrested were married men, who had left their homes and gone to this place to revel in sin. They were all locked up, and in due time were duly marshalled before Recorder Stas. The modesty of the modest women induced them to appear deeply veiled, but did not save them from the fines imposed by the Recorder, of which the proprietress of the establishment got the lion's share. It is a bad business, but it is hoped it will result in a lesson to all concerned, that the sanctities of society and the sacred obligations of morality can not always be violated with impunity.

SCHULTZ AND MULLER. The German Republican Verein Club, presided over by Mr. F. Spranley, is one of the very best German organizations, and is composed of some of our most substantial and reliable German fellow-citizens. It recently elected Messrs. Emley, West and Bonzano its honorary members, a compliment, in our opinion, well-deserved and creditable to both sides. However, this or something else, has excited the wit of the Schultz and Muller department of our contemporary, the Deutsche Zeitung, which on every Sunday morning pokes its fun about without much care whom it may hit, or may not hit.

It also has a hit at our legislative friend Heidenhain. On the principle that a little nonsense now and then, is relished by the best of men.

We give them both in English, promising that a translation must necessarily lose some of the piquancy of the original:

Muller: Schultz, do you know the latest about the European war?

Schultz: About the horses of the Emperor Napoleon.

Muller: Oh, no; why, you didn't know yet that the German Veterans have offered their services to Napoleon?

Schultz: Why not to the German fatherland?

Muller: Because that knew them once before; otherwise they wouldn't be here.

Schultz: But what did Napoleon say?

Oliver, his minister, wrote a note to that effect to the little Count: Messieurs, I can not bring it to my heart to rob the Union of such important men as you, Messieurs, and I have to me and the Emperor and the Prince Imperial as honorary members, why draft the necessary resolutions, and we are ready.

Schultz: That is in accordance with the Brethren of the Order of the Holy Spirit, which has been a branch office at No. 324 Canal street, opposite Magazine Market, where certificates for the Order are supplied every day from seven A. M. to five P. M.

The main office will remain at No. 22 St. Andrew street, near the Cathedral St. Louis, where all records will still be kept. L. FENCO, Jr. Secretary.

LOUISVILLE CONNECTIONS. The Louisville, Memphis and New Orleans Journal:

We learn from a reliable source that more than the requisite amount to organize the company to build the Louisville, Memphis and New Orleans Railroad has already been subscribed for in the States of Virginia, Meade, Beckridge and Ohio, and when the counties through which the road runs between Green river and the State line are heard from, the amount will be increased.

Mr. Roy offered the following resolution: Resolved, That the committee on the proposed enterprise have refrained from asking any voluntary subscriptions from the people of this city, knowing how they are burthened with such calls, and also anxious to show that the county is able and willing at least to provide all the funds necessary to organize the company, which, we suppose, will be done, when the various counties now on the route will be called upon to vote their consent to provide funds toward constructing the road; and when the country has shown they are willing to do so, the route will be opened up to their full share of the work.

It is to be noted that this most important railroad enterprise, looking at the map it will be seen Louisville is like a hub, with spokes pointing in every direction except to the South, and it is not surprising that directly to the South, they have a very crooked one reaching to the same point which this road proposes to take the place of, and make shorter by about sixty miles to Memphis, and which will be a great benefit to the country, as it will open up a beautiful and fertile country now with no outlet to market. Beside these advantages, it would seem this is a most desirable route, as the South is absolutely necessary, in addition to the only one we now have, to promptly move the immense accumulation of freight centering here from the North, and seeking to cross the Ohio river, and the large extra cost of transferring by ferries. It will be remembered how impossible it was promptly to forward goods South before the bridge was completed, and how the immense traffic, which they carry for the same time, consider- ing, it will be readily seen and acknowledged how absolutely necessary it is that some additional outlet be speedily provided.

We can not say for the same time, considering that when the people are called on to vote the necessary funds to build it, the cost of the road will be under the average of a dozen other roads, and the mouth of Salt river, a grade is obtained of only fifty feet to the mile, and no tunnel required.

The New Orleans Freeman. The grand race between the New Orleans Freeman and the Hoboken department is off, owing to some misunderstanding, as to which the latter department has concluded that it might cause a serious trouble should the race be made a public affair. It appears that the gentlemen from New Orleans differed much upon the statement made as to their running qualifications, and the staking of money. While several have asserted that the gentlemen from Hoboken have a right to take part in the management of the contest, the several companies in Hoboken have refused, with the exception of one, to give our New Orleans friends a hearty private welcome.

QUARREL BETWEEN STEAMBOAT CAPTAINS.—The following dispatch was sent to the St. Louis Democrat:

CAIRO, July 15.—The steamers Armada, Milbrey and A. Baker have for several weeks been running in opposition in a daily line between Cairo and Paducah. As all the boats leave at the same time, they are able to meet and sprang up between them, and yesterday, at Paducah, Captain John W. Trover, of the Baker, became involved in a quarrel with Captain Hugh Worthington, of the Milbrey, during which Worthington, who was armed with a revolver, struck Trover with a brickbat on the head, breaking his skull.

Captain Worthington was removed to his room, at Metropolis, Illinois, where he remained insensible until this evening, when he died.

Captain Trover was arrested at Paducah, and given bonds in $500 to answer charges. He will probably be cleared, as the prosecution is considered dead in Kentucky.

A case of feminine daring is related of a Virginia belle, who rode to the edge of a precipice, and defied any man of the party with whom she was riding to follow her. Not a man accepted the challenge, but a tantalizing youth stood on his head, and dared the lady to do that.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
