First—Keep on Instruments but those of the best factories. Having been dealing in Pianos for sixteen years, my long experience enables me to select such instruments as I can with perfect confidence, guarantee to give entire satisfaction.

Second—I have put one Price for each instrument, and that is the regular retail price, plus the cost of freight and cartage, and a small charge for labor and oil. Many dealers make it a point to sell for $25 to $100 more than they are worth, and then "booster" their instruments, and sell for $100 to $200 more than they are worth, and then "booster" their instruments, and sell for $100 to $200 more

[Special Correspondence of the Republican.]

SHREVEPORT, April 8, 1871.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

Our usually quiet, very orderly and law abiding city was thrown into great excitement to-day, about dinner time, by the discharge of two shots from a double-barreled shotgun in the hands of a wild young man, eighteen years of age, named Martin

Talley, Jr., on Market street, about a square from the Brooks House. Coming from an alley, he approached very near without speaking a word to his victim, Mr. Elias O'Neil, of Bossier parish, and fired one barrel into his face, killing him instantly; but after Mr. O'Neil fell, put the gun to his head and discharged the other barrel, charged with buckshot, completely tearing his head to pieces. By the first shot he, it is feared, also mortally wounded Dr. L. S.

Fisher, who was conferring with Mr. O'Neil, blowing out one eye and horribly disfiguring him. Dr. Fisher has been removed here, and is not as well known as Mr. O'Neil, who was about forty-five years of age, and long a resident of the neighboring parish.

Mr. O'Neil, last August, near the same place where he was murdered, killed the father of his murderer in a gambling dipping, and this retribution has come to him.

Young Talley attempted to escape, but was captured at once and conveyed to prison.

It is a sad event, viewed from any point, either as it affects the families of the parties or the community; especially is it sad in regard to Dr. Fisher, who was innocent in every respect, and it is to be most sincerely hoped he may recover. When the investigations take place, if any new developments are made known, we shall inform your readers.

It is considered by all here with whom we have conversed as a cold-blooded murder.

We were not far from the parties, and heard the discharge of the gun distinctly, and one followed the other very quickly.

But we turn from the sad scene produced by these shots, and will speak of other matters.

Several parties, thought to be posted, have, so far, been disappointed in their predictions relative to the appointments of major and administrators for Shreveport by the Governor under our new charter.

We could, were it proper, give a number of rumored appointees, but we prefer to wait the pleasure of the Governor, feeling satisfied he will appoint good men.

At last dates, by arrivals yesterday at Bargetown from upper Red river, we learn that stream is falling as low down as White Oak Shoals, and stationary at points below and in the lakes. The steamer Flavilla, Captain Scovell, arrived to-day from Last Chance, a few miles this side of Bargetown, with 831 bales of cotton, brought from upper Red river by the steamers Hamilton and Lightest. The Lightest came from Garret's Bluff, 600 miles above the raft. She reports plenty of cotton, at good rates of freight, if the water does not fall? Besides these two boats, we have two others, the George and Frank Morgan, running above the raft. The owners of the Flavilla, Messrs. Sale & Murphy, of this city, in order to make connections with these boats, have cut, just above Koun's canal, a passage through the swamps and lake to a point above the raft, and are making a very handsome thing by their enterprise, as they get three dollars per bale for bringing cot-

METRIE SPRING MEETING.

Fourth Day's Race.

The attendance at the Metairie races yesterday was fully equal in numbers to that of the day before, except that there were not so many ladies present. It is remarked, however, by old stagers that the average attendance this spring has been better than it has been for many years.

The weather yesterday was all that could be desired—warm, without being uncomfortable, the gentle breeze just reaching to the point of the exhilarating, and the clouds being exactly sufficient to mitigate the sunshine.

Precisely at three o'clock the bell rang and everything was ready. This race was for the club purse of $800, two and a half miles; to be won by three entries, ch. c.

Foster, bl. f. Mollie James, and ch. g. Don-van. There was little incident to record of
