THE MYSTERY SOLVED

The Lady who Committed Suicide at the Stevens House.

Miss Julia Fitzgerald, of No. 333 West Third Street, in a letter to the editor, describes the remains of K. E. Harrington, who died on May 2 at the Stevens House from inhaling chloroform, and also her effects. The evidence in this case is so convincing that it is believed that the young lady recognized an acquaintance formerly living at No. 50 East Twenty-second Street, whose maiden name was Eliza V. Seiden, but who was married to Andrew Harrington, a young man who died in 1871.

On Monday, May 1, Mrs. Harrington left No. 50 East Twenty-second Street, saying she was going to Philadelphia, thence to New Orleans, in search of her husband, who had abandoned her two years before. Miss Fitzgerald promised to forward the money and effects of Mrs. Harrington on receiving intelligence of her arrival. No news came from Philadelphia for several days, when Mr. Gross, teacher in grammar school No. 28, sent Miss Fitzgerald a note, saying, "Kate has gone on a long journey, and you will never see her again, as she has read Mrs. Harrington's name in the Standard in connection with Mr. Gross, and so become intimate with him. This note led Miss Fitzgerald to call at the coroner's office, for she had not read the Standard paper. She at once identified the watch, chain and satchel when shown as the property of her friend.

WIVES EXCHANGED

The Elopement of Mr. Bartram and Mrs. Granger, and the Marriage of Mr. Granger and Mrs. Bartram.

Among the marriage announcements yesterday was that of Mr. Granger, who had eloped with Mrs. Harriet A. Bartram, both of Green Island. Mr. Granger and Mrs. Bartram are the parties whose respective wife and husband eloped together last winter, and went in the direction of Chicago, St. Louis, San Francisco, etc. Bartram had been a railroad man, and was well supplied with money. The intimacy had been long suspected, and when Mrs. Bartram reproached her husband for his improper conduct, he promised her to amend. Mrs. Granger, who was told her that they were intended for an extended pleasure tour for herself. He accompanied her as far as New Haven, where he disappeared, but afterward wrote a few well letter from New York, inclosing twenty dollars.

THE NEW ORLEANS REPUBLICAN

Has the largest circulation of any Republican paper in the South. It is devoted to News, Literature, Commerce, Agriculture, the Mechanic Arts, and the Dissemination of Republican principles, and gives particular attention to all matters affecting the interests of the South and Southwest. It is the earnest advocate of the poor man's rights, as well as a guide to the young politician. Its character as an earnest Republican Journal, should commend it to the support of every Union man and industrious citizen in the country; and not only should they subscribe for it themselves, but urge others to do so, thereby assisting us in its circulation, and thus contribute to secure the proper results of governmental and material reconstruction.

It is the medium by which the State and National Governments make known their laws to the people of Louisiana. It has been selected by law for the publication of all judicial and other Government advertisements, State, Federal and municipal, and none are valid or of any legal force unless published in this paper. We publish, also, officially, the proceedings of both Houses of the General Assembly, and of the Common Council, Sheriff's sales and monuments, all advertisements relating to successions of deceased persons; all cases in admiralty arising in the United States District Court; Bankruptcy notices and sales; all ordinances of the Common Council, and all advertisements of the Government calling for proposals to furnish supplies or perform work.

made for the erection of suitable buildings for the purpose, and for the exclusive control of the exhibition, heretofore provided for by the provisions of the act approved March 3, 1871. Approved, March 3, 1871.

(GENERAL NATURE—No. 38.) AN ACT authorizing terms of the United States district courts to be held at Helena, Arkansas, and for other purposes. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in addition to the terms of the district court of the United States for the western district of Arkansas, required by existing laws to be held at Van Buren, in the State of Arkansas, there shall be held by the judge of said court at the city of Helena, in said State, on the second Mondays of March and September.

Sec. 2. That such number of jurors shall be summoned by the clerk of said court of each term of such court to be held at Helena as may have been ordered at a previous term or by the district judge in vacation. And a grand jury may be summoned to attend any trial by the judge thereof in vacation. In case of a deficiency of jurors, talesmen may be summoned by order of the court.

Sec. 3. That the district judge may adjourn the trial of any case provided for in this act, from time to time, suit the convenience of litigants and to meet the necessities of the business of such terms; and the intervention of a term of such court at any other place shall not preclude the power to adjourn over to a future day.

Sec. 4. That a clerk of said court shall be appointed in like manner as clerks of the district court aforesaid, in the State of Arkansas, and who shall keep his office in said city, and who shall be subject to all the duties enjoined by law on clerks of the district court aforesaid. And the clerk of said court shall be held at Helena in pursuance of this act until an instrument in writing, duly executed by the proper authorities of the county of Phillips, agreeing to furnish a suitable building, and to hold court, for the term of ten years, without any charge to the government of the United States, shall first be filed in the office of the clerk of said court at Little Rock.

Sec. 5. That the counties of Phillips, Crittenden, Mississippi, Craighead, Greene, Randolph, Lawrence, Sharp, Poinsett, Cross, Saint Francis, Monroe, Woodruff, Jackson, Independence, Izard, Marion, DeWitt, and Boone, in said State, shall hereafter be deemed to be a part of the western district of Arkansas, and there shall be appointed by the President of the United States, in and for each of said counties, a district judge for the western district aforesaid, who shall, from and after the time of his appointment, hold the terms of court at the times and places required by law, and in and for each of said counties, in said State, and in the same manner as the judge of the eastern district of said State. And the terms of court, now to be held at Van Buren, shall hereafter be held at Helena, in said State, and the present district judge of the said State shall be and remain the district judge of the United States for the eastern district thereof, as if originally appointed therein.

Approved March 3, 1871.

(GENERAL NATURE—No. 39.) AN ACT to create a new land district in the Territory of Washington. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the public lands in the Territory of Washington lying east and north of the following boundaries shall constitute a new land district, to be called the Walla-Walla district, and the jurisdiction of the district court of said State, and all laws inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.
