

New Orleans Republican. OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE UNITED STATES. NEW ORLEANS, JUNE 20, 1871.

THE NEW ORLEANS REPUBLICAN. LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY REPUBLICAN PAPER IN THE SOUTH.

THE DAILY REPUBLICAN. May be had of the following dealers: George Ellis, opposite the Postoffice.

Mr. Adolph Bader telegraphed from New Orleans Saturday to Bismarck, at Berlin: "The Germans of New Orleans congratulate you on this national holiday."

The Sheriff sells, at auction, this day, at five o'clock, P. M., at his warehouse No. 74 St. Ann street, Second District, a lot of furniture and moveable effects.

An English politician declares that the expenses of all kinds for State and national elections in the United States cost the people more than it does the British for the Queen and all the royal family.

The papers filed with the Judge Advocate General at Washington, in reference to the sentences of soldiers by general courts martial, show that crime in the army has not decreased within the past four years.

The Southern Express manages to get through from New York very rapidly, and surprised us yesterday with the New York Tribune of Friday morning last, in advance of the mail, as usual.

The Norfolk Virginian says of Mr. Greeley: "We have no doubt of his modest anxiety to serve the country, but the grapes which grow on the White House wall are a little bit too high for Horace."

Mr. David Bidwell, of the Academy of Music, left New Orleans Saturday, for Memphis, on the steamer Natchez. From there he will go to New York and the Northern watering places, returning here in ample season for the September opening.

Colonel C. P. Atmore, general passenger agent of the Louisville and Indianapolis railroad, which connects with the Bee line or celebrated Pan Handle route, came over the Mobile railroad Sunday evening. He is highly esteemed by railroad travelers.

Rev. J. C. Hartzell, pastor of Ames church, left for the North Saturday evening on the George Cromwell. He has obtained a summer's leave of absence for the purpose of taking his wife, who is in poor health, to the pure and bracing air of the Catskill mountains.

Mrs. Hunt, of Bourbon, Indiana, who was relieved of her duties as a Sabbath school teacher the other day, at once interviewed the superintendent, John Bolt, and on his refusal to tell why, beat him with a stick, and not until he booted did she cease to hunt him.

Pope Pius IX., says the Philadelphia Press, has had a most eventful reign. From a liberal he became an ultramontane; he has lived to have the dogma of infallibility affirmed by the grandest council ever called together, and to have his temporal authority forever overthrown.

The Polar is not to be alone in her trip to the pole. Sweden sent out an exploring party last April, whose two vessels are already summering along the icebergs, and provided Captain Hall gets there before they are smashed, the two parties may be of assistance to each other.

The Couthatta Times is a new paper published at Couthatta, Red River parish. The first number is received and it makes a pretty appearance, as could not be otherwise since Mr. W. H. Scanlan is the editor, his long experience enabling him to bring out a first class weekly paper.

The whole number of deaths in this city during the past week was one hundred, against one hundred and twelve the week previous. Twelve died of consumption, one of pneumonia, and nine of various fevers. New Orleans is, according to this mortality report, one of the healthiest cities in the United States.

George B. Williams, chief of the financial division of the Internal Revenue Bureau, is engaged in taking account of the internal revenue stamps and other stock on hand, and otherwise settling up the business of his division, preparatory to setting out with a clean sheet at the beginning of the next fiscal year.

The Revolution prints a statement to the effect that nine-tenths of the young men that are given to prostitution go from the presence of their sweethearts or lady friends, where their passions have been excited by silly smiles and loving nonsense, aided many times by speed food and wine, to the embrace of the courtesan.

In the New Hampshire House of Representatives, on the fifteenth instant, Mr. Bingham (Democrat) offered a resolution instructing the New Hampshire Senators and Representatives in Congress to introduce and support a resolution for the purchase of Independence Hall and square in Philadelphia, the same to be dedicated to constitutional liberty on the fourth of July, 1876. Ordered printed.

SECTIONALISM. Men of catholic and patriotic views, from the foundation of the republic up to the present time, have never ceased to denounce and deplore sectionalism as the great bane of national liberty in America.

The little State of South Carolina lead off in the great work of nullification, secession and rebellion. She had men in politics of undoubted talent; and her Hayne and Calhoun were men of genius and learning; but there was none of that lofty patriotism among the men of the Palmetto State that would prevent the blow it aimed at the integrity of the republic.

Before the extirpation of slavery there was some cause for sectionalism in the South, however unjust it might have been. The agitation commenced in England for the abolition of African slavery, had extended to the free States of the American Union.

This protection was secured through the aid of a sectionalism that had made the Southern States a unit for that purpose. But the time had come when freedom wanted protection, for slavery had become aggressive.

The spirit of sectionalism is to be distrusted and discontinued now more than ever. The people have felt the terrible effects of a war brought on by sectionalism. They know that it is much better to live in peace and amity under one supreme government than to be divided and under the control of numberless petty leaders.

Speaking of the political situation, the Louisville Courier-Journal says: "A notion is gaining ground over the South that, in view of the peculiar state of political feeling at the North and the divided condition of Democratic sentiment all over the country, it will be best for the Southern States to hold entirely aloof from the next national Democratic convention."

The spirit of sectionalism is to be distrusted and discontinued now more than ever. The people have felt the terrible effects of a war brought on by sectionalism. They know that it is much better to live in peace and amity under one supreme government than to be divided and under the control of numberless petty leaders.

rebuked sectionalism, and recollected the States that were in rebellion with the right of representation in the federal Congress. It proposes, with the aid of amnesty, to defeat this party and re-instate the party in power that brought upon the country all of the disasters of the past ten years.

AN INCOGNITOUS REMINISCENCE. The discussion of public men as such, censuring or applauding their conduct, according as it is calculated to influence the public welfare, is an undisputed prerogative—nay, a duty of public journalism.

The Louisville Courier-Journal is distinguished because the New York Tribune employs a correspondent to interview the hot-heads of the South in order to find out their real sentiments. This is disgusting, that the Tribune refuses to accept the word of the Courier-Journal when it says that all the Southern people are in favor of peace.

Mace is spoiling for a fight in New York, and Toombs is just hurrying for a mass in Georgia. Why can not these two belligerents be brought within striking distance? Mace fought an hour and twenty minutes in Canada without getting a lick from the enemy, and Toombs worried out five years in the rebellion without killing the six Yankees that he entered into an implied covenant to destroy.

Major Hall, the ornamental and oratorical Democrat of New York, thinks, although he is not sure of it, that "posterity and our successors will regard his exertions with favor." Suppose posterity agrees with the Mayor and his successors do not, what will be the result?

It is plain to be seen that when the Times wrestles with the REPUBLICAN the mind and muscle are all on one side. Victory declares in our favor so easily that we are almost ashamed to claim the prize; it is something like beating a woman, or knocking a cripple out of time.

The New York Citizen, which is a violent Democratic organ of the Boss Tweed stripe, invokes the untimely death of Jeff Davis before he kills the Democracy. It is even sanguinary enough to intimate that Greeley ought to be cut off in his usefulness, even while the presidency is waiting for him, because he signed the bail bond of the great non-acceptor.
