Local Intelligence.

A LITTLE RUMOR—A little chunk of curly headed humanity was deposited in the first precinct calaboose Tuesday night by his guardians, who declared their inability to make him walk in the straight and narrow path. His name is Harry Hays, his age about ten years, his size not larger than a big thumb, yet he contains more of the gentle wickedness than the worst lived of our Dryades tribe. Being an orphan, in charge of hard-working people, he feels disposed to run and ruin his chances in life by chewing tobacco, cursing and keeping late hours, greatly to the chagrin of his pious guardians. At their urgent request Recorder Houghton will label him for a close institution, where bad boys will soon teach him that the way of the transgressor is hard.

STOP AND READ.—The John Kyle made an excursion trip to St. Louis and St. Paul on Saturday, July 22, at 5 P. M., and will take you there and back cheaper than you can stay at home.

FROM HIS SHOULDER.—Captain McCann, third precinct, carried two strong arms of flesh not altogether unconnected with a healthy body, and he can shoot out his left or right in scientific style when needed. Having been called on by Mr. and Mrs. Wenger, Bourbon street, to squelch Tom Killilea, who had insulted them in their own domicile, the captain proceeded to perform his duty, not suspecting interruption from any source. James Foley, a friend of Killilea, proposed to assist the culprit out of his difficulty, but the officer put in a denial and his dexter at the same moment. Foley went to grass, suddenly followed by the insulted, after which the pair took a leisure look at the calaboose, only to have a short conversation with Recorder Steas, who gave them their deservings.

TEMPERANCE.—The regular quarterly meeting of the Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance in the State of Louisiana will take place this evening, at the hall above the Bible House, No. 163 Camp street. See advertisement.

The order of the Sons of Temperance, which has revived to a great extent since the war, and is progressing favorably in various parts of the State, is undoubtedly exerting a favorable influence in this community. We can point out more than one young man of ability and promise, who was fast falling under the fascination of the intoxicating cup, who has been rescued and restored to usefulness by the Sons of Temperance.

DOGS.—We learn that the dog ordinance, which provides that all dogs found running at large, without having attached to their collars the tags that evidences the payment of their tax, should be taken up and dealt with, has not yet been put in force in the Fifth District. As this ordinance went into operation on the tenth of July instant, it should be enforced in every part of the city alike.

A FIREBRAND.—A mosquito bar in the dwelling No. 72 Liberty street was burned Tuesday night, and it is thought that Maria Fox, supposed to be erratic, if not insane, set the fire with evil intent. Fortunately, smoke was discovered issuing from a room in the upper story, when an interested person broke open a door and prevented a conflagration. The woman was arrested, and will probably be sent to an insane asylum.

WOUNDED ACCIDENTALLY.—During yesterday morning Mr. Doran was handling a pistol in the store No. 15 St. Charles street, when one of the loads was accidentally discharged, the bullet wounding Alfred Sims, a lad about fifteen years old. The wound is in his neck, but not serious, though a sufficiently close shave to give him a whole lesson, hereafter, to always remain in the rear of fire arms.

AN HONEST METROPOLITAN.—Officer H. P. Brennan, of the sanitary force, found yesterday a pocket-book, on Felicite street, containing a large sum of money, some jewelry and valuable papers, and although Metropolitan are far from par, he returned it to the owner, who resides at the corner of Tchoupitoulas and Felicite streets.

IS IT THE WEATHER?—Scarcely a day passes that we do not hear of some forlorn person attempting to commit suicide. Old I-told-you-so begins to think the cause lies in the wretched weather. As he can not be successfully dissuaded, he feels safe in his assumption.

INVALIDS.—You of the consumptive kind, take the John Kyle on Saturday, July 22, at 5 P. M., for St. Paul, and inhale some of the pure air in the Minnesota country, and you will return home perfectly cured.

ADZ.—Lewis Butler, yesterday morning, while working on the wharf head of St. Andrew street, accidentally cut his foot with that blood-chilling instrument, a carpenter's adz.

THE OVERFLOW.—Many of the sufferers by the late deluge are still forwarding memorials to the authorities for reimbursement of the losses occasioned by the flood. The following note was received yesterday by Administrator Lewis, of the Department of Police:

tion. Now I have lost all, and have nothing to live of. I am sick, and not able to help myself, and the floor of my house is partly gone—my door is gone also—and I am too poor to replace it, and I hope you will take pity on a poor widow lady, as I am old, and not able to do much to help myself and replace my loss. MRS. MARY BRAXTON. The following rather equivocal certificate was appended to the document: I certify that the old lady is a reliable one, and her loss is correct. ERNEST LONGPRE. The certifier is the same gentleman who made a claim on the authorities for losses by the overflow amounting to $3000, among other items in which account was a shunk mattress rated at seventy-five dollars.

SPORTSMEN.—Of the Isaac Walton class, by taking the John Kyle on Saturday, July 22, at 5 P. M., will find the finest fishing grounds in the world in the lakes of Minnesota and Wisconsin.

SOME SHIRMS.—Everybody knows where the "Jewel of the South," on Gravier street, is presided over by George Itman and his associate in business. It was the scene of an exploit, yesterday, worthy of record. A frequenter of that house bet that he could eat a two-quart pitcher of shrimps, heaped up, and wash them down with a bottle of champagne. He did it, and at a late hour last night his body had not been interviewed by the Coroner. He still lives.

THE RAZOR.—The result of a worthy dickering between Charles Jackson and Dick Richards, on board the steamboat Hutchinson, resulted in Jackson badly cutting his opponent in the breast with a razor. The wounded man was sent to the Charity Hospital. Jackson was arrested.

RECORDED BILLINGS COURT.—The case against Kate Logan, Sarah Richter and Sarah Schneider was dismissed and the accused were discharged.

James Edwards and John C. Miller furnished bail for their appearance on the twenty-fifth instant. They are charged with assault and battery.

John Duncan and A. Owens will each have a hearing on charges of assault and battery pending against them.

Sebastian Rapp, charged with refusing to exhibit his license as a peddler, was reprimanded and discharged, and Jacob Rehm, charged with obstructing and resisting an officer in the discharge of his duty, was also discharged.

James Gilthrop and Ellen Hucksins, for violating city ordinances, were fined five dollars each, and Kosena McKenna, for a like offense, deposited a like amount.

William Jackson, charged with assault and battery, was discharged, and Emma Moore, for disturbing the peace, paid a fine of five dollars.

Ann Killgaff, for being drunk, paid a fine of $1 25, and William Spender, for being drunk, paid a fine of $1 50.

New Orleans is to-day one of the least expensive cities in the Union to live in. Twenty years ago the reverse was true.

The Mississippi river falling into line, is having the narrow gauge fever. Here it is ten feet six inches below high water mark.

The body of the second grandson of Mr. Trepagnier was yesterday found on this side of the river. The Coroner's verdict was accidental drowning.

Sergeant Werner, M. D., of the seventh precinct, is rather obscure in reporting to police headquarters that Martha Decker did of "bad conduct and exposure."

Recorders Leclerc and Billings, Third and Fourth districts, returned fines collected as follows, for last week, the first $42, and the latter $72, making a total of $112 25 for the week.

Two rabid dogs mutilated a young daughter of Mr. Balzer, living in Carrollton, last evening. The child's condition is critical. Poisoned sausages are cheap; why not apply the remedy!

Corner Creagh held an inquest on the body of James F. Lynen, who died from voluntarily swallowing a strong dose of laudanum, at No. 967 Tchoupitoulas street. Deceased was an Irishman, and lately a peddler.

The person who conceived the idea for an establishment where everything new in the useful arts could be exhibited to the best advantage, without subjecting the inventor or proprietor to extraordinary expense, certainly hit upon something which will prove of inestimable benefit, not only to the class who invent but to those who consume.

We can well bear witness that the ways of the inventor or introducer of anything new, are hard. Not generally possessed of large means, in nearly every case the introduction to the public of their article costs them, not only all their available cash, but the best half of their proprietorship of the article itself. A genius, who has originated something which is calculated to benefit the whole human family, often wears out years in the vain effort to get people even to look at it, much less invest a dollar in its development, and, at last, from sheer necessity, is forced to largely interest some party who, on the contrary, elicited the applause of all who took part in it.

THE PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

(Brief Communications Published—Long Ones Invariably Rejected—The Editor not Responsible for the Sentiments Expressed in the Communications.) "Another Correction." The camp meeting notice with my name attached I never saw until it was printed. The second named person, "Pollard," admits that he published it without my knowledge or consent. And I wish it known to all my many friends that I have nothing to do with any camp meeting not got up with the consent of the New Orleans Preachers' Meeting and the presiding elder of the district, Dr. Matlack. REV. A. ROSS.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN: As a subscriber and constant reader of your valuable paper from the first number, I ask you to correct the statement in yesterday's issue announcing the reorganization of the Fourth District Central German Republican Club and my impachment as its president, which never took place. The secretary having called a special meeting, without my consent and knowledge, to take place last Monday, I did not deem it proper to attend; and to impeach any man without giving him a chance to defend himself was never heard of before. All the other officers of the club were there, and a committee was appointed to investigate the purported charges against me, after which the club adjourned regularly to some other day. F. SPRANLEY.

Application for Wharf Privileges. The New Orleans, Florida and Havana Steamship Company, represented by L. N. Marks as president and J. R. Roberts as treasurer, have petitioned the City Council for a grant of wharf and levee for the use of their line. They state that theirs is the only line of steamers organized under the laws of the State, and that the operations of said line will have the effect to build up postal and commercial facilities between New Orleans and the West Indies; that capital will be greatly increased in this direction by the success of the New Orleans, Florida and Havana line; that the right of trade of this port has been diverted to Northern ports for want of sufficient tonnage, and if it can, by the success of such enterprises as this steamship line, be brought to New Orleans, the revenues of the city will and must be immensely increased. They further state that the trade of the West India islands, from their close proximity to this port, will with proper commercial facilities, naturally belong here, and that an energetic and successful line of steamships will not only give Southern cities the best advantage, but place Western cities upon equal advantage with those in the North and East.
