In pursuance to a call issued by Mr. Thomas Isabelle, president of the late Parish Executive Committee of the parish of Orleans, the delegates elect from the several wards assembled at the hall of the House of Representatives, on Thursday evening, the fourth instant, at half-past seven o'clock. The meeting was organized by calling Mr. Thomas Isabelle, delegate elect from the First Ward, to the chair.

Mr. J. D. O'Connell was elected secretary pro tem. On motion of Mr. W. H. Green, the following gentlemen were appointed a committee on credentials: William H. Green, H. C. Dibble, William W. Freeman, John C. Weaver and Edgar Davis.

After a recess, the committee reported the following named delegates duly elected: First Ward—Thomas Isabelle, Joseph P. Murphy and A. Fillet. Second Ward—H. C. Dibble, P. E. Bechtel, Thomas Murray and O. A. Tyler.

Fifth Ward—E. Davis, William Vigers and J. C. Keuler. Sixth Ward—Alphonse Fleury and J. A. Brett. Seventh Ward—J. B. Jourdain, E. Duplessis and William H. Green.

The Tenth and Eleventh Wards, constituting one representative district, and entitled, according to the basis of representation, to three delegates, and one at large from each ward, the committee recommended that the Tenth Ward, having the largest number of Republican voters, be declared entitled to three delegates, and that two be received from the Eleventh.

The case of Mr. Scheffer, elected from the last named ward, was laid over for further consideration. On motion of E. P. Duclongue, the report of the committee on credentials was received and adopted.

On motion of W. H. Green the roll was called, when twenty-nine members answered to their names. On motion, the committee went into a permanent organization, and elected the following named gentlemen: President, H. C. Dibble; first vice president, William H. Green; second vice president, Charles A. Meyers; recording secretary, J. D. O'Connell; corresponding secretary, Joseph P. Murphy; treasurer, Thomas Isabelle, sergeant-at-arms, J. Stokes.

In accordance with the foregoing resolution, Mr. Frederick A. Johnson was admitted as a proxy from the Second Ward, in the absence of Hon. Thomas Murray. A resolution was adopted authorizing the president to appoint delegates to represent such wards as have not yet elected delegates, to act until said wards shall be represented by delegates duly elected.

In accordance with the foregoing resolution, the president appointed the following gentlemen: Third Ward—P. Creagh, Thomas Lynne, A. E. Barber, William Barrett and William Mason. Fourth Ward—Hon. P. B. E. Finckback and George E. Paris. Twelfth Ward—T. D. Worrauld and J. L. Meathies.

EXPLANATIONS BY TAMMANY.

To give both sides a show, we copy the following from the St. Louis Republican: New York, August 1.—We are authorized to state that before the close of the week an official exhibit of the finances of that city will be given to the public by Controller Connolly and Mayor Hall. They will, in a large measure, contravene the tabular statements lately printed here, and will show that in so far as the credit of this city is concerned, it stands unimpaired, and will give evidence of its entire stability.

The whole secret of the recent so-called exposure in the New York Times had its origin with a well known Democrat, who lately held the lucrative and important position of sheriff of this city, James O'Brien. Last fall, when the Young Democracy split from the Tammany ranks, it was agreed that Sheriff O'Brien should receive the mayoralty nomination of the former, but through the manipulations of Congressman Fox, at the nominating convention, Judge Ledwith was successful over O'Brien. The Tammany leaders, knowing the chagrin of O'Brien, endeavored to effect his withdrawal from the Young Democracy, and it was tacitly agreed upon that time was to be given to use them during the campaign, would be the means of securing to him the usual sheriff's claim of $200,000, by having it placed in the tax levy, when passed by the Legislature.

This was understood and acted upon in good faith by O'Brien. However, it was subsequently decided by a majority of the Tammany magnates that the claim should not be allowed and it was expunged from the levy. Meantime, prior to the election, two clerks, named Copeland and O'Rourke, who had been appointed in the controller's office at the request of O'Brien, had copied a large number of audited accounts from the books of the controller in the interest of O'Brien.

The object in procuring these accounts at that time was to use them to show further the cause of the Young Democracy, and two newspapers in this city were in possession of them for such use, whenever the sheriff gave permission to publish them. His failure to receive the nomination for mayor, coupled with the understanding that his claim would be allowed by Tammany, led to his withholding its publication, and his action readily vindicated the Tammany candidate, who never intended that these accounts should fall into the hands of a Republican newspaper, and they probably never would, had not the board of auditors, who are now engaged in auditing all of the departments in the city, materially reduced the clerical force in these departments, and the numerous court officers, that great consternation and indignation has been aroused among the Democracy.

All of the appointments of O'Brien, as well as others, have been removed. Exposed names have been removed to no avail, as the board were determined to reduce ex-pense. These removals have all taken place since the middle of May. But, although the Tammany party were aware that these accounts were in the possession of O'Brien, yet they decided to go on with the removals. The ex-sheriff has hesitated to publish them, hoping that the breach of the simple and unimportant would be healed, but, becoming convinced that this will be impossible, he finally gave permission to his friends to make them public.

The various late legal actions now engaged in preparing their official exhibits, and allege that they will freely and fully satisfy the public that there has been no culpability on the part of the controller, and that the discredited who have been removed of late are nightly holding meetings, with a view of forming an organization against Tammany for the fall campaign. A number of members of the late Legislature, many of whom are reported to have been interested in jobs which were put through that body, are in the city, including George Winans of Dunke. A report that revelations regarding the public accounts of the city were about being made has brought them here.

To the above we may add the subjoined from the New York Globe: The Season publishes a list showing "the true accounts of Andrew J. Garvey with the county and city of New York on the dates given by Mr. Jones of the Times," making the total paid Garvey $384,332.94, where the Times made it $2,700,464.06. It will be noticed the Season says this is the true list on the dates given.

The dates given by Mr. Jones of the Times, admitting the Season's statement to be absolutely correct, the Times is proven to be incorrect as to dates. Now, the public want to know whether the Season is inaccurate as to amounts. Did Garvey receive any money on any other than the dates given? If so, the defense of the Season is a mere quibble, which will only increase, in the minds of the people, their popular passion. The Season apparently has the inside; let it show up the matter as it is; or keep quiet. We want to know the truth. If the Times is lying, it is lying sufficient for all to know. Give us the truth, and the whole truth.

QUESTIONS FOR TAMMANY. These questions are asked by the New York Sun: Hon. A. Oakley Hall and Mr. Controller Connolly, who have you to say in reply to the very serious charges and accusations preferred against you and maintained and repeated from day to day by the New York Times? The charges are most grave. They are new and of a nature particularly heinous. Can you meet them? Can you refute them? We have waited long and patiently for your response. You have you anything—in substance and in truth—why sentence should not be pronounced against you? What say you? We are reluctant to condemn; slow to believe.

What say you! We must and will be true to the people. Have you anything to say? If you have, let us hear from you to-day. We have waited long and the impatient public have waited long enough.

Outstanding Currency. The following is a statement of the United States currency outstanding to July 31, 1871: United States notes, old issue, $96,471 25; United States notes, new issue, 175,345 99; United States notes, issue of 1869, 100,654 48; One year five per cent notes, 128,037 00; Two year five per cent notes, 1,265 00; Two year five per cent coupon notes, 33,432 50; Compound interest notes, 81,288 50; Fractional currency, second issue, 3,218,117 12; Fractional currency, first issue, 2,433,368 00; Fractional currency, fourth issue, 26,626,175 20; Total, $336,137,385 14.

When Professor Felton, reading "A Midsummer Night's Dream" to the captain of a ship of which he was a passenger, came to the description of Oberon, sitting on a promontory, listening to a mermaid on a dolphin's back, the seaman was disgusted. "The dolphin's back," said he, "is as sharp as a razor, and no mermaid could possibly ride the beast unless she first saddled him."

A Long Branch letter says: The lack of men everywhere here is a prolific source of grief to the complimented half of the world. Landlords are beguiled for beaux. Each and every feminine arrival is looked upon with increasing disgust. Women sit in continuous rows upon the streets, and border parades like so many wallflowers. They were in numbers at last night's ball, and were seen to be dancing in pairs, promiscuous in couples and betrothed to each other.

The following was published this morning: Mayor's Office, New York City, August 4, 1871. To the Hon. William E. Dodge, President of the Chamber of Commerce, or in his absence, Hon. George Updike, Vice President.

In view of the gross allegations contained in the issue of the 24th inst. in relation to the accounts of the city and county of New York, and the expenditure of the city's resources, the undersigned respectfully request that the Chamber of Commerce appoint a large and influential committee of well known and upright citizens, to make a full and exhaustive examination of the public accounts, and report to the public debt, and then report the result, when completed, to the people of this city.

The report will all be published at an early day, but in the nearest desire of the undersigned, that the original accounts and vouchers shall at once be thoroughly examined. VERSAILLES.

Assumption by the State of Provincial War Damages. VERSAILLES, August 4.—In the Assembly to-day, the committee upon the subject made a report recommending that the State assume the burdens of the provinces which were invaded by the Germans.

President Thiers, to the surprise of many of the deputies, and amid much excitement, spoke in vigorous opposition to the report. He said the amount of claims which would be imposed upon the republic could not possibly be less than one million francs—a sum which the treasury was quite unable to pay. He could not give his assent to the plan of the committee, and was only willing to afford relief to the people of the invaded districts who were actually in need.

It is reported that Thiers has accepted the principle that the State should indemnify provinces for losses sustained by German invasion.
