THE GENUINE KU-KLUX.

A Disguised Band Captured.

From the Washington Chronicle.

The city of Raleigh was thrown into a wild state of excitement yesterday on the arrival of the western train, when the fact became known that Assistant United States Marshals J. G. Hester and Keith had in their hands a band of disguised Ku-Klux, captured by them the night previous in Moore county.

The marshals had in charge and marshaled through Fayetteville street about a dozen white men, five of whom were in full uniform, the remainder in civilian dress. The disguise was of the most frightful and ludicrous character, was made of black glazed caubic, face covered with the same, with holes for the mouth and eyes, the disguise of a white substance. The hat, made of like material, is cone-shaped, and about thirty-three inches in height.

These gentlemen were marched up to United States Commissioner Shafter's office, where an examination was waited.

The Carolina Era gives the following account of the capture of the band:

Deputy Marshal Keith and Deputy Keith, armed at Elvira station, Wednesday, the third, at twelve o'clock, as tobacco peddlers. They met a man by the name of John Gaster, who hailed them and asked "what the news was."

He was asked what kind of news he wished to hear, and he replied, "convention news."

He approached Keith and gave him the Ku-Klux grip, which was returned. The marshals and his deputy, the one taken into custody. Gaster was confident they were Ku-Klux, and whenever their loyalty to the Klan was questioned he vouched for them, claiming that he had been ordered to send a negro to hell before the election, and that as soon as the excitement was over he intended to send as many more.

On the Saturday preceding their arrival a meeting of the Ku-Klux was held, and passed sentence upon a colored man and a white man; the white man was to be hung until he was dead, and the colored man was to be whipped.

On the arrival of a squad of United States soldiers in the neighborhood on the night appointed for the raid, it was postponed until last night, when the Klan was to meet at the residence of the Marshal, and uniform themselves for the raid. The man who kept the uniforms was in this city trying to give bail for a former offense. During his absence the Marshal, Keith and his deputy, went to the house of Murk McKeiver. A man was sent to this house, and the disguises, ten in number, obtained. The party assembled at the wagon, and were at once arrested by the Marshal. The following are the names of the men arrested: William W. Wicker, Jesse Bryan, J. W. Gaster, William J. Bryan, R. N. Bryan and D. D. Wicker. The Marshal, Keith and his deputy, were charged with the murder of Murk McKeiver. They were committed to jail to await an examination, which is postponed two weeks for want of witnesses.

The other four were allowed to give bail in the sum of two thousand dollars each for their appearance at the September term of the United States Circuit Court.

John Gaster, in the evidence, and his developments will reveal a state of affairs which will startle the public, and implicate parties little suspected.

Marshall Keith has been credited with the most earnest and successful efforts to arrest and bring the members of this diabolical organization to justice. It seems that the Ku-Klux Klan is still in existence in the State, and that the Marshal, Keith, has been detected and arrested. It will require considerable vigilance on the part of the officers of the law to entirely crush this diabolical organization.

The Lydia Thompson Troupe.

Watson's Art Journal thus describes the members of the Lydia Thompson troupe:

Miss Camille is a blonde of fine features, and is a favorite at the Royal Albert Theatre, London. She is a tall brunette, of French extraction, very stylish in her appearance; is said to be highly cultivated as a musician, and is a favorite at the Lyceum Theatre, London.

Domestic Produce Market.

NEW YORK, August 20.—The domestic produce markets were more active in the leading staples, although prices were very much unsettled and the market was in a state of uncertainty.

At the produce exchange there has been no advance in flour from spring wheat, while winter wheat flour has simply been firm. Corn has advanced a considerable movement for export, and some large lots have been made to arrive. The market has been generally firm, although there were a few intervals of weakness. A large portion of the wheat crop is now in the hands of the millers, and the movements were not important.

Arrested for Shooting his Wife.

CHICAGO, August 18.—Some five weeks since, at Burlington, Iowa, Mrs. John Parrott was found dead in her kitchen, with a gun lying by her side, and a charge that a soldier had been discharged into her mouth. It was supposed that she had committed suicide. Soon after her death it began to be whispered about that she did not take her own life, from the fact that she was not hinted at any such intent, and further from the fact that another woman was installed mistress of the household. These facts coming to the authorities they had Parrott arrested for a few weeks' supply, and then now awaits his examination in jail.

Defendants.

A printed statement has been issued from the treasury, showing the balances due June 30, 1871, from the late collectors of internal revenue from the State of New York.

J. R. Bailey is charged as a defaulter to the amount of $13,622 25; William Mosler, $64,224 48; H. Haistead, $18,879 35. The undischarged balances for New York State amount to $75,113 99. Defaulters in Pennsylvania foot up $217,668 38, and undischarged balances for that State amount to $1,000,000 00. Through extraordinary exertions of the revenue officials, balances due from late collectors of internal revenue have been greatly reduced during the last six months.

When Hawthorne lost his office in the Salem customhouse he told his wife that he did not see their dinner was coming from her. She told him that she had saved enough for a few weeks' supply, and then employed her exquisite aesthetic taste and skill in making lamp shades of lovely forms decorated with figures from Flaxman, in her beautiful drawing room, and she worked constantly with this work until Hawthorne's first pecuniarily successful work was published.
